Bacoks, P Bar & Publisher, C. CLARK, Fuldt as R appression to all and water ------QINGINNATL TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1946. NUMBER TIT Vettintet Stall Toll

DAYOSTA

THE DAY-STAR

Treader Tr. Jacons, at his mulderers on Revealls Treader T. Jacons, at his mulderers on Revealls for an end of the Taborneck, fourth side.

bit was not with of 12 numbers in selvance, to these that able to in ... and gratic to their that are really shable to pay

1.1.1 Laiter from Bro. Cook.

Indianapolis, Jan. 25, 1845. De a Ren. Jacons - On account of the bad mad I was a weak longer in reaching this place than I intended; consequently a larger time has the peed than would otherwise have done, without my writing. The friends in Hamilton gave me a cordial welmy writing. The friends in Hamilton gave me a sordial wel-forms and a candid brazing. Found a like ratery inter with this aged brothist. Hells notions to how his neck to every yoke his feilow, sorm would forge or frame for him, in the hame of religion-the has, like others, locking for Jasue, too much of the character, to which the Jasuita apply the additions name of "heretic.".-He "thinks for him-self." This would brand any man, in any com-munity where services and brutes assume the right to "lord it over God's heritigt." Faul was a heretic in the opsiest of the Bhadmess-the re-igious teachers of his day. Bros Jacobs, we this degenerate age of the church. Surely the "the features of the Phartness, are upported of its "promumed by Jeaus would rest on us did the features of the Phartness, are upported of its "the time" and manner of God's "visitation." Way, more, they prosecute those who will not be assumed and to Onnersville.-found Dr. Eastman and hro. Perkins. They Indiated to having a monsting, so I spant two avoings.-Had a pleas-and hro. there is the solar was inger to other the solar with them and Brot. Woodcock and oth-and.

ers. In this city, the few sheep were in great need of a shepherd. The Disciples, who are instructed by our amiable Bro. Jameison, opened their bouse for latings. All our meetings were beld there, are some special ones with families at their dealings. They did thus on the principle that the principle that the principle of the Bible, and inves-ing arrying out this, were where approach but Christians ought to meet on the Bible, and inves-ingate every doctrine it contains. God bless them in carrying out this, every where a proved, but yet practically despised, protestant principle. This principle would produce and but a little per which lorally priests have put up to keep the second state of the second state of the supe-raries's poor sheep separate. Wre asveral dandies contending for the supe-rise externoss of their several time pieces, it would be both easy and rational to appeal from their vanity to God's great time pieces, the sun-ther mans for knowing God the same', but the dandy spirit of the doctors refuses to regulate there faith and worship by the Buble. O Lord leaus, the sum of rights unness, do come thyself and hen thy scattered people to obey the better impulses and hower aspiriments of their que many that allow will known and diefficat host of restries that and worship will be other, when the syngroup has done the good people to obey the better impulses and hower aspiriments of their que many string, he will known and diefficat host of restries that and the same at the set of the syngroup that a the same in the set of the others, when the syngroup has done to the same a dot her when the syngroup that a manual in the trans of the of of personal and its anneals in the trans of the God of personal and its anneals in the trans do the food of personal and its anneals in the trans the set of the personal and its anneals in the trans the was and the period of the same in the set of the set of the period of the same in the set of the same at the same in the set of the period of the same in the same in the set of the period of the same in the same i dictrime of her Lord's values is so characterized and treated by her ministers. Surely it is Landi-cean. My message has been received by believers. They reloice for the consolation that they have scrittural ground on which to wait, and watch, and expect their King so near as the easuing spring. Bro. H----, a farmer received the news with toy. When our duty to crit. Thrust in thy stelle and reap" was presented he suiting the lociton to the word, jumped right un-went through the totions, and said. "Thrust in thy sickle and reap."

reap." " Bro. S. H. Milmer sent you five subedribers.-"Your paper is highly valued and very useful. So there up and interson. "The Visicator, the En-ights school no fittle interset." I am more infer-ested in it thin i supposed I should be. It is diffi-cute to disregard it If we would, -several read-ings are adapted to deepen the impression that is is from God. My visit has been pleasant to myself, and I trust profitable to others! Lord bless the believers in indianapolis. Seldam has the message or the messenger been treated with a more fraterpal regard.

gard. Give my love to all the band. * * * Tell them my faith amounts almost to assurance, at times, that the coming year will be the green "Ju-biles," Amen. My assurance ought, I think, to be continual.

tinual. Yours, in the blessed hope, J. B. COOK.

Letter from Bro. Williamson.

Ticonderoga, N. Y., Jan. 27, 1845.

Ticonderogis, N. Y., Jan. 27, 1845. DEAR REO. Jacons :- After an absence of three months, visiting the "little flock" in Vermont, N. Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhoda Island and N. York, I. find myself comfortably situated at my earthly home in the family of Bro. D. Smith, in Ticonderoge, N. York. Nearly worn down with faffgue and other 'n-conveniencies, known only to these accessioned to traveling, a degree of ill health, if nothing more, would prompt me to rest a while before another four is undertaken.

tour is undertaken.

tore is undertaken. I know not as I ever visited the saints, those who are "Looking for that blessed hope and the glorious appearing of the Great God and our Sav-tour Jesus Christ," with such onthe astislation as this present tour. Notwithistanding the thou-sand plots hald to indere them to "come back," the (manifestid) warm invitations to return to their "spiritual birthplace"—the profiered honors—and has though not least, the mighty affort to baffle the late movement in the advent bause by the re-ported revivals of religion in the conversion of so indiffestid by their father to "deceive (if it were pos-sible) the very elect." They have yet to learn that those to whom God sent the Advent message first and who were them first to reject, and from whom it has been proclaimed in theoder tones, whom it has been proclaimed in thunder tones, "Your nouse is ther over you presented by will now be instrumental in the hand of God of caurie the branches su with the roots. So here ye and they are last and is and useles. Bod has somebody that love him and through whom he works: if they are not Advaut believers will you tell me who they are not Advaut believers soul good to visit these and are with what tena-city they cling to the most of foot - to see the brightened countenances, the mostant of the ap-proaching soul, at the proclamation of the ap-proaching kingdom - "God is not ashined to be alled their God, for he bathgreeness for them a outy." "Our Father" has an army of a valiant soldiers in the East as ever buckled on "the whole armor of God," and are even "able to stand against the wiles of the devil " "Having" their "lond give about with traith" and their "feet shod with the PREPARATION by the popping of peace." "Above all" they have taken to themeeltam "the shallof faith where with" they are "able to quench all the fiery darks of the wicked : And the belinet all the fiery darts of the wicked : And the beimet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit which is the word of God: Praying always with bil prayer and supplication in the Spirit. and satching there-unto with all perference and supplication role All. SAL TRAFT

10. 91

"Though sundered far, by faith they meet Ardung one common mercy seat."

All efforts to draw them Lack will be unpless it is labor lost. I we joins so the cheering intelling gence from the West, in the solumns of the "Cry." Yes, those too with whom us have knelt and con-back that ware engaged in the best of all causes, but I am unable to decide. I hope they are all still waiting patiently for their lovely Loid and Savieur, who will say, "Come ye blessed of my Saviour, who will say, "Come ye bleused of my Father, inherit the kingdom propagat for you from the foundation of the world?" A visit with them I know would do my soul good, but I must not andulge the thought of ever blatter such a one on the above of mortality. While I am writing this, it seems as if I were abmost in the Tabova-cle with you. I can but comfort myself with the thought, that in a "listle while" we'll most to part no more. O blessed prospect.

"My heart leaps forward at the thought, When in that happy, happy land, We'll no more take the parting hand."

What a blessed hope. The end of afflictions, paus, and disappointments—the object of our hope, the New Jerusalem, the Saviour of sinners, will now be instrumental in the hand of God of the innumerable multitude, she general energies will some the good people to obey the better impulses and haver examinants of their meeting houses that are down mouths we shall judge them. Look at their is to be brought of the first born whose names are written in beaven, the constant of all strife, the end of all ecoling, the reproach taken away, the first born and cicflient host of returns Bernale for the rought will now be instrumental in the 'Advent Herald' of the crisis,'' the numerous reasons assigned for the present is to be brought of all strife, the end of all ecoling, the reproach taken away, the first born whose names are written in beaven, the constant of all strife, the end of the first born whose names are written in beaven, the constant of all strife, the end of the first born whose names are written in beaven, the constant of all strife, the end of the constant of all ecoling, the reproach taken away, the first born beaven, the constant of all strife, the end of the constant of all ecoling and her people a log-brought and end of all ecoling and her people a log-brought and end of all ecoling and her people a log-brought and end of all ecoling and her people a log-brought and end of all ecoling and her people a log-brought and end of all ecoling and her people a log-brought and allog the expected and th the innumerable multitude, the general energity and church of the first born whose sames are written in beyon, the constion of all strife, the

9

"My longing heart, my longing heart is inere." I dare not close this epistle without expressing my highest approbation of and warmest sympa-thies with the cause you advocate. My brother, it is God's own cause. "Your labor is not in vain in the Lord." And soon it will be said to you."I was hungry and ye gave me meat; I was thirsty and ye gave me drink." "Inasmuch as ye have dond it unto one of the least of these my breth-res, ye have done it unto me," You have noth-ing to fear. "If God be for us who can be against "was." Your labor will soon end—the Kingdom is at hand. Remember me id the quembers of my at hand. Bemember me to the members of my Father's family in C.; "And may the God of peace Father's family in C.; "And may the God of peace shadify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit and soal and body be preserved blameless anto the coming of our Lord and Saviour Jeaus Christ. Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it." M. WILLIAMSON.

By permission, the following extract is given from a private letter from a brother at Gran-ville. Ohio.

"Granville, Nov. 12, 1844. OFAR BROTHERS-

I have no doubt but there has been, and still is a great many inconsistencies among the Adventists, and will be as long as time continues; but on the whole they stand on the word of God which will never fail. Man's time has failed, but God's time will not, for it will surely come. What has now taken place in the so called Church, and the world, only tends to strengthen my failt that we shall scon see the long wished for day when the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdoms of our Lord and of his Christ.

For my own part I believe the last cry was the true Midnight Cry, and I believe it has been a blessing to many, for it has been so to me and the statle band in this place. We had strong faith to believe that we should see the Saviour in the 7th month, and it had the effect to humble us in the dust and bring us to a Throne of grace that we might be prepared for that glofions event. We bad no fars for the result if he did not come, nor do we now : we belive the Lord was in it or perdo we now: we believe the Lord was in it or per-inited it for the good of his people and for his own glory: We did not quit four susiness, nor had but who meeting in the day time, had that in the af-ternoon-for we believed that it warnow daty to Decupy till he come. So you recent he we were dissponded in the time, but not discouraged, for we still have the word of God po go to, which as-laures us that he that holds out to the end shall be saved Land if we suffer with him we shall also reign with him. But what do we suffer here when we compare it with what his people has suffered for the cause of Christi It is nothing ; it is true the brethren at the cast are miled to bear-reproach and to have all manner of evil spoken against' them for the cause of Christ; but I believe they will come out like gold tried in the fare even before their accusers: If Christ be for ans we need not fear what man can do date us, therefore let us contend carnestly for the faith once delivered to the saints; that when he shall appear we may be found waiting, as those that are waiting for the return of their Lord, that we may enter into the marriage feast of the Lamb. Therefore don't be discouraged, nor suffer yourself to feel that you have he home; but above all things feel that you have so home; but above all things do not turn again to fables nor sustain those that are proclaiming them; bateonsider the honor that will be bestowed on such as are worthy to suffer persecution for his name's sake in vindicating the glorious truths of his holy word. O, Brother, if we love the blossed Saviour with all our hearts, we love the pleased battom with all our hearts, might, mind, and strongth, we shall be prepared for disappointment or any thing else that crosses our pathway home to glory. Bear in mind that we are strangers and pligrims here, but soon our home will be with Jesus-gloriods thought! And shall be like him, and heir to a glorious inheritance that shall never pass away. Is there any thing strange in it, that those who are looking for the coming of their Lord and from their dusty beds in Ireland, and are by my side, walking Jerusalem's golden payements to-gether. O, glory I cLORY 11 GLORY 11 "My longing heart, my longing heart is there." I dare not close this epistle without expressing my highest approbation of and warmest sympa-thies with the cause you advocate. My brother, it is God's own cause. "Your labor is not in vain combined wisdom of the great and learned of the world and church, that we are living in the days of the sounding of the 7th trampet and 3d wo. O glorious thought! We are living in a conse-crated time, the next hour may walt us into the presence of our glorious Saviaur; and shall we be asthemed to say to the church or to the world that we have been disappointed in not seeing Je-sus? I can not; but I can add that I expect to see him every day from their own testimony. Then let us take courage and press forward for the prize which is in Christ Jesus our Lord, and atrengthen the things that remain, and let our home be with the devoted humble followers of the Lamb that are hoking for his coming. Our meetings continue as they were when you

THE DAY-STAR.

Our meetings continue as they were when you was here—none left nor added. Eight of our number have been buyied by baptism, by Bro. Hall. We had a communion season in the evening, and had Bro. Tite with us to break bread—it was a solemn and interesting time. J. W."

Letter from Bro. Chaplin.

Ostoego, Ind, Jan. 30, 1845.

DEAR BRO. JACOBS:--- I assume my pen to com-municate some information respecting our situ-ation in this section. God has raised up a few here who are looking for the "Conne ONE," and who sympatize with you and all the partakers of the "blessed hope," in your present trials; and we have also eyhpathized with you in the preceding movements relative to time. In common with movements relative to time. In common with our dear friends and brothren scallered abroad, we had taken our lamps and gone forth to meet the

had taken our lamps and gone forth to meet the Bridegroom, at the expected termination of the prophetical periods ;---with you we passed into the tarrying time and slumbared ;---and with you we were suddenly aroused to trim our neglected lamps by the astounding cry "Briton THE BEIDE-GROOM Confern !"---and with you we have passed into the "filtle while" to "watch and pray."---lo "comfort one another," and to "be patient." From the scriptures it appears, that it is no in-considerable honor to be accounted a virgin. Our blessed Lord foresaw, and forefold, that the clos-ing period of the gaspel dispensation would be emphatically "night." (See Mark. 13: 35; and Mat. 25: 5). Hence he gave repeated admonitions to his dear people, who should be living at this pe-niod "to watch," and to let their "loins be girded about, and their, lights burning." He also fore-saw the obloquy such would incur from a lukeabout, and their, lights burning." The also bre-saw the obloquy such would incur from a luke-warm church, and a wicked would, while, with blazing lamps, they should be going furth during the course of this last, gloomy, moral night, (to the no amall annoyance of these who choose to alcep, and to put far away the day of Christ's re-iurn.) watching for the dawn of that "last lovely morning" which is to usher in the "year of the redeemed," the "millennial "Sabbath." and the hright fing of the "Sun of right-superses." Hence bright rising of the "millennial Sabbath." and the bright rising of the "Sun of rightcourness." Hence also, he enforced patience, and comforting each other, while the hours of this last gloomy night should be passing sway. He has characterized

He has characterized those who should "go forth, forth,"" "watch;" "Irlin their lamps" at the sol-ema "migdnight cry," -to "be patient" a "LIFTLE wHTLE," "not casting away their confidence," &c., as "virgins."

It conclusively appears, from the enumeration of the signs, that are to accompany the opening of the sixth seal, that its history precisely sypchronizes with that of the last generation-inas-much as the designating phenomena are in both instances the same, and, likewise; in both cases instances the same, and, likewise, in both cases they immediately pretede the great day. Hence it is clearly apparent that the history of the vir-gins, who, in that last generation, go forth with their iamps, is embraced in the time of the sixth seal. We accordidgly find that a company, 144,-000 in number, are sealed as a special people du-ring the opening of this seal, through the instru-

Rev. 7th and the (C wise ______) wirgins of Mat 25th are the same company. An objection we arise from the consideration, that the 144,000 s-scaled from the twelve tribes of Israel. The ap-tle James will solve this difficulty. His epistle addressed to the "furite tribes" scattered abras [cont. Dan. 12 7;] whom he also addresses u brethren, [1: 1, 2.] These brethren [1: 13;] in hegotten with the word of truth that they shapes a kind of " runs raures." [com. Rev. 14: 4 From this we learn that James considers the as his heathere who are "hum not uf blood

From this we leave that sames considers us as his brethren who are "born, not of blood, w of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of an but of God," and who, consequently, constitu-the "Israel of God," or the "Tauzzs." He a dresses his 5th chapter to those of this same pu aresses his bin chapter to those of this same pa ple, who should be patiently awaiting the com-of the Lord, [v. 7 and 8,] (while the mania earthly gain should be engrossing the minds of many.), whom he calls by the same endearing -pellation "brethren," and who consequently b long to the "chosen tribes."

From these promises it appears that the in-virgins who await their Lord watchfully, pay fully, and patiently, analast the scoffs and jarm a cold world and luke-warm church during last gloomy nightly period of this world's his shall be exalted to a pasticular honor on Me Zion at this coming, and sing a song that a others can learn.

"Thrice biessed bliss-inspiring hope, It lifts the fainting spirits up, It brings to life the dead.

Our conflicts here shall soon be past, And you and I ascend at last, 'Triumphant with bur Head."

Triumphant with bor Head." Who, with MOUNT Zon in view, would away their lamps and confidence although "Night" be long and dark! Let us dear "Bas again patiently wait for that morning shear Princely Bridegroom who is " fairer than childran of men,"—"whose garments smel-malaces" shall we have a state of the King's da-ter, all glotious within; har clothing of wro-gold; who shall be brought unto the King's da-ter, all glotious within; har clothing of wro-gold; who shall be brought unto the King in ment of needle work:" Then shall "the Vir-her companions that follow her be brought," " with gladness and rejoking shall they brought; they shall enter into the King's go spires shall greet our longing eyes; and the s-wided light of eternal day dissipate this gladarkness for ever. Farewell;—perhaps ul meet at the Marriage feast. S. A. CHAPL

S. A. CHAPL

THE DAY-STAR.

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY, 18,

THIS VOLUME.

It is but just that our readers should know gircumstances under which this volume is menced.

The last volume, from the 5th No. was e ted for the small sum of $101.54.

The total receipts from all sources in the time have been g101.52. I have mailed the weekly with my own hands, including for writing wrappers, cartying to the Post-office. To do this without interfering with my other ties, I have been compelled to sit up two night the week, till about 3 o'clock in the mon This severe application has brought on my illness during which my life was despaired On summing up my accounts as you see above, clear loss is two cents : Making no charge for own time. That, is a fair specimen of "Millerite speculation."

I say none of these things by way of complaint, I am estisfied with my record; but to let you know how matters stand, and ask you who owe, to pay up, and then in my feeble state of health I shall he able to pay a hand to mailing papers.

THE DAY-STAR.

"We have also a more word of Prophecy; where unto ye do, well that ye take hard of Prophacy; instance of the shift of the state of the shift, as an to, a light that shift in a dark place, until the day down, and the day-star arise in your hearts."—"Ad "Pet. 1: 19.

To what subject does the ""more sure word of prophecy" refer ! Ver. 16; "For we have not followed cunningly devised fibles, when we made known unto you the procer and coming of bui Lord Jesus Chirist, but ware eye-withesses of his majesty."

It was "the power alid" coming" of the Lord Jesus Christ, to which the " nfore sure word" referred, and which Peter had been making "known" as demonstrated to his mind by a circumstance to which he refers in ver. 16-18, and of which he says he was an "eye-witness." The history of the circumstance that led Peter, with such boldness to make known a still future coming of Christ, is recorded in Mat. 17: 1-9; Mark 9: 1.9; Luke 28: 36. Christ had alluded to his second coming, and the brilliancy and glory of his Kingdom, (Matt. 6: 10, and chap, 13:) and pow gives to his dissiples this further evidence in the mount, of tranefiguration of his power to accomplish the work. Suil, Peter claims that the word of prophecy in their possession (which must have been in the Old Testament, as the New was not then written.) was more sure, or readered the fact that Christ would come again, more positive, than any ocular exhibition he had seen, could do. He that shows a willingness to believe " Moses and the Prophots," in the one most likely to have his faith strengthened by the resurrection of "one from the dead" I need be. Moses and Elias, had been brought up from the dead to show Peter, James, and John, the glorgiof the resurrection at Ohrist's coming, but in the toom of relying solely upon this circumstance, Poter places in the fore ground the "sure word of prophecy."

From Psa. 96: 18; La. 12: 9; 26: 21; 80: 27; 02: 11; 63: 1; Joel 2: 1; Mal. 4: 1; and a Mass of other prophecies, he knew that Christ must at taking heed to the sure word, suddenly, in a mono very distant days come, in all the Father's glory, when the righteous dead would rise, be restored to the renovated earth, and all the wicked be destroyed.

He had also shown in his first epistle that if was the Spirit of Christ in the prophets that "Searched diligently" for the time of Christ's sufferings, and "the glory that should follow" at his second Advent: and that it was revealed unto them that unto us and not themselves they did minister, in such teachings. The time, in its symbule form, for Christ's sufferings and second coming, as taught in Dan. 8. 91, was as familiar to Peter as to Ba.

This word of prophecy is, to he heeded as a light, shining. "Thy word in a lamp units my feet, and a light unto my path," Pas. 119: 105; "The path of the just is as the shimng light, that shineth more and more unto the p rfect day," Prov. 4: 18; "The path of the just" is God's commands-his word: Pas. 119: 35: 25: 4: 10.

Take sway the "sure word of prophecy" and all in the future is elernal darkness and gloom ; commandment of us the spostles of the Lord and but this sheds a light that shows us from whence we came-what we are, and whither we are bound. It is a light that not only casts its rays behind us, and on either hand; but it shines before us and "shows us things to come." O who can plead for darkness upon time-events, or any thing else of which the word of God treats, while he has in his hand such a glorious light.

It is a light to guide us in a "dark place," Such is this dreary world, for "Darkness bath covered the earth, and gross darkness the people ;" but the reign of darkhess is not to last forever. When the "Prince of darkness" is hurled from his throne, then light will take the place of darkness. The word of God is not only a light shining in a dark world, but it is the only light. In wain has the Princetof darkness endeavored to puts upon us Reason, Philosophy, and Moral Science, as a sufficient corrective for the darkness of the human mind. After the utmost stretch of all the manmade schemes of earth, human miseries still in crease, and morel darkness has become so dense that faith has almost gone from the earth.

It is indeed a "dark place" where every hope is cut off, and where every prospect fails. How thankful then should we be for one light to guide as shrough this "dark place"? How carefully should we follow the rays of such a light! How closely guard its hallowed flame! It is our pretection and defence,-Our strong tower! Our immutable Rock.

It is a light to guide us "until the day dawn." What day! Not the Gospel day, as it is some times called; for that had already dawned. Had he alloded to any especial manifestation under the Gospel, in the expression, "day dawn" he would not have intimated as he has done, that the word of God is of no furtilier use after that day has dawned. It is the day of the establishment of the "Everlasting Kingdom," (ver. 11 ;) the day of the "Coming of our Lord Jesus Christ," (ver. 161) "the day of Judgment," (ch. 2: 9: 3: 7:) "the day of the Lord," (ah. 3: 10;) "the daylef God;" (ch. 3: 12). The expression, "The day," or "that day," is familiar with all the inspired writers, Isa. 2 : 11 ; 24 ; 21; 29; 18; Ezek. 29; 21; Hos. 2: 18; Joel 3: 18; Amos 8: 3; Zeph. 1: 15; Zech. 13: 1; Mal. 3: 17; Mat. 7: 22; Luke 21: 34; 1 Thess. 5: 4; &c. &c.

This day is not to burst upon those that are ment : It is first to "dawu" after which the "sure word of prophecy" is to be of use; for we are to heed it not only "till the day dawn," but "until the day-star arise." Evidence of approaching day, is an increase of light; and the word of God being our only light in a "dark place," this is the only source that can betoken the approach of the "Sun of Bighteousness," That word has poured its light upon the thousand circumstances peculiar to the days in which we live, and circumstances which form the boundary line between mortality, and immortality-Death and Life-Time and Eteruity. Here we are, at the end of our Chart. The day has dawned ! The Seventh Trump has begun to sound ! and how much longer are we to head the sure word of Prophecy?

"Until the Day-Star arise in your hearts," And when is that! When you are converted or sanctified, says one : Oh no, for then might you cease to heed the "sure word," whereas the apostle tells you to "be mindful of the words which were thing that you pronounce a delusion! spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the aviour."

But is it not said, "God who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath bhined in our hearts," I &c. Yes; but not placed the day-star there yet, for it is the light of the Gospel, or "sure word" that thus shines in the heart before we are made immortal. See 2 Cor. 4: 3-7.

Christ is called "the Morning-star" in Rev. 2 28, 23: 16; and do we not read, says one, of Christ being formed in the believer! (Col. 1 27;) Certainly, as a "hope," or "the hope of glory. Christ is, now our hope, we enjoy him by faith; the life we now live is by the faith of the Son of God." Bot far different is it, to hope for. and enjoy by faith, a possession upon which we have never placed our loot, and a crown that has never touched our brow, to the glorious reality, of walking firmly and crect upon the saint's juharitance, and actually wearing the "crown of glory that fidethinot away."

Thus when dithe day-star arises in our hearts, the same principle of life that animates the Lord Jorus Christ will animate us, for " we might be like him and see him as he is." The present is a time of suffering: (Rom. 8: 18;) when the Daystar arises it will be a time of "glory revealed in us." Now the Spirit dwelleth in us, (Rom. 8: 11.) when the Day-star arises, that Spirit will "quicken our mortal bodies"-animate our whole frame. O may we be found taking "heed to the sure word of prophecy" that happy moment when our change shall come! The day-star must arise 62 fore the Sun of Righteousness:- The Resurrection must take place before Christ can cume with "all his saints." Even so. Amen !

LETTER TO BRO. STORRS.

and more thanks it Cincinnali, Feb. 14, 1845. DEAR BRO. STORES:

A note of yours published in "the Morning Watch" of Jan. 30th, which was read to me while confined to my bed by sickness, has produced upon my mind a class of feelings which prompts me to make a brief reply. It is possible that a confinement of seventeen days may have enfeebled my mind as well as my body, and [may therefore be led to my things of which I may repent: But if I do, I am persuaded God will forgive me if my motives are as pure ad those which now prompt my aching heart, and guide my trembling hand,

You say, that "after the hurricane which has swept over us" you "wish a little time to breathe and examine the Intitude and longitude we are in," &c. In the next paragraph, "fixing on a definite day, or even a year, for the advent to occur " you, pronounce a "delusion." Here, it seems to me, you have rendered yourself just as incapable of examining the "latitude and longitude we are in" as the man who pronounces the lines of "latitude and longitude" on the chart to be no such lines at all-more "false" marks.

Hunting for latitude and longitude, subject to the fixed principle, that there is no "definite day, or even year" in which the advent is to occur, is strange work indeed; and altogether useless. An examination of which planet we are on, is sufficient, if the above principle be correct.

Let me here ask you if God has not demonstrated our "latitude and longitude" by the very

Examine the argument you gave us, for the coming of the Lord on the tenth day of the seventh month, and then prove to us what part of that argument has failed. The idea was advanced by you that Christ would personally appear on that day—with all his saints—that the righteous dead would rise, Sc. out the whole of your ar-gument proves no such thing. The most that you proved, was, that Christ, our Great High Friest would come out of the holy place on that day;— and on that day the Seventh Trumper would sound: And I have proved to You that the would sound: And I have proved to you that these events much take place before the personal appearing of Chilist and the Resurrection. See W. M. Cry, Vol!4, Nd. 5 fud 6.

A

THE DAY STAR.

To ilemonistrate to you that your own argument. language.

"We will how look at the Jubilee. Lov. 25: 8 -10, 13-"And thod shalt numbet seven sabbaths of 'years unto thee? eleven times seven years: h the space of the seven subaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years. Then shall the cause the trampet of the Jubiles to sound on the teach day of the seventh month; in the day of atonement shall ya, maka she trumpet sound throughout all your land. And yo shall below the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the tand unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a fubile onto your and yo shall re-every man unto his possession, and yo shall re-turn every man unto his formits. In the Lung every men unto nis possession, and ye south g-Lung every men unto his family. In the year of this jubice ye shall seturn every men unto his possession." All Christians admit this is a type of the final deliverstice of the daffact. In the

Here you have given us the proof that the Jabal Trump Sounded he the forty-ninit year while it was not till the Jubilee, five or six months alterward that the captives were to reliern to their possessions. It could not be the the seventh month of the fiftieth year that the trumpet of the Jubilee sounded : for luke Julilee was aly our of yest-no ishor was to be performed, and more than half the year would be gone before liberty was proclaimed, in this case,

To have an antitype of the Jubiles trumpet, what must we have A PROCLAMATION OF LIBERTY throughout all the land "to all the inhabitants thereof "-Lev. 25; 10. The proclam-tion, and not the del verance itself, is the antitype

Has that proclamation been made? Aye! And the voice of George Storrs, strengthened by the power of the Holy Ghost, and no deluding apirit of the devil, was lifted up in thunder tones till all the inhabitants heard if, and the devil's impa-gnashed apon him with their teeth. If this were a delusion, then for a time was Samn divided against Satan, and the words of Christ were broken,

I would most heartily join fon in "confessing" gur mistake in the event to transpire in the sev-onth month, but while we have been mistaken in this, God has used the event that did transpire, to demonstrate the truth of his word, That the path of the just is as a shining light that shineth more and more until the period day, and that his word is a light to our feet and a loop to our path.

The preaching of the seventh month, or which is the same thing to me, The sounding of the Seventh Tramp, and the Midnight Cry, certainly cut thousands loose from the world, and the world of God has proved itself sufficient to keep some at and daughters of Zion to mourn, and the entmies least, of that number still lowe.

Your figure of the 'flat spek' in the ogen, to which we were dissold to wait for the year 1 to shear as away has been made a great blassing to . Then are non my soul. I doub not your himesty in conducting ments are fruit.

us there. With you Lexpected to have left if an the levels, but was disappointed. Having "cut all loose "I could not get back if I would. For a few days I bought I should sharve; but the God that sent Elijah food by the ravens, and Daniel his dinner in the Lion's den, has not forgotten, richly to feed me upon pure manua every day since.

The clouds have gathered, and storms have beat around, which have only made me cry the ouder, Come Lord Jesus, O come quickly. My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

Still here 1 am on the "rock" determined to wait the Master's call, or etgraally perish here, and it you, have gotten, away from it honestly, I honestly demand an explanation, how it was, done, for many has not falled, let me place before you your own pleading your example, have left its not honestly.

You may say that pride of apinion, prevents, me nom confessing the whole affair of the 7th month a delusion, but I have affind that when you prove to monthstithe Jubiles trump did not sound in the seventh month of the for (y-winth year, then I will go any lengths with you in "confessing ?"

Again, why is it that there who hata the speeting of our Lord, ort so read anapitatenovy all odiam from you, while they were so ready to mob you when preaching the second month ?

I. Since you have become no set against a know ledge of she definite time, let manask if, you have fully weighed the following language of yours before you resourced it forever!

" See Dan. 12: 7-"And I heard the man clathed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand whith heaven, and swire by him that liveth torever, that it is half befor a time, times, and a half rand when he shall have accomplished to easter the power of the boly people, all these things shall be finished." This person thus swearing, was none other than the Lord Jesus Christ; and be share to find. Yow, to simulationnested with the scoold advent, the resurrection, and the glorification of his people. The time, however, is symbolical.—Bat will, any man dare to take the blasphemous posi-tion that the Lord Jesus sware to time that meant wothing; of which is the same fling, sware, with the most solemp oath to time that was inten the most salamp onthe to time that was intended about never be understood! Such a position, one would suppose, is blasphemous enough to make a devil fremble; for it is thruidly charging the Lord of glory with assaring to a list? Beware, D vain man, how you about the side of God. Time is revealed. But it cannot be understood, without obeying Christ, and "inquiring and searching di-igently, what, and what manner of time." Those who are too indolent to search, of who are afraid do follow, truth when they find as for four of man. to follow truth when they fud the for four of man, whose breath is in his nostils, will of course re-pain in ignorance of time, and that day, most likely, will come upon them unawares."

This language you have used, with how much effect upon saint and sinner, past time has told. A chuse in your postscript, also leads me to fair for you: "I am preaching CONSTANTLY at the Chapel in Julians street, in this city." What cas more effectually prove the language of the hear to be, "My Lord delayeth his coming," than when a mad who has made every sacrifice to "By in the midst of heaven proclaiming the hour of his judgment is come,""can turn so far aside Trom his previous course of labor and suffering, as "constantly" to preach it such narrow limits, if I have been unnecessarily severe, it is be-cause your recent course has caused the sone of truth to triumph.

Yours, whiting for deliverance at the dawn of the Jubileo. E. JACOBS.

Those orp agar O Logde and all thy sopparad.

11/1/41 OLD PATAS.

When the subject of the coming Kingdom of our Lord is presented, it is not unfrequently the case that this most holy and sublime theme is re-pulsed by appeals to "old paths"—the old way is good enough for me t &c. There are no older ways than those that have been taught us by the Lord in his word; and to these we have ever de-lighted to appeal, so abandant and triumphant de they show the nearness of the Gaming One: But for the accommodation of these that choose to p heal to the Fathers, we give below; all extran from Robertson's advice to the first Filgrin band that fled to this, then wilderness, from the despotis, intolerance of a foreign land,

The language, sho we that the man of God be-lieved what he was faught by the unstring wordthat that word was indeed given, as a "lamp to he feet, and a light unto his path."

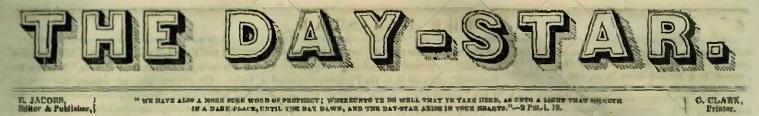

Where are the descendants of the Pilgrim Fathers, In-alas, where 1 !

"In the next place, for the wholesome counsel Mr. Robuson gave that part of the church whereof he way plator at their departure from him to be gin the gleat work of plantation in New England framongat alker wholesome instructions and aspotrations he used these expressions, or to the bortations are used these appressions, or to the same purpose. "We know one were long to part asonder, and the Lord thow of have been no brould live to see our faces again. But whether the hord had ap-pointed it or not, he charged as before God and his blessed angels, to follow him no further than he followed Christ; and if God should reveal any thing to us by any other instrument of his, to be as ready to receiver has rever we were to track to a any train by his ministry; for he was very confident the Lord had more truth and light yet break forth but of his holy word. He took con-stoniateo missishly to be wall the state and soud tion of the Reference Churches, who were con-to a period in religion, and would go no furthe than the instruments of their Refermation. As for example, the Lutherans, they could het be drawn to go beyond what Luther saw ; for what drawn to go beyond what Luther saw ! for what ever part of God's will be ind further imported and revealed to Calvin, they would rather disting embrace it. And go also, saith he, you soe the Calvinista, they stick where he left them; a mis-ery much to be lamented i for though they were preasons shining lights in their times, yet God had, not revealed his whole will to them; and were they now living, saith he, they would be as read and willing to embrace further light, as that the had received. Here also he put its in their times had received. Here also he put us in mure bad received. Here also he put us in mure our church covenant, at least that part of whereby we promise and covenant, with Ged, with one another, to receive whatsover light of truth shall be made known to us from his write word; but withat exhorted is to take heed wi word; but withat exhorted is to take heed wi we received for trath, and well to examine up compare it and, weigh it with other. Surgures, truth before we received it. For, saith he, it not possible the Christian world should come s lately but of such thick antichristian darkment and that full perfection of knowledge should break forth at ones,"

Letters and Receipts. Since our last acknowledgements.

Since our last acknowledgements. Williams Thayer, $3,00; J. L. Graham P. W. E. Freinch, P. M., 1.00; D. M. Helm, 1.00; G. Witse, 50; J. J. Goldsmith, 50; J. R. Libben P. M. Levi Lawrence, P. M.; G. W. Oberry, P.M. 1.00; S. G. Andrews, P. M.; Philip, Smith (own 93; W. Winslow, P. M.; W. Monjar, 25; J. athan Wilson, 5.00; Jos. Wilson 50, John Om page, 50; W. Parker, 1.00; S. A. Chapfan, 1.00; A. S. Richardsott, P. M. for Erratus Parker, 50; M. Williamson; J. B. Cook; H. Mitelsel, P. M. (the 1.00 of which you speak, for Wan, Daymon was pot received]; W. H. Mäull; J. Pratt, P. M. Röbert Hanna, by a friend, 1.00; (postage .57) J. Bowea, P. M., for A. Franick, 1.00; Gamma Burlingham, (postage .25); G. W. Charyf, M.

VOLUME 5.

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, FEERVARY 25, 1845.

Nonnen 2.

THE DAY-STAR

Is a continuation of the WEFTREN MEDNIORY CAY, and is published overy Tuesday, by E. Jacoan, at his residence on Seventh street, much side, three doors east of the Tabernacic. All communications for publications, should be addressed paper, or orders for books, and publications, should be addressed Port Parts to E. Jacoan, Ciwenwarth, O. TERMS OF THE PAPER.

Fifty cents per web, of 13 numbers in advance, to these that re she to pay; and gratis to these that are really unable to pay.

From the Advent Herald. Letter from Bro. Miller.

DEAR BRO. BLISS,-I have received a number of letters from almost every part of the country, almost all of them propounding the same ques-tions, viz., What I thought of the experience we had in what was denominated the seventh month? And also, What was my opinion concerning the closing of the door of mercy, or probation for sinners! To save a multiplicity of letters, 1 thought best to answer these letters through the "Herald," if you should think proper.

Ist. The experience of the seventh month. The sympathetic and simultaneous movement on the minds of almost all the Second Advent brethree, and on many others proceeding the tenth, the rapidity with which that sentiment was received, the general credence that was given to it, by mearly all of those who were looking for immedi-ate redemption, the humbling effect it produced on the hearts and conduct of these who believed, --In a hart's and conduct of these who believed,... in the abandonment of worldly objects, the sacri-lice of earthly goods, and in many cases the total dedication of soul and body to God,...the deep and anxious feeling of heart which many of us felt. all marked its character. Then we expected every moment the heavens would open and reveal to us the dear Saviour, with all his shining bosts, and we should see the graves upon and the loved forms of our relations rising from their dusty beds in immortal bloom, and eternal lifts; and we ourselves pass the addea change from mortality to immortality, from time to eternity. Then, at we varily thought, we had bid adien to this world of sin, of misary and wo, and expected to be usb-ered into the new heavens and new earth wherein dwellath righteousness. Oh bliasful day ! How solemn, yet how interesting. I hope to see an-other day like this, and realize what I then ex-pected. It was a day long to be remembered, and I cannot account for it on any other principle, than to suppose God's benevalent hand and wis-dum was in the movement. The fulfilment of the blowing of trumpets in the year of release, was on the first day of the seventh month. Let, xxiii. in the abandoament of worldly objects, the sacriblowing of trampets in the year of release, was on the first day of the seventh month, Lev. xxiii. 24; also on the) tenth day of the seventh month, in the year of Jubiles they were to proclaim lib-erty throughout the whole land, Lev. xxv. 8-10; "And thou shalt number seven Sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabaths of years shall be unto thes forty and nine years. Then shalt thou cause the trumpet of the jubiles to sound, on the teach day of theseventh month, in the day of atonement shall ye make the trampet sound throughout all your land. And ve shall hallow the fifueth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a Jubiles unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his own family." But did they go free on that day ? We see by these texts that supposing this to be We see by these texts that supposing this to be the year of Jubiles, according to the captivity which the Lord hath proclaimed, as Jeremiah tells es, axaiv. 17; "Therefore thus saith the Lord: Ye have not hearkened unto use, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man is him neighbor: behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the Lord, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth." Then we cannot expect deliverance until the last month of the year. And if the Seventh Trumpet did begin to sound, in the seventh Jewish month, according to the Caraite's manner of reckoning, then we can account for the extraordinary movement in the last seventh month. And if every time in the history of typical Israel is to be fulfilled in the redemption of the people of God from their enemies and bondage from under the Gentheir enamies and bondage from under the Gen-tiles, or Kings of the earth, then I cannot see why we have not some good reason to expect de-liverance at the time when the Jews received their deliverance in the days of Esther. See the Sth and 9th chapters of that book. We here learn that the Jews were delivered from these who would have destroyed them, and this time was on the 12th and 9th of the meanth days which is the the 13th and 14th of the month Adar, which is the twelfth, or end of the year, and these days were called purim; and we are expressly told that Dan-iel at the end of the days shall stand in his lot, or purim. To me, at least, there is much probability that we shall then, if not before, know more, where we are, than we now do. I have strong hope that this year will bring our glorious King, and that the scenes of the seventh month will be manifested to be the beginning of the sounding of the last trump. If I should prove to be correct in the last trump. If I should prove to be correct in this calculation, then all our calculations, the 2300 days, the 7 times, the Jubilees, the 1335 days, wee trumpets, the vials, the tarrying time, the hushandman's time for patience, the signs, the trial of our faith and patience, the sanctifying in-fluence of the seventh month, the extraordinary movements of God's providence at that time, the acts of the wicked, their scoffing, the mocking of nominal professors, all the visions failing, as the scoffers would any, would be literally accomplished, as avery discerning mind will readily see. But the wicked will not ace or understand, and of course it will come upon them as a thief, and so every jot and title of God's word will be fulfilled. I believe, Lord help mine unbelief. Hold on, brethren, I would not lat go as long as we have one cord to hold on by; or one promise to support one cord to hold on by; or one promise to support us. If we faint not, we shall reap in due time. But you ask, why I do not show whether the probation of sinners is ended! I answer. It is a close point, and if handled at all, it ought to be done very wisely, and with a great deal of humility. I would not grieve, if possible to avoid it, one of Christ's little ones. There is much sensitiveness Christ's little ones. There is much sensitiveness on this point among our good brethren, therefore 1 would much rather keep my views in my own breast, if I could, and do right, than run the risk of huring the oil and the wine. You will, therefore, permit me to give my views by the scripture; and first, Daniel xii. 10;-----Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand." It will be readily seen by this text, that before the end, the people of God must be "purified, made while, and tried." Now if probation goes on un-til the last moment of time, how can those why are regenerated in this last moment, have their patience tried! Again, Rev. vil. 13, 14;-"And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, what are these which are arrayed in white pobes? and whence came they? And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said unto me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have wasked their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." How can it be said, that those made while "came out of great tribulation," if in the next moment after they experience the new birth, they are beyond all tribulation and trial? Also in the first passage, the wicked are to do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall un-derstand. Yet if one of these wicked is convertderstand. Yet if one of these wicked is convert-ed after the time specified, then the word none could not be true in fact. This must be in time, it cannot mean in evernity. Zech. xili, 9;-"And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, I will hear them : I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, the Lord is my God." In this verse we learn that they are tried in this state, where they will need to pray. Malachi ii. 18;-"Then shall ye return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serv-eth God and him that serveth him not." When shall the test be given, which shall make us dis-cern between the righteous and the wicked! The answer is plain, before the day cometh that shall burn as an oven. For in that day no doubt could burn as an oven. For in that day no doubt could rest on any mind, who is who, or what is the charrest on any mind, who is who, or what is the char-acter each individual would appear in. Rev. 22: 11;...." He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still." This text is perfectly plain and needs no comment; the 12th verse. "And behold I come quickly, and my reward is with me, to give every man as his own work shall be," shows that a little while before Christ comes, every character will be determined. "He," that is, any one, or every one who is unjust or fithy, let him be so still, and so on the other hand, he that is righteous or holy, let them be so still. "And behold," connects the sentence before, and what follows after, and is a caution for us to take particular notice of the reason, why they are in this peculiar situation or fixed state, as though the idle servants could have no more time to mind their day's work, which God had given them in their day of probation to perform. The eleventh hour was passed, & no chance for them to enter the Master's vineyard now, in this last hour. While on the other hand, the good servant might know that the good Master was at the door, and he would quickly pay them their wages, and relieve them from their toils. See Matt. 20: 1-16. Then this agrees with St. Paul. Heb. x. 36, 37; "For ye have need of patience, that after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the prom-ize. For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not taxts." their day of probation to perform. The eleventh ize. For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry." After we have done our work, we have need of patience to wait for the Master, "for yet a little while, and he that shall come will come and will not tarry." I did believe, and must honestly confess I do now, that I have done my work in warning sinners, and that in the seventh month. I know my feelings are no rule for others, therefore, let every one who feels he has a duty to do to sinners let him do it, I will have no hard feelings. But I must be honest; when 1 am anquired of, I must state my own conviction houestly. I have done it, and given my reasons from the word of God. And And now lot me say, brethren, we will have no con-tention on this point, for we are brethren. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind. and so let them speak or preach, as God and their own consciences may dicitate.

I have a strong expectation that Christ will come before the Jewish year will expire ; but let us all see to it that we are ready even day, so that when he comes we may not be assumed be-fore him. This latter must suffice for all three friends who have requested my views on this subject. My love to all who love our Lord lesus Christ, and pray for his Kingd-m. WILLIAM MITLER.

Letter from Bro. J. Kimpton.

Rining Sun, Ind. Feb. 19, 1845.

DEAR BRO. JACOBS -- We are still firm in the belief that the coming of the Lord is nigh, even at the door; and we have not yet cast away our con-fidence or our Bibles, because we have been twice disappointed. Or, as Isaiah says, We have not wrought any deliverance in the earth, neither have the inhab-itants of the word fallen, (chapter 26). All ap-pears to be a perfect calm here, and the people

poars to be a perfect calm here, and the people are crying peace and safety. We have read your paper with delight, and hope it will be sustained by the brethren—as it is a very welcome visitor to us. We have faithfully distributed what has been sent to us, and I have only received 25 cents as a donation. Bro. David Eyans, of Greensburg, has moved to Rising Sun, and preached here on Sabbath last on the coming of the Lord. He spoke from 2d Pet. 3d chapter, and showed clearly to my mind that the coming of the Lord draweth nigh. He said he did not intend to present any new thing, but stir up our minds by way of Remembrance said no did not intend to present any new uning, but stir up our minds by way of Remembrance that we might he mindful of the words spoken before by the hely Prophets and the command-ments of the spostles of the Lord and Saviour. He said the Lord had certainly given us evi-dence that we might know near the time of the dence that we might know near the time of the Advent if we could not tell the day or hour; and as proof, he gave us Mat. 24th ch. 33d ver. "So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors. Dan. 12: 10; "But the wicked shall do wickedly, and none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand." Again, he pointed us to the 24th understand." Again, he pointed us to the 24th chap. of Matt. 37th ver. "But as the days of Noe were so shall also the coming of the Son of man be." He also cited us to 1 Thess. 5: 5; "Ye are all children of the light, and children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness;" and a we are not of the hight, not of the from memory. number of other passages. I quote from memory. Youre, as ever, JOS. KIMPTON.

THE DAY-STAR.

CINCINNATL TUESDAY, FEBRUARY, 25, 1845.

007 I design, the Lord willing, to visit several of the Second Advent bands in the surrounding country as soon as I can. It is proper for me to say, however, that I have no longer the means of paying my own travelling expenses, as I have hitherto done, except to two or three places.

The friends in Madison, Ind., can announce an appointment for me on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week.

I expect to spend the second Sabbath in March, at Dayton, O.

X 05- Will the "Hope of Israel," published at Portland, Maine, send us 10 copies weekly! Direct to "The Day Star," Cincinnati, Ohio.

Say whether you will have 10 copies of the "Star" in exchange or whether the money shall ba sent.

OF "The Western Midnight Cry will send two copies only, in future in exchange. Say how many of the Voice of Truth is wanted." Voice of Truth.

You can send OT ONE 10 if you please.

05 Bro. J. H. Hardy, will excuse us for failing to give his letter an earlier notice.

The substance of his article goes to show that Christ was crucified, or "cut off" in the "midst" or middle of the seventieth week; and taking it for granted that the crucifixion was in the year A. D. 33, he proceeds to make out the terminaation of the 2300 days in A. D. 1847.

Had not this matter taken so much time already, Bro. II.'s article would be published in full. He seems to have overlooked the mass of evidence the date in the margin.

Christ was no doubt cracified exactly in the the canonical books. middle of the 70th week as Bro. H. supposes; Let that writer reconcile Matt. 1: 16; and Luke" "Nobody" will prove to be its author.

not however in the year 33, but in the year 30 or 3: 23; and then tell us, upon one of his principles 31. This is proved by applying Ferguson's As- of reasoning, which is the "Pseudo," Matthew or tronomical calculation to the Passover as observed Luke. He proves, what all admit, that there is by the Caraite Jews, in the room of the one ob- darkness around its origin, but does not, nor can served by the Rabins.

carry the end of the 2300 days beyond the month a fair fulfillment, so far, since that timeof April next.

LETTERS.

A number of encouraging letters have been received of late, from which the following are selected.

PARKERBURG, VA. FEB. 4, 1845. Dear Brother.

Enclosed I send you fifty cents for the . * * * * I also take the "Morning W. M. Cry. * 1 and that it is to me whiters to me watch :" They are both welcome visitors to me should here and them should here and the should I should be sorry if either of them should be stepped for the want of means. May the Lord blees you and all the brethren with more light on the great subject of the Advent. Yours, sincerely, JOHN GLIME.

+ MIDDLETOWN, CT., FEB. 10, 1845.4 Dear Bro. Jacobs,

Dear Bro. Jacobs, I am so well pleased with your "hum-ble" sheet, and the meat in due season it affords me and others, that I send you one dollar and hope to send you more soon. I do hope you will be able to sustain it, and continue the copies you send to this place. We love the Tauth. Yours, as Ever Looking, E. L. H. CHAMBERLAIN.

LOWELL, TRUMBULL Co., O., FEB. 12, 1845.

Dear Sir, Enclosed I send you one dollar for your excellent paper, the "Western Midnight Cry." I feel much encouraged to believe that the Lord is near at hand, to destroy sin and its consequen-ces, and establish his own everlasting Kingdom. Go on, you have my good wishes and my prayers. JOHN BISSELL.

LOWER SANDUSKY, O., FEB. 14, 1845.

Dear Bro. Jacobs,

Dear Bro. succes, I herein enclose one dollar to apply on my subscription. I am glad that you are still trying to sustain the "Western Midnight Cry." We hall its return with joy as well as the Eastern papers. There is still a little band here that are waiting the return of Him who is to "restore again the Kingdom to Israel."

Yours, in the blessed hope of soon seeing the King in his beauty. ISRAEL SHARP.

MARYSVILLE, UNION CO. O., FEB. 15, 1845. Dear Bro. Jacobs,

Enclosed is one dollar and fifty cents which you will place to the account of

I have only time to say a word this morning. We expect Ero. Cook here in a few days. We learn by lotter from him a few days since that he is near Fort Wayne, Ind. We had a letter from his wife by the last mail, which cheered us very much : She is at Akron.

I regret to see the spirit manifested in that ar-ticle in the "Watch" written against the 2d book of Eedras. His position may be true, yet I think it is written in a bad spirit, and I think his argu-ments weak.*

The brothren here begin to lift up their heads The breaches. as spring approaches. Yours, in the hope of the Gospel. G. W. CHERRY.

* It would not be surprising if the writer of the article referred to, should receive many similar rebukes. Who would review his argument 1 for he which goes to prove that the 69 weeks, Dan, 9; has not said one word against the Divine authenti- days, and let me assure you of one thing :-- The 25, terminated A. D. 27; see Mark I: 14, 15, and city of the 2d book of Esdras, that the infidel cannot origin of that report will not then be found, but not prove that it has not existed for more than 1400 I think we have at present no evidence that can years, and that the "Vision of the Engle" has had Lotter from Sister Bishop.

Madison, Ind. Feb. 18, 1845.

DEAR BRO. JACORS: --By the request of Mr. Bishop I send you a few lines by Bro. Evans, en-closing one dollar more to help keep up the paper, for you may rest assured that our hearts are gladdened to hear through this medium, that the cause is still progressing.

As to the little number of Advent believers in this place, bur faith grows stronger as we see the day approaching. As long as we are blessed with means, it is our

As long as we are dessen with means, it is du-intention to aid all we can in kneping up the pa-per. * * We have had no second Advent preaching since Bro. Mauli was here; and I sup-pose we must give up ever hearing much more, though it seems hard. When I think what a poor little despised few we are, it makes me sigh and long for home. There is nothing here but confu-sion and disorganization.

Mr. Bisbop has handed in the resignation of his membership in the church; my name still remains, but I feel as though I have no abiding place here, but am seeking a City and a Kingdom which is tw come, and which, I believe will shortly be set up. May the Lord hasten the day!

There has been a report circulated here of late respecting yourself and Bro. Himes, stating that you have fell ont, and are carrying on very bad respecting money matters. Such reports are calculated to injure your standing in this place, and it may be possible you have not heard any thing it wit it. Please inform us.*

Yours with respect, and in the bonds of Christ-SARAH BISHOP. ian union. -

* This is the first that I have heard upon the subject here alluded to. It is utterly false, the whole of it. There has never passed an unkind word between myself and Bro. Himes, either verbally or by writing. I regard him as a Christian brother if I have one on earth; and such, I have full reason to believe, I am regarded by him. A recent letter from him assured me of his continued esteem.

As to money matters, I have kept, I believe, a faithful account of all monies received and paid out since I have been on this side of the Alleghany mountains, which is one year last December. Consequently I am ready to answer any questions relative to particulars. Suffice it to say, that my entire receipts during this period, have been less. than one year's salary that some Methodist preach ers are receiving, and with this I have maintained a family of seven in number-paid my rent -published a paper a part of the time, and paid my traveling expenses a distance of not much if any less than 12,000 miles: Also paid out of the same the expenses of "The Great Tent" and its company during four campaigns last season.

The story above alluded to was probably born in Madison and it will die there ; for it has been started by some cowardly child of the devil, who L never shall get a chance to see in the face. The contemptible meanness of the devil may be seen in his always setting such reports affort behind a man's back. I expect to be at Madison in a few may, with equal good ground, against some one of it will be traced, by those that feel more interested in it than I do, into some by-corner where Mr.

What has caused the above report is very oby ous and need not be blinded to: Let a few more of the Second Advent believers in Madison abanden the churches with which they have been connorted, and the next report will probably be, that nected, and the next report will proceeds you that Derversion of scripture. I have run away to Texas with pockets full of Berversion of scripture. "Read-Mark-Learn and inwardly digest". methew.

LETTER FROM ENGLAND.

Among all the efforts put forth to turn us aside from the " hope of the Gospel," there comes an uccasional voice from the shores of Old England, where we ought to expect more Logical and Scriptural arguments than any that have been premented on this side the ocean, why we should rune to hope for the speedy coming, and peaceful reign, on earth, of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

The following extracts are from a communicahim directed to a friend in this City, by a student of an English Theological institution, and prove to us our mistake in expecting any thing from this to love and obey the former. unter to shake the foundation of our glorious Impe.

"I had one reason certainly for delaying to write to you, in the spring of this year-which was, that I felt most fully persuaded of the failure of Mr. Miller's predictions [1] in regard to the month of March-and that time would produce on your mind a conviction, which nothing that I could write seemed likely to do. There is not a single particular in Mr. Miller's prophetical scheme (ior i refer here only to the prophetical parts of it) that has the sanction of the word of God. [2] And I thet convinced that he is quite mistaken in tho supthe passing by of the definite day or year can produce no "conviction" but of the necessity of "waiting patiently" for him. "Not a single par-ticular in Mr. Miller's prophetical scheme that has the sanction of the word of God." No, not portance in the lutgment is the next event of im-portance in the lutgment is the next event of im-portance in the lutgment is the next event of im-portance in the lutgment is the next event of maining unaccomplished, why may not the prophword of prophecy is to fall to the ground, by re-mining unaccompliated, why may not the proph-ecy of Judgment itself, then do sol [6] My own inviction is—that all will in due time, receive its proper fulfillment. [7] And in order to this, there is very much to be done, before the final Judg-ment can ensue. The preaching of the Gospel to all nations.--[6] The revelation of Antichrist.---[9] The wearing out of the saints by persecu-tion---[10] The destruction of Antichrist.---[11] The conversion of the Jews.--[12] The Millen-ial reign of Christ.--[13] The universal preva-longe of righteousness--[14] are all to take place, prior to the final Judgment. [15] On these points, Scripture speaks plainly enough---[16] and we should not attach mystic meanings to simple dec-larations---nor put fancifal interpretations on any larations — nor put fanciful interpretations on any part of the word of God. [17] The literal sense is the anfe and proper one when another sense is not plainly indicated by the connexion of the sub-part. I am very pleased and thankful, to find that Tutake so deep an interes; in religious subjects. And I am also glad that prophecy interests you. A: the same time you must remember that it is a mb cet of exceeding difficuly—that to the strong-eat minds it has proved no—and that we should net draw conclusions from it until assured that they have a direct scripture sanction. [18] For own part, I am delighted to observe the harmony that prevails, particularly in God's prophetic word. It more and more convinces me that it is from God. And I think if you took back upon he pujats I have mentioned, you will find that ey all have the plain and express support of bey all have the plain and express support of scriptural prophecies. [19] I ground my conclusion in regard to Babylon and Antichrist, in part on Dan. It: which makes is evident that "the north" is the sphere of Anti-the section to Alexander the Great. Of this--the methers portion includes in it Byzantium. Now Constantinople which is a secon hilled city-as well as Rome, and promises to be one day mistress of the world, when it shall have passed out of the hands of the Turkish Barbarians-into the hands of those who will give its commercial and other capabilities, their full development. Dan. 11: and Rome-and the Pope, and "king of the north," cannot be made to fit one another, but by a wilful and you will be convinced of this. [20] Your very affectionate Brother,

H. E.

One more extract might be made which will aid in the explanation of the above antiscriptural production: It is as follows.

"I want to be No. 1, in my class of 30-but cannot at all tell how the matter is likely to terminate-there being others who want this as well ns I."

I have copied this much of the letter in question, and now append to it a few remarks, that our readers may see the difference between, "Thus show how Antichrist can be revealed ? saith the Lord," and mere human assertionsavold the danger of following the latter, and learn

[1] How much better it would have been to give the paragraph from Mr. Miller's writings that can in any way by called a prediction,

Mr. Miller has predicted nothing; and when the above writer has read his entire works he will find nothing that comes nearer a "prediction" than bimself has done in saying, "I felt most fully persuaded of the failure," &cc.

[2] "The chief business of second Advent believers is, "to look for the Lord"-consequently the passing by of the definite day or year can

[3] What criterion is this for us to go by? Simply to "feel convinced that he is quite mistaken," &c., is of no authority with the one that takes the word of God alone, for the man of his counsel. To "feel" that the Judgment is not the next event for which we are to look, can not altar the fact that we are living under the very last predicted change of the "fourth kingdom" (Dan. 2: 43, 44; 7 : 7-13;) which brings us to "the Judgment."

(4) If such assertions can be made to pass for Orthodox in Old England, with no other proof than that they eminated from a "strong mind" in a high school of a great nation, they will not so pass here; for we test our Orthodoxy by the Bible.

(5) If Mr. Miller had presented to the world no more proof of the soon coming of the Lord, than simply to say, there are no other prophecies to fulfill, and, "If the case be so" the Lord will come "about 1843" or '4, his works would hardly have attracted attention at this English College.

(6) If, any word of prophecy is to fall"-convenient-if! "Not one jet or tittle can fail," which is the true reason why we have nothing now to look for but the Judgment.

Most literally is prophecy falfilled, to accomplish, which the above writer has added his mite; see Ezek. 12: 22, 27; 13: 10.

(7) If this "conviction" had been increased by a careful study of the "Sure word of Prophecy." to a positive knowledge, as it ought, (see Matt. 24: 33;) the writer would never have shot so wide of the mark, as to the "due time" of "its proper

(8) Among the many things to be done is, "The preaching of the Gospel to all nations." Is it true then, that it has been preached to none of the nations? Or does he only mean that it is yet to be preached to some nations that have never yet heard it? If so, let it be shown that there is now one nation under heaven, in which the Gospel has not been preached according to the fullest sense of the prediction in Matt. 24: 14;-"for a witness."

Like the natural sun, the Gospel arose in the East, and after having encircled the globe with its light, it is shedding its last rays in the West,

(9) What ! Antichrist revealed again ? John's day there were "many Antichrists" in the world, whereby he know it was the last time, (or dispensation). If the present state of things in the world does not show a revelation of Antichrist, or opposition to Christ, is it possible to

(10) The same prophecy that tells us of the power that is to "wear out the saints," also tells us where that power originated-in the divided state of the "fourth" or Roman kingdom, (Dan. 7:23-25;) It also tells us how long the saints are to be worn out; an exact and "literal" fulfillment of which, we have had in the history of the Papal power-a power that has slain-worn oul, 50,000,000 of saints during its 1260 years of civil rule. If we are yet to have the saints worn out "by persecution," we are to have the history of Papacy repeated, or the prophecy twice fulfilled which we are not authorized to expect.

(11) And how is Antichrist to be destroyed? Let Paul answer, "Then shall that wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the Spirit of his month, and shall pearsor with the brightness of HIS COMING !" This is the way he comes to his end, when his work is once done.

(13) Conversion to what? Not to Christianity, for there is no authority for this in the Bible. Although once God's peculiar people-to whom pertained "the covenants, and the giving of the law," &c. (Rom. 9: 4.) yet they were constituted what they were, only "till the seed should come to whom the promises were made," (Gal. 3: 19;) which seed was Christ; (ver. 16;) and when he came he was rejected by them, and they in turn rejected by Him; Matt. 23; 38. Their scattering and rejection is to continue till the day of Judgment. In a national capacity they are never to be gathered again, unless it be at the battle of the great day. In proof of this I present a few quoistions without comment, which I agree with our writer, are "literally" to be understood. Isa. 5: 1-.7; Matt. 21: 43, 45; Eph. 2: 11--13; Matt. 3 : 9, 10; John 8: 39; Gal. 3; 6, 7, 26-29; John 8: 44; Rev. 2: 9; 3: 9; Rom. 2: 28, 39; Isn. 65: 11-15; Isa. 6: 9-12; Jer. 23: 39, 40; ver. 15--17; Nam. 14: 34; Heb. 3: 17--19; 4: 1, 2.

The Jews themselves, ever understood that a moral qualification, resulting from their own free agency was necessary to their salvation, Eze. 18: 15-17; Sec., 1 John 4: 9. What further proof do we need, to show that the spirit of Judaism is the spirit of "Antichrist"? Acts, 4: 11, 12.

The Jews having been broken off from "the good olive tree" may be graffed in again "IF they abide not still in unbelief;" Rom. 11: 20-23. When the conversion of the Jaws is proved, then the conversion of the world will be proved also; for God has put "no difference between them and Gentiles."

(13) If this millennial reign of Christ is taught any where in the Bible, it is in Rev. 20: 4-6; where we are expressly infomred that the millennial or 1000 years' reign is introduced by the "first resurrection" of all the "blessed and holy," some of whom had been "beheaded;" at which time we are also told that "the rest of the dead hird not till the thousand years were finished."- These are the wicked dead ; see ver. 8, 9. At any rate here is a separation, and from Matt. 13: the "Tares and the wheat" are to "grow together till the harvest" and "the harvest is the end of the world," or age. See also Dan. 7: 21, 22; Matt. 24: 37, 39; Luke 17: 27-30; 2 Tim. 3: 1-5; 2 Pet. 3: 3-7; Rev. 11: 15-18.

8

(14) And where are we taught the "universal prevalence of righteousness" until Earthly Governments are destroyed, and the earth itself renovated by fire? See Dan. 2: 34, 35; 44; 7: 26, 27; Psa. 37: 9, 11, 18, 22, 27, 29, 34; Rom, 4: 13; Eph. 1: 13, 14; 2 Pet. 3: 6, 7, 10-13; Isa, 65: 17-19; Rev. 21: 1-4. Here we have a universal prevalence of righteousness; But until such time, the "tures and wheat" will grow together till the " harvest." See Rev. 14: 16.

(15) Where is the proof? Echo answers, where!

(16) Yes indeed, as we have already seen; for which reason the writer will of course excuse us for dissenting from his assertions. He will also suffer us to advise, that hereafter in his communications across the waters, he permits the Scripture to "speak plainly" for itself.

(17) This is a good and safe rule. By closely heeding it, all the learning of England cannot for a moment uphold the fubled theories the writer sets up for truth.

(18) The first paragraph under this number is an excellent addition to the previous rule : How is it, that the subject "of prophecy is one of exceeding difficulty" when we have just been told that upon every important theory which it involves, it "speaks plainly enough"! True, the "strongest minds" have been involved in difficulty relative to prophecy, but the reasons are obviousthey have departed from the plain rules above Inid down. We see how it is in these days; the most learned get into "difficulty" about the first and second coming of Christs-Departing from the plain literal understanding-forgetting that the record always comes next after the first, they insert a coming of Christ at death, another at Jerusalem's destruction, another at conversion, another at the destruction of the man of sin, and another at the Judgment, &c. In this way, Peter's "Sure word of prophecy" is rendered what the writer here claims for it-an obscure "word of prophecy." All the odium that has fallen upon our poor heads, has been for observing the rules laid down in the paragraph in question.

(19) There is also to our minds a glorious harmony in the word of God, when we have no theory, or sect of our own to support. When our whole concern is to know what it teaches, that we may obcy it, then do we know it to be a "light to car path." The writer thinks his points estublished by the Scripture. We have examined the matter and ince they are not, applying his own rule of a "In al" unders auding. "Fanciful interpreta-tions" not ang admissible, of course, we are as capable of obtaining the true sense of the plain language of Scripture as though we had received our education at an English College.

(20) The question is not where "the sphere of Antichristian dominion" is to be, until we have first examined whether the prophecy has been ful-filled, and where the seat of Antichristian opera-one just quoted will be sufficient. Now brethren, tions has been.

Into whose hands is Constantinople more likely to pass than the English? And who then will be the "king of the North" but the ruling power of Great Britiant So if the argument proves any thing, it proves that Great Britain is to be the sphere of the future operations of Antichrist : One thing at least is favorable to this argument; that is, its schools are in a fair way to give a fullovergrown development, of the powers of the Little Horn, "having eyes, and a mouth speaking great things."

"Read-Mark-Learn and inwardly digest." This rale we are willing to apply to the Bible; and will, through grace, strive to do so; but we can not do it relative to the doctrine of this letter. Dear Sir, It will not "digest". There is nothing nourishing in it. Our digestive organs reject it, and it is thrown off whenever we attempt to administer it.

It savors too much of the "leaven" of this world; and how could it be otherwise when the writer is striving to be No. 1, in his "class of 30"? James 3: 1; Matt. 23: 8; &c. O let us be wise, and turn away from these human, deluding schemes, to the "Sure word of Prophecy" and heed it as a "light shining in a dark place until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in our hearts."

Letter from Charles Burlingham.

Boston Feb. 7, 1945.

DEAR BRO. JACOBS :-- I want to speak a few comforting words to God's Israel, through your little sheet. I am glad to see the "Ory" stand for the truth, and what I mean by the truth is,---there is a present truth which will feed the pil-grims that are seattered throughout our land. Brethren and sisters. I can praise God for ever for grims that are scattered throughout our land. Brethren and sisters, I can praise God for ever for the "midnight cry," and I do believe with all my soul, it is the work of the Lord, and by it, we have been crucified to the world. The only trouble we have now, is to keep dead in this sifting time. Our character is gone: let it go, and don't send any one after it.

There is in Boston and its vicinity, but little faith. Some are contending about chronology, but faith. Some are contending about chronology, but we, who believe God, have a chronology that will never fail. That is the Midnight Cry, which tells us where we are. Let us believe that; the cry has gone forth, and I tell you the virgins are prais ing the Lord for it; and here let us talk a little about our present position, and see if we cannot comfort one another. 1st. "Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps cry, and that time must come and pass away, and then, with propriety the evil servant or foolish virgins would say, "My Lord delayeth his com-ing," and shall begin to smite his fellow servant, We infer from the word, that the parable commeners the tarrying time, at the cluse of '43; The slumbering on the part of the wise, and alceping on the part of the fonlish. The next sound we have is—"Behold the Bridgrown cometh, go ye out to meet him."-The cry was truewe separated ourselves from the world as Gud in-fended.—The Bridgroom came to the marriage, and they that were ready went in with him, and the door was shut.* But says one, I did not see the door was shut. But says one, I did not see him, and the Church is the Bride. The foolish virgins will not admit the reason that John gives, because their lamps are gone out, and there is now no opportunity to get any oil—for the door is let ma refer to your own experience on the 10th of the day, 7th month,-was not the cry felt in your own souls! Glory to God! You might as well stop the tide from choing and flowing as to get this truth out of the souls of those who received it.

Now we are to wait like servants, looking for their Lord, when he shall return from the wedding, † that when he knocketh at the door we may open to him immediately. Let us all stand upon this truth, until the King comes, and the gates of hell shall not prevai against you. There never was a time when God's Israel should be settled on his word, more than a the present. Now is the time that we should member Lot's wife. Lot would have been destroy ed with that wicked city, if he had gone back af ter any of his friends. God has called us to leav ter any of his friends. God has called us to leav this ungodly world, with all its trash behind u-remembering Esau, who for one morsel of me sold his birthright. Let us not give away of crowns to those who cannot wear them ; by gi ing our sympathies to those who have no con dance in the past work of the Lord. He has cal ed us to arise and shake off the dust of this work and show our loyalty to the King of kings. Glor be to Him we have done so, and are now waitin for the Bridegroom to return ‡ with his king power.

He is right upon us; this Jewish year will close, before we shall see Him as he is, and made like Him. Come Lord Jesus, come quick Made like film. Amen, and Amen! Yours, in the glorious hope, CHARLES BURLINGHAM.

* Our brother is, no doubt, in a gross error ba

If the Bridegroom came on the tenth day, they that were ready went in, in any sense age ing with the text, (Matt. 25 : 10 ;) they went WITH HIM TO THE MARRIAGE. Admitting this be true we shall be under the necessity of ading the unsound principle of "miritual fu ment of prophecy"-a case of which never been, and never can be proved. X

+ When did these that were ready, and "went in with him to the marriage," come of wait for his return from the wedding!

t Here again, the same contradiction is ined as before.

As to the work of the Lord in the 7th m in other respects, the remarks are good exe far as they may lead to our own justification the entire movement in regard to the 7th m there is nothing for which we can justify selves. Our purposes in that thing were swered; we were misiaken in the event should be deeply humbled hefore God on an of it : But God's pupposes were answered in ing us the "Midnight Cry" and antitype Jubilee trump; and He alone is, and "shall be alted in that day."

FRANKLIN, WARLEN Co., O., FEB, 15, 16 Bro. E. Jacobs, -- I send you one dollar m continue your small sheet as long as it m needed. My self & wife, are all in our societ needrd. believe in the speedy coming of our Lord. are some few, however, that seem to be m Send me your paper as lang as it is pu Your broiler, in the bouds of Christian

ANDREW IL

Latters and Receipt. For the work ending the 24th inst.

L. M. Mosby, P. M.; Isaac Sharp, M. H. Chamberlain, 1.00; J. R. Briggs, P. M. Burdell, 1.00; John Bissell, 1.00; Thus P 1.00; Philana Neall, .50; Jos. Kimpton, 1. ¹⁴ WE BAYE ALOO A FORM SDRE WORD OF PROFENCY; WHEREHITO VE DO WELL THAT YE TAKE HERE, AS DATO A LIGHT IN A BARE PLACE, UNTO THE PAY DAWN, AND THE DAY-STAR ARUK IN YOOR HEARTE¹⁰-9 Pet., 19,

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, MARCH 4. 1845.

E 31 D A MOR

THE DAY-STAR

E. JACOBR, Editor & Publisher,

VOLUME 5.

is a soutisection of the Warrans Missnews Cax, and is pub-liable over Tuesday, by E. Jacous, at his residence on Suventh array, south site, three doors east of the Tabarbacks. All scanney in the for publication—on the listicate of the paper, or others for books, and publications, should be addressed for Paip to E. Jacous, Cincinnart, O.

TERMS OF THE PAPER.

Fity cants per vol. of 13 numbers in advance, to those that are the to pay; and gratis to those that are really unable to pay.

"Whispering Angels."

Am-"Suitser's Song of Home." Weary pilgrim, why this sadness! Why 'mid sorrow's scones decline? The 'trial strange' brings joy and gladness; For all things shall yet be thine— 'Sh yes, all things shall yet be thine.

Earth anew with robe of glory, Shall rejoice in hill and vale; And swert harpings tell the story Of the love that could not fail-Oh yes, the love that could not fail.

Thou shalt range the fields of pleasure, Where joy's gunbing songs arise; Thou shalt have thy well stored treasure In the New Earth Paradise— Yes, in the New Earth Paradise.

Weary Pilgrim, leave thy sadness, To Mount Zion thou art come : Now swell thy song of joy and gladness, And rejoice in thy blest home— Thine own and Jesus' heavenly home. E. C. C. Mars E C. C. Remoney in our last we noticed an article from Mr. Bush, proposing a discussion on cartain propositions which he stated. We will not, howaver, trouble sur readers with a long review of his strange upinions, for we think they are too manifestly un-comptural to be very dangerons with these who are settled in a belief of the Scriptures as a revelation from God. At present, we propose only a bri I notice of one point which must be fundamental in his theory, and hence, the truthfulness of his argument must stand or fall with this. We refer to his proposition concerning the resurrec-uen of Christ. His language is as follows :

Bush on the Resurrection. 4.

"That the tenet which affirms the literal reaniation of the identical and unchanged body of our Let , on the third day, is utterly untenable."

We understand Mr. Bush, in this, to deny the literal resurrection of the identical body of Christ in the third day. If he does not mean this, no are can know from his language what he does main; and if this is what he means-and we are ure it is what he says-we will attempt, in a law reparks, to show its absurdity. If the large single employed means any thing, it means that the same body in which Christ was crucified, and dind, and was placed in the tomb, did not rise The life again, then was there died, was restored to life again, then was there a literal reanima-tion of the identical body of Christ, which Mr. Fuel denies. Let us now look after the proof.

1. We will introduce a few of those Scriptures which predicted his resurrection before the event escarred.

Pea. xvi. 9, 10; "Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth; my flash also shall rest in hope. For thou wilt not leave my soul in bell: nother wilt thou suffer thy holy one to see cor-reption."

For an explanation of this tast we must turn so the New Testament, where we have it given by the sure word of inspiration.

Acts ii. 25, 26, 28, 29, 31, 34; "For David speaketh concerning him; I foresaw the Lord always before my face; therefore did my heart always before my face; therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope; because thou will not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thy Holy One to see corruption. Thou hast made known unto me the ways of fife. Men ard breth-ren, let me freely speak unto you of the patri-arch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulcher is with us unto this day. He spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither did his flesh see cor-ruption. For David is not ascended into the heavens."

1. This text most clearly affinns the resurrec-1. This text most clearly annuals has resurrec-tion of Christ: it affirms the resurrection of his body in contradistinction from the soul, and as it speaks of the body, the "flesh," it must have been the same body, "the identical body," or it was not he that was raised, so far as the body is concerned, and of course not he that was seen alive.

2. This view is further confirmed by the decla-ration that his fisch should rest in hope. If it was not the same body that Jesus took again, then there was no hope for the flesh.

8. Our agument is further strengthened by the assertion that his flesh did not see corruption. If If it was not the same body that was raised, then the old body, his flesh, did ses corruption, the very thing which the text denies.

Matt. xx. 18, 19; "The Son of man shall be be-trayed unto the chief priests, and they shall con-demn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to be scourged, and to cru-cify him: and the third day he shall rise again." Luke ix. 31 : "The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him : and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day." Son also chap. x. 34; and Luke xviii. 33; where the same thing is repeated. the same thing is repeated.

This certainly is well calculated to deceive and mislead, if it does not contain the doctrine of the literal resurrection of Christ. The words them-salves imply this, and would be so understood now, should any man make the same declarations concerning himself.

1. These declarations clearly appose his resur-rection to his death. "After that he is killed, he ahall rise the third day." There is just as good ground to contond that there was no literal death, as there is to contend that there was no resurred tion: nor can we see how any thing but a literal resorrection can be predicted of a literal death.

resourcection can be predicted of a literal death. 2. This is the sense in which Jesus Christ was understood by the Jews. They came to Pilate, saying, "Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise sgain : Command, therefore, that the sepul-chre be made sure until the third day."—Matt. xxvii. 63, 64. To make the sepalchre sure, a Ro-man guard was placed there to prevent the dis-ciples from stealing him away. This clearly sup-poses that a literal resurrection had been foretold, for the stealing of the body could not be resorted to with a ynew of producing a belief in any but a to with a view of producing a belief in any but a literal resource too. It is clear, therefore, that the Jews understood Christ to predict a literal resource tion, for they could not have conceived that the disciples would resort to the ft, commit-ted upon the regions of the dead, in proof of any but a literal resource the but a literal resurrection.

II. We will introduce a few passages in which the fact of the resurrection was affirmed after it took place.

Matt. xxviii. 5-7; "And the angel answered and said unto the women, he is not here; for he is risen, as he said. Come see the place where the Lord lay. And go quickly, and tell his disci-ples that he is risen from the dead." Mark xvi.

6. "He is risen, he is not here, behold the place where they laid him." 1 Cor. xv. 3, 4. "Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and was buried, and rose again the third day ac-cording to the Scriptures." Ver. 20, "But now in Christ risen from the desd, and become the first fruits of them that slept."

THAT SHITTE

These texts are very plain and simple in their declarations, and cannot be true if there was not a declarations, and cannot be true if there was not a literal resurrection of the identical body of Christ. It is asserted over and over again that he was isilied, that he was dead, and that he was raised from the dead. What was raised from the dead ? Just what was killed; what was dead ; nothing else could be raised from the dead. What, they, was dead? The body of Christ; it must where-fore have been the same body that was raised, or that body is dead wit, and there was no resurrecthat body is dead yet, and there was no resurce-tion. Nothing can be said to be raised from the dead which is not dead, and nothing can be said to be dead which was not once alive, hence, when it is said that Christ was raised from the dead, the meaning must be, that "the same body was reasi-mated." The same body that was raised from the dead must have been dead, and the same body that was dead, must have been alive before it was dead; there must, therefore, have been a resurrection or "rearimation of the identical body of Christ," or the Scriptures which so often affirm the resurrec-tion of Christ cannot be true.

Iff. It is upon no other principle than "the re-animation of the identical body of Christ," that we can account for the disappearance of his body on the morning of the third day. What became of the body of Christ, if it was not reanimated? The disciples did not take it away, as the whole story goes to prove. Moreover, it is obvious from their proneness to unbellef, that could they have found the body of Christ, they would not have believed the story of his resurrection. The Roman sol-diers nor the Jews reinoved the body of Christ, for had they possessed it, they would have pro-duced it to save themselves the necessity of tell-ing a lic, by saying his disciples stole him a way. No one else could have stolen the body of. Christ, for the guard was obviously there until the angel No one else could have stolen the body of Christ, for the guard was obviously there until the angel descended at the time of the resurrection, which appears to have been but a few moments before Mary was at the sepulchrs. If then the body of Christ was not removed, and did not rise, what became of it? This is a question which cannot be answered. The very fact that the body of Christ disappeared from the sepuldbre at the time of the resurrection, proves beyond a doubt that the resurrection was a reasimation of the same body that was crucified, and died, and was buried. No doubt had mortal eye watched the tomb as the fires of immortality rekindled there, the same body that had been valled to the cross and from thence was borne lifeless and bloody to the rock-bound deposit, would have been seen to stir, to open its death scaled eyes, and hy aside the habiliments of the grave, and move off with the power of endless life. That there was a change, we do not deny. the grave, and move on with the power of endess life. That there was a change, we do not deny. We believe there was, but whatever change passed upon the body it was still the same body, the res-urrection and glorious body was raised from, and swallowed up the mortal body, in a manner to preserve its identity, or else the old body would have been loft behind and could have been found.

IV. The marks which the body of Christ ex-hibited after the resurrection, provest to be iden-tical with his former body. There were the prints of the neils in his hands, and the mark of the spear was yet in his side. These marks prove that it must have been the same body. If it be said that this was not a reality, but a miracle by which a body with those marks was made to ap-pear where there was none in fact, the reply is, that such an exhibition must have deceived the apostles, or it could have furnished no proof of his resurrection in any sense. As they could not IV. The marks which the body of Christ ex10 have doubted the power of God to make such a miraculous exhibition without there being a literal miraculous exhibition without there being a literal body, the exhibition could have furnished no proof of the fact of any resurrection of any sort, if it were understood that it were a mere miraculous show of a body with prints of nails where no such thing existed; and if it was not understood that it was a mere show of such a body, when it was not in reality, they were deceived. The conclusion is that if the identical body of Christ was not reani-mated, the apostles were deceived, for they obvi-ously so understood it. What a pity that Mr. Bush had not been present at that interesting meet-ing, when doubting Thomas thrust his hand into the Saviour's side; how he might have underived him by just whispering in his ear, "Thomas, that him by just whispering in his ear, "Thomas, that is not the identical body that was wounded upon the cross, that body and those wounds are mere miraculous representations." What a blessing miraculous representations." What a dessing he would have conferred upon the sposile, and apon the world. We have said enough and will stop, for the view we oppose is too manifestly anti-scriptural, to be believed by any who have the least confidence in the statements of the New Testiment.—True Wesleyan,

The Book of Esdras.

We gave in some former numbers of our paper, the views of brethren Pinney and Fassett, on the 2d book of Esdras, the Vision of the Eagle, &c.; not because we endorsed their sentiments, but because they and others thought them true, and im-portant to be published. We find that quite a number of our brethren are inclined to adopt the number of our breathen are inclined to adopt the views presented in these articles, while others believe the book inspired, but cannot receive in full brethren Pinney and Fassett's exposition; and others think the book altogether spurious. Now all must see that it will not do to have a tri-fuld controversy in our small sheet, on this nor any other question. Yet, if we lat one good brother speak, it is just that another equally good, should have the same privilege. We have therefore con-cluded to give an article from the pear of brother Gibbs who admits the inavient of the book Gibbs, who admits the inapiration of the book, but gives a different exposition, and some eviden-ces presented by Bro. Weston, who thinks the book a fabrication. Bro. Weston says:

"I have searched thoroughly, (and I believe I had ample means,) and I can find no evidence that the first and second books of Esdras (as we term them,) were ever received by the Jewish or Christian Church; but on the contrary, I find most satisfactory evidence that Esdras was not known to exist until many conturies after it purports to have been written, and when known it was rejected as spurious. And I do not find that was rejected as spurious. And I do not find that at any time it has been received with any confi-dence, but by the Mother of Harlots. I might re-fer to abundance of authority, but I will only re-fer to one that is easy of access to all. In Cal-met's Dict., Art. Ezra, we read, "There are four books in the Vulgate, bearing the name of Ezra or Esdras, but the first only is acknowledged to be his. This is certainly the work of Ezra; and in it he relates events of which he was witness; speaking often in the first person. The second book is attributed to Nebemiah and is called after him in the English translation. The third book is the same in substance as the first, but interpolated. the same in substance as the first, but interpolated. The fourth book is written with art enough, as if Esdras himself had composed it; but the marks of falsehood are discernable throughout. It is not extant in Greek and never was in Hebrew.

extant in Greek and never was in Hebrew." All will see that Calmet calls the third and fourth what we call first and second." Now what is best to do in future, on this case? Wegive it as our opinion, that we had better have no controversy ou it. Time will soon decide whether the exposition given by brethren Pinney and Fassett is correct or not; and to prove the book untrue by quoting the opinions of ancient and modern authors, will be labor lost; for those who believe the book inspired will meet all such evidences with this provision, found in the book itself; viz. that it was to be kid ontil the last days. They think these opposing opinions have been the They think these opposing opinions have been the very means used to hids the book, or keep it from the church until the time arrived when God de-signed it should be received, understood, and be-lieved. To prove the book not inspired, those who believe it is, must be convinced that its pr phetic declarations have failed; this cannot now be done. Or it must be shown that the doctrine of done. Or it must be shown that the doctrine of the book contradicts the plain word of the Lord; this would be difficult. Or it must be shown that it was written since the writing of the New Tes-tament: This cannot be done; for the evidence, if it can be called evidence, to settle this point, must be drawn from the conflicting opinions of pa-tionship months arthenizement and such like triarchs, monks, archepiscopal, and such like writers, who wrote in the days of the church's apostacy, in the fourth century, or under the full reign of the Man of Sin. And what are such opinions worth? Just nothing; for they neutralize each other, and prove nothing.

THE DAY-STAR.

The only way to prove the truth or falsity of the book, is, to go back to the back itself-com-pare it with the Bible and the events which it foretells; and if you find it to correspond with the undisputed word of God, and to utter true predic-tions, then by all means receive it: it is the word of the Lord. But if it fails in either of these points, reject it: it is a fabrication. Every one must decide for himself. But let there be no strife; the Lord is at hard. May he give us wisdom, that we may know his voice when he speaks, patience to follow him wherever he shall call us to go, and every necessary qualification to glorify him here, and to enjoy his Kingdom hereafter. Voice of Truth.

From the Voice of Truth. + Book of Esdras.

Dear Bro. Marsh :-- I believe the time has come for God's waiting people to investigate the book of Esdras. You have presented in yous tru-ly valuable paper the views of two brethren, of the Vision of the Eagle; which vision alone, is, I believe, sufficiently important and conclusive to vindicate the divine authenticity of the book. My views materially differ from those you have pub-

From your remark under the caption "Doubtful testimony," I learn you still remain underided in relation to the authenticity of the book-rather relation to the authenticity of the book—rather preponderating to its rejection. I hope Bro. Marsh will not hastily decide. I would say in relation to Bro. P. and F.'s views, the cause of difference, I conceive arises from their conflicting the the ex-position with the interpretation. The exposition is first given, which affords the main ground work of the whole matter. The interpretation is a con-firmation, making plain, by adding, if there be any thing wanting, but with a strict conformity to the thing wanting, but with a strict conformity to the exposition. We see the first appearance of the Eagle is 12 feathered wings and 3 heads. With this we have a prophetic view reaching to the close of the 13th century. First, the kingdom of the Cusars, the 12 and those which followed hr the classers, the 12 and these which followed fif process of time, which kingdom terminated in 493. Next, the 3 false religions that pervaded the whole earth; first Pagan, designated in 508, though co-existing with kingly power; next Pa-pacy 538; last Mahomedan whose power became established in the 13th contart. established in the 13th century. Here we see a perfect application. They were to be preserved for the last. This is also literally fulfilled. The civil power has been taken away from two of them, and that since the time of the end.

The brethren in speaking of the kingdom of the Casars say, "after the time of that kingdom i" they ask, "what kingdom?" And answer, "the Roman, over which the 12 wings or 12 Casars had ruled." I understand the 12 wings here anhad fuled." (understand the 12 wings here an-swer to the several kingdoms made tributary to the Romans, over which each Cesar in regular succession reigned. Again, they say, Then as in the vision (see 11: 20;) he beheld and lo in pro-cess of time, What! why, the last state of this kingdom---that which remainest, as mentioned in a function of the set of the backets is lock action.

follows, which says, The days will come, not has come, that there shall arise up a kingdom (suc-ceeding the Grecian) which shall be feared above all the kingdoms that were before it.

We are to look for the strivings that should ise after the kingdom of the Casars, from We are to look for the strivings that should arise after the kingdom of the Cesars, from 483, and preceding the time of the eight small under feathers. The term it, I understand refers to the city of Rome, the danger of he falling as Babylon and Nineveh, but it should not then fall, but be restored again to his beginning The portions of the vision referred to by its brethren, which they apply to Harrison and Poll I conceive is doing violence to the Divine order The exposition has come down in the succession The exposition has come down in the succe of events, to the time when the contrary feather thought to set up themselves and have the rule. thought to set up themselves and have the rule. says, There was one set up, but shortly it a peared no more. The second was sooner away than the first. Do not those two belong to the and have they not a fulfillment in the 2 first P-idents? It says of the contrary feathers there was 8 of them. Dare we say there were 10? The imthat Polk is to pass away sconer than the lament Harrison we distinctly see has no foundation, a none but the 8 are noticed in the exposition interpretation. How important it is, my brethma interpretation. How important it is, my brethra that we pray constantly, that we may entirely he sight of the wisdom of man in making import decisions, and be guided alone by the wind that cometh from above, which we are asses will guide us into all truth. Have faith, my brethren, strong faith, this should be our constant an empendence of the truth of the second s ren, strong latth, this should be our constant an remembering that unbelief is a cruel, yes, damning sin. Shall we lack, and perish from way, from the very threshhold of the port of me Forbid, O my heavenly Father, forbid. I would notice that which is considered an surdity, and an obstruction in the way of re-ing this book. It says in the 14th chapter, "The world bath both in worth and the times being ing this book. It says in the 14th chapter, "in world hath lost his youth and the times begin wax old. For the world is divided into 12 per and the 10 parts of it are gone already, and of the tenth part." Paul says in Hebrews, say ing of Christ, "But now once in the end of world bath he aneaned to put away sin he world hath he appeared to put away sin, by sacrifice of himself." In the 2d chap, Esdras, says, "And therefore, O ye beathen that here understand. Look for your Shepherd, he d give you everlasting rest; for he is nigh at her that shall come in the end of the world." To m of the lewish age, which appears to be the reasonable construction, we readily solve matter and come at the date when Esdras recei this prophecy.

I put down the Bible chronology to the li of Christ, which is 4157, add to it 70, w reaches to the final dispersion of the Jews, have 4227. This we are to divide into 12 powers and a half parts remained from Esdras, we amounts to 528. Take from this 70, leaves times to the birth of Christ, which is 458, different the birth of Christ, which is 458, different the birth of Christ, which is 458. but I year from the date put down when the mandment went forth to restore and build J salem. Is not here additional testimony? M difference from this, is positive, divine testi Your Brother, waiting for the consuma-

of our hope. East Nassau, Jan. 26, 1845. D. B. GIER

From the Voice of Truth. Yet a Little While.

The Bible speaks often of a distinct period der this title; and the special duty of the right during its continuance. See David, Ps. 37.7-"Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for " What is the stimulus to thus wait? "For y little while and the wicked shall not be. But meek shall inherit the earth."

Isa. 10: 12; " It shall come to pass who v. 39, which says, Art not thou it that remainest of the 4 beasts whom I made to reign in my world! It, that remained, the 4th beast-the last. Theone remaining of the 4 succeeding the he-goat. The kingdom seen in the vision of his brother Daniet, not a pert of the beast or kingdom, but the king-dom; the whole kingdom not being expounded unto him. We learn the same by the interpretation which tion between them and the world?

simply believing that event near. Where then began this distinction! The preaching of "DET-INITE TIME" commenced the work. The electrify-ing cry of the "Farmer," that the Lord of life and glory, would come "about the year '43," brought the minds of men to a point, on which ther solid: the barge of Tangel accient they which they split; the lovers of Jesus' coming taking the one side-and those who loved the world better, this completed the work. Since then our course has been completely hidden from the gaze of the world--past their comprehension. Now then, the question arises, Is this God's work! Did he instigate the preaching of those truths? If not, then one enemics are right, and we have been deluded! But we know our Lord has done the work-blind unbelief can not see it. God has thus tested the world, and it is seen, who are willing to forsake all for the take of Christ--who would heartily embrace, and confers the truth, and boldly act their fuith in the same. A little flock has been thus singled out, and tried, preparatory to the reception of an everlasting Kingdom. If then the past preaching was authorized by

If then the past preaching was authorized by the Most High—if he has in his way separated the precious from the vile, the wheat from the chaff, to effect a union again, would be to surrender a portion or all of these truths. This would be de-molishing the dividing walt. This is the manner in which come have created the line and avefur in which some have crossed the line, and proffer-ed the hand of Union to a tailen world. And on this point Satan is very busy suggesting to the believer that he has been too strendous, he had better soften down some things a little, the mantle of his charity is not quite broad enough, &c. Ohi may heaven save us from heeding such insinuations? May the children of God be con-tent with the position to which they have been led by unerring wisdom, and not be suffered to relinquish the guiding hand of Him who keepeth Israel. The Lord keep his saints from extending a fraternal hand to the world, over his prostrate,

We feel very confident that there must be some-

We feel very connect that there must be soll-thing wrong in the late communications which have appeared in the "Advent Herald," and "Morning Watch." on indefinite time, from the pens of our good brethren Brown, Storrs, and others, from the consideration that they have, so far as our observation has extended, had the di-

× Something Wrong.

bleeding truths!-Hope of Israel.

remove the imquity of that land in one day." As remove the inequity of that land in one day." As to what land, see ch. 2: 12; "And the Lord shall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall yet choose Jerusalem again." He first eluss it in David's time, 2 Chron. 6: 5, 6; "It has slace been condemned. I believe it is now justi-fied, and will soon be to Jesus, our Righteousness, restored, where he will reign over the house of Jscob for ever. Luke 1: 32, 33; Jer. 3: 17.

In Ist. 10: 25; after alluding to the accomplishing of this time, he says, "For yet a very little while and the indignation shall cease, and mine anger in their destruction." This will speedily come. Isa. 40: 10; Rev. 22: 12.

Haggai 2: 6, 7; "Thus with the Lord, Yet once it is a little while and I will shake the heavens and It is a little white and I will shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land, and I will shake all nations," ver. 22; Isa. 34; 1-2; "and the desire of all nations shall come." What na-tions? Rov. 21; 24; "The nations of them which are saved shall walk to the light of it," &c. Paul in the book of Hebrews, takes this prophecy, ap-plies it to Christ's second Advent, and tells where this short time empreness a charter 0; 68, the case this short time commences, chapter 9: 25; he says, "Unto them that loop for him shall be appear the second time without sin unto salvation."

In Heb. 10: 35-37; we are commanded not to cast away our confidence, evidently not in the event, but confidence in the time, saying, "ye have need of patience," not to suffer or laber, hut "that ye might receive the promise," and comforts as with the pledge, "For yet a fille while and he that shall come will come and will not tarry;" and adds, "now the just shall walk by faith." In Heb. 11: he refers to cases to show the power of faith—he then in chap. 12: 22-37; urges us not to refuse to hear God who speaks, in these last days by his Son, and quotes in full from Hag. 2: 6, 7. From these texts it is evident we have been in this "little while" since the temptation came to In Heb. 10: 35-37; we are commanded not to cast

From these texts it is evident we have been in this "little while" since the temptation came to cast away all confidence in "times and seasons." The Lord open the eyes of his Israel to see that we should be patient—rest in the Lord—and not grieve one another, lest we be condemned now, and consumed when the Son of man comes to exccute judgment. He stands before the door, and will soon come to release the captives. T. F. BARRY.

Rachester Feb. 12, 1845.

+ For the Day Star. Gethzemane.

L. M .- TINE, -- Hebron.

- 1 'Tis midnight—and on Olive's brow The star is dimm'd that lately shone; 'Tis midnight—in the gardee new, The suff'ing Saviour prays alone.
- 2 'Tis Midnight--and from all renew'd, Ins manuel wrestles, "lone with fears ; E'en the disciple that He lov'd Heeds not his Master's grief and tears.
- 3 'Tis midnight-and for other's guilt, The Man of Sorrows weeps in blood; Yet He, that hath in anguish knelt, Is not forsaken by his God.
- 4 'Tis midnight-Hear his burden'd cry, Directed to his Father's throne ! If possible, this cup pass by; If not, Father, thy will be done.
- 5 'Tis midnight—see him agonize ! 'Till every pore sweats drops of blood ; On the cold ground the Saviour lies, Press'd 'neath our sin's most heavy load.
- 6 'Tis midnight-His disciples sleep, Though thrice He calls on them to pray; Thrice He retires alone to weep, And bear our burdens all away.
- 7 "Tis midnight-but from heav'n appears An angel, who does strengthen Him; He prays more earnestly with tears, And gains the conquest over sin.

"Fur the froward is an abomination to the Land but his secret is with the righteous."-PROV.

and doubting in their unbelief. They have enger-No Union with the World. ly seized upon these communications, in justifica-tion of their unbelief in the immediate coming of No doubt every true Adventist would heartily respond to the above sentiment. Yet it is to be feared, some, in this hour of trial, have practic-ally over-stepped this Bible boundary, and others, almost unawares perhaps, are following the dan-genese extends. And for the sake of such it the Lord. And beside, these communications have made the hearts sad, of those who were strong in the faith of the near coming of Christ. geroms example. And for the sake of such, it may be duty, to define one way, in which we think some are effecting a muion with the world. That through all the history of this cause, between those who advocated it, and opposers: a broad line strong in the faith of the near coming of Christ. Our duly is to sncourage the weak and tempted ones not to cast away their confidence, instead of helping them to cast it away; and tn comfort in-stead of discouraging one another. Do, brêth-ren, let us have confidence in God. This indefi-nite time theory shows a lack of that confidence. It says, we have been disappointed once, yea twice, and now we will provide for the future, so that we shall not meet with another mortifying disappointment. O, let us not, lean to our own of separation has existed, friend and foe can but see. The Adventists, have always been a distinct people, known and hated every where. But what made them so? What made so visible a distincdisappointment. O, let us not. lean to our or understanding, but on the arm of the Lord. He will take care of his children and his own cause. Fear not.—Voice of Truth. It was not merely faith in the literal coming of Christ, for that has been the belief of thousands prior to the excitement caused by this people. Neither was it simply believing that event near. Where then one side—and those who loved the world better, the other. As time advanced, the line of separa-tion widened. From every quarter, the little army of waiting ones, were assailed by the reproaches of an angry multitude. But what called forth-such bitter hatred? It was "definite time." To all classes this was the odious point. From the pulpit to the dram-shop all were stirred by this preaching. Ministers prated about the iniquity of "prying into God's secrets," and cried, "No man knoweth the day and hour !" and the reeling inebriate echoed the all-powerful argument. But, connected with this subject, other things have served to push farther spart the pilgrim band, and a solfling church and world. Every ray of light—every important movement upon this sub-ject, has invariably tended to this result. Espe-cially is this true of the message, "Come out of her my people."—and the 7th month movement,— this completed the work. Since then our course has been completely hidden from the gaze of the unstable message the subject of the I visited the little band of Advent believers in Madison last week, and lectured according to appointment on Wednesday and Thursday evenings -in the Disciple's meeting house on Poplar street.

THE DAY-STAR.

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, MARCH 4, 1845.

MADISON, IND.

On Wednesday evening the congregation was small in consequence of my appointment not reaching the place until the morning of that day. On Thursday evening the congregation was larger and the attention remarkably good.

There are probably not more than swelve or ffteen decided believers in the Advent near in this place, yet they are enough to keep the whole city in commotion the most of the time. The principal charges, however, seem to be heaped upon Bro. Bishop, and amount to about the same as those brought against a good brother a long time ago; viz. that he is "a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the" Methodist "through-"ut" Madison, "and a ringleader of the sect of the" Millerites.

Among all the efforts put forth by the clergy of this place, to he lge up the influence of second Advent doctrine. I will allude to one as a sample,

One of the Methodist preachers, at the cipse of a discourse by a brother, founded on some part of 2 Pet. 3:, arose and remarked, that he had been thinking how long a thousand years of days would be, since "one day with the Lord, is as a thousand years." He then drew his conclusions that "the day of the Lord" would not come till that period had passed, and then, when "the day of the Lord" did come, each individual would be brought forward, in the order in which they had entered the world, and every act and thought of their lives, from beginning to the end, singly and publicly read out; and when this was all accomplished, the day of Judgment would be passed :upon which, some of his flock were so "comforted" that they cheered him with expressions of, "that's it brother," "Bless the Lord," &c.

Now look at the bearing of the sentiment. A professed minister of Jesus Christ encourages his people to believe that Christ will not come under one million of years, reckoning from the time Peter wrote, (2 Pet. 3: 8;) and that when he does come it will require more than three million years longer to judge only what inhabitants have lived on the earth till the present time, calculating only twenty-four hours to "read out publicly each thought and act in the life of every individual;"while the martyrs cry from under the altar, "How rect tendency to strengthen the already wavering iung O Lord, holy and irac, dost thou not judge and avonge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?"

12

This preacher, though probably opposed to calculating time, has here fixed a basis for calculating an answer to the martyl's mournful cry.

If any think such calculations extravagant, though founded upon such an unwarrantable assumption, let them look at it in its true light.

Suppose the earth to remain in its present form one million years, as is assumed, and its population continue to increase in the ratio of any, or all past time, it would require a hundred million Glubes like this; to contain the hving inhabitants at the expiration of that period, (assigning no more than three feet square to each person.) and a hundred times that aumber to contain the ashes of those that would have died in that time-upon the same ratio.

Had the main "searched the Scriptures" for the meaning of 2 Pet. 3: 8, he would have saved himself from the nwkward position into which he stumbled, See Isi. 46: 9, 10; Gen. 2: 1-3; Heb. 4: 4-8; &c.

On Saturday, I returned home again, still laboring under severe indisposition, from weakness, and an affection of the lungs. O may the Lord preserve his people in these last moments of trial, from the delusive, and soul destroying dreams of the present generation !

BRO. STORRS.

In the "Morning Watch" of February 20th, Bro. Storrs brings a heavy charge against Bro. J. B. Cook, viz., "He knows not what he doeth. The delusion of the "10th day" cry has blinded his eyes,"-because he had denied that Christ pleads for rebel sinners.

It may be that I have been the procuring cause of this smiting for Bro. Cook, as the language quoted by Bro. Storrs is from a report I gave of Bro. Cook's discourse.

To relieve Bro. Cook from any unpleasantness these remarks may have caused I will say, That I did not understand Bro. C. to deny that "Prophets and Aposities" plead for sinhers-or that Christ "died for sinners"-or that there was merit in his death to save all, if they would come to him':-But he carried this idea; that, as an intercessor on the Father's Throng, CHRIST, never "pleud" for any but those that committed their cause to him. This subject Bro. Storrs did not touch, nor bring one text of scripture to oppose. Or Can he du it ?

Information Wanted.

We have many enquiries of late respecting the Sister Matthewson in Ct., who was reported to have been singularly preserved three or four menths without food. Will our fridads of the "Moraing Watch" and "Advent Herald" (who published the articles) give us information how the case terminated, and what became of her !

Or I am usable to answer the inquiry of the Advent Herald, as to the " name of the town" in which the "revival" was said to be. The article was published just as it was received.

Bro. W. Theyre of Pomfret, Ct., can answer your question.

"The secret things belong unto the Lord our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law."-Detr. 29: 29.

LETTBRS.

WEST MIDDLETOWN, PA., Feb. 23, 1945.

Bro. Jacobs, You may have expected befor this, that 1 had become ungrateful and negligent of my friends in Cincinnati: It so, be assured such sus-pictons are unfounded; I shall never forget their kindness and attestion towards me.

The "W. M. Cry," though sent without being ordered, and by some unknown friend, was never-theless received with thanks, and read with atten-tion. It brought to my mind new ideas. The "Vision of the Eagle" seems to be very plain and "bill of interest full of interest.

I enclose one dollar to have the paper contintied.

Are we not in a strange landi-Sprrounded with Are we not in a strange inno, --Sorrounded with scoffers, my faith in the Advent at hand, is not in the least shaken. I am still firm in the opnion that the Saviour is near, "even af the door."  I am alone in this place.--Those who once be lieved the doctrine, now scoff at it. O how lament-able is their case ! They are "gone back." SUSAN HILLIGAS.

Lotter from Sister Lewis.

Natches, Jan. 30, 1845.

DEAR BROTHER :--- I take this opportunity to let you know that I am well, and still firm in the Advent hope, I trust there are a few names of us here that will walk with our Saviour in white when he comes; for God who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts. But we have this treasure in earthen vessels that the excellency of the power may be of God and not of

IIS. As to the position we have followed, I believe the hand of God has been in it. I am truly sorry to say, that there is but small progress in religious matters with our white brethren in flus place. I have learned that there has been but one conversion in the church for the last two years — that is in the Methodiat church, as I frequent no other: But while sur white breth-ren have failed to get up a revival, our colored brethren have seen added to the church daily, I trust, such as shall be saved when my Lord comes trust, such as shall be saved when my Lord comes to make up his jewels. There are here some old servants, faithful to the Lord, and who bear perservants, faithful to the Lord, and who bear per-secution for the Lord's sake. As to myself 1 am as determined to hold on till the end as when I met with you at the "Big Tent" meeting. Breth-ren, pray for us that God may revive his work in the midst of the years, and in wrath remember mercy.

Yours, in the blessed hope, M. J. LEWIS.

* She is a person of color.

Letter from Bro. G. W. Miller.

Low Hampton, Feb. 19, 1845.

DEAR BGO. JACOBS :-- I have often thought of you and the dear friends with whom I have associ-ated in the far West, since I left Cincinnati. I have thought that I should like to see their faces in this hour of trial, and tell them that the same afflictions are being accomplished in all the breth-ran scattered throughout all the world. But this 1 do not expect. My expectations are very strong that we shall very soon Hail each other on the other side of all disappointments and trink. O how pleasant is the thought, that these afflictions are but for a moment, and then comes sternal are but for a moment, and then comes sternal glory! Yes, my brother, I expect very soon the glory will be revealed and all flesh will see it ro-gether. My faith in the coming of the Lord is stronger than ever. I feel as though the eviden-ces are incréasing daily. I believe we are on the right track yet, and if we follow on to know the Lord we shall know his contra forth in prepared Lord, we shall know his going forth is prepared as the morning. I trust that our past experience will never be torgotten, for it has worked a bless-ed hops which msketh not ashamed, because the love of God is shed abroad in the heart. Yes,my soul believes this has been the work of God. I have not a word of discouragement to say to those who are looking for the Lord; but to those who have drawn back, what can we say to them bat Perdition ! PERDITION ! ! I have thought sometimes, could I have known of this time I should have done different, but Ha who holds the treasures of all knowledge know what was best for us in order to bring about his divine purposes. We can look back upon our ex-perience and count the steps we have taken a God's word, and all is right. Glory to his boly 11 301180

"For he has been with us, and he still is with us, And he has promised to be with us to the end."

I feel like holding on to the blessed Bible ren and if ever I loved its truths it is at this time. and if ever 1 loved its truths it is at this time, believe our position is as clearly marked in the word as ever, if not clearer. The brethren in the place are strong in the faith of soon seeing the King in his beauty, even within or at the termis-ation of this Jewish year. I have given up a hope of the world ever being awakened to the hope of the world ever being awakened to this glorious subject sgain, even if time should is preached, for we have come to the time in which they have rejected the truth altogether by pro-nouncing it a heresy and a subject that is very injurcous to the cause of "Obriet,---This being the decision of a council lately called in our place Glory to God, they have separated us from the company, and we will rejuice, for our Master talk us to. When these things are being failled to can chim the ochortation given us by James 5 us to. When these things are being fulfilled me can claim the exhortation given us by James 5 10; "Take my brethen, the Prophets who has spoken in the name of the Lord for an axample suffering affliction and of Patience." Now as a claim James to be our brother we can also claim the Prophets as our brethren in this hour of true I have thought, could the Prophets have lived, a this day they could not have given a more splete history than what they have; see Jer. 1 15-18; 20: 7-12. It appears to me that we as to take them for an example of suffering dis to may these there for an example of subering and pointment is time, as well as other things. I for as though I could claim Jeremiah as a brokker we all the rest of the Prophets that have spoken the name of the Lord;—for when I found to word of the Lord I cat it, and it was sweet to... taste, and it was note me the joy and rejoicing my heart. Yes, I glory in it to this day,---I for that I cannot five without it-it feeds my soul:-have found the word to be a light and a happ-my feet—without it I should be in darkness. bless the Lord for this glorious light ! It ship brighter and brighter, and soon it will be eclipin eternal day. My soul says come Lord Jes-o Come quickly and put an ead to the scoffin-Come and vindicate thy truth and save thy chi-ren that have waited for theo. Let favor a shown to the wicked and he will not learn rig cousness; in the land of uprightness will he de continue much longer. I feel for one like cryin unto the Lord to "thrust in thy sickle and rea-for the time is come for thee to reap."

Yours, in the hope of a speedy redemption, G. W. MILLER.

"Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but revealeth his secret wate his servants the pro-ets."—Amos 3; 7.

for The friends at Dayton will announce appointment for me on Sabbath next. I sha not be able to speak more than twice unless health improves.

65 Bro. Stewart, from Cleveland, gave us talk at the Tabernacle on Sabbath evening last, Interesting letters just rec'd will appear in o next issue.

Letter's and Reselpts, For the week ending the 3d inst.

n ap ;

And ale

TT MALE With all i

CLEVELAN

Extract

inter and T

p. Ja

Iwi

Is a continuation of the Warran a Micratorr Car, and is pub-land every Tunnicy, by E. Jacobs, at his residence on Seventh struct, noully side, three doors cant of the Takemostle. All segmemerications for publication-on the familyes of the sager, or orders for books, and publications, should be addressed Perr Parn to E. Jacobs, Urnetmart, O.

TERMS OF THE PAPER.

Pity senis per vol. of 13 numbers in advance, to those that while to pay; and gratis to shows that are really unable to pay.

Advent Hymn.

Cease, cease a while ye winds to blow; Cease ye marmuring streams to flow : Hush'd be every selfish choice--I thigh I be every schuch choice. Chorus.—Where does he roam ? Where can he stay ? I hear my Saviour's on his way, Lo, now on yon bright cloud he rides, And o'er the gittering host presides; His face, bright shining as the sun-The battle's fought, the victory won. Where does &c.

Now coase ye pilgrina, cease your fears, He comes to wipe away all tears : He comes—he's on his glorious way— Arise ye mints and hall the day. Where does &c.

My children, I have heard yout groans ; I've heard your sighs, I've heard your moans ; My ransom'd Church, I come for thee— Soon thou shalt all my glory see, Where does &c.

Cease from that world and all its shares : Leome to clasp there in my arms: Lift up your heads and ery for me-Bedemption's nigh, soon you'll be free. He can not roam, He's on his way, O hasta, my Seviour, come away.

My bride, prepare, without delay i Lift up your hearts, weep, watch and pray: Gird well your Dins, take staff in hand— All that are mine with me shall stand. He can not &c.

The Seventh Trampet seen will sound, And sleeping millions leave the ground; Then typant death no more shall reign — And earth no more shall hide the slain. He can not dec.

He can not roam, He's on his way, Come, King of Israel, come away.

H.R. CLEVELAND, Q., 1845.

From the Voice of Zruth.

Extract of a Letter from Bro. Miller.

Low Haupton, Feb. 6, 1845.

which I believe is the bride, 2 Cor. 11: 2, "For I which I believe is the bride, 2 Cor. 11: 2, "For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have esponsed you to one busband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ." Eph. 1: 22, 23, "And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the lead over all things to the church, which is his body, the fullness of him that filleth all in all," also 6: 22-32, is complete in a marriageable condition, the contract made in both sides, the pledges passed, the espousels wit-nessed : See Cruden on the word espouse. The young people were not permitted to see each other until after their espousals. Neither shall we see Christ until after the wedding. At this wedding each gives a pledge; thus the mar-

The young people were not permitted to see each other until after their esponsals. Neither shall we see Christ until after the wedding. At this wedding each gives a pledge; thus the mar-riage is in this world. But the supper is made at the Bridegroom's Father's house. Matt. 26: 29, "But I way unto, I will not drink henceforth of this funit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's Kingdom," in the new earth. Whit is done at the wedding? The gospel contract is finished, the door is shut, the bride formakes her father's figure, gives up the world, is now looking to see her husband person-ally, before she only know him by report, her lowe was by faith, and now after she has done his will by her pledge, she needs a great deal of patience to wait for thm. Be ye patient therefore, breh-ren, unto the doming of the Lord; for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh. The husband sends his pledge by his Spirit which is the friend of the Bridegroom and bride, the bride receives it with joy; lifts up her head and rejoices at the approach af the day when the Bridegroom will return after the wedding. The following texts prove the fore-going statements. Mait. 25: 10; Luke 13: 25; Rev. 19: 7; Mal. 3: 17, 19; Rev. 22: 11; Luke 6: 23; 10: 20; 1 Pet. 1: 6, 6; 4: 13; Rev. 18: 20; Heb. 10: 25; 1 Thess. 2: 19; Heb. 10: 29, 37; James 1: 4; 5: 7-21. Max Christ come. In the sense spoken of, Matt. 25: 10! I think he bas. Was the contract fin-ished, and when? My opinion is, that it was on or about the 10th of the seventh month, when the great majority of those who are looking for Christ, dedicated theriselves and all they had to the Lord. There was a division line drawn ther. Many who were in deep diaftees for a preparation to niect Christ at that time, have gone back since the time passed, and have become the most shameful acoff-ers, end the greatest persectuors we have among as . And I have not scon a genuine conversion since; a number who were convarted at that time, and before, remain steadfaat, looking since; a number who were converted at that time, and before, remain steadfast, looking and praying for Christ to come. I cannot but believe, yet I dare not way it positively is so, that, the scenes of the seventh month was the time when Christ fin-ished making up his jewels, and the time when Dan. 12: I, began to be fulfilled, and Luke 13: 25, was commenced. If I am correct, you will see a general and powerful striggle among our nominal sects, for revisels in a short time; but it will prove a Giluxe: no one will be made truly pious. They sects, for revivals in a short time; but it will prove a failure, no one will be made truly pions. They will knock and say, Lord! Lord!! open unto us. They will make many pharissical prayers, but will not be heard. And soon the Saviour will come in person. I know many of my brethren whom I highly esteem, will, and do, disagree with me on this matter. I would advise them not to have any hardness, remember what James says. 6: 0; "Grudge not one against another, brethren, leat ye be condemned: behold, the Judge standels at the door." It would seem that in this very time when we have need of patience, the aposile by the inspiration of the Divine Spirit foresaw, that there would be danger of grudging, or griev-Lon Haupton, Feb. 6, 1845. "I pressume, Bro. Mirsh. you have seen Bro. Hale and Turner's "Advent Mirror," printed in bottes, Jan. 1845, concerning the matriage, in the parable of the virgins. I do believe in the main hey are right—that cannot be the personal coming of Christ. Why't say you. Read Luke 12: 36; "And yo yourselves like unto men that wait for that Lord, when he will return from the wedding; bat, when he comet hand knocksth, they many pen unto him maneilately." You see his context, is made as faisbed; or in other words, when the Church, for this is Michael, etanding up as a Judge, and the troubles commencing. We are only safe in being ready every moment. Let the dear breth-ren see to it, that' we give meat in due seaton Let nd one say in his heart, my Lord delayeth his coming, and begin to beat and bruise, or grudge egainst his fellow servant. He that meets to save his life now by conformity to the world, ar worldly men, will foce it, and he that losss his life now, for the truth's sake, will find eternal life in a few days.

days. We are right in time, and the events we have We are right in time, and the events we have looked for, will come upon us in regular order suddenly. Next thing is the heavy judgments of God, and fuctish virgins knocking ; then Jesus in all his glory. I do now think I see our where-a-bouts. If we get through those breakers ahead, the port is in sight. Let us hold on our way fear-lessly. God will now be our pilot. Good cour-age, faithful to obey, and we are soon in harbor, and at home. and at home.

Yours, rejoicing in good hope that we shall be anchored in the harbor of the New Jerusalam. quickly. W.M. MILLER.

Letter from Bro. Gordon.

New York Feb'y 24, 1845:

New York Feb'y 24, 1845: Data Bao. Jacons: --While we are in this try-ing position, beeding the injunction "Remember Lots wife," your paper comes "as words filly spo-socken" to many waiting pilgrims who can dis-tinguish between meat in due season and that out of season, for dear brother, "The morning is some-the firms is COME, and the day of trouble of MEAR and set the SOUNDING again of the MOUNTAINS."--"Because they lave blown the trompet, even to make all ready." Ezek. 7 : 7, 14. This is a day when some "mine up a parable against us with a doleful lamentation and say see be wholly spolled, he hath changed the portion of this people instead of restoring. [Margin.]--Proph-copy ye not, say they to them that they shall not take shame." The doleful lamentation of fanaticism and delusion of the 7th month movement is used and delusion of the 7th month movement is used and delision of the 'th month movement is used to prevent the servants from giving meat in this season for fear of consequences, viz. SHAME if peradventure the vision should not speak. They by this means, I fear, "pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely," or without their innocent victims perceiving it: How needful if really in this crisis to have the encour-sequent and warning to Watch and KERP on agement and warning to Watch and KEEP our garments 1 this most critical moment has arrived and the awful denunciation of Micah 2: 11, 1s for those who are deceived to the loss of robe and garment.

I am glad dear brother, the Lord has placed you as a sentinel opon the walls, and you must not be entangled with any cord. I am pleased to see the change indicated in the margin of the "Day Star" No. 1. * * * * * *

I feel in my inmost soul to sympathyze * I feel in my inmost soul to sympathyze with you in your labors and efforts to say to those who will hold fast to that.whereunto they have attained, "Arise ye and depart, this is not your rest, because it is polluted, it shall destroy even with a sore destruction," if you LOOK BACK. Yours, while I appreciate our calling—seek— expect—anxiously desire our Lord to come till we join hands, singing that song in the personal presence of my Lord, both yours and ours. WASHINGTON GORDON.

14

For the Day Star. The Seventh Konth.

A pilgrim band, with unaccustomed fest Set out to follow raurn. Then wisdom smiled, A pilgrim hand, with unsecustomed feet Set out to follow raurs. Then wiedom smiled, And pointed to a path, that led far out Beyond the dim philosphy of time, And asid, " If ye indeed will drink the cup Of which I drink, and also be baptised With my baptism, thus shall ye enter in, And tread the thorny path, that follows truth. They bow'd, with one consent, and onward press'd, And as the pathway farrowed cast eside. Their worldly trappings, and each hind'ring weight. Ide's, and self, and sympathies, and fears. Nor looked bellind, to see how strangely far, They had advanced, beyond each time worn chart, For on one side their feet, dark waters yawned. And on the other, still refining fire. At length the trial came, when Wisdom sought To test, and purify their falth, and zeal, And seal them, for the glory and the crown Of righteousness. The day, the test hour came, They stood rootrums. firm, united, free, Upon sternal rock. The waves dashed round And wildly threaten'd, while red lightnings blaz'd, And thand ers volid, and from the gath ring shade, Strango voices whispered unbeliet. Yet still, Unheaded for a while, they brayed the storms. ×. Strange voices whispered unbelief. Yet still Unbeeded for a while, they braved the storms Yet still, At length, a murmur rose, and some looked macr. Astonished at their distance from the shore. For still the land of Egypt, was in sight, Where stood the fanes of worldly worship proud, And human policy, and ancient names, Earth's wisdom, science, and religious form. Then, with a wild attempt their tife to save, Some that had been the first among the train, Some that had been the first among the train, Rushed o'er the heatling verge of that high rock, And loudly called upon the rest to turn, And with confessions deep give up at once. The false pursuit. And now, while yet was heard. The echo of that voice beyond the wave, Their voices change and described the way. And plead, that Wiedom had not led them out. So far from EARTH, but some strange willy FIRMD, In Wisdom's garb. Ah, judge what and dismay Entered the trusting hearth of thist poor flock! Some cried, and is it all indeed a dream. A vision "FARSE," to which my soul has bowed I My sacrifice, and consecration all. My sacrifice, and convectation all, A shadow wrong, and vain I Then unbelief Came in, and many sank in cold dispair, Among the sullen waves, striving in vain, Among the shiften waves, striving in vain, To reach the Kingdom in some saver way. But now, the third long watch is fully past, And the dark must that hung upon that rock, Is driven before the light of coming day. What see we there? Hones scatter'd round its base, Washed from the depths beneath. But turn again, Upon in higher bound and the store and the store again. Upon its highest point, is seen a group, A remnant, that unshakon THERE REMAINS, Who still have kept their first sure confidence Tha! wayes have rent, and chilling waters drench'd, And Earth and Hell combined to drive thom hence, And Earth and Hell combined to drive from hence, Yet there they stand, held by a power uneven, And warr a sure salvation from on high. What is represent to them? or scorn, or hate, Or the low ridicule of dying things? What the last howlings of the storm to them? When home is just in sight, and Jesus calls, And ears, "Come out of tribulation, come. My suffering, and my ransom'd ones, come home."

Philadelphia, Feb'y 15, 1845.

Letter from Sister Minor.

Philadelphio, Feb'y 28, 1845.

C. S. M.

DEAR BRO. JACOBS :- There is an afflicted rem DEAR BRO. JACODE :-- There is an afflicted rem-nant here, whose hearts have leaped for joy, at the rise of the western "Day Star." The contents of its first number, have been indeed, meat in due season, to their fainting spirits. For a few months past, we have heard ao much about "indefinite time," "delusion," &c., our Lord's coming upon his waiting people "as a thief," that our hearts have been made very sad, and the faith of many has been overthrown. But now, the dark trial is pearly over, and we again, fas in the case of the past, we have heard as much about "indefinite time," "delusion," &c., our Lord's coming upon his waiting people "as a thief," that our hearts have been made very sad, and the faith of many has been overthrown. But now, the dark trial is mearly over, and we again, fas in the case of the Day Star.) see the standards of truth uprained, in the early dawn. Again we have the cheerful shout of the centinels, calling to each other, on the misty beights, that the NORMING COMETH, Be encouraged then, dear broken to prass forward, to ery aloud and arans nor. Be accured, that there are many coattered ones, who still love the on-wARD path, who have been left in "the hour of templation," and still hold fast their first confidence and rejoicing. We are crying continually "Come Lord Jesus, and come quickly," and have "Come Lord Jesus, and come quickly," and have sur our faces, as did Daniel, to give him no rest, until he make Jerosalem a praise in the Earth. We ballave that the Jubilee trumpet sounded at the 7th month shout of God's peopler—That the 7th trumpet then also commenced sounding, and that we have heard the midnight "cry." Having this faith we rejuice and lift up our heads, now-two that our redemption is NIGH. This spring, we expect, that Jesus WILL come, and set the remain-ing captives FREE. Let us then, "not draw brack" when the glory is so near, but units with the groaning creation in crying "Thy Kingdom groaning creation in crying "Thy Kingdom COME," C. S. M.

THE DAY-STAR.

Letter from Bro, Clapp.

Hartford Conn. Feb'y 25, 1845.

Harlford Conn. Feb'y 25, 1845. DEAR BRO, JACOBS :-- I have now a few leisure moments, and thought I would spend filem in writing a few lines to you; although I am not personally acquainted with you, and have never heard you preach but once or twice. But for three years past I have been very much interested in reading your publications and letters, and have rejoiced to witness your untiring and unceasing. Iabors, in the cause, which I believe to be of God. I believe you are doing God's work, and can most heartily bid you God speed. You know the Ad-centists do not all see alike on every point of doc-trine, & I cannot see some things just as you have trine, & I cannot see some things just as you have written: But in the great question of the speedy personal coming of Christ, without sin unto salva-tion, we do agree; and it appears to me that you are looking for him about the same time that 1 are looking for him about the same time that I am. I did rejoice very much while reading your letter to our good Brother Storrs. I am soury he has taken just such ground as he has. It seems to me he has a little backslid, and lost some of the glory which I have seen him have. I pray God to preserve him blameless unto the coming of the Lord. I could not help notice the flood of light you gave on the blowing of the Jubilee Trumpet. If it did actually take place on the 10th of the 7th month, the Lord must certainly come in the first month of next Jewish year, —that month will be next April.

be next April. I believe without a doubt, we have seen the an-gel spaken of in Rev. 14th, having the overlasting gospel, flying through the midst of heaven, so ying, "Fear God, and give glory to him, for the hour, for time] of his judgment is come." It has gone over the land and world like a mighty river with over the land and world like a mighty river with great glory—it has shook the moral heavens, and the people of the land exceedingly feared and trembled : A great many souls flew for refuge to the cross of Jesus Christ and found mercy and great peace in believing : Joy and glory broke in upon their souls. But as for those that rejected the cry, groas darkness has covered them. I have seen the evil servants, spoken of by our Saviour in Matt. 24: saying, "My Lord delayath his coming," and smiting the faithful servants that were giving meet to due season. You have been emilten—1 have been smitten,—macrificed by the church and cast out into the world, but the Gospel took me up and placed me upon the Rack, Christ Jesus. Glory to God 11 When the evil servants were thus doing, I have seen, blessed be God, the Kingdom of heaven likened to ten virgins, go out to meet the Bride-groom. I think we have seen Daniel's vision, and the Bridegroom tarry, and all those virgina slumber and sleep, and at this time, I belive wo saw ano,her angel, saying, "Babylon is fallen," and another, saying, "Come out of her my peo-ple," be not partakers of her sins nor of her plagues. We saw the people of God take heed to the voice and "come out."

been emitten-1 have been smitten,-sacrificed by the church and cast out into the world, but the

a loose and then see ou

But he did not come-the oil in the same But he did not come-the oil in the lamps the foolish did not last them any longer-the lamps are "going out:" They can see no definite time, and find fault and blame the win that do see light alsoad. Now the parable hole to me just so; and there is a little—a very sho tarrying time, in this very point. If an correct the Lord of lords and King of kings will some come. The parable of the ten virgins can never be = literally fulfiled again in our generation, mover! never!! And the Lord Jesus Christ say, "This generation" [that see the signs] "shall a pass away till all these things be fulfilled." If mind is solemn while I thus write. Oh, where move? Upon the last inch of time !! This we will soon be on fire, -- The plagues of God's wri-will soon be poured out.-- The Son of God w soon descend himself, with the voice of the sat augel and the trump of God, to raise the righteen dead, and change the righteoue that remain, in dead, and change the rightcous that remain is moment, in the twinkling of an eye. Clot-with immortality, they will be caught up in clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and be for exwith the Lord. And in flaming fire will he m with the Lord. And in maming bro will be a vengeance on all those that know not God as abey not the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour f Christ, and dash the kingdoms of this world pieces like a potter's vessel, and blow them aw like chaff, and there shall be no place found them

It looks to me as if some of the saints are It looks to me as it solute a the above and the angel would thrust in the sickle and reap, the harvest of the earth is ripe. They are hold the angel would thrust in the sickle and reap, the harvest of the earth is ripe. They are hold up the world as a mirror and showing the m-condition of it, and they see that the wicked-of man is great in the earth, and he cannot i-upon it buta little while longer & suffer it. O is all the true larsel of God may be waiting w their lamps brightly bursing, so that we may cape those awful judgments that are so enter into that bright world of glory in the m-earth, and receive the promised inheritance-arown of glory--have sternal life, and be form at rest, "And not a wave of tronble roll across penceful breaste."

"When we've been there ten thousand years, Bright shining as the sun, We've no less days to sing thy praise, Than when we first begun."

We have a very good congregation of Adm believers here, and some very good meetings. It we have our trials as in other places. Yours, in the blessed hope. AARON CLAFT

Letter from Dr. M. Helm.

Springfield, Ill. Feb'y 27, 1844

DEAR BRO. IACOBE: The band of Second a vent believers in this place, lately had occasing raise a pecentary collection to defray the entry of an Advent minister, who had visited us by request. He refused to receive the whole an raised, taking only sufficient to cover his an expenses; in exasequence of which, there left of the collection after supplying him, five lars. A question arose how this should be pristed : a brother proposed that it be sent to Jacobs, as a donation in aid of the Western night Cry (Day Star).—Being put to the Be the proposition was sustained; and I accordin enclose in this and forward you that amo trusting, that though a trifle, it may not be im ceptable at this time, when the paper seems le struggling for existence, that it will serve show the interest we still feel in the second vent cause. That cause can never die til Lord comes. "Heaven and earth shall pass and but my words shall not pass away." What arges of the times, which so clearly their that the glorious event, for which the whole creation has been groaning for six thousand years is now momentarily to be expected. Well, whose fault is it? Their own. Faithfully have they been warned—well have many of the watchmen done their work. Have they not sounded an alarm in God's Holy mountain 1—Yet how few compara-ticals here grown hand thereful flow tother tively have given heed thereto ! Alas, "they are not all Irrael, that are of Isarel."-"My sheep hear my voice.

Like as it was in the days of the prophets, ma-Afte as it was nyine days of the prophete, ma-ny have "refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their .ears, that they should not hear; yea, they have made their hearts as an adamant stone." What now should Advent believers do? Continue to repeat the message of the compared the message of the coming Kingdom and the coming King to all who will listen, look well to themselves, see that their own loins are girt and lamps burning, watch their own loins are girt and kemps burning, watch and pray always, press forward sowards the goal (now in full view) for the prize, be tempted in all things, as those who wrestle for the mas-tery, and have nothing to do with the beastly gov-ornments of this world, except to suffer their ex-actions, living as pilgrims and strangers, looking for the better country, even a heavenly, and the best of rulers, the Lord from heaven. You being a preacher, Bro. Jacobs, I would ask you, if you think it would do us Advent believers, or any body also any harm. to commit to memory the 15th 15th se any harm, to commit to memory the Pealm, the sermon on the mount, and the 13th chapter lat Corinthiaus, especially if we also im-press them upon our lives and conversation? Yours, in the Gospel Hope, M. HELM.

THE DAY-STAR.

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, MARCH 11, 1845.

DEFINITE TIME. X

From editorial and other remarks in the "Advent Herald," and "Morning Watch," I should think there must be a misapprehension of the views of those brethren that still hold to "definite time"or else there is something in the character and conduct, of those brethren at the cast, that is kept behind the curtain

Not one of the papers above alluded to has come to us for many weeks, without bearing upon its. face some thrust against believers in definite time; while they have cuntained some mild, and argumentative remarks favorable to, that side of the question.

Judging from all the writings I have seen in favor of definite time, since the seventh month, there has been a willingness to confess that there has been much error in the preaching of definite time in the past; and the passing by of those times has tended, at least in a majority of instances, deeply to humble the believers before God. Facts also prove that the passing by of those times has led to a more faithful searching of God's word. In this prayerful searching, two positions become established in our minds.

Int. That to have every jot and tittle of the Scripture fulfilled, the definite time of the Saviour's Advent must be known before it takes place, though we may have been mistaken "seven umes," or "seventy times seven" relative to it.

" Because he hath appointed a day, [not longer than a prophetic one,] in which he will judge the world in righteousness, by that man whom he hath ordained " whereof he bath given assurance [OFFERED FAITH : Margin.] unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead."

"all men," and its evidence is found in the Gospel that "hath appeared" or "shined but" "unto all them utterly."

signs of the times, which so clearly indicate that men." But on this head I must stop here, for this sheet is not sufficient to hold the evidence of this fact.

> 2d. In this searching of Scripture, we have found our past history faithfully delineated. If asked, how we know this! We answer, that God in his providence has so ordered, that no prophecy ever has had but one fulfilment-literally so in every point. This last discovery has demonstrated, to our minds, our true position as to the defnite lime of the Advent.

The misapprehension of our brethren seems to be, that we claim infallibility in all our past posi- The evidences of the first advent as it approached. pose of eventually demonstrating our position, ger" that was to go before him, was not univercausing us to "cease from man"-and human chronologies. Thus we are brought to the point where we have seen "ALL these things," and consequently "KNOW" Christ is at the door; which we could not do, had we to depend upon human chronology which gives a circle of from 3 or 4, to 40 years in which we might look.

If this circle of difference between chronologers, of which we hear so much just at this time, were to have been any criterion by which we were to be governed in our last anxious moments of watching, something in Scripture would have applied to such a conditional state of expectation, which is not the case.

Oh no. It is not written, when ye cross the line of this doubtful chronology, then know yourselves within "three or four years of the end," but "When ye SEE ALL THESE THINGS, then know," Sec.

Another misapprehension seems to be, that we "find fault" with those that differ from us. However true this may be at the cast, I know not-it will not apply here. The mass of opposition now falls upon the believer in definite time, while those that have abandoned that position, are almost unjversally applauded by the churches and the world.

Some persons of this character, and some who never held to.time, call regularly for eastern papers, to see what new argument is out against time, claiming these arguments to be the same they once used against us, and labor with ten fold than they ever did in comforting God's people in view of their deliverance.

This language may be called "finding fault with those that differ from us in points of doctrine." If so, I do not tremble to be found among faultfinders-when I only oppose, in the fear of God, those that are strengthening the hands of the wicked.

There may be some believers in definite time, who are uncharitable toward the really, pions lover of Christ's appearing-no Christian will justify such. There may also be some that speak too hastily, or perhaps, too bluntly, like myself! I will not justify myself. "Let us not strive, for April 3,) 1843. we are brethren." If we are of the number whose "robes are washed"-If we are WAITING for our Lord, we shall not strive, only for the faith once delivered to the saints.

Every theory must stand or fall by the word of God; by this alone we have a right to applaud or condemn, and how fearful is the condition of that 22,) 1844. man that takes it upon himself to condemn where The faith in this appointment is "offered" to God approves, or like Saul, "spare the fattest of the flock" when God bad commanded to "destroy

I will here refer to only one point in the position of the present believer in definite time, vis-The antitype of the Jubilee Trumpet.

All will agree, probably, that we have not had this, unless it has been within a short period in the past. A strict literal fulfillment in every point, we claim to have had in the last someth month, and that this demonstrates that next year is the Jubig des. If we are told that the proclamation was not extensive enough-that "it was exclusively confined to this country," we may also reply, The type "was also confined" to the eastern world. tions relative to time, while we only claim that might have been overthrown in the same way, viz., the hand of Gad has been in it; for the very pure that the proclamation of the predicted "messensal-other lands have not heard, &c.

The prophecies of Isaiah, Jeremiah, and Ezekiel prove, to my mind, that this land only, is the great theatre of this last work of the Gospel. I did not, however, design to enter into the argument, but will make a suggestion or two on the last named point.

Does the term "kingdom of heaven" in Matt. 25: 1, express any thing more than the administration of God among his people on the earth, in its present form !- The same as in Matt. 21: 43. This, then, will help to show from whence the "midnight cry" is to come; for the eastern world may be searched in vain to find God's administration-a body of people. associated together, that confess no king but Jesus-no Government but God's, and no Laws, civil or ecclesiastic, but his written word.

In this land, just such a body of people does now exist. And it is in this land alone that such a body can exist at the present time, as the laws of other lands would forbid their existence. The administration of God on earth, has been removed from Judea into this wilderness, and therefore. with propriety has it been likened to "ten," and not 144,000, "virgins."

But let me say to those that seem to be afflicted for fear we shall bring upon ourselves additional: disgrace by having another time pass by, our afflictions and trials have been increased in adopting our present course-It has not been done hastily. We have looked for arguments against more zeal in favor of knowing nothing about it, it, and have found nothing, but such as we have had to encounter for three or four years past-They all rather strengthen, than weaken our post tion. The last one I have seen, is in the "Watch" of February 27th, from which the following is extracted, being the strongest part of the argument.

> "We beg those who insist on what they term "definits time" to pause and inquire if the following definite times has not been fixed on by many. who, as each period drew on, were confident they could not be mistaken; viz:-

1. The, 15th day of February, 1843.

2. The supposed period of the crucifixion (say

3. The supposed period of the Ascension, 1843. 4. The day of Pentecost, 1843.

5. The 10th day of the 7th month, 1843 (by some.) 6. A time ending in March 22d or 23d, 1843. 7. The supposed 10th day of the 7th month, (Oct.

We need not inquire, Did the EVENT veryfy the correctness of either of these seven, positions?-These things may be "read and known of all med."

16.1

And what does all this prove? Why, that some at least, who have been looking for their Lord have been disappointed seven times, and therefore Gob has hot "offered Tanh to all ment" relative to his appointed day in which to judge the world -This would seem to be the conclusion. The pas-This would seem to be the conclusion. The put sing of all these times might be adduced to prove the event would never take place, as well as that the definite time would not be known, or that the 7th Trumpet ald hor "begin to sound" in the last aeventh month.

I might say the above argument was conclusive in our favor, upon the same principle that the writer urges it against's knowledge of the definite tithe? For instance it is written,

A just man falleth seven trinks, and risch up again; but the wicked shall fall into mischief." Prov. 24: 18.

This new writer (for it is not Bro. Himes) has made out the seven times which we have fallen, therefore the Resultiedtich must come before anotfier fäll.

While we would be bold and decided in our adherenke to the truth, O let us be careful that we. offend none of God's little enes. It becomes us to be very isumilie before God in view of our past sing and unbelief. How little 'fault'linding, and how much "confessing" was there in the sedenth month, while about where expecting "without a doubt;" and others admitting it might be true that Christ would then come. Heaven and earth will much sooner pass away that we can be made to believe that the mun who is solemnly assured 'the scenes of eternity will burst upon him within a few weeks or months, will be found indulging in hardness of feeling toward lit fellow man.

Any thing having a toudenoy to make Christians feel that Christ will not soon come, or that our assurance of it is not as strong as it had been, seems to me to be from a terbag source to say the least. Thus, after prayerful deliberation; I have looked upon the "three or four years circle of difference between chronologers" gotteh up just at the dawn of the Jubilee, as the great malestroom in which to enguiph souls. O let us beware, and be found constantly upon our watch!

The last "Advent Herald" has the arguments, pro and con upon the questions, "Has the Bridegroom come?" "Is the door shut?"

Bro. A. Hale, one of the editors, has taken the affirmative, and Bro. S. Blins, another of the editors, the negative. The arguments on both sides are conducted in a good spirit-with much ability and show great depth of Scripture research. Who has the strength of argument, will not probably be decided till our Lord appears; and that will be as well, for if I was to decide, it would be that both have gained it, and both have lost. Bro. Bliss's argument, however, leaves us a large circle in which to grope in darkness, while Bro. Hale's introduces us to day light at once, and of course has more of the literal rendering of Scripture.

Or Any typographical errors in this number. may be accounted for from the editor's absence at the time of reading the proof sheet.

OF The Advent Band at Springfield, Ill., will please accept our hearty thanks for their-very liberal, and timely donation for the "Day'Star."

"The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him; and he will show them his covenant."-Ps. --- Ps. 25: 14.

The following note was found in our box at the P. O., one morning last week, directed

".P. M. Cincinnail, O.

in was

For E. Jacobs. Send to J: V. Himes, "Morning Watch" office, only 3 copies of the 'Day Star."

During my whole management of the "Western-Midnight Cry" and " Day Star," the regular weekly list of exchanges with the "Midnight Cry" (now Morning Watch) has been 25 copies, until the last vol, which was decreased half its size, so our brothren of the "Watch" very properly sent. us 12 copies of theirs for 25 of lours. This arrangement was very beneficial to us, for it enabled us to supply our friends with the "Watch," from whom also we generally received 5 or 6 cts. per copy. Supposing the "Star" was disposed of in New York, to equal advantage, I concluded it a fair and honest trade, or speculation, as some would call it. But this is all suddenly nipped in the bud-my old friends, it seems, no longer call for the "Star," except a few private subscribers, to of whom loves to read it as may be seen in another column. I have become so used to rolling my bandle of 25 copies marked "Morning Watch" and trudging one mile to the P. O. with it in my basket, with other bundles, that I shall feel lost to leave it out. Brethren, please to let a little of our western, unpolished truth into your city. Where shall the bundle be sent? You shall have it free of charge.

Of course, The "Watch" will have to stop the 12 exchange copies, for surely a man that loses two cents in the publication of a vol. of a newspaper, and has neither funds of his own, nor saldry, can not be expected to pay for his paper.

The following solenin, Christian-like, and serip tural warning, is from the closing words of a discourse by Bro, Storrs a year or, two ago.

"Now, reader, this is perhaps the last address, I shall ever give you. I feel that our Lord stand-eth at the door. Beyond a doubt, in my mind, the NEXT great prophetic event is the sounding of the LAST TRUMPER, the coming of Christ to raise his sleeping saints, change his living ones. "melt the elements with fervent heat, the earth also;" BURN UP THE WORKS THEREIN. That will be "the DAY JUDGEMENT AND PERDITION OF UNGODLY OF MENT

What heart, not sealed for perdition, can fail to feel the force of such language as the above? And who would believe the same heart that throbbed with these-heaven's high sentiments, has given publicity to the following, clipped from the Pliladelphia Sat. "Sun" of March 1st 1845.

The Afternoon and Eve will be occupied in the consideration of the notions that Christ does not intercede for sinners-that probation is end-ed-that the 10th day of the 7th month movement month movement was the frue Midnight cry, and the sounding of the seventh Augel, &c., all which notions Mr. Storrs believes to be false. Services at the usual bours. Scats free."

"Poor Peter"! Sure enough, "Well, do not smite him then, for he'll soon come back with tears." No, we'll not smits him, but we'll tell the disciples that he is "in the kitchen" with Pilate's "servants," and beg him to come out as soon at possible.

"For the froward is an abomination to the Lord: but his secret is with the righteous."--PROV. 3: 32.

Philip Smith, Agoin.

This man has seat us another letter from West Middletown, Pa., for which I paid 183 cts.

It is not "speculation" but "argument" that he has illustrated in this letter. It is as follows,

" it (the W. M. O.) Contains a Small Amount of Some nonsencical trash that Came from the pen of the Edir of the W, M C Cincinnata And I think the skillol treatment of A Lunatio asylum would be better adapted to his Case than the Most powarful weight of Argument that Could Be presented."

PHILIP SMITH.

He wished the whole of his letter published, but I have given the "argument" only .- In the room of sending what he owed like an honest man, he has sent a tirade of abuse, fully illustraling Jude, 10-13.

The reason of Mr. Smith abandoning the second Advent cause need not be guessed at. hope there is not another man in West Middletown, so mean as to insult one he honestly owes, though he may differ from him is opinion. Me Smith's debt is freely forgiven, and may God forgive him.

THE SECOND PSALM.

1 Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing!

The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take council together, sgainst the Lord, and against his encinted, souring, 3 Let up break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

4 He that setteth in the heavens shall laugh the Lord shall have them in derision.

Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, 5 and ver them in his sore displeasure,

6 Yet have I set my King upon my holy hill of Zion.

7 I will declars the decree : the Lord hath said unto use, Thou art my Son ; this day have I ha-goiten thee. 8 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thiss inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession. 9 Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron:

thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's wessel.

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings : be instructed, ye judges of the earth. 11 Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling. 12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye per-ish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

"I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor alght; ye that make mention of the Lord, keep not ellence; and give him no rest, ull he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the carth." Isa. Ixii. 6, 7.

But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a third. Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day-we are not of the night, nor of darkness. Thereand be sober.---1 THESS, 4-6.

Letters and Recolpts.

For the week ending the 10th inst.

Aaron Clapp, A. P. Prichard, P. M.; J. Hamil-ton, .50; C. S. Minor, $1.00; Philip Smith, (post-age 18% cts.); Dr. M. Helm, 5,00; M. Stark, P. M.; Thomas L. Hawkins, for Jsmes Hopkins, 1.00; Mrs. L. Griffith, .50; John Y. Butt, David Jennings, (order for $2.00 not accepted); E. P. Chapman, P. M., for G. and F. Purdy, 1.00; John T. Talley, P. M., for A. Morris, .50; H. H. John-con, P. M., tor, Wm. Hast, .50; A. N. Hart, .50, Alfred Powers, .50, Parvin Eves, .50; E. L. H. Chamberlain, 1.00, for Wm. Mitchell, and N. S. Classon, A. Classon.

AVOST B. JACOBS. C CLARK. Printer.

Value 5.

OINCINNATI, TUESDAY, MARCH 18, 1845.

THE DAY-STAR

is a continuation of the Warran Minmaur Onv. and is pob-tered every Tanklay, by E. Jaccon, at his residence on Seventh aver, path skip, firms doors was of the Takermule.

All communications for models of the fractions on the indefines of the paper or orders for books, and particular, should be addressed four flap to E. Jacess. Con warars. O. Taking or the Paper. The cours per vol. of 13 were to in advance, to those that are the pay, and graticity these that are really qualify to pay.

Lotter from Indianapolis,

Johnson Ct. Ia., Feb'y 26, 1845.

DEAR BRO. JACOBS : I have ever been backward in undertaking to write for the press, thinking it better because up to sit at the feet of my brethren, and rad, and haru: But in reading some of the writings of my brethren in reference to our comand Lord, it seems to us that they labor unnecessarily in the dark. I have several times desided, within the last few weeks, to write, and have as often reasoned myself out of the notion; but this which the test few weeks, to write, and have as often real oned inysolf out of the notion; but this night failing restines on the subject, I have arose from my indicad whemed my lump, and now in-tend to commit a few thoughts to saper, having it for you to decide whether they may or may not be worth the attention of your readers,—you may then dispose of them as you think proper. I was to write so as to be understood, and yet as brief as pusable. And now is the first phose it worts the stientist of the motion of your readers, the manual sclear as day ight to me, that our Lord has given us way-marks sufficiently clear, from the Alumnt on which he sat, down to the end of time. This constant is Matt. 24, and the par-able communicing the 25th. In Matt. 24, he mings us down by certain events or sign, to the part of time called, "near at band even at the dare." Hore he takes its will be as in the day of Nehe, and Let, and then given a sing to "witch," lest he ming comm in a day hat we called at far him, and an hour that we are be as are of the that may be dis-posed to write he gives us certain events mark-ing the mich he gives us certain events marked to watch, he gives us cortain events mark-pood to which he gives us cortain events mark-ing the pace of time called, "mear at hand even at the dote".....This he does by introducing the par-able of it...' for virgins," as the natural inquiry which he have been at the doter". Are there no marks by which this important space one be monored "There are; "Then shall the hing dom of herver be likened unto ten vir-ging" &c. I from the parable we learn that some circumstance would immers in the above men-tioned press time, like the parable here brought to view. to View

To me, he lasson taught in the parable is, that To me, he isseed taught in the parable is, that is the vegine, some would go out to meet the Bridgrown at the beginning of this time, and in the meand place we learn that they went out too some, for "while the Bridgroom tarried they all dumbered and slopt." In the next place we learn that it would be night, or a time of darkness, with them who should be like the virgins. We next learn what was done in the middle of the next learn what was done in the middle of the shows space of time, for "at midnight there was a cry made," and another disappointment, for after the cry was made, and they all arose and trianmed their amps, but the wave and foolish thought there would be time to go and get oil, and while they went (not before) he came, and they that were randy went into the marriage and the door was

I must not stop here to ask my brothren wheth-er my thing like this has taken place; but I will sek them if they do not remember when their

when the day of the Lord will dawn?--or for the length of the last half of this night, or space of time? Or in the mathematical this night, or space of time? Or in the words, if darkness commenced at the commencement of the present Jewish year, and it was six months and ten days until midnight, or to the middle of the dark space of time, How far from that point will the same number of far from that point will the same number of months and days carry us! I balieve this darkness began the 23d day of last March. If it be 21d days from that time till the 22d of Oct. or middle of this night, How long will it be till the day shall break by the rising of the sun of Righteoneness with healing in his wings! It does seem to me that if we have eyes to se, and continue to watch and pray, there will be no need to fear that the day or bour, much less the ware, is so hidden from us that the Lord will the year, is so hidden from us that the Lord will come in a time that we are not aware of. Look around you my brethren and see if you cannot already discover some appearance of "day dawn." Look close within, and see if you cannot discover some signs of "the day-star" arising in your hearts.

Let us watch and pray. One more struggle and Eternal Life is ours.

· GEORGE RUEBUSH.

Letter from Bro. Butt.

Siony Point, Sy., March 3, 1845.

Siony Point, Ky., March 3, 1845. DEAR BRO. JACORS-Having a few leisure hours, I embrace the opportunity of addressing a few lines to let you know how I am prospering in the good way. I feel, blessed be God, that old time is carrying us rapidly on how risk the dawn of the teternal morning, when Jacob's face shall not wax pale any more, but when "The ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their hends;" then "They shall obtain joy and gladaess, and sorrow and sighing shall five away." Theorem I am, as it wore, wading through a sigh ing what five away." Though I am, as it were, weding through a see of unbelied, yet my hopes are still buoyant. I oft times feel glory in my soul when viewing by an eye of faith the saint's inheritance;---the earth restored to its Eden glory. If I can trust my own heart, I believe I have a longing desire to see the "King in his bauty," and to behold the Land which in the Prophet's day was "very far off," but which is now very nigh, when "the Lord will create upon every dwelling place of Mount Zion, and apon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory shall be a defence." This is truly a glorious picture. That heart must be cold indeed which cannot eay "Amen I Even so, come Lord Jesus." come Lord Jesus."

Since Bro. Maull left me, in Louisville, I have been laboring with Bro. Jacob Marshall, who has come fully into the faith of the Lord's spendy com-ing. We have lectured about twenty times within the last two weeks, with but few exceptions, to large and attentive congregations. There appears to be a desire on the part of the people to hear on the subject. This may however, be as much the result of curiosity, as a desire to hear the trath.

The infidelity of the nominal church is every The inhibit of the nominal chirch is every where apparent,—to them the most positive dec-larations of God's word appear to be uncertain, (except those portions quoted by them in support of their various articles of faith). Many in order to avoid the truth of the Lord's immediate com-ing will mp into the most finitish extremes. In ing, will run into the most fuolish extremes. In conversation with a professor, orthodox so called, I was told the world was to be converted. I asked him to please define the Saviour's exposition of the parable of Wheat and Tares. In doing so, he told me, the angels was the fire that burnt Je-russlem. This appears to me like wreating the Scriptures to one's own destruction: This howthe parable of wheat and Tares. In doing so, reclaming ramout, and night commenced, or dark-took presention of the mind? If then we runshe took presention of the mind? If then we runshe took presention of the mind? If then we runshe took presention of the mind? If then we runshe took presention of the mind? If then we runshe took presention of the mind? If then we runshe took presention of the mind? If then we runshe took presention of the mind? If then we runshe we took presention of the system of spiritualizing run is it so that we cannot make the calculation of this day.

The words of the Prophet Isaiah 29: 11, 12, are now having a literal falfillment. "And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one hat is hearned, saying, Read this, I pray thee; and he saith, I cannel; for it is sealed: And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned." A celebrated minister in this r gion said that it was "commute numer e" for young men to pre-tend to expound the prophecies, when the learned men of past are were paulic ont for the task.

NZTRATER 5.

tend to expound the prophecies, when the tearned men of pass are were multicent for the task. He appared to farget, or to be gator at of the fact, that in the "Time of the end" lie vision was to be no longer easted; but as Date is ays, "Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be in-creased."-Dan. 12: 4. And that "The wicked shall do withedly; and hone of the wicked shall inder-stand; but the wise shall a derstand."--10th ver.

42, 43. The svidences of the Lord's Immediate coming appear every day to be accumulating. The airen song of "Peace, prace," must soon reach its height, when "sudden destruction cometh." God's beight, when "sudden destruction cometh." God's bright, when "sudden destruction cometh." God's true people will not much longer mourn the ab-sence of their Lord. "For yet a "little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry." Then he will repay them for all their toil, for "He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his purple shall be take a way from off all the earth, for the Lord lath speken it." And then, O thun, we shall ratein, (if we are found in a waiting and longing attud.) "Lo, this is our God we have waited for him, and he will save us; this is the Lord; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rajoide in his salvation." And now anto "the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords; who only hath importality, dwelling in the light, which no man can approach unto: whom no man hath sean nor can see; to whom be power eventasting. nor can see; to whom be power everlasting. Amen.

Amen. The brethren at Louisville are still strong in the faith. Give my love to all the brethren, and receive the same yourself. Yours, in the blessed hope. JOHN Y. BUTT.

Letter from Bro. D. Jonnings.

Port Byron, III. Feb'y 17, 1845.

The Seven Last Plagues.

The Seven Last Plagues. I cannot understand these plagues in a consec-utive manner: that is, one vist of wrath being poured out and fulfilled, and then another, until the seven are fulfilled. But there is a strong prob-ability, in my mind, that they are all poured out and beginning to operate, and will continue to take effect more and more until all the wicked are destroyed from off the face of the whole earth. I think these plagues, will all be biscally fulfill-ed: Although the first may not be visible yet, the second has literally begun. This I think no bon-est man who can read his Rible will deny; for it is exactly according to prophecy: The sea was to become like the blood of a dead man, and every soul in the sea shall die. It appears by the secuto become like the blood of a dead man, and every soul in the sea shall die. It appears by the secu-lar papers so far as the dark water goes every thing dies: These papers call on the wive mon of the day, as did Pharaoh, to explain the mystery. They seem to deplore the consequences, which is also a fulfillment of our Saviour's words, "then's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming upon the curth."

their worldly business.

their worldly business. "The fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun." This plague also will not be fully realized until after the coming of Christ. The fifth plague is on "the seat of the beast, and his kingdom was full of darkness." This has begun and will continue until all shall be fulfilled. "The sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates:" How far this is fulfilled I arm not able to determine : hat it is very evident

"The sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates:" How far this is fulfilled I am not able to determine; but it is very evident that the "unclean spirits," or "spirits of devils working miracles" has already gone forth unto the kings of the earth and the whole world to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. "The seventh angel poured oat his vial into the air and there came a great voice out of the tem-ple of heaven from the throne, saying, It is done." This voice we have not yet heard, but I think we have seen the prelude to the fulfillment of this plague. Witness the dreadful storms of thunder and lightning that have occurred within the last year. I have heard of more people being killed & wounded by lightning within ten months, than perhaps within thirty years before. Witness the numerous tornadoes in all parts of the world: and storms at sea, dreadful earthquakes in the West India islands and other places. Also many uncommon hail storms. I have lately seen the ac-count of one in Louisiana—many of the hat-stones were as large as hen's eggs, some larger; killing fowls and doing other damage. D may we all be found watching that we may escape those things that are coming upon the earth. As I have vet a little room I will scribble a lit-

earth

earth. As I have yet a little room I will scribble a lit-tle more. You said that it was not your prerog-ative to say when the probation of man should begin or end. With you I fully agree : and far-ther, I believe, as God, made man a moral agent the state of the ther, I believe, as God made man a moral agent he will never take that agency from him: It is true we have not the power to exercise our rea-son and agency when asleep—so it will be with the wicked when the night of death comes; they must remain filthy still, for in that very day their thoughts perish. Psa. 146: 4. But after the mil-lennium when they rise in the resurrection of damnation they will be in the same state as when they closed this life for there can be no change in the grave : and the devil who was hound by their they closed this life for there can be no change in the grave : and the devil who was bound by their death will be let loose again, and will go about to deceive them, and will actually deceive some, from which I plainly infer that they are moral agents, or they could not be deceived : Although they are cast into the lake of fire; yet the tree of life grows in the New Jerusalem, the leaves of which are for the healing of the nations: the glorified saints are not polluted : then of course there are none but those in the lake of fire that need healing.* That this is the true interpreta-tion will be confirmed by reading Rev. 15: 2-4. need healing.* That this is the true interpreta-tion will be confirmed by reading Rev. 15: 2-4. Those glorified saints who stand on the sea of glass shall sing the song of Moses. Saying, Great and marvelous are thy works Lord God Almighty: just & true are thy ways thou King of saints. Who shall not fear thee O Lord and glorify thy name, for thou only art holy, for all nations shall come and worship before thee, for thy judgments are made manifest. Now remember the nations had not then come, but the saints they would come, and this is to be after the coming of the Saviour.

* I do not know that I fully comprehend Bro. J's meaning in this place, but if he designs to convey the idee, that any of those cast into the lake of fire will be healed, and join the number of the glorified saints, let him read Rev. 20: 5, 13-15, The moral agency of immortal saints will better account for the healing properties of the "leaves" than the restoration of the lost,

But, glory to his name, he gives a word of comfort to his followers, "When ye see these things begin to come to pass, then look up and lift up your heads for your redemption draweth nigh." The third plague is to be upon the rivers and fountains of water; "and they became blood." I think the Saviour will come before this is fully realized, or it could not then be as it was "in the days of Noah." if the rivers and fountains of water the rivers and foundation of the world will be made alive in (not out of) Christ: but every man in his own order. D. JENNINGS.

THE DAY-STAR.

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, MARCH 18, 1845.

OF If the subscribers should not receive their paper next week at the regular time, they may expect a double number with some important articles when it does come. This matter is not however, fully settled.

DAYTON.

I spent Subbath before last with the friends in Dayton, and lectured for them three times in a private house.

I was grieved at their scattered condition. For better than eight weeks they had not a week evening meeting, until a few evenings before I reached there. The number that will meet regularly hereafter, is probably from 10 to 12. 1 can not here speak of the influence which has produced this change, but I do earnestly pray that the Great Shepherd may speedily gather his scattered flock. There are a few in Dayton that are anxiously waiting the Master's return. I would solicit for them an especial interest in the prayers of all God's people.

HONESTY.

Bro. Shepherd, from Brown County, came into the City the other day, and having some business with us-desirous to take the paper, &c., he made enquiry for some of the second Advent people, and not readily gaining the desired information he stepped into the Methodist Book Concern and enquired; whereupon he was told that the paper was not published-that the whole concern had gone down, and that there were no second Advent people, or "Millerites" in the place that they knew of. I now venture to say there is not a child about that establishment but knows that our meetings are held regularly at the Tabernacle, and our congregations are as large as they ever were. Besides this, our paper is sent to the office of the W. C. Advocate regularly every week. And again, a special meeting was held only a week or two since in one of their chapels, to take some measures relative to the Millerites still remaining in their churches, where it was agreed that they treat them kindly, &c .-- and after all to tell such a --. Readers, these are the people that would have you believe the reports they have recently published about revivals.

- LETTER TO BRO. STORRS. Cincinnati, March 17, 1845.

DEAR BRO. STORRS :

Your kind letter of the 25th ult. is received, and I now sit down to return a brief answer: In so doing, I wish deeply to realize what is already demonstrated by the word of God and our own experience, viz. That, "the Judge standeth before the door."

There are some things in your letter that pleases me, and some, it seems to me, that can neither please nor profit any one that loves the blessed word of God.

lst. I am pleased that my letter was received by you "with the same kind feelings that dictate it," and 2d, I am pleased that you find it is your heart, to pray, that my "aching heart" me be bealed, and that the Lord would bind up the wounds of "his dear people;" But, O my broke I am sorry, after searching your letter through. find some salvo for this "aching heart," that in salvo is mixed with so much of the "leaven" you and I have fought against for the past in years, that my heart would still be an "aching one, were it not that my hope is fixed alone in the Lord.

You will not of course, blame me for not apply ing the proscriptions you offer me, to heal -"aching heart" since you "confess" your own "he not done aching yet." As leaving the rock has not healed your wounds, how can you safely m ommend that course to others?

You will recollect in my letter, that I up upon your consideration two propositions, for upon which, was the demand how you got off f the "rock." &c.

Those were, first, that the antitype of the Ja lee trumpet was given in the last seventh moul which was the forty-ninth year of the last Julie from B.C. 606, while the antitype of the del ance of God's people could not be given till fiftieth, or the following year. Your own an ment, in your own language, was adduced to the the correctness of this position. .

Second, the principle of the time of the Alim being taught, whether we yet understand it or a was placed before you, not only in coriptural guage, but also in your own; and taking the grou that these "two propositions" were immonifixed by the hand of God, without any mixture humanism, I founded upon them my demand by you came off from the rock? You will therefor readily discover my surprise in reading your h ter of four colums in the "Watch," to find non ply whatever to those propositions. Had you a ceeded to examine them in the light of the S tures, and with as much anxiety as you felt w you determined to leave the "flat rock," the tr of God would so dazzled your eyes that your I would ever have seen the end of these four . ums in the "Watch," and in the "Star,"

Since all your remarks are employed in an u planation of the "honest" manner in which left the rock, 1 must say, those remarks, the not lacking in quantity, are to me, far from me factory.

1. I think you have misrepresented that reand will here prove it, by showing the work : complished by that figure. What you "design to accomplish by it, is none of my business;us bring the affair to the true test.

After presenting your argument, you asked question, "How shall we be ready for that day and then answered it by saying, "Believe a truth, and venture out upon it, by a strong for that gives glory to God."

You called upon us to "believe God's trull" not your opinion : Was that wrong ! Dare ; take that back? Of course, "God's truth" not your conclusions, nor mine;- we had in truth to examine for ourselves. You next all upon us to "venture out upon" that truth. W that wrong ?

Again, you called upon us for "entire consu tion to God, and deadness to the world," as "". knew we were to die on that day." In this you do any thing more than the apostles done - now to illustrate this perfect state of preparation to meet the Lord on the "tenth day" the figure was introduced. And now the "Mighty Prince" and "Splendid Steamer" illustrates the appearing of Christ with his glorious train at "A given time" to "carry all persons whom he shall find" upon a certain "large flat rock in the midst of the ocean," "with evidence that they fully credited HIS WORD, to a glorious country." Thousands listened to the call-separated themselves for ever from the world-cut loose every affection, and were at that time found in the very waiting posture that God in his word directs.

no positive demonstration that Christ would personally appear on the lenth day, yet having strong eridence, they knew it would be perfectly safe to repair to the "flat rock," which was a rock of eternal separation from the world,

This they knew to be a duty every where entained upon the follower of Christ. So my brother, if you made an "idol" of the "tenth day" you must remember there were others whose minds "Lord, Lord, open unto us." embraced the whole outline of Christian duty.

for," and consequently expect, the Saviour continually. Did you do more than this on the 10th day?

It is also made your duty to be "separate" from Did you do more than this on the "tenth day"? and can you do less to-day without disobeying God3

My dear brother, let me make this one request of you: Take your article containing the figure of the "flat rock"-place it before you, then take your Bible and test it. When you have done this, tell me where "PRESUMPTION " is illustrated, or what act is enjoined that is not the duty of every Christian to perform lo-day. Tell me what work is there urged upon your fellow mortal, that you are now "forbidden by the Spirit of God" again to urge?

This rock being the place where I now liveweather-beaten, and weary with watching, and as I said before, some having deserted it by means of your influence and example, I again demand, by what rule of interpretation you found on that rock, the word "PRESUMPTION" The only rule I admit-the Bible, has proved it a rock of separation from the world. I care not what "was designed"; there is its language, and there is the Bible to try that language, and the Bible justifies Il.

But to the manner in which the presumption is proved from Deut. 18: 20-22.

But the prophet, which shall presume to speak a word is my name, which shart presents to speak him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die. And if thou say in thy heart, How shall we know the word which the Lord hath not spoken?

When a prophet speaketh in the name of the Lord, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously : then shalt not be afaaid of him."

Here is an admission then, that in preaching the oming of Christ in the seventh month, in the room of being guided by the written word, you "prophened," and done this too with the knowledge that days. No wonder the word "PRESUMPTION" fore von?-Rom, 6: 2, 11; 1 Pet. 2: 24, &c. And have done this, I should expect to see and hear 'presumption" wherever I went.

We not only "designed" in that preaching, to be governed by the written word only, but we did appeal to that, and that alone, and made no pretensions whatever to prophecying. Those appeals went to show that Christ would come out of the Holy place, and that the "Seventh Trompet". would sound in the seventh month.

If asked the reasons of our hope, we pointed to, God's word, and not to any spirit of prophecy that, we claimed, as you very well know.

But the thing did not come to pass. What thing did not come to pass? Why, Christ Thus thousands, while they knew that they had did not then personally appear. Neither did the words of prophecy adduced by us, go to prove that he would then appear. They proved that the 7th trumpet would soundy and that it has "begun to sound" we have the proof, as no prediction can. have but one literal fulfillment. We also have as clear evidence as could be asked, that the "Master of the house has risen up and shut too the door" and they that are without are beginning to say,

The things presented in the prophecy brought The word of God makes it your duty to "look forward in the seventh month, have partly at least, "Come to pass."

"There, brother," "that does not make" my "eyes ache" for I did not prophecy, I only read it, and believed, as I do now, that all that God did the world-make no "provision for the flesh,"de. not speak, is demonstrated to be "presumption."

You have explained how you got on to the "rock" by means of "a very leaky boat" called "Delusion," and "can hardly tell" how you "ever came to get into it." You must again pardon me for dissenting from a principle of interpretation, that makes out an entire "separation from the world," and "deadness" to it, a "delusion;" while at the same time we are anxiously "waiting for his Son from heaven."

And again, you will excuse me for doubting that you ever did, really, see the name "presumption" on our ROCK; at least, I must doubt it until you pursue a course that will slarm, and offend the ungodly as much as you once did.

I am sorry also to discover in the description you give of the "honest" manner in which you got off" the rock, a very sore defect. In the first place, what business had you to leave it! You are not able to prove from the language of that article, that you was out of the way of your duty when on it: You can give from the word of God a reason for every step that conducted you thither, but not one for leaving it. And then the boat in which you came away, and which you call "Truth" is a very suspicious one. Bro. Storre, I do not believe it was the boat "Truth." I know that old boat well, and I never saw her unmanned, -her Maker always aits at the helm; while it seems the boat in which you came off, was "floating" unmanned-no person on board to make known a "condition" and yet you had to perform "one condition" before you could get on board ; That is to "confess." In attempting to "get away" from "deadness to the world," would it be any strange thing for the god of this world to deceive you with an "optical illusion" when you manifested a disposition to pursue a course so much at variance with Scripture?-It might have been "the positiveness" of Christ's appearing "on that day" that influenced, or led you to that "rock," me but "false prophets" were to arise in the last but something more influenced me ; viz. The absolute necessity of being on that rock, if I would stared you in the face after the 10th day. Had I please God by being found in a waiting state. It could not be a Divine influence that induced you away, or you would have given a Divine testimony for your course. What influence then has done it? As it is not divine, it must be "a mere human influence." In looking the whole matter over, I must believe it a "Mesmeric" influence that led you from that rock. The name "presumption" is a singular label for "deadness to the world" and waiting for Christ. "Delusion" is another singular name for the path, or course that leads to this "deadness" &c. And then your boat of "Truth," unmanned, that "walks on land as well as in water" is all very strange, altogether too accommodating for the unchanging word of God. If you have been once deluded by "Mesmerism," the symptoms of a relapse are very strong.

You say, "to attribute that cry (10th day) to the Spirit of the Lord, looks very much like sinning sgainst the Spirit." A sin against the Holy Ghost being unpardonable, those that have committed it are unfit to teach or advise others.

O then, what have you done? Did you "design" to represent faith "without a doubt" in Christ's coming on the 10th when you said "I am forbidden by the Spirit of God, to doubt or indulge in an if, for one moment"! Remember also that you charged those who doubted Christ having sworn to the time, with "virtually" accusing Christ of lying; and now you can charge those that believed these words of yours, after deducting your "designs" with "sinning against the Spirit."

Again, what possible good can be effected by the questions you propound to those that have left the rock? They all belong to the school of "Mesmerism" in this section.

Since the 10th day, one of them stepped up into the desk after I had closed my lecture, and called the attention of the audience to the "Confession of Ero. Storrs," which he held in his hand. I offered my services to read it, and while doing so, a perfect air of antisfaction seemed to rest upon the whole "mesmeric" school: So when I got through, I read your other little "mesmerism confession" which very much disturbed them, one saying it was a "lie" and another he "can't prove it." Sec. I told them when your next "confession" come, I would read that to them; but it is delayed so long I much fear it will not come, but I live in hope. O my brother, let us be humble like little children! Again, I beg of you to review this matter in the light of God's truth. The Lord is at the door, and will come in the year of Jubilee, which I believe with all my heart, from evidences before presented, is the coming Jewish year, Yours in the blessed hope,

E. JACOBS.

P. S. You will see, of course, that the "Watch" as a matter of equal justice, publishes this "reply."

THE PATH OF THE JUST.

"But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day." PROV. 4: 18.

Let us in the first place look at the priviledged character named in this text. Who is "the just?" -the one that God declares to be such, for there is a vast difference between the ideas of justice entertained by mortals, and those revealed by Him "who only hath immortality." We are apt to pronounce a man just, that deals honestly in all points with his fellow man, though he may never have been strictly honest with either his God, or himself, for a single hour.

None can be strictly just, without "the law of by the transgression of his lips: the just come out They shall thorsughly glean the remnant of James of in their hearts"—it is then that "none of of trouble." (Prov. 11: 9, and 12: 13.) into the baskets. God in their hearts"-it is then that "none of of trouble." (Prov. 11: 9, and 12: 13.) their steps shall slide."

"Noah was a just man, and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God," Gen. 6: 9.

This is the character God gives to Noah ; and why is he called just? The reasons are found in v. 22, and chap. 7: 1, "Thus did Noah according to all'that God commanded him, so did he." "Come thou and all thy house into the ark: for thee have 1 seen rightcous in this generation."

He obeyed God in all things, and pursued a right course while the multitude around him pursued its opposite.

"increase in learning."

Ilis words all tell to some good account. Prov. earth these 6000 years. 10, 20, "The tongue of the just is as choice silver:" ver. 31, "The mouth of the just bringeth eternal life, Psa. 16: 11, "Thou will show me the forth wisdom."

He is a persevering character. Prov. 20: 7, "The just man walketh in his integrity." Prov. 11: 15, "It is joy to the just to do judgment."-So he has comfort in dealing justly.

Ica. 26: 7, 8, "The way of the just is upright-ness: theu, most apright, dost weigh the path of the just. Yea, in the way of thy judgments, O Lord, have we waited for thee; the desire of our asoul is to thy name, and to the rememberance of "Thy word is a lamp anto my feet, and a light thee."

thee." Eack. 18: 5-9; "But if a man be just, and do the which is fawful and right, and hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath defiled his neighbor's wife, " * * * * and hath not oppressed any, but hath restored to the dehoor his pledge, hath spoiled none by violence, hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the neked with a garment; he that hath not given forth upon usury, neither hath taken any increase; that hath withdrawn his hand from imputiz, hath spoiled the independent between imquity, hith executed true judgment between man and man, and hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to deal truly; HE IS 1057, he shall surely live, saith the Lord God."

Hosts, 14: 9, "Who is wise and he shall un-derstand those things? [see th. 16: 18-15,] pru-dent, and he simil knew them ? for the ways of the Lord are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall fall therein."

The just lives by faith, and there is no such things as back steps in all his path.

Hab. 2: 4, "Behold, his soul which is lifted up, is not upright in him : but the just shall live by faith."

Rom. 1: 16, 17, "I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believath ; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For therein is the rightsonaness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written. The just shall live by faith."

Gal. 3: 11, "But that no man is justified by the Law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, the just shall live by faith."

fleb. 10: 37, 38, " For yet a little while, and He that shall come will come, and will not sarry. New the just shall live by faith but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him."

Thus we have the character of "the just" as delinested by a just God;-to attain which, should be the highest ambition of mortals. It is a character, when gained, that never cau be taken from us, upr can it be counterfeited. Two of the principle ingredients of this character-Faith and Love, can not be successfully imitated.

Great blessings are kept in store for the just. While the hypocrite destroyeth his aeighbor, the come. just is delivered .- While "the wicked is snared

"No evil shall happen to the just," (Prov. 12: 21.) "He that justifieth the wicked, and he that, condemneth the just, even they both are abomin-ation to the Lord." (Prov. 17: 15.) "For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked chall fall into mischiel?"

At the end of this world the wicked ars to be "severed from among the just." Matt. 13: 47-49.

The just are to have a resurrection by themselves, Luke 14: 13, 14.

It is the just that compute the family of Heaven, H b. 12: 23; Luke 14: 13, 14, &c.

But no greater blessing in this state of murtality Prov. 9: 9, "Give instruction to a wise man, and to tread—merceasingly illuminated until the Great he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will Sun of Righteousness arises in all its glary, to and from the prophet even alto the prior end for our desired function. The just man has a teachable disposition. See can be promised to the just, than a "path" in which earth these 8000 years. What is the path of the just? It is the way of sternal life, Paa. 16: 11, "Thou wilt show me the path of Life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at abomination interval. Were they ashamed when they commin abomination nay, they were not at all ashare about denian interval. They have bealed also the hurt of the daug-of my people al ghtly, saying, Peace, pea-when there is no peace. Were they ashamed when they commin abomination nay, they were not at all ashare about the say of the say o thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore."

It is a way propared by the Lord, and to be nought for. Pas. 27: 11, "Teach me thy way, O Lord, and lead me in a plain path because of mine unto my path."

It is a path protected by the Almighty, Psa. 139: 3, "Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted we ball my ways."

This "path of the just" also symbolizes deep mental exercise. Psa. 142 : 3, "When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path."

It is a way entirely disconnected from that pursued by sinners. Prov. 1: 10-15, "My son, if sinners entice thes consent then not. If they say, come with us, let us hay wait for blood, let us lurk pivily for the innocent without cause : Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the pit : We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil: Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse: My son, walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path."

Prov. 2: 1-9, "My Son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee; so that thou incline thine car unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding; if thou seekest her as silver , and searchest for her as for hid treasures; then shalt thou understand the fear of the Lord, and find the knowledge of God. For the Lard giveth wisdom, out of his mouth cometh knowledge and andrstanding. He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteaust he is a backler to them that walk uprightly. He is such the paths of judgment, and preserve th the way of his saints. Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yes, every good path."

Ps. 25: 1, 10, "Shew me thy ways, O Lord; teach me thy paths; all the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies."

To whom shall I speak, and give warning, " they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcient and they cannot hearkens behold, the word of Lord is unto them a reproach ; they have no b light in it.

Ingut in it. Therefore I am full of the fury of the Lord, am weary with holding in: I will pour it out up the children abroad, and upon the assembly young men together: for even the husband vi-the wife shall be taken, the aged with him in full of down the wird days. is full of days. And their houses shall be turned anto of the turned anto of turned a with their fields and wives together: for I a stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants o land, saith the Lord.

noither could they blush : therefore shall t fall smoong them that fall: at the time that I m them they shall be cast down, saith the Lord. Thus saith the Lord.Stand ye in the ways, see, ask for the old paths, where is the good.m

and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for souls. But they sail, We will not walk firm Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Hear to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, will'not hearken.",

"But they said, We will not walk therein." will maintain the "old ground"-will not a but stand still dec. Such was to be the charge of those that cried "Peace" in these days. Trumpet has not yet souded.

Obedience to every truth of God, is the path the just.

It is, however, impossible for us to give a ris and perfect description of a path until we have traveled in it, though it is possible for us to h so blear a description of it, as to tell when was in it, and where we are in it, by the marked jects along the way.

What are the principle reasons for describe path under any circumstancel It is, first, to b when we are in the right one, and consequent free from the dangers to which by paths lead, second, that we may know how far we are f our journey's end.

(To be continued.)

"The secret things belong unto the Lord God : but those things which are revealed anto us and to our children for ever, that we do all the words of this law."-DEUT. 29: 1

"Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but revealeth his secret unto his servants the p ets."-Anos 3: 7.

"For the froward is an abomination to Lord: but his secret is with the righteous."-P 8 | 32.

"Ye are all the children of light, and children of the day: we are not of the night, of darkness."-1 Thess. v. 5.

Letters and Receipts.

For the week ending the 17th inst. G. R. Shepard, $1.00; Ilannah Vail, 5.00, There is a point of time in which it is espe-cially enjoined upon us to examine closely whether we are in the path God has marked for the just:-A time of apostacy, when deceptions would be practiced by the professed teachers of religion. That time, described by, the prophets, has now come. Jer. 6: 9-17, "Thus saith the Lord of Hosts," G. K. Shepard, $1.00; Hinnah Vail, 5.00, acknowledgment was omitted last week and mistake); Geo. Ruebush, D. Weaver, 50; Hatch, 50; M. Clark, P. M., A. Potter, 1.00; A. Jones, P. M., A. Potter, 1.00; A. Jones, P. M., A. Potter, 1.00; A. Jones, P. M., Stewart, 50; J. Pratt, P. M., for Aaron Clapp, [Sent to J. V. Himes, draft on Willis & Boston, $15.30.]

DANDST E. JACOBS, Editor & Publisher, " WE HAVE ALSO A MORE SURE WORD OF PROFINCY ; WHEREUNTO TO DO WELL THAT TE TAKE HERD, AS UNTO A LIGHT THAT BRINETH IN A DABLE PLACE, UNTIL THE DAY DAWR, AND THE DAY-STAR ARISE IN YOUR HEARTS."-2 Pet. 1. 19. C. CLARK, Printer,

VOLUME 5.

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, MARCH 25, 1845.

THE DAY-STAR

Is a continuation of the WESTERN MIDNIONT CRY, and is pub-balad every Tuesday, by E. Jacous, at his residence on Seventh street, muth side, three doors cast of the Tabernacke. All communications for publication—on the business of the paper, se roders for books, and publications, should be addressed Poer Parp to E. Jacous, CINCINNATE, O.

TERMS OF THE PAPER.

Fifty cents per vol. of 13 numbers in advance, to those that are able to pay; and gratis to these that are really unable to pay.

* FROM THE HOPE OF ISRAEL.

To the Believers Scattered Abroad.

Dear Brethren :-

Believing as we do, that a few more brief days will finish the trial of the saints, and perfect their joys forever, we feel in duty bound to spread be-fore the little flock of God, the burning, trying truth, touching their earthly pilgrimage. Never have we felt the importance of Bible

Never have we felt the importance of Bible truth, more than at the present moment; particu-larly those truths which were to be meat to the household, just as they were to change the revil-ings of the men of this world, for a crown of ev-erlasting life, and the enduring benediction of the King of kings and Lozp of lords. The great question is; are those truths, ours? Are the saints who are looking for the King in his Beauty, those who are to be the representatives of our Lord, while he shall wind un the general are or dimenwho are to be the representatives of our Lord, while he shall wind up the gospel age or dispen-sation of everlating righteohsues? if so how apparent is the importance of truth in these last hours. To be a Christian, is to be in this world, as Christ is.

To labor to be as Christ, was, or as he will be does not make one a subject of Salvation, or of the Kingdom. But to be as ME is; that is, to ex-bibit in our life and labors the true state of things touching the Kingdom of God; for if we are found touching the Kingdom of God; for if we are found believing contrary thereto, or inconsistent with any change that may have been effected in that Kingdom, we shall be found acting against Christ, and in high treason against the Kine of kings. The present is no time to play with Jebovah's word, or to quibble, through the aid of vain phi-losophy from a Bible position written before our eyes in living lines of light, and also deeply en-graved on every sainted heart. Truth, and truth alone, can make a son of Abraham free, and should we shut the truth from Israel now, and through that act of ours, a single Sheep be torn from this fold, and then destroyed, their blood this fold, and then destroyed, their blood from must lie at our doors.

An awful work of death has already been accomplished among the flock since the seventh month. But thanks be to God, we hure before angels and men, can wash our hands in innocency. angels and men, can wash our hands in innocency. We have never opened the door of the fold, nor have we labored so to do. We have never tried to press the flock to labor among the wolves, lest they should be devoured, and we should be unable to account for them when the great thepherd should appear. We have believed unwaveringly, that the mystery of God was finished, when the "Cry" was finished; and have felt satisfied, that the number of Israel could not possibly be in-"cry" was naished; and have fell satisfied, that the number of Israel could not possibly be in-creased, but that the number might, and would be diminished, by every apparent conversion or re-viral, unless they heeded the injunction of the Saviour, Luke 17: 32;—"Remember Lot's wife." It is not expressly told what Lot's wife looked back for, at that eventful moment, but, it seems very clear, that in an hour so solemn--so big with her future destiny, that she would not be moved very clear, that in an hour so solemn--so big with her future destiny, that she would not be moved from her path of duty, by mere curiosity, much less, in view of all the circumstances, would she be moved by the love of the property of that de-voted city. Her friends-her daughters doubtless occasioned that fatal, lingering look upon the cities of the plain. Her sympathies were not dried up;-she was not dead to the world. She could not say in relation to friend and foe, "Thy will O Lord be done, even so Amen." and therefore was not worthy to be saved. Her unhallowed sympathy no doubt would have saved "many in sympathy no doubt would have saved "many in and out of the church," in that devoted city, who were rejected by the Almighty, and for this re-belious act Heaven cursed her in the plain, and we are warned against her example. Our object in this article, is to set the plain un-varnished truth before the flock, and we mean to variashed truth before the flock, and we mean to do it faithfully, so that Israel may see their pres-ent standing in the light of God's eternal word. We remember, that in the parable, five of them were and five were wise foolish; and we are determined to study to be wise, and to save all, whose lamps have not gone out.

We are aware, that many have, and still will we are aware, that many have, and but we continue to oppose the views we advocate, but we feel confident, that such as now abide in Christ, with his word abiding in them will be able to see the truth, and love, and rejoice in it. There are with the word ablaing in them will be able to see the truth, and love, and rejoice in it. There are many doubtless, whose hearts are right, but hav-ing never seen the Bible ground, for believing that the mystery of God is finished: have talked of farther effort for the world and church, who, when the truth is spread before them, will be fully satisfied that their work is done, for all but the ittle flock, to whom it is the Father's pleasure to give the Kingdom. To such we say, pause dear brethren, lest yon forget, that those who talk of bring now shut in, can never knock for admitbeing now shut in, can never knock for admit-tance, unless they are first cast out. Since some must knock, and be refused, because they knock too late, (Luke 13: 25.) be sure you stand, talk, think, pray, and sing, agreeable to the word of God, and the deep experience through which that word has brought you in connection with the seal of the Holy Ghost. Oh pause dear brethren, and read with care the following hints touching our present position. First, we will consider

THE PARABLE OF THE TEN VIRGINS. 1. Its Chronology.

This parable is evidently designed, to present some special state of the true church; and from its construction alone, we learn, that it must apply just as the Lord is to be revealed. But we are not left to the necessity of fixing its application from the parable, for the Saviour has given its chronology in such a clear light, that we need not be mistal be mistaken. In the 3d verse of the 24th chapter we find the Saviour seated upon the mount of Olives, and his disciples with him; at which time they ask the following questions. "When shall these things be?" (when shall the temple be destroyed?) What shall be the sign of thy coming? and of the end of the (Aion) age? The questions asked cover the whole atteam of time, down to the evaluation whole stream of time, down to the everlasting Kingdom. The Saviour then proceeds to answer these questions; not in the order in which they are asked, but in the order in which the events would transpire. Hence, from the 4th to the 13th verse inclusive, he gives an exordium, or outline of his discourse, hinting at the more important scenes through which the church would pass down to the end, and then in verse 14, gives a sign of the end of the age.—"This gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached in all the world, for a witness unto all nations, and then shall the end come." Every reflecting mind, must see that the dispensation of mercy must be finished before the visible coming of Christ. In verses 15-20 inclusive, the first question of the disciples—{"When shall Jerusa-lem be destroyed!") is answered. From verse 21 to 29, the Pagan and Papal persecutions of the Church are foretold; particularly the 1260 days of Daniel, and John, "in which days, and after the tribulation," (see Mark 13: 24,) "the sun shall be darkning of the sun is to be within that transpire. Hence, from the 4th to the 13th verse the disciples down the stream of time, to where they are commanded to "know that the Kingdom of God is nigh, even at the door," we are told, ver. 37, 38 that the state of the world shall be "As it was in the days of Noah." We are then, verses 44-51 presented with two kinds of servants, one virtual function of the servants one giving "meat in due season," (proper truth, in a proper time) the other "saying, My Lord delayeth his coming";--which state of things continues until the Lord appears to reward every man ac-cording as his work shall be. Thus we see, the Lord has caused to be written for our instruction a comparison binter and

NUMBER A.

Thus we see, the Lord has caused to be written for our instruction, a consecutive history of the more important events connected with the charch, from the destruction of Jerusalem, to His visible coming in the clouds of heaven, and then adds: "THEN shall the Kingdom of Heaven be likened unto ten virgins," &c. When not at the de-struction of Jerusalem, nor yet during the Pagan or Papal persecution of the church. Neither can it be when the sun is darkened, nor yet when the signs in the sun, moon and stars, &c., have come be when the sun is darkened, nor yet when the signs in the sun, moon and stars, &c., have come to pass, for it is not until then that we are com-manded to now that the Kingdom of God is at hand, see Luke 21-31. And none surely will even attempt to take the ground that this parable will apply after the visible coming, yet it must be within the generation that witnesses the dark-ening of the sun, for that generation shall not pass until all these things (and the coming of Christ in the clouds to gather his elect is among the the things) be fulfilled. When then, at what point in this last generation shall thus likeness exist! Plainly when these signs have so far been fulfilled, that the children of God know as they are commanded, and have gone forth from these fulfilled, that the children of God know as they are commanded, and have gone forth from these and other evidences to meet their coming Lord. Now, as the "Cry" in the parable will not of course be made after the Lord appears, it follows that this parable must be parallel to some portion of the 24th chapter. Again, as there is a simul-taneous and harmonious movement in the King-dom of Heaven when the cry is made, it is pos-itively certain that the "beating of the fellow servants, and eating and drinking with the drunk-en" must be subsequent to the cry. and before the en" must be subsequent to the cry, and before the saints are caught away to meet the Lord.

saints are caught away to meet the Lord. The Cry then, that requires the children of God to go out to meet the Bridegroom, must find its parallel in verses 40, 41. In verses 42-44, we have substantially the same instruction as in ver 13 of chap. 25, after the Cry is finished. Hence verses 45-51, of the 24th chap., must present the true state of things, from the finish of the Cry, to the visible coming of the King; for at his com-ing, He "cuts the evil servant asunder and as-signs him his portion with hypocrites and unbe-lievers." lievers."

What death-like darkness must shroud the mind of a professed Adventist, who can attempt to apply this parable to the whole Gospel age. Truly, the whole advent library, and perhaps in them, the productions of his own pen, will testify against him when the Lord appears. Having settled the chronology we proceed to consider,

2. Its True Import.

Many have been much afflicted, because they could not obtain some authentic history of an Oriental Marriage, the better to understand this par-able. But we have no need of such a history; for Jesus himself has given us the marriage and af-firms that the Kingdom of heaven shall be LIKE has given this marriage in detail, and then affirms that the Kingdom of Heaven shall be like it. Surely, if with the unvarnished word of Jesus before us, if with the unvarnished word of Jesus before as, we listen to the sayings of men, because they claim to be great, our condemnation will be just. But before coming directly to a consideration of the parable, it may be proper first to remark, that we have mistaken the true import of this parable, when we had blended the two characters of Christ, viz., the Bridegroom and King. We looked for viz., the Bridegroom and King. We looked for him as King, when he was to come only as Bridegroom ; not to earth, but to the wedding. Christ must have sustained three distinct characters when he comes to deliver his saints. First, He was exalted to be a PRINCE and a SAVIOUR, (his work) "to give repentance and a SAVIOUR, (his work) "to give repentance unto Israel and remis-sion of sins." While in this character, the preach-ing is, Faith and Repentance. Next, he is the Bridegroom, or what is like the Bridegroom. The work he is to do before he comes as King, may be found in Daniel 7: 13, 14, and then the preaching ehold, the Bridegroom, cometh go ye out to im." When he comes to gather his elect, neet him." he comes as King, with power, and great glory. See Matt. 24: 30; Rev. 18: 16, and others. It is in the character of Bridegroom, that the

"Cry" anticipates his coming, and not as the King of glory. In this marriage, in which the ten virgins rep-resent the "Kingdom of Heaven," there must have been a proclamation in which there was a nave been a proclamation in which there was a time set; which proclamation called "the virgins forth to meet the Bridegroom." But the time set passed by, and to the virgins the "Bridegroom tarried," and they "slumbered and slept." East-ern marriages were always consumated in the night. And in this case, which Jesus says the Kingdom of Heaven shall be hke, there was a "cry made at midnight." "Then all those vir-gins arose (a simultaneous movement) and trimmed their lamps. The foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone (Margin, going) out. But the wise answered, Lest there be not enough for us and you: go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. And while they went to buy, the Bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage, and the door was shut. Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us." But there was no admittance. After what,did they come and knock?---plainly af-ter they that were ready went in and the door was what they the there was no admittance. time set; which proclamation called "the virging ter they that were ready went in and the door was shut. This Cry then leaves those virgins in the guest-chamber, but not at the supper-table. Thus guest-chamber, but not at the supper-table. Thus much for this part of the marriage. It is said "The Kingdom of heaven shall be like unto" Now let us see if our history is like this parable. Have we had a proclamation, in which a time was set, which time called out the people of God with their lamps?--Surely we have, and that time (1843) was supported by every needful argument, drawn from the Bible, Chronology, and the Signs in the Natural and Morał world. Be-side all this. Jehovah set his own broad seal of side all this, Jehovah set his own broad seal of approbation, upon that proclamation, by whomso-ever made; hence it must be right. But that time passed and to us the vision tarried. Did we slumber and sleep? Have we heard the cry, "Behold the Bridegroom cometh, go ye out to meet him"? yea, verily! and it began at "midnight." But in the marriage the cry was made, i. e., it had a a finish—it was made; and had an end. We were all engaged in extending the cry, we were driven day and night, until about the first of the seventh month, when unexpectedly, throughout the host of God's elect, a sound within the soul said, IT rs DONE. The watchmen were called from the walls, DONE. The watchmen were called from the walls, the Advent papers throughout the land hear-ing the Cry were stopped."---and there was si-lance in heaven, for about the space of half an hour. Dear Brethren, recall that deep experience. When you were dismissed did you feel that you had "Oil" to spare!--could you labor for others! no! no! one thought, and only one hung on thy soul, "Shall I be sawd?" But some there were whose state was not like ours; they asked for oil but you had none to give: you could only say. but you had none to give; you could only say, pray for yourcelves. They wondered why you did not preach and pray, and sing, as before :----they would ask for oil, then go to buy, while you were trimming up your lamp; but while they went to buy, the Bridegroom came, and they that were ready, went in with him to the marriage on the 10th day of the 7th month, and the door was shut. Went in with him where? To the sea of glass? into immortality? No, but to the mar-guest-chamber, and that the guest-chamber is of riage. Nor (let it be remembered) that the Lord Jesus does not come as Bridegroom to earth, but to the marriage, Bat one feature then, of this parable remains to be fulfilled, and that has now begun—they came and cried, "Lord, Lord, open, unto us." God save us in that hour! The true midnight cry, then, does not leave the saints in glory, or on the sea of glass : but what is like the grest-chamber, wherein the ten virgins went. But how like them "shut in"?--theirs was a literal room, and its walls and door were seen by the natural eyes. So too, theirs was a literal lamp, with literal oil, and gave them literal light to see those walls with natural eyes. Our lamp, is the eternal word ;--our oil an unction from the Holy One, by which the wise shall understand, 1 John ii. 20, and that received through faith; our fire of heavenly origin, by which our lamp is lighted.-Our light is to be the Spirit, for the things of God are "spiritually discerned." With such a lamp, well trimmed and burning, we were all enabled to see the walls of separation that were put between the world and us on the 10th day of the 7th month, "having done the will of God," and with one consent exclaimed, our work for earth is with one consent exclaimed, our work for earth is done. The Ark is still the same; and if your lamp burne clearly now, as then, those walls are still apparent. But if you sell your lamp, or wil-fully cast away the 7th month, no power in earth or heaven can save you. All, all is lost 1 Christ is this door, he also is the vine, and we the branches. He having risen up, the door is shut; and every living branch is raised up with him; --their prayers for rebels hushed and all un-holy sympathies dried up for ever. If not they ought to be.

ought to be.

But is this marriage celebrated on the part of the Kingdom of heaven before the Lord appears! We answer, it is, and give the proof.

Turn to Matthew 22: 1-13. Here we have the marriage of the King's Son, and here our Lord affirms again, "the Kingdom of heaven" shall be "LIKE" this marriage. After several invitations, the servants were sent into the highways and hedges, and the wedding is furnished with guests. This last invitation, must be parallel to the Cry in the parable above; and carries these children into the same flock, for the Lord will have but one wedthe same flock, for the Lord will have but one wed-ding. The parable of the ten virgins, illustrates the movement of the saints while going into the guest-chamber, but this shows their state while there, and before they are changed. This "King" represent God the Father, the "Son," the Lord Jesus. So then, the saints must celebrate this marriage in what is like the guest-chamber before the them to mathematic for them he comes the same flock, for the Lord will have but one wedthe Lord comes to gather them, for then he comes as King. Again, in the wedding, some are bound and cast out. The "Kingdom of neaven share of "like" it. Will the Lord ever mistake, and change to immortality, any who have not on the wedding garment, take them to the sea of glass, and then cast them out! You answer no. So sure then as that will never be, so sure the examination is now passing, and will be all over when the Lord appears; for when he comes, immortality comes with him; See 1 Thess. 4: 14-18, and there is no time for examination then, for it is in a "moment" says Paul,—yea, quicker than that, "in the twink-ling of an eye." see 1 Cor. 15: 51, 52. But it may be asked how any are found here not having on the wedding garment, as only they that were ready went in, and the door wasshut. They have not kept their loins girded with truth,—they have lost their garment through want of watchfulness; or else their robe is spotted with sin, and being "naked" their shame appears.

Where does the Lamb receive his Bride? We should not forget that his marriage is but another name for his coronation. This is done before the Ancient of days; or God the Father. See Dan. 7: 13, 14,"I saw in the night visions and behold one like unto the Son of man, and he came with the clouds of heaven, and he came to the Ancient of days, and they (the clouds) brought him near be-fore Him, and there was given him dominion, tion of the King of kings, and here he asks and obtains the promised possession, as in the 2d Psalen, and this is "like" a wedding. Having learned that the true Cry, leaves the saints in the guest-chamber, and that the guest-chamber is off this side of the vail, or before we are changed, we he comes to deliver the saints. See Luke 12: 35-37, "Have your loins girded (so as to keep your robe on) and your lights burning, and ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their Lord, when he shall return from the wedding, that when he cometh and knocketh, ye may open unto him immediately."

"Blessed are those servants whom the Lord, when he cometh shall find watching: Verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them." Here is the marriage supper; so the marriage must be over when he appears, for he comes from the wedding to the supper, and cuts and darves, himself. Glory, Hallelujah! Rev. 3: 10-20, and 19: 9. He comes to the supper then, not as the Bridegroom, but as the King of kings and Lord of lords. Rev. 19: 16. He comes with power Lord of lords. Rev. 19: 16. He comes with power and great glory, see Matt. 24:, hence, he must have obtained that power and great glory, prior to his coming in the clouds to gather his elect; and as this is given before the Ancient of days as in Daniel 7: 13, 14, and as he must rise up to go and receive it, a child may see that the door must be shut, and the mystery of God finished a time before he visibly appears.

One thought more in relation to our being shut in after the Cry, until the Lord appears. In the marriage, to which the Kingdom of heaven is likened, the virgins went into the guest-chamber, likened, the virgins went into the were not per-and the door was shut; but they were not per-mitted to enter the Bridal chamber, until after the marriage ceremony was over. None but the the marriage ceremony was over. None but the Friest and the near relatives of the Bridegroom and Bride, ever witnessed the ceremony. They knew not how long they would have to wait there, until the marriage was over, when an examination, and call to supper made all things plain. In Luke 12: 25, 36, we are certainly re-quired to have our loins girded about, and our lights burning, and to be ourselves like unto men that wait for their Lord. Now we could not thus wait, when we were slumbering and sleeping, for our lamps were not trimmed, there was no waiting during the Cry, nor then, until the time had passed; since then, we have been, wait-ing our Lord's return; and the call to the marriage supper of the Lamb, makes all our trials plain. We will try to show, that verses 45-51 of ch. 24, must be fulfilled after the Cry is finished, and now we see it being done. When the Bridegroom came to the marriage on the 10th day of the 7th month, he committed to his servants, his household; he made them rulers over it; not to lord it. but to give them meat in due season. And now while one servant will labor to make the distinction appear, between the Bridegroom and King, and show that the Bridegroom has come according to the Cry, auother, will confound the two characters of Lord and Bridegroom, and say, My Lord delayet his coming. But will those who have "gone forth" from Bi-ble evidence, and who are still preaching that the Lord is coming, ever say in their heart, my Lord delayeth his coming! the thought is paradoxical, but yet it will be so, he beats his FELLOW-servant, one with whom he has toiled and suffered, and walked in company to the house of God! How then can this state of things exist?

will try to show. We cannof show that the Bridegroom has come to the marriage, and the door is shut, without showing that the Master has risen up, and gone with the clouds of heaven to the Ancient of days, to ask and receive His Kingdom, as in Dan. 7: 13-14. If this be shown, we prove that Christ is on his way to earth, and will soon be here.

Again, this is His way, He comes by the Ancient, of days, This is his coming. If it then be true, that we have had the Cry, and they that were ready went in on the 10th day of the 7th month, such as from the heart teach that Christ is still a Meditor, that the door is still open, and that no change has taken place, are saying, My Lord delayeth his coming. Although the Cry has been made, Be-hold the Bridegroom cometh: and the seal of God's eternal Spirit has been set upon it, they say, 'He's not yet started, He delayeth, sinners may yet be waved.' We have before said, that there are those whose hearts are right, but whose intellects have never been enlightened, and for want of light, have tried to labor in opposition to the promptings of the To such we humbly say, whether you are heart_ a writer, preacher, or private member of the flock, do not cast away your confidence. The Master said, if he should say in his hearl, &cc. Bro. Peter says we should take heed unto the sure word of Prophecy until the day dawn and the day-star arise in your hearts. If you have talked incon-sistent with the state of your heart, do so no more. Immediately bring your efforts to corres-pond with your experience of the seventh month.

Having now passed through the parable, we will direct attention once more to the parallel be-fore noticed, and pray the reader to compare them. Matt. 24: 40, 41, is parallel to the Cry. Matt. 24: 42, 43, 44, is parallel to verse 13 of chapter 25. Matt. 24: 45-51, is parallel to verses 14-30. From verse 31 to the close of chap. 25, we are presented with the separation now taking place in the Advent ranks, with the very language of the two parches. This chapter will all be fulfilled before the Lord is visibly revealed, as then there is no time for separation. See 1 Thess. 4: 15-18; 1 Cor. 15; 51. 52.

Such as now in heart receive this call to Supper, find their talents doubled, and rejoice with ex-oseding joy. O see to it, that while the Saviour knocks you O see to it, that while the Saviour knocks you open unto him immediately. As none will ever go to the sea of glass, and cry, Lord, Lord, so that must here be witnessed, that hour is just upon us! It is the hour of temptation, Rev. 3. 10, see James 5: 7. O keep the word of his patience, keep your sympathies with Christ, and then you shall be kept in that tremendous hour.

If we occupy the solemn, yet interesting posi-tion as presented above, we are led to inquire, by what reasons the door has been shut. Some sup-pose, that the world, and Laodecean church, as a Some supwhole are rejected, merely on the ground of their having shut their eyes to truth. And some por-tions of the world may be rejected, and not the whole, because say they, all have not had the same light that some have. But this is not the fact in either case. If the door is shut, it is done by finishing the atonement, on the 10th day of the 7th month, and if the atonement is not finished, then the door is not shut, and all who come to Christ, in any land, may yet be saved.

The argument from the types showing that the stonement would be finished on the 10th day of the 7th month, was perfect, save in one point; and that the argument may be before the mind in all its strength, just give it now a careful reading. The point of error alluded to above, was as follows. We supposed the atonement began with the cracifizion. We overlooked a tittle of the Law, of which Jesus says, Matt. 5:-18, "For ver-ily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one if a one tittle chall in a wine a from the Law jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the Law, till all be fulfilled,"

The shadow of which we speak, is the daily offering of the lambs in the Holy Place, or first tabemacle, and not in the Holy of holies. See Numemacle, and not in the Holy of holles. See Num-bers 28: 1-10, and parallel passages, where it will be seen, that the second Lamb was constantly of-fered at the hour of the Passover. Heb. 10: 11; 6: 67. This offering was made daily throughout the same year, on the 10th day of the 7th month, a day of attractment but this are at action of the 7th month. or day of atonement, but this was no part of the atonement offering: Lev. 23: 26-32. Particularly the 16th chapter. The live goat is the atonematic offering; the slaughtered one, is for a sin offering; The live goat is the atonement but no lamb is killed on this day! The cry in the sacrifice of the lamb, has been the whole year for were absolved from all their sins, and the live goat hetrs them into a land of forgetfulness. atonement was made complete, on the 10th day until another lamb is slain.

The type of the daily offering of the lambs, must find its antitype in the continued pleading of the of God, where he was to sit, "until his enemies are made his footstool," see Heb. 10: 12, 13. As advocate, He sits at the right hand of the Father, until the day of atonement; which atonement, in order that the type may be fulfilled, must be on the 10th day of the 7th month. Mark, it must be within the day. See Lev. 23: 27-29. For if it be not secomplished within the 10th day, the type is not fulfilled.—This then, is the true view of the subject. The Saviour, from his crucifixion, to the first day of the 7th month; was the antitype of the Jewish high priest, while ministering daily of the Jewish high priest, while ministering daily in the first tabernacle;—He then rose up, and the virgins trimmed their lamps. On the 10th day He was at once the antitype of the dead and living goat. He entered the Holy place, or inner court, (accorning to the 3d chapter of Zechariah,) and shut the door. Then, the atonement being fin-ished, as it must be on that day: He leaves on the clouds, to obtain the throne as we have be-fore shown.—The great objection arged against the argument of the 10th day, is then without weight, for He must go in, and come out, on the same day, and we have given abundant evidence that he has so done, hence no more blood can be obtained, for Jesus dies no more. obtained, for Jesus dies no more.

One point more deserves our thought. When the Jewish High priest entered the inner court with the blood of sprinkling, the congregation stood without in almost breathless silence. This must have its antitype. This, the Kingdom of God must fulfil in their experience, at the time of the atonement. The word presents this silence in connection with the close of the Gospel age. Read the following Scriptures in the order which they are quoted: Rev. 6: 1; Isa. 41: 1, 2; Zech. 2: 13; Luka 13: 25-27; Dan. 12: 1, 2, and 8-10; Rev. 22: 10-19. This silence was felt and witnessed in the 7th month, and it is to all who love God's power, a sealing evidence that what we write is truth.

Having shown in the foregoing argument, that the Saviour comes only as Bridegroom in the par-able of the ten virgins, and that the day of atone-ment was the day of that coming, we pass to coneider the

TYPICAL DAY OF HIS COMING AS KING.

In consequence of the mistake in the typical arguments before referred to, we lost sight of an-other important "tittle" of the Law :- We mean the type of the Passover.-While supposing that the atonement began at the crucifixion, it was very natural to infer that the crucifixion was the final fulfilment of that type: but this was not correct, The Paseover was designed, not only in the offering of the lamb to point to Christ, ... "the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world," but to commemorate the destruction of the Egyptians; both by the destroying angel, and in the sea, as a type of the destruction of the wicked, in the last act of cleansing the Sanctuary. Our Lord did not fulfil the type of the passover, when he was crucified, for his enemics was not then destroyed; but then, as was shown in the Cry which made, He did become the antitype of the lamb, made, He did become the antippe of the rand, both as it regards manner and time. And this was done how? why by becoming himself the Lamb, in connection with the eating of the passo-ver feast. Luke 23: 15, 16, "And he said unto them, with desire have I desired to eat this passover with you, before I suffer: For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be run-rithed in the Kingdom of God." After eating the passover with the disciples, he gives the sacrament of bread and wine; not to commemorate the passover, but in remembrance of Himself, see ver. 17-20. In the type the lamb was a part of the feast. Now, as He was to become that Lamb, He eats the passover on that day; thus connect-ing it with Himself; hence His desire to eat it before He suffered. It will be seen that the feast, and the Lamb which is the SUBSTANCE of the feast, and the Lamb which is the substance of the reast, must go together; hence, as He becomes from the crucifizion, to the day of atonement, the daily offering for sin, the antitype of the passover lamb, it becomes necessary that He bear away the cere-mony with him—not fulfilled, but to be fulfilled in the coming of the Kingdom of God. Having connected the passover with himself, He insti-tutes the Lord's Supper (so called) in remembrance of Himself, and as a pledge that the passover shall be fulfilled, when He shall come in his Kingdom.

Now dear Brother, as not one part, or tittle, of the law shall pass, until all be fulfilled, THIS IIT-TLE must be fulfilled. THIS shadow must cer-tainly have a substance. And we have the word of Christ Jesus himself, not only that it was not fulfilled in his death, but, that it shall be fulfilled in the KINGDOM of God.

The antitype will be realized, when the stone cut out without hands, shall smite the image of earthly governments, and become a great mount-ain and fill the whole earth. It will not only be fulfilled as to the manner, agreeably to the type, but also in TIME, and circumsnance, for so has but also in TIME, and circumsnance, for so has every succeeding type been fulfilled and so it must be, to some the jots and tittles. There is strong evidence then, that the King will be revealed, with the armies of heaven, as in Rev. 19, on some passover day, between the two eve-nings at Jerusalem. Now as the atonement must be accomplished on the 10th day of some 7th beat of a bid Scintors. month, and the Bridegroom go for his Kingdom, and return as King on the following passover, so it is true, that from the 7th month to the passo It is true, that from the 7th month to the passe-ver, there is no mediator, only of the new cove-nant. Heb. 12: 24, and 10: 15-19, and no High priest, only over the Louse of God, Heb. 10: 21, Whose house are we, if we hold fast the confi-dence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end. Heb. 3: 6. And this priesthood is after the order of Melchisedeck, which is first, King of righteosness, or judgments, 2d, King of Salem, or peace, and 3d, Priest of the Most High God. Heb. 7: 1-2.

Again, as the Bible picture of the last days will Again, as the blote picture of the test days whith not be fulfilled but once, and as we have had the time, the tarrying time, the Cry, the 10th day of the 7th month, with all its attendant evidences, to-gether with the holy power, and heartfelt joys of God's salvation, consequent on the passing of the atonement; we feel justified in cherishing a strong expectation that our King will come in all his glory on the 14th day of the 1st month of the next Jewish year, at 3 o'clock, P. M., at Jerusa-lem. Thus our glorious King will break his ene-mies at the same time they broke his body on the cross, and thus the saints both dead and living, shall have the victory through Jeans Christ our shall have the victory through Jesus Christ our Lord. The Israelites were requested to stand with their loins girded, their sandals bound, and their staff in hand on the night of the passover, ready to go at a moment's warning. So we are required to stand with our loins girded, and our light burning. lights burning-that we may open unto our King immediately; Luke 12: 35. Such as watched of tained the day and hour of the Bridegroom's com-ing to the mrrriage. So such as have watched and kept their garmants, will see the day and hour in which our King is coming to the supper. Wa cannot now say positively which moon is the first in the coming year, but we now believe it is the moon in April.

"THE LATTLE WHILE."

Notwithstanding the Lord has strengthened us from time to time, with rays of light from the "little while," we could never fully understand its import, until we saw the time, the day of Christ's visible coming. To us it now seems perfectly plain; we get its length. In the 7th chapter of John, we find the Saviour at a feast of tabernacles.-He came up in the midst of the feast and before the great and last day, probably the 21st, he says, verses 33, 34, "Yet a little while am I ne says, verses 33, 34, "Yet a have while am 1 with you, and then I go to him that sent me. Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me, and where I am, thither ye cannot come." The feast of tab-ernacles was in the 7th month, A. D. 32, (see margin,) and he was crucified on the 14th day of the first month of A D 22 which was the folthe first month of A. D. 33, which was the fol-lowing passover: This "little while" then extended from the 7th month to the feast of the passover;

242
see me; because I go to the Father." The disciples could not understand this second "little while," until the Saviour showed them that it was place in proverbs, or parabolically, i. e. the first "little while" was a likeness of the second. He also shows that in this last "little while," the saints will weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice,—and thus they have done. We are also shown the form of prayer, for this last "little while," verses 23–28; which form of prayer anti-ciptes no Mediator.
While, "were and not find Him, So in the last "little while" the World and Loodicean Church shall rejoice, and not find Him, So in the last "little while" the World and Loodicean Church shall rejet and not find Him, So in the last "little while" the World and Loodicean Church shall while" the World and Loodicean Church shall for the dor is shut. This last "little while" is the one of which Paul epeaks, Heb. 10: 35–39. "For ye have need of patience, after that ye have done the will of God, (on the 10th day of the 7th month, which will is orus and tilicean and not find, for the dor is shut. This last "little while," is yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry." He (Christ) in the character of the Bridegroom, has to the passover when he (the King who comes to earth, ball come, and not tarry. No tarrying beyond the passover, glory be to God. This too, is Bro. James' time of patience, from the early to the latter rais, O that our patience may endure to the end, see James 5: 7, 8°. Again, Paul presents while "little while" in Heb. 12: 25, 29. While referring to the promise of God in regard to shaking its "thitte while" in Heb. 12: 25, 29. While referring to the promise of God in regard to shaking its "thitte while" in Heb. 12: 25, 29. While referring to the promise of God in regard to shaking its "thitte while" in Heb. 12: 25, 29. While referring to the promise of God in regard to shaking its "thitte while" in Heb. 2: 25, 29. While refering to the promise of God in regar ferring to the promise of God in regard to shaking the earth, he says, "And this word yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made," &c. The words, get once more, in connection with the shak-ing of the earth, occur no where but in Haggai, hence, from Haggai 2: 6, the Apostle must have quoted. Haggai prophesied in the 21st day of the 7th month, and said—"Yet once it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, & the see, and the desire of all nations shall come." There ein be no doubt but the Saviour had him

There can be no doubt but the Saviour had his There can be no dount out the saviour had me eye on this same "little while," when He said, "Again, a little while," &c. One says "again," the other, "once more," which to us is the same expression. As the earth was shaken at the end of the first "little while," on the day of the passor the nest "intile while," on the say of the pass-over, when Jesus suffered, so, at the end of the second, or the day of the passover, when He comes to "rule the nations with a rod of iron," shall all things be shaken that are made. This sbaking is the great earthquake, Rev. 11: 19, at which time the dead in Christ shall all arise.

The passover 1 the passover 1 the day and hour of Jesus' coming, King of kings and Lord of lords; Who cannot see the day and hour of Jesus' comingl Surely all who have a lamp can see, if they but look with care. O Israel, thine hour of tri-umpli is at hand, thy "warfare is accomplished." Ye sons of Levi take again your harp on willows hung, and with fresh courage, chant the dawn of Jubilee. Ye Patera, take amin it he dawn of Jubilee. Ye Peters, take again the shepherd's crook, and his these to the scattered flock, and pluck them from the hunter's share, they are sick, plack them from the hunter's share, they are sick, and faint, and weary. Yo heralds of the Jubilee, prophets of earth's final hour, go, blow again thy Clarion, the flock will hear thee, and such, as from the error of their ways yes save, shall sparkle evermore in that height crown which soon shall deck thy pol-ished hrow, in New Jerusalem. Ye wurry saints of Master's fold, come, gather up your feet again, -again the every tie, weigh both your anchors, and put your little bark again before the wind;--the gale is coming, this gale will waft you home. O ye suffring saints, rise in the strength of Isra-ol's God, and claim the victory. The kingdoms have ever more become our Lord's, and now he reigns. But if you will not go, or if you scan reigns. But if you will not go, or if you mean to sizk, Ob, sink alone for Jesus' sake, and do not drag with you, beneath the waves of fire and death, the flock of the Redeemor.

THE DAY-STAR.

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, MARCH 25, 1845.

(57 A number of valuable and interesting letters have been laid over till next week, to make room for the "Address to Believers scattered abroad."

1 had designed to publish a double number this week, but sufficient means not being received, I have issued our usual size, and no increase of the edition. About 200 copies can be spared after supplying regular subscribers.

Aft There are some things in the "Address" published in this number that will be objectionable to many minds, but the message is so cheering-the theme so glorious, and the arguments certainly any thing but weak, that I dared not withhold it from our readers.

I perfectly agree with the conclusion, that we are fully justified in expecting our Lord the present spring, but have generally arrived at those conclusions by a different argument.

"THE JUBILEE STANDARD," -A valuable second Advent paper, has been started in New York city under the management of Brethren, S. S. Snow, and B. Matthias.

It is issued every Thursday, at 131 Division St. Price 75 cts. for 26 numbers.

The editors are old hequaintances of ours; they have always retained the confidence of their brethren, and are still feeding the flock with "meat in due season."

THE PATH OF THE JUST. (Continued.)

"But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day." PROV. 4: 18.

The manner of describing a path is very iastructive: In noting objects along the way, and also giving the character of the road itself, it is interesting to mark the anxiety depicted upon the countenance of the weary traveller while this description is going on. Says the informant, when you pass over a piece of rough road-turn such a corner-pass such a house-climb such a hillpass such a forest, then-How far is it? Only a mile from the forest to the city. The traveler presses on,-nor is he in doubt when the rough road is passed-the hill climbed-the forest passed, &c. As he passes these several points, he KNOWS he has not to pass them again.

His path "is as the shining light" because the word of God is his lamp-a lamp to his feet, to shine where he is, and not where he is not. See Pss. 119: 105.

His path is especially illuminated toward its last end, for it "shineth more and MORE :" The word of God is also the lamp that the virgins took as the Bridegroom was about to come. See Matt. 25: 1.

The word of God is also the "sure word" which we are to "heed as a light shining" until it is sclipsed by "the perfect day."

The "perfect day" to which the path of the just leads, is the "day of the Lord" so often referred to in the Scriptures. It is perfect, because there is no blemishes upon it. It is perfect, because it is a day without a night. See Rev. 21: 25; 22: 5. Ball, J. W. Craig.) Thomas Johnson.

Perfect, because, "Thy sun shall no more go down: neither shall thy moon withhraw itself: for the Lord shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended," Isa, 60: 20.

Having seen the source from which the light of the just eminates, to guide them to this perfect day, let us enquire how this path is to be illuminted more and more.

Reaching to the perfect day, there is a given distance as all will admit-though all will not admit that the distance being given, amounts to any thing, for some would make the text read, The path of the just is as the shining light that shines more and more till just before the day dawns, when it will plunge you suddenly into a whirlpool of darkness, arising from "doubtful chronology."

But God bath declared the end from the beginning, (Isa. 46: 9, 10,) and promised a rest to his people at the dawn of the seventh day, (Gen. 2: 1-3,) which rest was still future when Paul wrote to the Hebrews, 4: 4-8, and the length of time in the future was settled by Pet. 2d Epistle 3: 8: &zo.

The "day of Judgment and perdition of ungodly men" appeinted by the Almighty, (Acts 17: 31,) is also the "perfect day" when God is to be "glorified in all them that believe," 2d Thess. 1: 10.

All will agree that from creation down till the "restitution of all things," we have the full length of the path marked out for all. And on all this path, has the revelation God has given us, cast such a light that those who desired could please hím.

When Adam's spirits sank under injuries inflicted by the serpent, his darkness was lighted with the promise of the serpent's overthrow.

When the earth was filled with violence, and just Noah endangered by the gathering storm of wrath, God lit his path to an "ark of safety."

Israel in their peril were pointed to the cloud of defence behind them, and to a lighted path beneath the opening waves before them.

When their enemies were ready to destroy, the voice of the Lord and his sound in the "mulberry trees" was their token of his presence.

The light of God along the path of the just in known by its clearness and purity-the light is ever the same-increasingly clear and splendid ; but the path is not always alike ; it is progressive. When a hill is once climbed, it is not to be climb. ed again :- when a forest is passed, it is passed for ever. When a monntain is scaled, it is scaled once for all .- There is no twice traveling this path-no "going back."

The part of the path in which we now travel is not that of the martyre who suffered under Papal rule, nor was theirs the trials of the sifting time in connexion with the harvest.

To walk in the path of the just we want an appropriative faith suited to the place in that path which we have reached.

(To be continued.)

Letters and Receipts,

For the week ending the 24th inst.

R. M. Riddle, P. M.; R. Willard, $5.00; W. D. Oaks, P. M., 1.00; J. V. Himes; Silas G. Strong; J. W. Williams, .50; (This is the first notice received from you: Your papers have been [&]quot;For the froward is an abomination to the Lord: but his secret is with the righteous."---PROV.

DAYOSTA L JACOBS, " WE HAVE ALSO A MURE SURE WORD OF PROPRIOT ; WREERUNTO TE DO WELL THAT TE TAKE MERD, AS UNTO A LIGHT THAT SHIPERE IS A DARK FLACE, UNTIL THE DAY DAWS, AND THE DAY STAR ARDS IN YOUR SKARTS."-9 Pet. I. 19. C. CLARE.

VOLUME 5.

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, APRIL 1, 1845.

THE DAY-STAR

Is a continuation of the Warran MIDNEER CRY, and is pub-lished every Tuesday, by E. Jacous, at his residence on Seventh street, south side, three dows case of the Taharascie. All commentantiant for publications—on the business of the apart, or enters for hooks, and publications, should be addressed Fort Parp to E. Jacous, Checkmart, O.

TERMS OF THE PAPER. Fifty cents per vol. of 13 numbers in advance, to those that realis to pay; and gratis to those that are really unable to pay.

Letter from Brother Clapp.

ATRON O. MARCH 18th 1845.

ATRON O. MARCH 16th 1845. Drag BROTHER JACOBS:-Being quite unwell this evening with a severe cold on my lungs, con-sequently, deprived of the privilege of meeting my dear brathren and sisters in the prayer circle, I have taken the liberty, although a stranger in the flesh, yet I trust we are one in Christ our Laving Head, to say a few words to you. We learn in his blessed word if one member suffer, all the members suffer with it. Oh, how true this has always been with the little flock, and especial-ly at the present time with the daspised few, who are sarnestly contending tor the Faith care de-ivared to the Saints, and are waiting, looking and longing for the return of the Nobleman after scaiving the Kingdom. Luke 19: 12, 16; How appropriate now the injunction of the Apostle, and longing for the return of the Nobleman after receiving the Kingdom. Luke 19: 12, 16; How appropriate now the injunction of the Apostle, Gal, G. 2; "Bear ye one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ." My dear brother, let me as to you, I have often thought of the afflic-itons and trials which you have been called to experience in your labors of love among the breth-ren at the West, and in view of the fact that you are slone as it were, in holding up the light, in the great Western Valley, my heart has been drawn out for you with feelings not to be describ-ed. I rejoice, that amidst the dark night of infi-delity that broods over the wide exclended field you occupt, relative to our blessed hope, that the "Day Star" has arisen, and I feel to bless the Lord, that its bright beams do gladdon the hearts of pilgrims and strangers, to whom it betokens the near sp-pranch of the Sun of Rigteousness. Dear broth-er, your warfare is almost ended, the Crown will wom be yours. "Yes, oh, yes, He will gather his innsomed once home." Oh, Glory, Glory! I must not omit to tell you, I was greatly comforted and blessed in reading your article on Time, in W. M. C. vol. 4, No. 5. Will you have the goodness to invard me five or six copies of the paper, should you have them on hand. On the passing by 67 the 10th day of the 7th month, when for a short ime the pillar of cloud and fire, seemed to be withdrawn from the Hosts of the Lord, my mind was in darkness and perplexity, relative to our hitnde and longittde. After comparing the po-sition or grounds you took, with the word of the Lord, I felt asilised it anstineed you, and the hight I then received on the subject, has been in-creasing and I can truly say that since that time, he Scriptures have been a Lamp to my feet and a light to my path. I have been much disappointed at you have had no more to say os the important with spiritual that you are not in the mann arroct. What an amount of evidence clusters around the 10th of 7th month movement to prover . Oh, let appropriate now the injunction of the Apostle, Gal, 6: 2; "Bear to one prothesis of the Apostle, great darkness, and some I fear bave Allen. There s another class: still who admit that great events took place about that time and yet have nothing definite in their minds as to what they were. Oh, int the Loid would help, that we may be kept namble, teachable, prayerful, that we may under-stand his whole will, 10 relation to his past dealings with us, and still follow on to know the Lord. Was it not the purpose of God connected with this movement, most manifestly, to prepare his people for a certain work-ever coustant, earnas people for a certain work-ever constant, earl-est, and agonising prayer for the coming of the Lord and the Resurrection? Yes, the time for Zion to travail has come according to Paulm 102: 13, 23; Isaiah 26: 17, 21; 66: 5, 10; Micah 4: 8, 11; besides many other very precious scriptures. Oh, what figures God has here given us, and shall we not understand by these that our bearts are to be fixed most intensly upon it? Oh, yes, my dear brother and already are the Simeons and Annas in brother and already are the Simeons and Annas in our land, howing themselves with mighty strug-gles before the Lord. May the Lord increase the burthen of soul till the Resurrection morn shall dawn upon us! Amen. I am satisfied in my own mind that what John saw is vision, Rev. 14: 14, 16, wasfulfilled by us just before and on the 10th day of the 7th month. I can see no intimation in that prophecy that we are commanded to pray for Christ to come hus for him to do a cartain thing Christ to come, but for him to do a certain thing, What is it? why, that he would thrust in his sickle and reap for the harvest of the earth is ripe. It was my most carnest prayer and was it not yours, my dear brother, previous to the 10th to be cut loose from earth in every form, and did not the good Lord help us to do this in such a sense, as it had never been done before! Oh, yes, and let us magnify the riches of his grace for as-sisting us as he did to obtain auch a complete vic-tory over the world and self. Have we not felt ever since in a most poculiar sense, that we are dead and our lives hid with Christ in God. Praised be his name. I feel that the word of the Lord teaches us most clearly that the harvest was then teaches us most clearly that the harvest was then ripe and that it was then resped, but not gathered, into the garner, the New Earth. I can now see great beauty, power and harmony in the figure of the harvest, as used by our Baviour, found in Mat. 13: 30, 38, 39. From the original we cer-tainly are not to understand by the word world, in this connection that it has reference to the earth are bakitable which has a discussion. or habitable globe, but to the age or dispensation. I can see no evidence that precisely at the chosing up of the Gospel dispensation we are to expect the conflagration of the earth and elements. The great trouble with us, as a general thing, has been that we have crowded many important events in together and have expected their fulfilment at one together and have expected their fulfilment at one, and the same time. Can it be shown from the word of the Lord, that the Gospel-age or dispensa-tion has not ceased, and that our great High Priest did not according to the Type finish up his work on the 10th day of the 7th month, and did then receive the kingdom? Luke 19:12, 15; This can not be, replies one, for the word says he is to be High Priest forever &c. But this view would most certainly condict with other next of same most certainly conflict with other parts of scriptore, for we are told that when he shall sit on the Throne of his Father David, he reigns as King; as such we are looking for him to come, not as High Priest. We find by the original that the word forever has different significations as to time, depending upon the subject or thing in relation to which it is used in the word of God; for instance, it means age, ages, ages of ages, or in other words as long as the object or thing of which it is spoken shall exist. I think I now un-derstand the full import of the promise to the Philadelphia or Advent church. Rev. 3: 10; Has rniadeipnia or Advent Church. Kev. 3: 10; Has not our High Priest as such, had long patience waiting for the fulfilment of the promise made to him relative to the kingdom? Also what we find in? Luke 13: 25; was fulfilled at the time he took the kingdom, as well as many other scriptures to which I could cite you had I space on my sheet. Oh, what an awfully solemn yet glorious time is the present to the people of Godi Every ray of light from the blessed word, relative to the con-sumation of our hope, dues seem to concentrate at or about the termination of this Jawieh year: As I regard the Parable of the ten Virgins and its fulfilment, I cannot admit that the present is a time of preparation on the part of the children of God as some contend. I am satisfied that this parable was not intended to harmonise with other parable was not intended to harmonise with other parables or scriptures the watches even. The figure our Saviour here introduces to illustrate the parable is taken from an ancient custom in Palestina. We find by that, the Bridegroom never came later than midnight; to be sure they began to look for him as soon as 9 o'clock in the evening, therefore taking the parable in all its parts I am convinced that it was intended of itself alone to teach us a specific thing to be ster of condinance convinced that it was intended of itself alone to teach us a specific thing to be a test of readiness or perfect preparation of heart to meet the King at his coming and has all been fulfilled. I see an abundance of precious scriptures to prove it. I will give you but a few references lest I weary your patience; viz: Heb. 10: 36; Rev. 22: II, 12; Mat. 3: 16, 17. I know some cry out spiritualism relative to the above view of the markhe but I cannot see that merchical incrusor. spiritualism relative to the above view of the parable, but I cannot see that parabolical language is to be understood literally. And now my dear brother in view of all that God has done for us, cannot we heartily adopt the words of the Apos-the Paul-2d Tim. 4: 6, 9; "For I am now yeady to be offered and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight. I have kept the Faith-hanceforth," and "He which testifies these things saith surely I come quickly-Amen, even so come Lord Jesns." Brother Pickands has returned to us again after an absence of about three months, during which time he has been strengthening and comforting the sheep scattered abroad. He is full of faith and the Holy Ghosy and gives us meat in due season. Blues the Lordt Our dear brother Cook was with us one evening last week. We expect him to be with us again Our dear brother Cook was with us one evening last week. We expect him to be with us again on Friday of this week, at which time, the Lord willing, we commence a conference to continue over Lords day. My dear brother, may you and the little flock in Cincinnati be kept in the love of God and in the patient waiting for Christ. Yours, in the bonds of the Gospel of the kingdom,

NUMBER 7.

CHARLES CLAPP.

Letter from Bro. Cook.

Warren, O., March 19, 1845.

DEAR BRO. JACOBS :-

DEAR BRO. JACODE:--After a long absence, it has pleased our good Lord to return me to my family. All in about our usual health-happy in hope of deliv-erance in the Jubice, now just at hand: "Amen, even so, come Lord Jeens." The friends in Oswego were to write you,--a letter had heen begun ere I left. In Kingebury. Laport Co., the brethren S. and M. M. Catlin, were ordained to the work of the ministry. Nine were baptized, and good done to all, I trust. In both Perryeburg, and Lower Sandusky, there is a hand, which seem to be strong in the grace which is in Christ Jeeus.-In all these places, your ex-cellent paper is read with interest, and profit. Al-low me to request the dear brethrea, in each place low me to request the dear brethres, in each place the Philippians, on their knees. This, dear breather, in each pice the Philippians, on their knees. This, dear breather, "beloved and longed for," far surpasses any thing which I could write :-- And this I adopt and sand to each one with whom an acquaintance has been formed, at the west; especially ch. 1: 27-30; also chaps. 2d, 3d, and 4th. This then will be far better than for me to write to a few individuals,

O had I an angel's wing, how soon I'd see the dear brethren in Marysville, Springfield, Ill., and all other places where I have been invited. Lord

"The Biorning Watch" What there not a ver-tied conviction that we have had "The Midnight Ory"; and that now we are approaching "The Morning Watch"! Surely our annalient Bro. Southard and "the heads of department." thought that there was comething in a name. We are only holding on to the grand idea which surgested the change in the name of that paper. We are able and willing, the Lord halping, to wait for the Lord in "The Morning Watch." Do not those whose light has gone out, --whose patience in waiting, has become exhausted, and whose steps wend the other way, give fearful evidence that they are be-ing numbered with "the Boolish"? What is more rational then to wait through 'the morning watch" What now can be more judicious than to wait for the quuling Jobiles !! This turning short about and practically denying that we have had the an-titype of the Trumpet, or the three former watches, looks like petutence in children, when they get their "will up," and rebel against their paternal guide. guida.

If the conductor of the paper now denies that If the conductor of the paper now denies that we have had the first three watches, then he is out egainst all that has been done by Bro. Southard, in relation to them. If we are not now in the the morning watch, he is reproved by every page of his published short. The colors under which he talls must be faise now, (as he means they were, when inscribed "The Midnight Cry.") ex-cept he submits that we have had the "utilinght cry," and are now in "the morning watch." My heart is full of kindness in asying this. As to Bro. Storre, it is dreadful to hear him maintaining that he never had a scriptural reason maintaining that he never had a scriptural reason initializing that he never had a scriptural reason for believing, what he published to the world with so much solemnity. If approaching Judgment was not sufficient to deter him from publicating as true what he had no good reasons to believe, what must we conduce actuates him now." But J for-bear, I only wish to protest in the name of cont-inon sense, and our holy roliging against the impu-tation that we proclaused the conting of our Lord without a reason, which was to us perfectly satwithout a reason, which with to us perfectly ant-isfactory. Defore men and the searchers of hearts I affirm, that my preaching of time.was the result of intelligant conviction, and not of "a steaming process," or " Mesmerism."

the Lord. For instance — his feelings relative to Baptism, have the supremacy, rather than Jebo-val's word. Hence a young houter from Plais'd told me some months since that line. S. dul "not this the series about heptimus any very." Surely that faith is defective, which assume that we have "business more impurtant than to examine the 2d Advent." So will our esteemed Bro. should be im-So with our estoemed Bro. when he imagines he has will to proclaim, and duty to duscharge far more important than that which re-lates to God'sholy will, relative to baptism. There is supremacy in God's unerring word. It was evinced in Eden, in the command "them shalt not est." In the wilderness, when Mones periled his life by neglecting circumstaion, and when the man

Till our firming's faith rests on the word of God, in all matters of Jactrice and daily, he will be lindle to ""in stanming process"-exposed to

Why was the old designation exclanged for "The Morning Watch" Was there not a vet-tiled conviction that we have had "The Midnight Ory"; and that now we are approaching "The Morning Watch" Surely our excellent Bro. Southard and "the heads of department." thought that there was something in a name. We are only holding on to the grand idea which suggested the first. May these auggestions be appreciated. Amen?

As I have been traveling through the mud, al-low me to adduce an illustration. When your team "gats meaniped," you get out-step round, and reach out carefully, to take hold, last you soll your clother; but after you got clear in, and mud-ded all over, then you take hold fearlessly, and life without reserve. Now you have no hope of keep-ing clear of the mud Just so, my brother, lot us ing clear of the mut Just to, my profiler, for us be sluggether Christian, —all over dripping with the "represent Christ," if need be then we shall take hold any where that duty domands. We shall antertain no expectation of waving our char-acter with the wicked and worldly. All I ask or sock through grace, is to secure acceptance, and stand approved before the Son of man. If an honest belief of God's word, after pray-

If an honest belief of God's word, after pray-erfai investigation, subjects me to reproach, then I expect to be "still more vils," as was David. Much is revealed as to the time, of the second Advent. It is my purpose, the Lord atding me, to hold one to all I get, and to get all I can from the interving word. The Jews were doomed to de-struction "because they know and the TIME OF THERE VISITATION." The event can not be separated from "the time appointed," and we may therefore by unbelief in "fame" make light of the event, and like the Jews, perish in not knowing the revealed will of God on this subject. Love to all. Yours, in the hope of God's great Jubileo. J. H. COOK.

Letter from Dr. Lewis.

Lauisville, Ky., March 21, 1845.

Bro. JAcons,-There are a few in this city who are tasking for the coming of the Saviour, and are willing. I believe, to receive the truth. They appear to be firm in the blessed hope, and they are basing annously for the day of their re-dense from bandage.

Now le the time of trial with God's children-Allow me kindly to say that Bro. S's faith has one grand defect. It ascribes supremacy to his im-pressions, rather than to the unaminguous word of the Lord. For instance —his feetings relative to Baptism, have the supremacy, rather than Jabo-val's word. Hence a young hyper from Plata'.

There has been such a perfect fulfillment, of what He promised abould some to pass, it apnears to me, without a doubt resting in our hearts, we should trust Inm for what is yot to come. For one, I feel, glory he to God, that I have nothing to fear, if I put my trust in Him; but every thing to hope fur. I can see milling to induce me to reliaquish my blassed hope of soon seeing my Seviour. The signs of his soon chaning are doreloying, and fulfilling in every quarter, and I hail them with joy. This true believers in the soon coming of the Saviour, should give glory to find, that they have arrived in the fulfillment of Was atuned to death for picking sticks, in opposition field, that they have arrived in the fulfillment of the Divine statute. Also in the history of John the Baptial, when multitudes "rejected the coursel of find egainst themelves, being not marrized of him." Lake 7 29-30; Ez. 4 24. grims home.

Let us be sober, cleaving unto all the presions promises left upon record for our comfort, that our hearts may be cleansed from all unbulgers, the limits in the standing process" --exponed to "Meanwrine," or Dr. Gorras' (into A man of strong mind, lim all others mit selled down on the rock of truth, may visuale, ust like the pen-dium, from an extreme to the ther. I see and all the guarda great us, but every time my swill all the guarda great us, but every time my swill char off truths the rock of truths, if we may swill all the guarda great us, but every time my swill all the guarda great us, but every time my swill char off truths in the rock of truths. If we may swill all the guarda great us, but every time my swill all the guarda great us, but every time my swill the rock of truths, if we may swill char off truths the rock of truths, if we may swill the prestion, who are accoupt from obligation. It may be difficult to convey the affection of my heart with my words, but our dar brotheres at the East, of whom yop speak, have dodged mores It may be difficult to convey the effection of my be done, O Lord, and not mine." Let me become the second during the second during a state of the second during the second du yne, and we pray that God may sustain you in it glorious work in which you are engaged, a when the Manter comes that you may be for standing on the "Rock" of solvation " without daubt" or gloud to obstruct your vision, when you eyes shall behold our Blessed Redeemer. M. LEWIS.

Letter from Judge Strong.

JUBILKE TRUMP AND MIDNIGHT CRY-IDENTIOAL.

Gas. 1: 14, "And God said let there be light ... Gas. 1: 14. "And God said ist there be light in the firmament of heaven, to divide the day from the night; and ist them he for signs, and for see sons, and for days and years," "But verse show that the Lights were the sub, moon and wars.— The word ist in each place where used in the 14th verse is indicative of command. Now observe the order: lat them be for—1st signs, 2nd season, 3rd years, 4th days—and in this order through the influite wisdom of God in overrolling events, those lights have been used to fulffill his great command—while from the creation the sub, moos commund-while from the creation the sum, more and stars moved agreenbly to God's dusigns, and did indeed mark the time, yet it was in inverted order; lat day, 2nd year, 3rd sensors, 4th sigm But God, that he might have a possible people to whom the faw might be given, and a revelation si-itis designs fully revealed-ordered in his pro-dence that his chosen people should suffer a griev-ous bundage to a Nation of Idulaters, who by the same wonderful providence was through the first dawning of the science of Astronomy, to bring in light the mercestly of the first, to will for sizes command-while from the creation the sun, most light the necessity of the first, to will for signs, by an accurate division of the Zodiac into the D signs, by which means the seasons, the 2nd with the series, are accurately measured. Also by the security measured and the day were found susceptable of measurement. Has God montioned aceptable of measurement. Has God mentioned by any revelation, the signs and acasons, as well as the days and years! I attawer, Monests sup-posed to have been the first who wrote by inspira-tion and the book of Job was the first book. Ani-it is worthy of notice that Monestal all the ad-vantage of the learned Egyptian court; and was, no far as instraing qualified him, well prepared to commence his labors. But he useded the Grazs of patience, and the Lord so ordained that he about fier with the priest of Midian. The implied over ing with the priest of Midian, the impired per-man, whose first lesson was that of patience, was instructed by God himself while addressing Job. that he recognized the division of the Zodine inte signs. See Job 39: 32, "Caust thou luring forth signs. See 500 35: 32, "Cault thou oring forth Mazzarouh (the 12 signs) in his session, or caust thou guide Arcturus (Shem) with his sons... Hence having shown that the first division of the command, "Lot them be for sigms" has been oboy-ed and God has approved.....The 2nd division "and seasons" refers to the mean, and Moses in dre time was fully instructed therein. And all the ceremonial laws and observances were in accordance with the seasons, regulated by the fazes of the moon, but all the affletions brought upon Gods puciliar people were in persuance of third and fourth divisions regulated by days and third and fourth divisions regulated by days and years; so far as any warning was given by God's surventy, the prophets. And in this Moses was in-structed of God, yet God by his instruction farth-er sauctioned the learning of Egypt. The twelve signs, by them, were divided into 30 squal parts auch, amounting to 300 in all. So Moses and the other inspired prophets, used the 30 divisions of a signs, a 30 days in a month, or 12th part of a solar year-12 signs as 12 months-300 days as a year & c, &c.

We for a few years passed, have been giving head to the sure word of prophecy. In a special manner have we been examining the sure word as to years and days, and have almost entirely overlooked the signs and seasons: And we still think that we are right in taking a graphotic day her a literal year, and that we are yet in the true year 1843 (Roman until the 25th of March, and Jersen until some tune in April.

snoon, month) was on the 14th of October and the 19th of the 7th month was on the 23d of October. On the same 20th of April the sun enter-ed the sign Taurus and on the 23d of October, ened the sign Taurus and on the 25d of October, en-tered the sign Scorpio. So that if we have the right year we have had the antitype of the Jubilee Trumpet on the 10th of the 7th month according to the season, also the the Midnight Cry, on the let day of the serventh month according to the signs, and in as much as a prophetic night must be equal to a prophetic day, and the cry: Behold the hidegroom cometh was litterally made at the exact period to answer, who can gainsay it? If the foregoing views are correct and I believe they are, Where are we? Oh where? It does not re-quire much learning to see that we have but one sign of 30 days before we reach the line, where we expect deliverances: And who shall abide the day of his coming? who shall stand when he appearetb? appearetb?

Yours in hope of speedy redemption. SILAS G. STRONG.

March 20th 1845,

Letter from Sister Fall.

GRATIS, PREBLE Co., O., March 9, 1845. Dear Bro. Jacobs.

I am still a believer that the second Advent of our Lord is very near. I think there is no subject that yields to the faithful so much I think there delight, as the contemplation of the nearness of delight, as the contemplation of the nearness of that event. May the Lord prepare us for that day—a day that I, for one, long to see. Ever since I embraced the doctrine of the soon roming of Christ, I have felt like a pilgrim and a stranger on the earth. I attend such meetings as we have here, but the preaching I hear puts Josus so far off, and us so low down in the cold grave, that it offends are some only to me early a source.

so far on, and us so low down in the cold grave, that it affords no comfort to my soul—I cannot enjoy it, nor de I expect ever again to enjoy it. I long for the society of some of our Advent friends; If I could be at your place and hear preaching upon this theme, I should be cheered. When the scenth month passed I thought I should have to turn back to Egyptian bondage again; but a small voice was heard, saying, "Stand still and see the salvation of God"-be of good courage, we are on Israel's side. There are a few in this place that like to hear There are a Advent preaching. You will excuse the imperfections of this letter when I tell you I have not written a letter before in twenty-eight years; but for the last three months it has been impressed upon my mind that F must write to you.

Lord, what a wrotched land is this? That yields us no supply : No cheering fruits—no wholesome trees, Nor streams of living joy. But prickling thorns through all the ground, And mortal poisons grow i And all the rivers that are found, With dangerons waters flow.

Yet the dear path to thine abode, Lies through this horid land; Lord, we would keep the heavenly road, And run at thy command. Our souls shall treed the desert through, With andiverted feet; And faith and flaming zeal, subdue The terrors that we meet. Yours, in the blessed hope, Stc. MARY FALL.

Extract of a letter from Brother Himes, dated Murch 13 1845.

"The cause in Boston is in a prosperous state Our meetings in the Tabernacis are well attended, and the brethren and sisters are united and firm in the faith of the blessed hope. But very few have the view that the bridegroom has come, or any charge has taken place in the relations of the Savior to us, or the world. We stand on the old ground, looking for the Advent of our king as an event at hand, and an event for which we must our bodies to be burned, yet it would all profit us neves heard a Grospel sermon, we are not assured a crospel sermon, we are not assured as to character at hand, and an event for which we must our bodies to be burned, yet it would all profit us neves heard a Grospel sermon, we are not assured as the property of the gospel-hardened signer. All will agree in saying, the truths of God now and always the could all be in readi-ness, that we might receive the grown of life at things." Are we not at best, but a feeble "little things." Are we not at best, but a feeble "little things." Then let us love as brethren, "with a pure veloped in their sackeloth covering.

"I should be glad to visit the brethren in the West once more, but know not that I shall be able so to do. I wish to be kindly remembered to all. Tell them to "hold first the profession of the faith for he is faithful that promised.

In correcting the proof of the above letter, the compositor (a new hand) made the first sentence terminate thus; "the faith of the blind hope" in the room of "blessed hope," Singular "Error!" En.

CICINNATI, O., MARCH 24, 1845. Bro. Jacobs

I had written this article several weeks ago for the "Western Midnight Cry," but hesi-tated to offer it for publication. And now in look-ing over it I see that it has a close resemblance to your own discourse on last Sabath evening.

to your own discourse on last Sabath evening. As I have never before prepared any thing for the press, I don't know whether this is fit, or not. But, with all its imperfections, I submit it to your better judgment. If you think it worthy of a place in your valuable paper—well. If not, dis-pose of it as you please. I shall not be offended if it does not appear. "MARY." pose of it as papear.

TO ADVENT BELIEVERS.

BRO. JACOBS,-Permit me, through the medium BRO. JACORS.—Permit me, through the medium of your paper, to offer a few remarks to our second Advent friends in general, but specially to those who have taken Peter's position when he "followed afar off." For it cannot be denied that there are many "in whom we once delighted".— many "bright examples," who from some cause or other, have suffered their "zeal and love" to grow cold—many who once "looked fresh and green," now, "alas) we far, are blighted, scarce a single leaf they show." Dear brethren and sisters, do we not all profess

Dear brethren and sisters, do we not all profess to believe that the second Advent of our adorable Bedeemer is night That "no man knoweth the day or hour wherein the Son of man, cometh"? Why then will we suffer the cares, or the inter-Why then will we suffer the cares, or the inter-ests of this present evil world to entangle us again, and cause us to forget our "high calling in Christ Jesus"? Think of the words of our Elessed Redeemer when Hin friends forsook Him on the right hand and on the left! He turned to that little band who had followed with Him and said, "Will ye also go away?" O remember that the syes of the ungodly world are upon us. They ease watching us for suit. And remember too that are watching us for svil. And remember too that the adversary of our souls is watching and seeking In a deversary of our sound is which have a sound is an opportunity to break in upon our ranks. This is, and always has been his grand object, to sow discord in the world, but especially in the Church of Christ, to get brethren at variance with one-another. And is not even this one of the last signal. What says the Prophecyl "And when ha shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, then all these things shall be finished." Then, dear friends, let us watch, "lest amsnea." A new, ever means, set as watch, "lest any root of bitterness should spring up in our minds" against any brother or any sister. O remember that if the cause of our blessed Master suffers, we must suffer with it; for we have identified ourselves with it. Should we discover any imperfections in a brother or sister (and imperfect we all must be while in this mortal state) let us exercise that charity which "never faileth." See what Paul says concerning it in the 13th chapter of 1st Corinthians: "Though I speak with the tongues of men and of engels, and though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not so that I could remove mountains, and have hot charity I am nothing. And though I berrow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity it profit-eth me nothing; I am only as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal." O what a lesson is taught us here! Look at the gifts—the failh—the seal that is here described. Yes, faith and zeal that would can be us to embrace the marture's stake, and give enable us to embrace the martyr's stake, and give our bodies to be burned, yet it would all profit us nothing unless we have the "charity that beareth heart, fervently." "And above all things, let us have fervent charity among ourselves." Look at the sweet and holy prayer of the suffering Saviour, in the 17th ch. of John. How often He prays that His followers may be one, as He and His Father are one! And why? That the world might know and believe in the Saviour of sinners.

and peneve in the Seviour of sinners. Dear brethren and sisters, I have to beg your patience and forbearance. I am not accustomed to writing for the public eye and feel my incapcity for so doing. I have thought, however, that these humble suggestions might not come amies at the present crisis. My object is "to stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance," and if I have the happings to meased my all the short he to happiness to succeed, may all the glory be to my Lord and Redeemer. And may He enable us all to "watch" and "keep our garments" until He appears, is the prayer of the humblest sister among you, and the very least of all the Mary's.

THE DAY-STAR.

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, APRIL 1, 1845.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

There is no objection to the publication of the article of Bro. S. B .-. , but there is some of it not written sufficiently plain for me to decipher.

"MARY," is requested to continue her favors, and if she pleases, endeavor to stimulate other "Mary's" to bring their talents into use in these days of trial.

Several interesting communications are omifted for want of room. D. B ..., W. H. M., A. W., and W. D. O., will appear in our next.

THE VOICE OF TRUTH.

Bro. Marsh, the editor of this valuable paper, has considered my "manner" in replying to his "friendly note" as to how many copies of his paper should be sent us; a departure from our former "kind spirit."

The reply will be recollected-it was as follows, "You can send Of ONE _O if you please." I confess the significant manner in which the word " ONE " was pointed out, betrayed a spirit of "retaliation" which did exist at the moment the paragraph was penned. I was sorry the note was in the paper before it got half way to Bro. Marsh's office; and am again sorry that it so afflicted him as to call forth half a column of editorial on the subject.

Discontinuing exchanges, in any reasonable. numbers, among second Advent editors, looked to me like small buriness, but Bro. Marsh's liberal offer to send gratis any number of his sheet I may wish to order' shows that it was not, as I had supposed, a small motive that led him to discon-. tinue our exchanges. Will Bro. Marsh forgive both the "manuer" and matter of the note, and send us six copies of his paper ?

THE PATH OF THE JUST. (Concluded.)

"But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shinelh more and more unto the perfect day." PROV. 4: 16.

Faith in a Messiah to come, might have justified the pious Jew the day before he heard Christ declare, "this day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears"; but faith in a Messiah to come, could then serve him no longer.

The faith of the thief on the cross, who had never heard a Gospel sermon, we are not assured

28

And now, then, since the just have a path lending all the way to the "perfect day"-a path that is to shine more and more-a path that has a be ginning and an end, and which has not yet ended; where have we come! To what part of the path of the just Ah, that's the point. "O that I did but know," mid an eminent professor to one of our brethren not long since.

That no improper question is bere propounded, let me prove that the occasion of the overthrow of the Jewish Nation, was their inability to anewer just such a question. Luke 19: 41-44.

"And when he was come near, he beheld the city and wept over it, saying. If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peacet but now they are hid from this eyes. For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall east a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side: and shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in these one stone upon another; because thou knowest not the TIME of thy visitation."

Because they knew not the time of their visitation -the spot in "the path of the just" which they bad reached.

By way of answering, we have certainly come to the very last predicted change of the "fourth kingdom" which is to be succeeded by God's everlasting kingdom-"the Perfect day," Dan, 2: 43, 44; 7: 9-14.

Without doubt, We have some to the "perilous times" described in 2 Tim. 3: 1-5; and which were to come in the last days,

We have come to the predicted cries of "Peace, Peace," when God's overflowing storm is speedily to fall upon the heads of the guilty. Ezek-13: 10,-13; 22, &c.

We have reached the fulfilment of the proverb, "Every vision faileth," when God declares none of his "words shall be prolonged any mora." Eze. 12: 17-28.

According to the best evidence, we have reached nearly the end of 6000 years which is to be followed by the great Sabbath of rest, 2d Pet. 3;

We have come to within a few weeks of the end of the 2300 days when the Sanctuary is to be gleansed, Dan. 8: 13, 14; 9: 25; Ezra 7; 9; 10 17.

We have come to the sounding of the Seventh day of the 7th month of the 49th year, which was the 50th, or the following year. Rev. 11: 15-18; Lev, 25.

We have come to the predicted Cry at midnight, or middle of that dark period after we had supposed the 2300 years ended in the spring of 1944. Matt. 25: 1-10.

We have come to the time of Patience-the "litrle while" when the Lord "will come and will not October, the separation between those looking for tarry." Heb. 10: 36, 37.

It is indeed most solemnly true, that we have come to that part of "the path of the just" where we have been commanded to go "forth to meet the Bridegroom," (Matt. 25: 6,) and also to "remember Lot's wife." (Luke 17: 20-33.) This, none of us dared to deny in the seventh month :-in obedience to heaven's high command we separated ourselves for ever from the world, and shall we now presume upon God's command, and turn our eyes, hearts, or affections, spon the city of destruction to which we had bid our last farewell? Why "remember Lot's wife" in this part of the path? Becaute, as in her case, a mighty struggle, will arise between the power of human sympathy, and a disposition to strict obedience-while every spirit and temper that savors of this world will be of the former. Friends, unconverted friends!the "daughters" of Lot's wife, was what turned her eyes back to the city of wrath, after she had obeyed the command to "go forth," or "Up, get ye out of this place."

Who will assume the responsibility of saying we have not reached this part of our path ? So sure then as we have passed this point, where we have seen written in living lines "REMEMBER LOT'S WIFE," so sure it is unsele for us now to "look back," though the dearest earthly friends, and strongest human sympathies imperatively urge their domands.

If, on your way, you find sinners further out of Sodom than yourself, cry to them, "Escape for thy life"! "Fly to the mountains"! "Tarry not in all the plain"II-But as Lot dars not "look back" even to encourage his doubting wife, so press your way to the mountain, as you value the life of your soul.

It seems like folly, to me, to talk of a path shi ning "more and more until the perfect day" while we are forbidden to understand the nature of the objects we have passed; and their relation to the objects still before us, both in regard to time and, distance.

What but time-the "definite time" of the Advent, drew the line of separation between those that were "looking for" Christ, and the world! It was this alone that "caused us to be known and hated of all men." It was this that discovered where the dallowed fires of love for Christ's appearing, were burning in the soul, and where its affections still clung to a poliuted world. Preaching the time was the dissocting knife that sundered every cord of unballowed union with sin, and discovered before all men the difference between "Christ and Belial."

As we draw nearer and nearer the expected time of the Advant, the line of separation between the world and believers grow wider, and still wider and why! Because a principle laid down in the word of God. viz. that the time of the Advent way so taught that it would not come on God's people "unawares," began more clearly to develope itself the nearer we came to our jour-Trump, the type of which was given on the 10th ney's end. At this point in our path, all manner of evil was, spoken falsely against us. As Bro. to be followed by a release of all the captives in Storrs once publicly remarked in this City, that it was by no means one of the smallest evidences that this work was of God, to see all classes of the ungodig-even the most degraded drunkards, perfoctly agreeing with high valaried Priests among our opposers, in the exposition of the text, "But of that day and hour knoweth no man."

At the termination of the cry at midnight, last Christ, and the world, had reached its greatest extent.

As a body, we were "crucified to the world, and the world unto as ;" we were as free from all interchauge of friendly religious feeling with them-being spurned from their fellowship, friendship, and even their houses, as though we were "dead"; while we had performed our last duty toword them, and urged our last warning, and then took our leave forever. And now, where has God made provision for our union again with the world? Where can the breach between us and them be safely narrowad?

Can you now meet the churches that so lately opposed and persecuted, on common ground, the "the Lord is near!" And what has softened down their haughty language and persecuting tonel

I will tell you my opinion . You have abandor ed a principle of which God is the author-that the definite time of the Savjour's Advent is much and enjoined upon all that can "read" to "understand."

We might more safely deny our existence that that God has led us in the path we have trave's under the proclamation of the time of the Advent. To abandon time, would be to demolish the wall of separation God has fixed between his people and the world. We can not abandon the teachings of the past on this subject any more than Israel could blot out the cloud that hid them from the Egyptiane.

To cleave to these truths, is to KNOW out redemption nigh-to abandon them, is to deny the words of God contained in our text.

To cleave to them, is to know that we have had a proclamation of liberty that will be carried into effect the coming Jawish year, O how many ten thousand influences now combine to turn aside the fust from his path ! In this "little while" of "patience" it is said, "the just shall live BY FAITH," especially so in this "little, while," for it is a time when human sympathes will all be dried, and tears will almost cease to fall-a time when "a man's foes shall be they of his own house."

Ws need now, as ever, an appropriative faith, that embraces Christ where is is, and realizes our present relation to Him, each other, and the world.

No doubting now! Admit, in view of the svidenons with which God has surrounded us, that ears may pass before Christ will come, and in pite of all your efforts, you will calculate for those coming years.

O do you wish, do you long, with God's grouping Israel, to see a "perfect day"! follow the increasing light of God's word, and it will speedily burst upon thy soul with all its glory.

But if you are indifferent, and do not regard "the path of the just" as one that "shines more and more," it is to be feared you will be found like those in the days of Noch, who "know not" till "the flood came and took them all away,"

"Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets."-Anos 3: 7.

Letters and Recolpts.

For the five days anding the 29th ult.

A. Hemmingway, P. M., for W. G. Ruggles, and James M. Corwin, each .50; F. Baperoli, P. M., (You speak of S. W. Eaton having sent mon-M., (You speak of S. W. Eaton having sent mon-ey : None has been received.) "Mary"; S. Bur-rett, P. M., for Alvan Ward, Joshua Burgess. Betsey C. Bancroft, and Mary Blodget, each .25; D. Bartholomew; J. D. Wesson, P. M., for G. S. Miles, 2.00; J. B. Cook; T. J. McLain, P. M. for J. B. Cook, 2.00; G. H. Griawold, P. M.; J. V. Himes; T. L. Tullock; C. Hastings, P. M., for A. H. Brick, 1.00; Senford Perry, P. M., for B M. Bryan and Francis Bryan, 5.00; L. Bennet, P. M., for Geo. Ford and John Cochran, each 1.00,-for John D. Boltsford, Jane Huston, L. D. Manfor John D. Botsford, Jane Huston, L. D. Man-field, and Wm. Hocking, each .50; G. W. Cherry, P. M., for Jonathan Kelley, and S. G. Strong, end .50.

CORRECTION .--- In our last No., M. L. Lewis, was credited only $2.00; it should have been 4.00 that was the amount rec'd.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, in the paper are considered receipte.

E JACOBS,

". WE HAVE ALSO A MORE SURE WOOD OF PROPHECY ; WHEREOSTO YE DO WILL THAY YE TAKE MERE, AS OFTO A ROST THAT MENTTE IN A SARE FLACE, UNTIL THE DAY DAWN, AND THE DAY STAR ARM IN YOOR MEARTS."—S Pol. 1. 19. CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, APRIL 8, 1845.

ANDST

THE DAY-STAR

Is a continuation of the WESTERN MIDWIGHT CRV, and is pub-tied every Theoday, by E. Jacom, at his residence on Seventh rest, muth side, three deers cant of the Tabernasia. All communications for publication-on the Dusiness of the age, or ominer for books, and publications, should be addressed our Pars to S. Jacons, CINCERAT, O.

THINS OF THE PAPER. Fifty cents per vol. of 13 numbers in advance, to these that a this to pay; and grails to these that are really unable to pay.

Letter from Bro. Johnson.

Near Bayou Sara, La., March 7, 1845. DEAR BRO. JACOBS :-

I have often thought of writing to you, but being in a place where there is but little to interest those of our belief, I have deferred antil now.

When I arrived at Bayou Sara. it being night, & my children living at some distance. I was un-der the necessity of staying there over night, and very fortunate for me, as I was somewhat lone-some, I put up at a house where I found brother Warner, from Akron, Ohio, accompanied by his, wife and her sister, who were all looking for the Coming One. We very soon found that we all spake the same language. It was very comfort-ing to me, as I had been on the boat for 8 days, with but little company but my Bible, &c., and my health was quite poor. Bro. Warner had been merchandizing as I understand, for everal years, but his health had been poor for some 2 or 3 years, and he had come here on account of his health. When I arrived at Bayou Sara, it being night, and he had come here on account of his health. I think he exerts, some influence with them for good; but his health being poor, and not having books, &c., he could not do much. I lent him my vols. of the Cry, Eastern and Western, and gave him some books and papers to read, and some to distribute. I have seen him several times, as I have been passing through Bayon Sava where he is staying. He is still firm, and trying to do

I found all my children well, and willing to read, but like many others, hard "to believe all that the Prophets and spostles had spoken concerning Janus Christ." However, I can but hope come

Jeaus Christ." However, 1 can but hope some of them will find mercy. Many have regretted very much that you could not have come this way, they thought you would have been gladly received, and found houses to preach in, and people anxious to hear; but they are not acquainted with all hearts, and have not experienced what many have; however, the peo-ple are more independent here, than in many plaan, and are governed more by their own opinion. I understood that a man had preached in the

I understood that a map had preached in the neighborhood, some few weeks since, by the name of Robart or Hobard, which they strongly sus-posted of being tinctured with Millerism, (as they call it.) and the preacher of the place, I under-stood was afraid of him; however he said be know nothing about the time, it might come soon, or it might not, but it was necessary to be ready, as we did not know the time; but like most others, they are not ready. The one referred to was a Baptist proacher.

I have visited some of my old acquaintances they appear willing to talk about the ond. I call-ad on Col. Bryant the other day, after supper, in conversation, he had occusion to speak of Mr. Miller, and the doctrine he advocates. I asked him if he understood what Mr. Miller believed, he said he did not know much, only what he had read in papers from the East, they said he had read in papers from the tast, they said he had found himself wistaken, and had given it all up, as the end of the world had not come when he mid it would. I then gave him a candid state-ment of facts; well, said he, no one can find fault with that. I wish said he, I knew two things, that it would come as Mr. M. believes, and I was ready for it. He was anxious to read on the subject, and as I had taken my books and papers along, we commenced, and compared the Word and the Ad-sent doctrine, it was all in harmony with the Bi-ble, and the doctrine he had always believed, much of it. He had supposed the world was to be con-vorted, but he saw the passages that were taken to prove the doctrine was not fairly quoted, only taking part of the passage. The return of the Jews, he had always supposed to be a Bible doctrine also, but saw it wanted proof, we pursued it two-days, reading, singing, &ca, his lady secom-panying us, (she was some few years since from Rhode Island, having come here as a teacher in one of the Seminaries. I was not acquainted with her, my friend having lost his wife, one of the excellent of the earth, and married again since I had seen him). I spent the time very agreeably and I hope not without profit to myself and others. Mr. F. B., a brother of the Colonel's, called in with his lady and requested me to go home with them, I had called on them as I was passing two days before, but stayed but a few minutes, and did not say any thing, only to renew our old acquaint-ance and enquire of their health dze. But as they ance and enquire of their health dze. But as they found us engaged in reading, talking, &.c., we ware projected at once to go into an investigation of it, and to see if it agreed with the Word. We had a very sgreeable time, as far as I am able to judge. We read, and talked, and sung, and pray-ed, &.c. I can but hope we were made the better thereby. It appeared to be a very welcome doc-trine to Mr. B. and his lady. Both families are worthy members of the Bastist church. They all worthy members of the Baptist church. They all being singers, they learned many of the tunes we sing, and wrote off the notes and words, as I had sing, and wrote off the notes and words, as I had but one book, which they regrated very much; and also that some good lectorer could not come this way, so they all were very surfors to hear on the subject. I spent four days there, as it was rain-ing, and they were unwilling for me to leave. They all gave me very pressing invitations, to visit them again, and wanted me to visit several of their acquaintapces, who they said were very pions, and they thought the doctrine would suit them. One was a Baptist preacher, who once preached for them, and used to preach much as the Adventists do. 1 left them books, papers, and tracts, with a promise to visit them again, if I could, and their promise to read and circulate the papers, &c., as much as they could ; But I I could, and their promise to read and sireplate the papers, &c., as much as they could: But I fear they will not have as much time, as should be devoted to this all ubsorbing subject, as they are planters and are very busy at this time of the year to insure a crop; but, they are not so closely moded to this model as means and is such that year to insure a crop; but, they are not so closely wedded to this world, as many, and I can but hope, they will find time to search the scriptures, to see if these things are so. When I returned, I came through Jackson, La., where the Louisania Colleges are, and where Mr. Shannon, of Harrodsburgh, Ky., was President of that institution.—Some of his fullowers believe in the doctrine. I left some books and papers there soid intend visiting them spin. There is there and intend visiting them again. there and intend visiting them again. There is a free colored woman there, who is one of Mr. Shan-non's followers, who lived near my children, when they lived there, and my daughter took pains to send her the papers, that I sent her after having read them. She is a full believer in the doctrine, and I believe a consistent Christian. She has property, and lives very comfortably; they were not aware of Mr. Shannon, having been so favorable to the doctrine. so favorable to the doctrine.

Ny children do not oppose the doctrine, My children do not oppose the doctrine, they have come to all but the time by the reading the papers I have sent them, as they see it agrees with the Word. I think they are more serious and they search the Scriptures daily, some of then, to see if these things are so, and I think they feel a duty and responsibility they did not before, and I earnestly hope they will be bene-fitted be it. fitted by it.

I have read the papers as they have been sent to J. K. D., Bayou Sara, & J. B. J., Waterloo P. O.,

Point Coupe, La., which was quite a comfort to me, and I wait with anxiety for every number. It seems to me that we may look for the glory to be revealed this spring, and I hope I am sufficient,-ly informed on the subject to come to proper con-clusions. I cannot preach, but I can point to the word of God, and read the lectures and views of my brethren and show their harmony, which is convincing to an unprejudiced mind. Yours, sincerely, THO'S, JOHNSON.

C. ULARE,

NUMBER 8.

Letter from Bro. Barthalomew. Aurora, Ind., March 22, 1845.

MY DEAR BRO. JACOBS ;

I take my pen with a sincere desire of heart to communicate in the columns of your most interesting little sheet, something, sl-though it may be in weak and broken sentences, though it may be in weak and broken sentences, that may prove a source of some little comfort, or encouragement, to some few of God's dear af-flicted children, scattered through this wide wil-derness of darkness, source w and nin, who are still looking for the blessed hope, and glorious appear-ing, and are still searching what, or what menner of time, the Spirit of Christ that is in them, did of time, the Spirit of Christ that is in them, did signify, &c. The Jewish year, big with important events has now passed off, and is numbered in the annals of the past. The countless seals of con-demnation and flery indignation, which ungodly sinders, and nominal professors, may have brought upon themselves, by their obstinate rebellion, and profans scoffings at the word of God, and estutary effects that have been produced on the minds of multiplied thousands, by the faithful proclamation of the Gospel of the new and everlasting King-dom, which will soon he established in the earth. The cry of the 10th day of the 7th month, or probably the antitype of the Jubibles Trampet, will not be realized, until sternity shall unfold ally its important vast realities. its important vast realities. At the commencement of the past year, our lit-

At the commencement of the part of the constrained, for con-science' sake, to separate and withdraw their connexion with the M. E. C. and take the word of God as the man of their manuel-the perfect law God as the man of their semusel—the perfect law of liberty, as their discipline and only rule of life; since which time, we have been looking therain, and praying that we may not be forgetful hearers, but doers of the word, that we might be blessed in the deed. This course has succeeded thus far to admiration; we have had perfect peace and Christian fellowship, and have enjoyed the blass-ing of the Lord in the unity of the Spirit, while there was, and still is, in the church envying and strife: But with this, we have no part nor lot. Here we stand, as it were on the last inch of time, ready to adopt the language of the poet, while we tune our harps and sing,

"Here we'll raise our Ebenezer, Hither by thy balp we've come; And we hope, by thy good pleasure, Safely to arrive at home."

Safely to arrive at home." All boasting is excluded, while we paraphrase a little on the language used in a prayer of an old servant of the church in this place, one year this day, and we think we feel thankful to the good Lord, that we are permitted to stand on the last crumbling sands, of his, and other's predictions, of the dispersion, back-sliding, creeping back into the church, infidelity, burning of Ribles, and sale of Millerites dog-cheap in Aurora. These pre-dictions have all failed, none of these calamities have befallen us, and f should judge from the gen-eral expression of our little band at a late meet-ing, and the signs of the times, that the heavens and earth that now are, will pass away, and the and earth that now are, will pass away, and the King of glory establish his new and everlasting Kingdom in the new earth, before any of these avents transpire. We feel that while we put our events transpire. We feel that while we put our trust in the Lord, and walk by the same rule, and

VOLUME 5.

30

-

mind the same thing, we have no reason to fear what man can say, or do unto us. We stand here in the main as we have stood for the past year, on indefinite time, but full in the faith, that when the 2800 days, of Daniel, from the going forth of the decree, &c., the times of the Gentules, and the same period in Rav. 12: 6, of one thousand two hundred and three score days, are fulfilled, then will the King of Zion in all his glury, with all his holy angels, personally appear upon the throne of his Father David, and then will commence the mitlenial reign, between the first and second reshis Father David, and then will commence the millenial reign, between the first and second res-urrection. And surely, we are not prepared to say, that all the prophetic periods will not have expired at the commencement of the present Jew-ish year. If so, are we ready to say, Amen, even so, owne Lord Jesus. And if our dear breth-ren, Jacobs, Miller, and others, who by close ap-plication to the unerring word of life, have daily trimmed their lamps, and replenished them with oil, mould stand on definite time, and be able to see a fittle farther in the misty way then we oil, mould mand on definite time, and so and to see a little farther in the misty way than we, whose lamps perhaps for want of due diligence, by frimming, &c., may have become somewhat feeble and flickoring, let us not judge them, but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block or an occasion to fall the his brother's way. block of an excession to fall full his brother's way. Our minds have been somewhat afflicted, while we have read the conflicting views of some of our dear brachrea, in reference to different points in theory. Yet we are pleased to see, a perfect agreement, in all the fundamental principles, of the blessed doc-trine of the speedy, personal advent of the King of glory. When our care was saluted with the loud proclamation of His appearing, on the 10th day of the 7th month, our hearts were somewhat elated, although our faith was in a hummer wavering, as to the certainty of all those great events transpiring at that particular time, which many so confidently expected. Yot the arguments, and types adduced, aspected. For the arguments and types dunially, to favor that position, appeared so very plausible, that we could not altogether reject them. We were much plaused and ancouraged by the beaujful figure, and lucid representation of the flat rock, lying a little to looward. We at once form-ed a resolution to cut loose and sell directly to the ed a resolution to cut loose and sail directly to the rock. At this time we were lying in the broad bay of Uncertainty, hard by the coast Worldly-mindedness, in the little boal, Indefinite Time, with our sails trimmed, our hatches partly closed : But before we could obtain a clearance, we had But before we could obtain a clearance, we had two solems injunctions to obey, one of which we had already complied with.....This was found in our chart, marked Rev. 18: 4... This however was attended with some little difficulty, is there was some small cords that was hard to sever. When this was done, before we was beyond hailing dis-inners, a little fellow of sandy complexion, from the land of strife, and popularity, hearing the high sounding title of Right Reverend, came to us in a sounding title of Right Reverend, came to us in a little boat Presumption, with a long but some-what shattared tow-line, marked in big capitals, M. E. C. This line was made fast to a high post marked Episcopacy, in the land from which he came.--With this he proposed to take us back to the post. But we being as he might have sup-posed somewhat deluded, and incorrigible, he made use of his grook, in instrument he held in his hand, where he marked relations are built in his hand, which he marked misropresentation, and averbard. The aber injunction stands recorded on another page-the record is in John 2: 15. We had long since seen this, and had been striving with too flittle effect, for a full compliance, but found some little effect, for a full compliance, but found some little south that silk drew our little boat to land. When these were severed, we soon found our ails i lad with a pleasant breeze, and tobro our and read while a present precess, and we put to see in company with three other gal-last little ships, whose sign was, Feith, Hope, Charly, the last of which is much the largest. Three three were so dailed, that to separate use, would reader the others altogether unless. We were kindly invited by the proprietor, to some on word and the favored by the propriot or to some on board, and claim them as our own, as a free gift. Although, we had not by any act of ours, movind this anspeakable favor, jet we word quite willing and happy to accept the kind invitation, as the sea was common the biswrous, and some appear-ences of a signal, at he great distance at wind-ward in the direction of the bish ward, in the direction of the high post. Wa could not but be somewhat suspicious of the per-fact safety of our little boat. The others were insured, and declared by good authority, even Paul, 1600 years since, I Cor. 13: to be altogether sea-worthy, perfectly dry, no draudful leaks, and not use stick of timber, or any of her materials marked spurious, well supplied with fresh provision and new wipe: And in short, we had a most delightful passage, (still having our little boat in tow) to the rock, where we made all fast. Our little boat has stood some severe surges, and for aught we know may yet be lost. We had not been long on the rock, until we discovered the in-scription under of he same why first harded scription spoken of by some who first landed, whose voices in thunder-tones, had reverberated from city to city, from hamlet to hamlet, o'er hill and dale, and proved effectual in arousing many of the slumbering virgins. But by sudding per-haps too hastily, they gave it, we think a wrong pronunciation, and took an unnecessary alarm, and fied rather precipitately. We hope however in their cruizing, they will egain haul too, and once more deliberately examine this inscription. once mora deliberately examine this inscription. Be,assured dear i.rethren the same great unarring light, still hangs suspended directly over this rock, and its light is increasing, and will shine brighter and brighter, unto the perfect day, as a lame to our feet, and a light to our path. If we brighter and Brighter, unto the perfect day, as a lamp to our feet, and a light to our path. If we are wrong in spelling or pronunciation we wish to be corrected; we have examined it over, and over, and pronounce it, FREPARATION. You see then, that we agree in the beginning and end, we only differ in the spelling of the middle syla-bles. But in reference to this, and all other dif-ference in theory, let us all new with the true ference in theory, let us all pray with the true spirit of Abraham in the same of Lot. Let there be no strife, I pray you, between me and thee, or between my hordsmon and thy hordsmon, for we be brethren. And fimily brethren, let us gird up the loins of our minds, and watch unto prayer, that when the spiendid steamer shall arrive, even if we should not be able with all per lights combiased, to discover her before she nears the puint, until the touches upon the rock, we may be found standing firm and fixed, ready to jump on board, with our beautiful little ship Charity, and then our little host. Indefinite Time, will disappear, and taits be bet in signs, and nope in ruit froition die. That such may be our happy lot is dis prayer of your unworthy brother.

THE DAY-STAR.

Still looking for the blessed hope, D. BARTHOLOMEW,

Letter from Bro. Willard. Oswego, Kosciusko Co., Iad., Feb. 27, 1845.

DEAR BRO. JACODS !---

thousands to the precious truths of the Bible which have been so much hood-winked and covered up by human tradition, that few have apprehended the true and legitimute meaning of some of the greatest, and all important doctrines of both the Old and New Testaments. I confession own mind has undergone a very

I confirm into the andergono a very considerable change within a few years relative to not only the Prophecies, but also portions of the New Testament. According to the exposition of our Allvent Brethren, many passages which before were scaled up to me, are now unlocked and made accessible to common minds. Some-times I think that human learning has had too much to do with the interpretation of God's word. We find at not rate the communication of God's word. We feel at any rate, that commentators have instituted dogmes unwarranted, and at variance with the literal reading of the word, and many have been led into darkases by following blind guides.

The subject of the speedy coming of our Bleased Lord is a topic which above all others seems to interest the people of God most. Many of our doar brathran have, hegin to look upon it, as the all absorbing subject. They are going stop by

The greater diagonity it mess trings are so. The greater portion of the Baptist church in this place, are accessing like King Agrippe, al-most personded. A few are fully confirmed in the bleased hope. Bro. J. B. Cook has been with us some days, and his preaching has been to some of, us, like cold water to a thirdy soul. The Baptist church at this piece have called Brow. Bernes and Chaplin, to serve them half the time tach alter-nately, and thus far have got along comfurthly together, though in principle and preaching they differ on' the subject of the everlasting Kingdom, second Advent, &c., Bro, C. refuses to serve the church as Davies and have a melasting to go church as Pastor any longer, preferring to oc-cupy among the hedges and highways and preach to them the Kingdom. I think it sluggether likely that those who are greated in the truths of the second coming, will go by themselves, as they cannot be longer fed by the old mode of preach-ing half of the truth, and overlooking the better half. I have feit that it is high time to take sides, and I am persuaded that the Advent brethren are right, having on their side the overlasting truths of the Gospel of Christ, and I only regret that I baited in doubt so long; but like thousands of others, I did not think it of sufficient importance to investigate the subject; but when the numerous evidences were brought forward from Holy writ, testifying that probationary time was near to its end, and that the everlasting Kingdom was to be set up at the second Advent of Meswiah, and that the destiny of all men would then be irrevocably fixed, it seemed high time to examine whether I had oil for my lamp. For sometime I felt it somewhat of a cross to leave my dear brothren with whom I had been so long associated; but when I reflected that "who soever loveth father or mother, more than me is soever loveth father or mother, more than me is not worthy of me," I could ub longer hesitate in my decision. Now, dear Brother, I hope I have come to this, that nothing must deter me from fol-lowing on to know the Lord, and to be guided by the light already given me, trusting that he will give light and grace according to my day. Ploase accept the enclosed pittance, and as time may be prolonged I shall expect to be an auxilia-ry in support of your paper. In haste, yours in the blessed hope, A. WILLARD.

Letter from Bro. Soll.

New York, March 27, 1845.

New York, March 21, 1043. DEAR BEO. JANNEM Series I send you enclosed, $5.00, and pledge of my nogard for the cause you are en-gaged in, and to assist you in fighting the good fight of fisht. I take great pleasure in reading your sheet, for it is truly "meet in due season" Especially at this time of trial and peril. My wile is strong also in the faild of soon seeing Jeaus, "King of kings and Lord of lords," cone and take to himself his great power and reign when all the powers of darkness, douth and sin-will be forever dispersed, and rightsouscess wil-run down as a mighty stream. All glory to God and the Lambil and the Lamb!!

I bid you, dear Bro. God speed, JOHN J. GOLL.

1

Q,

50 A

12 hi

.

an Fe

8.05

-

) the

Letter from Brother Caks. P. M.

ROSEBOON, N. Y. MARCH 7th 1845.

DEAN BRO. JACODE:-- Plense send to this office two copies of the "Day Star" to cheer our fainting minds.

It is one year last January since we receive the Eastern "Midnight Cry." It was when it was sent gratis to every Post Master in the United sent grans to ove our thanks through that med po for the light we have received upon the truths the Bible. O, Bless the Lord! we can now re-and anderstand His word. Under the teaching-of the day, the Bible is all spiritualised away the hope of the Besuriettion is destroyed, for the texts that prove it are all said to be tuffilled.

There is a hand of brothron and sisters here that are uoking for the Master. We had glori-meetings last fall, my house used to be filled; be now the cause socme to languish. Our Baster now the cause seems to impaisn. Our taken papers do not give as the light opon the sort innes that they ones did. It seems that they will not some into the light that God is opening before its, and these that would come in, they hindar. Bie. Smith, of Cherry Valley, gave me on a your parties and requested me to send for it.

thought myself unable to do so, as I tak help sending. Yours, in husta W. D. OAKS.

Latter from Bro. Maull.

Cincinnali, March 23, 1845. DEAR BRO. JACOBS :-

I take my pen to address a few lines to you : May God guide my pen white I attempt to write.

The swful and solamn period of the world's history that we are in preses heavily upon by mind: And can it be that we have come to that place in And can it be that we have come to that place in the prophetic word, where "he that is filthy" or "righteous" are so to remain? That there will be such a time as this I am satisfied from the following portions of the blessed word, viz.; Rev. 23: 11, also in ch. 7: 14, of the same book, and in Dan. 12: 11. Ilas that time come? is the important question to be solved. This ques-tion at this time assumes the present form:--We are either to admit this is the case,--that our work with the nominal church and world is done: Or that the proclamation of the 7th months the "cry" made at "midnight" in the parable of the "ery" made at "midnight" in the parable of the ten virgins has never been -- that we have never been waked up, and are yet slumbering and sleen-ing in the tarrying of the vision. This, treacher-ous as is my memory, I cannot admit. To ascribe the work of the seventh month to the "devil," or "more human influence" I dare not do: Therefore "mare human influence" I dare not do: Therefore with trembling I take the position that we are in the "little while" of "patience" and "watch-ing" that will soon terminate in the appearing of the blessed Jesus. We really have need of pa-tience. I am glad in my soul that our blessed Lord has watchmen still that fearlessly give the fime, and that they answer each other with cheetful tone "The morning cometh"!! Glory be to God ! How appropriate the name of the paper pub-lished by Bros. Person's—the "liope of Ismel." Abandon the position these brethren have taken, and, to me, it appears there is no "hope" for "Is-mel:" And Brethren Snow and Matthias' "Jubi-lies Standard"! O how much we needed a standlee Standard''l O how much we needed a standthe Standard''! O how much we needed a stand-field at this time, when a brother can call active living faith, that has had scarce a parallel since Abraham's day—"delusion"; and that, that God worked by in waking up a guily world (that is, defi-tive time) "our folly." The " Day Star"i-may God grant this may shine brighter yet, and cheer the little flock until our Father gives us the Kingdom. Yours, till Jesus comes, War. H. MAULL.

Letter from Sister Willard. Oswego, Ind. March 19, 1845.

DEAR BRO. JACOBS

both Eastern and Western, the impression comes over ms irresistibly, that it is esteemed by some at least, a light thing to interpret the word of God.

It appears to me that an individual asking the solemn question, "Why has the Lord not yet come"? stands in a similar position to Moses when he said, "I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt." "And when the Lord saw that he turned aside to see, God called note him out of the midst of the bush, and said Moses Moses. And he said Here am and said, Mosas, Moses. And he said, Here am I. And he said, Draw not nigh hither : put off thy shoes from off thy feet; for the place where on

I believe it was right for Moses to "turn aside consider this great sight," but the Lord showed im have to consider it. So I think it right to urn from all earthly pursuits, to look into the matter of the Lord's coming. But O : if there is a subject to be approached with solemnity, surely It is this.

I have a desire to send you my views of the Tord of God, in respect to send you my views of the rord of God, in respect to our present position. For two years I have been considering this subject and I would now "hide" my face, like Moses, with fear, lest I offend God, while I am on such "bely ground." I think the parable of the ten virgins has been iterally fulfilled since the commencement of the year 43. Then there was a going "out" to "meet the Bridgeroom." such as was never known be-

THE DAY-STAK. continued, heightening in interest, until the 21st of March '44, which I think, terminated the first or evening watch, brought out by Bro. Miller. Dearman—the Lord will reward him for his faith-fulness. Then followed the tarrying, alumbering and sleeping time, down to the 6th verse, when there was a cry made, "Behold the Bridegroom cometh," on the 10th day of the 7th month, "Go ye out to meet him." This I think answered to the midnight watch; which I believe was brought out by Bro. Snow. This brought us is the 23d of October '44. During the trimming of the "lamps" following this last proclamation, we came on down to the 24th day of the 9th month, which Bro. Jnoobs ably "considered," which I think an swered to the third watch, or cock-crowing. This brought us to the 2d day of Jan. '45. Since which time I have heard the asking for "oil," and the "Not so," replied. And dear friends, what sweat sound is that brought to our ears by Bro. Gross concerning about the 20th of Aprill I do believe it is the termination of the morning watch, which will bring Glory ! Glory ! everlasting to those who are "ready." This gives time for the 6 words yet remaining of the parable to be fulfilled: "And when they went to bay, the Bridegroom came ; and they that were ready, went in with him to the marriage; and the door was shat." I close by asking the Diving henediction upon came; and they that were ready, went in with him to the marriage; and the door was shut." I close by asking the Divine benediction upon my dear brethren and sisters scattered abroad, who are "looking for that blenzed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ." "The Lord bless thee, and keep thee;" "The Lord make his face shine upon thee, and he gracious unto thee;"

be gracious unto thee; "The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace. ELIZABETH S. WILLARD.

🚣 Letter from Bro. Miller. 🕇

Low Hampton, March 20, 1845.+ TO THE SECOND ADVENT BRETHERN.

TO THE SECOND ADVENT BEETHERN. Many of you have enquired, Where is Bro. Miller ! and, What are his views now? I first thank you, my brothean, for your selicitude for me, and now permit me to give you my settled and firm conviction of our present position. In reviewing my former convictions of the truth of God's word. I am not in the least shaken. I have still the same unwavering confidence in its inspiration and truth, as ever. As it respects the way, or rules, by which we are to get a true un-derstanding of the same, and a knowledge of its doctrine, precepts, and promises. I have in no case yet detected an error. As it respects the prophecies, and the mode we have used to under-stand their fulfilment, I am not yet prepared to stand their fulfilment, I am not yet prepared to give up my confidence in. Where in then, say you, is there any difficulty? I answer. Time has shown us there is a wrong some where, and now we are under obligation, say our opposers, to cor-rect that wrong, or give up the whole ground, and go back to them. I know of no stronger obliga-tion for us to correct a wrong if we have one, than they are under to correct us if they can, and I, am absolutely certain that they have shown no better light, and in many cases not near as good, as we have, especially on prophetic chronology. If I was obliged to give up the mode which Protestant commentators have formerly adopted, and follow Stewart, or Chase, or any which I have seen of modern writers who have opposed our seen of modern writers who have opposed our views, I most give up my Bible as a weak, silly, inefficient revelation, of so little consequence to us, that it would loss its whole value to me. But they cannot be true. What then, say you, is the wrong? I will answer you according to the best light I now have. And I hope to humble my-celf in such a manuar at the control of the set. self in such a manner as to receive more or better light if God or any of you should give me

God is not now in his last Judicial character deci-God is not now in his last Judicial character deci-ding the cases of all the righteous, so that Christ (speaking after the manner of men) will know whom to collect at his coming, or the angels may know whom to gather, when they are sent to gather together the elect, whom God has in this hour of his Judgment justified! Rom. 8: 33. We cannot be present until we are collected, and we must be justified, and our names all registered in the Lamb's book of Life, and the books be opened halore we can be well examined by the avected the Lamb's book of Life, and the books be opened before we can be well examined by the angels. And what is the order of the Judgment! Deut. 7: 9-11; Rev. 20: 4, 5, 11, 12. First, the throng, and him that sat on it, called the Ancient of days. Thousands thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him. The Judgment must set, and the books be opened, Then the great whore must be judged, and then will appear the Son of Man in the clouds of heaven, when the saints will be raised, the living bianged, and both caught op to meet Lord in the air. The earth cleansed by fire, the wicked and all the works of man burned up. The king-dom of the saints given to the Bon of Man under the whole beaven, and he is to reien for ever and dom of the saints given to the Son of Man under the whole heaven, and he is to reign for ever and ever. This is the order as given by the Prophets and Apostles, and in their very language. I know of no rule to change the order of these events, any more than the words, and to do either would in my opinion be the highest kind of sacrilege we could commit. I have believed that the throne set in heaven would be the first thing which mor-tals on earth would see, and would be the sign of the approach of the Son of Man, the sight of which would cause all the tribes of the earth to mourn, and produce the cry to the rocks and mountains to fall upon them, and hide them from the face of him that sitteth on the throne. This would be a sign no mortal would or could miswould be a sign no mortal would or could mistake, and would produce the effect spoken of by the Saviour, as worded by Math. 24: 30. Yet I am not positive, that man in his mortal state, while he tabernacles in corruptible flesh will be while he tabernacles in corruptible flesh will be able to see this glory and live. It also seems by John's description of this event, Rev. 19: 1,2, 11, that the scene of the Judgment begins in heaven, and the first thing mortals on earth will see, will be the messenger of God, Rev. 20: 1, who is Je-sus Christ, descending from God, to execute the Judgment written in heaven, and fulfiff the de-crees and promises made in heaven by him who sitteth on the great white throne. See Rev. 2: 4-7, and 11: 4-6; Hab 2: 20; Zech. 2: 8-13. "After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you." If this is true, who can say God is not already justifying his Sanctuary, and will yet justify us in preaching the time i will yet justify us in preaching the time! I am yet on the rock of presumption, as Bro. Storrs calls it, and I can not honestly get off. To jump into every boat that comes along and call each of them truth, and then delusion. How shall I ever know I am in the truth! I think I can see two great leaks in Bro. S.'s boat Truth, and I hope he will find it out, before it dashes on the breakers of the world's applause, or swamps on the quicksands of nubelief. One of these will be the end of his voyage if he continues in his present perilous position. I am on the rock yet. I know my Captain will not fail. True I expected the Steamer the same time it started from the heavenly port, herein I might have been a little careless in not discovering the exact time it would take to arrive at the rock. Therefore, I must wait, and have patience. I did not go on to the first boat that come along, especially one where I found With excentioned modified boat that come along, especially one where I found all the scoffers and worldlings. No, no; I believe God will justify our times yet; I may not be able to tell how, but that is no reason why I should give up my faith. Could Abraham tell how be waw Ogoing to receive Isaac as from the dead, until the The two years I have been considering this subject is due to the s

32

Jonah preaching forty days. I will acknowledge, to believe without evidence would be presumption, Jonah preaching forty days. I will acknowledge, to believe without evidence would be presumption, or to say "if it did not come them it could not come under fifty years." Such views and ex-pressions I have no followship for, these and the like, are out of our own hearts, and come under the text, Dest. 18: 20-22. But who can honesily say, we had no evidence that he might come then? The ovidences that Bro. S. admits, that he is near even at the door, is enough for my purpose. And I am thankful to God that I was on the rock then, and I hope to remain atrong in faith, making no com-promise with the fiesh, or despisers of our hope. I have no guilt in proclaiming time, for the time is by God revealed, and wherever the mistake may be it is not in my power to rectify it, I must leave that with God. I am then waiting pa-tiently for God to reveal the mystery of time or 1843 and the movement of the 7th month. I deny that either of these times was a lis. See Webthat either of those times was a Jis. See Web-ater's definition of a Lie. We can only be mis-taken in the precisa time, the facts will prove the truth yet.

Ism as ever, yours, WM. MILLER.

The following letter is from an old friend and neighbor-the man who was en "extensively killed by the newspapers" after (as was falsely stated) he had thrown open his stors last October, and invited the citizens to come in and help themselves.

New York, March 26, 1845. DELE BRO. JACOBE :

I received your heavenly mea-senger [The Day Ster] this morning : It was read-with interest, particularly your "letter to Bro. Storrs." We intend to have it published this week in "The Jublies Standard" and sond it week in "The Jubiles Standard" and sund it through the length and breadth of the land. Bro. Snow is with us—bis labors are attended with mighty power. We have blassed times since we separated from the opposite side. The Lord has been with us. We have a comfortable place of warship in the Medical Cellege in Crosby street, where the Lord has directed us if great marcy. Bro. Snow left as on Satarday for Phil-adelphia, to comfort the dear brethren in that leave a We have seat with him one prevent that place:-We have sent with him our preyers that the Lord may bless his labors in clearing away the rubhish that has been scattered among them. We are all alive for the Kingdom; Praise the The course you have takes in regard to Lord 1 the Advent cause, is very much approved of by all the dear brethren who still remain on "the rock." It has much contributed to strengthen "the flock of the slaughter," Praise the Lord! May the Lord bless you i-this is the prayer of all the lit-

Lord bless yon 1—this is the prayer of all the lit-tie ones here, who love the troth. I am the unworthlest, happlest man in the worlds "O praise the Lord for he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever." "Praise ye the Lord"t My wife is with me in the blessed hope of soon seeing our lovely Lord and Saviour. We unlie in sending our love to yourself and family. I send three dollars as a wherest between me and three, that we will "fight the good fight of faith, and by hold or. Eternal I fe." Amen. ABRAINAM RICKER.

THE DAY-STAR.

CINCINNATI, TUEBDAY, APRIL 8, 1845.

OF Bro. F. G. Brown, has an interesting letter in the last number of the "Hope of Israel" in which he acknowledges his recent article on any definite time, to have been "premature."

of "Bro. Jacobs will please send 20 copies of the Day Star; for which we will either ex-change or forward the money." The Jubilee Standard.

The desired number will be forwarded, and you can send the same number of the "Standard" in "exchange."

THE DAY STAR.

GOSPEL HERALD.

"We concluded sometime since to say" nothing more in reply to the false and malicious statements constantly thrown out by the professedly religious press against that class of people that are "waiting for" the Lord Jesus Christ "from Heaven"; But there is ap article in the so called "Gospel Herald" of March 1st, from which we think an instructive lesson may be gathered : We therefore give it a passing notice. It is on page 172, headed, "The Second Adventists." Here is one paragraph.

"In Cincinnati, on the 22d of December last, Mr. Jacobs said that Jesus Christ was that day within forty-five miles of the earth, which was just above the atmosphere, but could not be seen on account of its density; that he was then judg-ing the world, and would soon be on the earth to execute it, and many others, presenting to the world the vagaries of a distempered brain."

This is so much nearer the lruth than we over knew Elder Walters to come before, while treating this subject, that were it not for the misstatements he has published in connexion, it might be recorded as evidence of returning sanity. Nevertheless, "Mr. Jacobs said" no such thing as is here charged against him. He did, however, The "whole world" therefore, can not decide present evidence from scripture that the Judgpear "to execute" it-That his throne, when "circle of the heavens," which was also shown from scripture to be at the extremity of our atmos. phere. Further avidence was presented to show that the Judgment might now be in session. So you see the "Hersld" man, has had something to feel disposed to escape from the tottering, falling been 'an honest man, no would bave given "Mr. Jacobs' " views on the above subject, and the since God made the universe." Then follows, texts he quoted to sustain those views, as they but this would not have answered his purpose-His argument would not then have been clear, establishing the fact that Mr. J- had "a distemper. (which by the bye is a libel on the "Gospel") coned brain :" But now all is plain ; his "brain" in taiulag the above article, remarked, "This is the the Elder's view, must certainly be "distempered" third time that Bro. Storrs has been the means of because he has differed so much from him, as to awakening me out of sleep." We are sorry that point to chapter and verse, for the evidence of his any one should offend God, but while it is so, we sintements.

After presenting a long list of charges against Adventists, such as "causing divisions in churches"--- "calling apon all to come out of Babylon"---"dethroning reason"--"mending scores to the lunatio asylum"_____ dding to the almehouses," &c., the Elder adds, "But some one will say that we only make assertions and prove nothing." This was well put in, and shows that he is a man of a regular train of thought, as this is the first idea that would naturally enter into the mind of a man that had only "made assertions and proved nothing." He proceede, "We answer, it is no use to presenting scriptural arguments, or rational reasoning." This shows that there is no reform in Elder Walters-be has always been of the same opinion, as all his writings against Advent believers abundantly prove. It is probable he became satisfied that the position he occupies, vis. that "scriptural argument and rational reasoning" are of "no use," when a good brother in this dity proved to him that the "Kingdom of Ged" was still fature, upon which he went to the house of another brother in somewhat of a passion and declared that he had been "grossly insulted."

No intelligent person can over be made to believe that Elder Walters is capable of "designedly" telling the truth about Advent believers, uni he gives his teaders some proof of the following "assertions."

"They have been written down, and all the arguments answered a thousand times; they been driven from the forum of dotate with share and confesion of face; they have been confounded publicly and privately."

If such "scriptural argument and rational ressontage as is contained in this article of his; has done the work he might have added "ten the and times," justend of "one thousand," and # would all have been true.

Immediately following the last quoted para graph is the following : "The whole word has de cided against thems" Here is a more "scriptore argument," and more truth, than we supposed Bu der Walters capable of telling about us. W "confess" that it is true. Let the reader examine the following texts, and see if the Elder could have given any better evidence that second Advent believers are the chosen people of God: Rom. 12: 2; 1 Cor. 1: 20, 21; 2: 6; 8; 19; Eph. 2: 2, 6: 12; John 8: 23; 14: 30; 3; 19; 16: 33; 1 John 2: 15; John 1: 10; 7; 7; 14: 17; 21, 22; 15: 18, 19. against "its own," which is proof that this parment must sit before Christ would personally ap- ple are "chosen out of the world." This is a "scriptural argument," but it can not be safely "prepared for Judgment." would be upon the credited to any "design" in the Elder to make it such. The article closes as fullows :

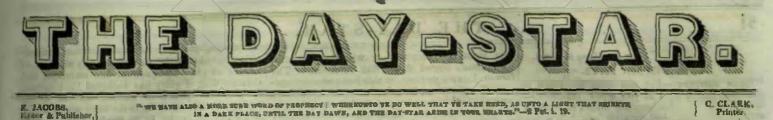

"We present the following letter from brother Storrs, one of their principle men, to show that some of them are returning to their senses and make his story out of, and he has made it out fabric of one of the most during and miserable much better than he generally does; but had he systems of ignorance and wild-fire, that has appeared in the ninetcenth century, or at any period "A note from Bro. Storrs," dated Philadelphia. were published in the "W. M. Ory," vol. 4, No. 5; Pa., Jan. 2, 1845, in which the theory of understanding the lime of the Advent is abandoned.

The brother that handed me the 'Gospel Herald are happy to number among the list of our opposers such men as Elder Welters, or any other man capable of such a production as the one above al judnd to-even should such characters comprise "the whole world."

We have lately seen extracts from periodicals published by the clinich of which Elder Walters, is a member-and perhaps from his own paper. which were given to prove that the Lord was still converting souls among them. They could not, surely, be converted into better man than these leaders; that is, in the estimation of the "whole world."

buitars and Receipts.

For the week ending the 5th inst. H. H. Johnson, P. M., for Frederick Steele $1.00, (the 1.00 sont last summer by J. Litch is correct—it is now credited to Wrn. J. Hart; Henry Rienffe; B. Andrews, P. M., for S. Hutchin son, 1.00; J. M. Brown, S. M. Hamlin, Sarah N. Scott, Thomas Hastings, and Wm. Soymour, each 50;—H. Rienffe, and D. W. Tibbets, each, .25; J. Y. Butt, Abram Ricker, 3.00; G. W. Reed, P. M. a Friend, 500, ("for the ges of the family a" M.: a Friend, 0.00, ("for the use of the family John J. Goll, 5.00; Mrs. J. Donne, 50; J. Mar-ahall, J. Christian, and R. T. Marshall, each, 50; H. H. Johnson, P. M., for Ch's. Merriman, and M. R. Dimick, each .50; H. B. Bear, .50.

F. JACOBS,

VOLUME 5. .

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, APRIL 15, 1845.

Nummerss 9 & 10.

C. CLARK, Printer

THE DAY-STAR

Is a continuation of the Winerman Miromoury Cav, and is pub-tished every Tuenday, by R. Jacons, at his residence on Seventh stress, much side, three short case of the Takernack. All contunualizations for publication-on the basics of the paper, or orders for books, and publications, should be addressed Four Pars to E. Jacons, Cuter start. O.

TERMS OF THE PAPER. Pifty cents per yel. of 12 numbers in advance, to those that are able to pay; and gratis to those that are really unable to pay.

From the Hope of Israel. PRAY ALWAYS; NEVER FAINT.

OL WE NAVE ALSO

O could I mount and speed my way, On some swift angel's wing, Methinks I'd hasten to yon heaven, And hither Jesus bring.

I'd tell Him how we've waited long, And marvelled why he stayed ; And how the foe is waxing strong, While He has thus delayed ;-

I'd tell Him of his precious saints, Whose bones are bleeching now Upon the Alpine mountains cold, Where wint'ry tempests blow.

I'd tell Him of the martyr's dust, He's purchased, in the grave, Oh I would plead for all the just, For He hath power to save.

I'd bear the poor slave's sad complaint, And every fervent prayer, That hath been uttered by the ssint, To grace my mission there.

I'd mind Him of the grief and woe, His fainting people bear, As tremblingly they onward go, And His own sufferings share.

I'd put Him in rembrance too. Of His sure cov'nant word. The Heavens and Earth shall pass away, But faithful is the Lord.

The land that lies all "desolate," Like Eden yet shall bloom, And saints shall rise to Paradise, With new life from the tomb !

"Yet for all this thou shalt enquire," The Lord to Israel says, It will be then the strong desire, Of every saint that prays.

I'd mind Him that we're praying now, All things to be restored, For He hath tanght His suffering saints, That He would be implored.

Oh yes, I'd tell Him all our griefs, For He hath borne the same-He carried all our burdened souls, He bore our cross and shame.

"Yet stay! poor mortal," now methinks I hear good angels say, "Thou need'st not take an upward flight, Thy sufferings to portray"

"For whatsoever thou shalt ask Thy Father in His name, The blessed One will surely give, This to the saints proclaim !"

"Thou need'st not wing thy upward flight, To bring thy Jesus down. Live still by faith, and not by sight, He comes, the saints to crown."

"And He doth hear with bended ear, Thy mourning and complaint, His words are words of lofty cheer, I'ray always, mever faint."

"Soon will the opening heavens disclose, Him whom ye long to see-Christ's foot-stool now are all His foes. And vanguished they will be."

Proclaim to Zion joyfully, Thy God and King doth reign, And soon His glory thou shalt see, When He shall come again."

And now the blessed sound goes forth, Come to the wedding feast ! From cast to west, from south to north. Come every willing guest !

Portland, March 25, 1845. × E. C. C.

From the Jubilee Standard. EXHORTATION TO BELIEVERS.

To all that believe and desire the coming of the Lord. Receive the word of exhortation. You are fully apprised in the Bible that we are to have our graces tried-tried to the uttermost. He "will bring the third part through the fire and refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried. They shall call on my name and I will hear them; I will say, it is my people; and they shall say the Lord is my God," Zech. zill. 9. Af-ter the trial has been perfected and they perfect shall say the Lord is my God," Zech. xiii. 9. Af-ter the trial has been perfected, and they perfect-ed through their trials, they will go into the king-dom prepared for a prepared people! Those who expect to go into the kingdom of God, and enjoy the liberty of the sons of God, and will yet avoid the cross-and are afraid to fellowship the sufferings of Jeans, and de in Jeans of Jeans, and the second se cross; and cannot abide his tests, and begin to say, "This is a hard saying, who can bear it,"— have no promise. The promise is to those who hold fast the profession of their faith. "Hold fast that thou hast, that no man take thy crown,"— and hold the beginning of your confidence stead-fast unto the end. Dearly beloved, be not deceiv-ed! You cannot have a good place in God's kingdom, if any,—If you expect to be in good credit in the present sull world; The Lord in his Word and Providence, and in the experience of his poo-ple, has alwayf crossed the maxime, usages and isabious of this world. And we certainly ought to know better than to suppose God will indulgs us one moment in conforming to this world. The word says, "Be not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your minds, that ye may prove what is that good and accepta-ble and perfect will of God," Rom. xii. 3; see Heb, x. 38, "Know ye not that the friendship of that ye may prove what is that good and accepta-ble and perfect will of God," Rom. xii. 3; see Hab, x. 36, "Know ye not that the friendship of this world is entity with God," James iv. 4.— Again, God predestinated us to be conformed to the image of his Son; Rom. viil. 29. He was a poor man; though the worlds were his, yet he be-came the poorest man in Judah; and yet he never conformed loans of the traditions or many of the conformed to any of the traditions or manners of men, and was a stern reformer. He raised the standard, and demanded that men should conform to it, "If any man will be my disciple, let him dony himself and follow me."

And after many conformed themselves to this condition, and followed him—and their profession became respectable as their master became popu-lar—for multitudes followed him—even left their words that proceeded out of his mouth," and to words that proceeded out of his mouth," and to wonder at the minscles he performed; and began to feel themselves honored to be indentified with him, under circumstances of so much success and attention; wheih circumstances interested many of the selfish and proud, who, from unworthy mo-accumulation of useless and cumbersome numbers, he charged them to keep his miracles a secret; and last of all he has to resort to a test, for the people were not all right, --they must be tried;-for God's people must be peculiar. Here comes the resr, "Except ye eat the flush of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you." Man, and dring his block, ye have no life in you." And they marvelled, saying, "How can this man give us his firsh to est?" And many, therefore, of his disciples, when they had heard this, suid, "This is a hard saying, who can bear it?" and went away, and walked no more with him;---and the Lord knows what became of them. Let us beware, more support he sured multil we have been the? --we cannot be saved until we have been thor? oughly tried;--purified and made white, then tried, Let us learn from these exhibitions of our Lord's judgment and man's fraity and mistakes, that our Saviour never rebuked hig disciples for believing Saviour never rectared has disciples for believing too much, but often for their unbelief, --- not for what some would call fanaticism, even shouting along the streets, but justified it: "If these should hold their peace, the very stones would cry out." And learn from the Saviour's dealings with the people then, how he would deal under similar circumstances with them now

Did you not when in the mow. Did you not when in the full tide of faith in '43 and the 10th of the 7th month, feel yourself real-ly honored, and ware not the reproches of friends and neighbors suffered to pass by as unworthy of your notice? But you were, according to prophe-cy, to be TRED, and that could not be a trial that and experiments with indifference index cy, to us raish, and that could not be a triat that you could experience with indifference, --indeed the trials that were to train us for the kingdom were to operate as fire upon silver and gold----to burn up all but the silver and gold. Now, if that mass of golden ore could feel pain when the heat is separating the dross, and it could exercise a volition, it would spring out of the crucible and be untried. untried.

Now do not suppose that you can be thus meli-ed and dissolved, and your present identity de-stroyed---and you feel no pain. God bless you, your dross is connected with every fiber of your being, and it requires a hot fire--just such as will do for silver and such as will try gold. Now don't help yourselves out of the crucible, and don't you prescribe for the Lord and say what kind of you prescribe for the Lord, and say what kind of juch he should burn. You must submit. The process is painful any way you may contrive it, except you avoid it altogether. Says one,-----Bui it is so contradictory to say our experience was of God, when every body knows the Lord did not come." Well, we have explained this before. "And then to believe the Lord has received the kingdom, and the Lord our bird price." "And then to believe the Lord has received the kingdom, and that Jesus, our high priest, has per-formed the service of the type in the Jewish high priest, on the 10th day of the 7th month, and that the saints are scaled, and the incorrigible sinner has passed beyond hope, and the Jubilee trumpet has counded, and that the 50th year that is to be hal-lowed is just upon us!" God gave you all the past glorious experience that you might believe these hard things; and they are the test. Bot de you say "I can't take such a test;" if not this some-thing else outic as severe must try you; and this is say "I can't take such a test;" if not this some-thing else quite as severe must try you; and this is what the scriptures present, and let us, yield, what matter which side you lie on in the crucible, if you mean to remain there until the refiner and purifier takes you out of the fire, and pronounces you perfect. The best way is to die quick;---sub-mit, submitt and know that the trial of your faith being much more precious than gold that perula-eth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honor and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ; I Peter i. 7.

They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready; but none goeth to the battle: for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.—Ezek. 7: 14.

• Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Hearhen to the sound of the trampet. But they said, We will not hearken.—Jeremiah vi. 17.

But when the congregation is to be gathered together, ye shall blow, but ye shall not sound an alarm.-Numbers 10 : 7.

From the Hope of Lond. Letter from Bro. Brown.

DEAR BROTHER.-Let me take my place at your side and suggest to you a few inquiries.-Long and trying have been our labors to arouse a slumbering church and careless world to a fast approaching judgment. We have believed ourapproaching judgment. We have believed our-selves to be God's true and devoted servants; we have made the Bible-God's own book-our conwith all our souls; we have sought for the truth with all our souls; we have implored God's spirit to guide us into all truth; we have had the best, the most powerful of internal evidence, that we have gained the truth. This truth we have paid dearly for-we have clung to it as to our lives-we could have gone to the stake for it; and was it an error? God has stamped it with the seal of his approbation in thousands of instances-nothing but the Lord's coming at the very door has seemed to be blessed of heaven. The question now occurs, has God been with us, and if eo, how far? Must we not decide that if he has been with us at all that He was with us in 1843, and on "the tenth day" of the 7th month. I like those chronological terms, they are sweeter than ever. If the Lord should not come for three or four years, would his coming at that time be for his self-sacrifloing and godly saints such a triamph as he usually awarded to his devoted servants under like circumstances? If he has been with under like croumstances? If he has been with us indeed, will he not justify us in all our great positions as to time. I know I have lately writ-ten a long article (The Safe Position) which con-flicts with these yiews, but lat that go, for I think incre with those yiews, but let that go, for I think now it was premature. A few more queries: Can you possibly harmonize the prophetic periods heyond 1843? and must they not be harmonized? Did we not say we would paril the whole advent question on the "10th day!" Can you prove that the work of the Atonement can be finished on any other than "the tenth? Jesus Christ was minet for the Lexitical extended on any the tenth? any other than "the tenth? Jesus Christ was priest after the Levitical priesthood, and as such has be been officienting, until on the tenth he offici-nted as the high priest in the holy of holies, &co., Again, since the tenth has it not seemed as though God had poured darkness and death as never bafore a ound the nominal church: will you judge them out of their own mouths? Has it not seemed as though He had almost left us? Understand me, where are those converts to the truth, and those where are mose converts to the truth, and those precious touls crying for mercy which were wit-messed even when we had no definite time—I re-fer to the "tarrying time." What is the matter! are we may the less faithfull. How is it that God has blest as with such sweet peace and comfort immediately after proclaiming a palpable error! How Happens it that so many of the dear lactur-ing brothren invo left their labors, feeling as though they had received a discharge from ser-vice by the Great Master! in a word, how hap-pens it that the conviction is so general among us that the work is over! This way the spontaneous and simultaneous expression of every heart. as soon, or before the tenth, and in most cases for weeks after! Has God been with us not to be with us to the end! Can we trace his hand up to the 10th, and shall we fail to see it now, because it is different from what it was, and different from might wish? whatin our love for souls we Can which our love for souls we might which can we tranchishand all along through this mighty movement that He should desert it at last? A range, too, of such awful magnitude and impor-tance, affecting the glory of his church so dear and preclous to his well belowed Son, is this like God! But do you say that you acek for a solu-tion of the above named convictions in the contion of the acove named convictors in the con-stitution of the human mind, which sought for rel of form disappointment &c., in the conclu-tion that the work was all over. Then will our enemies heretofor, may we seek for a solution of the whole movement on the principles of philos dom skouting "Victory?" or will they go with their heads bowed down like bulrashes? The their heads bowed down like bulrushes? The former, I guess you say, or this last and most stu-pendous of all deliverances which God ever wrought for his people must be an exception to all other triumphs! Again, does not analogy teach us that the "periods" will be likely to ex-pire and an inch or two of time will continue before Jesus is presented visibly and gloriously: search and see. The "periods" have expired, and God has begun to fulfill his promise made to Daniel, "Stand in thy lot at the end of the days." Ah, brother we swore by God's Throne, and by all things he hath made, yes we selemnly laid our hands upon the Holy book, and swore that time should be no more! And by the way, how do you account for our little conscientiousness, when we have refused to stand condemned both before the bar of public opinion and our own consciences for stating so positively that the Lord would come on 'the tenth.' For this our foes reproach us.'---'No retraction,' said we, 'though the Lord has come,' &c. !!

THE DAY-STAR.

Again, what did the 7th angel say, see Rev. 11: 15. Where was that angel—in the invisible world? No, he was where the angel was who was seen flying through the midst of heaven, &c. "The kingdoms of this world are," &c.

My dear brother, that anthom is now beginning heaven-will you swell the chorus? 61 to to fill heaven-will you swell the chorus? Praise God the same have won the victory, and neither themselves nor their foes have hardly been con-scious of it. "The sword of the Lord and of Gideon." They are going into the kingdom shout-ing. Like the faraclites who had to stop in full view of the promised land, and to mourn 30 days for their great leader, and then passed with vic-torious joy into the desired Canaan; so shall the saints of God after their brief season of trial, origin and patience enter their events the Canaan grief and patience enter their everlasting Causa, of rest and glory Look at it bro. all the events which included the first advent of our Lord, or which closed up the old dispensation and ushered in the new, embraced a period of nearly 40 if not 70 years, i. e. if you include the destruc-tion of Jerusalem, --first, John as Christs harbin-ger, next Christ's birth, mini-try, death, resurger, next Christ's Dirin, minetry, death, restr-rection, appearsion, pentecest, &c. Now look at it, something like 64 years since the 'signs' or harbingers began to appear of his 2d advent. I fear I shall not be understood, I have so much I wish to say. I can only drop hints. In what at-titude are the saints to be at Christ's 2d appear-ing? Luke 12: 35-7. Mark the expression-'Return from the wedding!' Compare Rev. 16: 15. What garments are those! Clearly the 15. What gamnents are thuse! Clearly 15. What garments are those! Clearly the garments committed to those who were permitted to enter the bridal chamber! No, for the nearest relatives of the parties and the officiating priest were the only ones allowed there. Then it is the where the only ones above inters. Then it is the anti-chamber into which (the wedding gaments having been received at the door without,) those who stand with their lamps burning and their luine girt, smilling, that when the knock at the door of the bridst chamber is heard, and the Lord returns from the wedding they may open to him mmed ately. Pieze read Math. 22: 11-13.

Bith r, we will suffer the scriptures to speak chemies heretofor, may we used for a solution of the whole movement on the principles of philes ophy. A new more queries: Were we prepared for glo-ry on the 10th' Yes. Was it right to call in our sympathies and phase them exclusively on lossing estimation when Jesus comes' and to this end to mean som thin. We never find Jesus ut-tarin superfiles a parables, figures, or any kind of language. Phase look at the parable of the un virgibs. There is seen of course a vast dif-former between the virgins and the bridegroom; and by the way, some copies of the New Testa-ment, fuberers, insert the bride,' after the word bridegroom' in the first verse of that parable. The church cannot figure as the bride,' after the para-ble, as well as express compture, teaches the con-urry. I between the marriage was consummated either on "the tenth" or Immediately after it. I believe we are subsequent to the marriege; and that the king of glory has received is kingdom, is of course joined or united, married to his bride; and the next thing is the third watch which is already beginning to be heard: then, O then we shall welcome "the King of glory" to earth. Where did we think we were left in the parable, immediately, yes, for some time after the tenth-"the foolish gone to buy oil," and the next report of them is, "Lord, Lord, open to us!" Now you will certainly hear this awful prayer! The nomwill containly hear this awful prayer! The nom-inal church is leading the way in it, though I don't know as they figure in the parable. But I must stop. Do read brethren Hale and Turner's views on this subject, published in the "Advent Mirror." I was opposed to them for some time. But I believe God hat long since begun to talk them out to our hearts. By referring to a letter which I received two months ago from a bro. in Western N. Y., the contents of which I had en-tirely forgotten until this moment, I find that these very views were then held by him. Bro. these very views were then held by him. Bro. you will not say this is a perhous position: if so, you will not say this as perilous position: if so, was not '43 and the tenth also hazardous. But please look at Math. 25: 24-5. That certainly shall not be your or my character and doom... Shall we go only far enough just barely to relieve our consciences? On this ground perhaps we with the size size would develop from all matimight long since excused ourselves from all cipation in the Advent cause. Bro. we will do ALL that Jesus requires of us-yes, even unto death, if He calls for it; for "he that seeketh to save his life," &c. O bro, the Lord will fill our souls fall of holy fire for every stop we take for souls fail of holy firs for every stop we take for Him. This position harmonines all our past po-sitions, experiences, &cc. The work is over—the atonement is finished—the targe are bound for the lamase by the withfring truth of God, ultered by His minus; the wheat is just ready to be gathered into the garner. We shall very soon see the Lord. In a very few days we shall hear the shout ringing from one end of the camp to the other: "the kingdoms of this world," &c. On warfare is over; our trials are ended: let us

Our warfare is over; our trials are ended; let us be glad and rejoice, &c., (see Rev. 19, particu-larly v. 9,) the call is now to the marriage supper: larly v. 9., the call is now to the marriage supper: shall not we all go? Since the 10th nearly all of us have been more or less tried in relation to the parable-of the ten virgins; how often have we cried, O Lord, give us light on this portion of thy word. I believe God has heard and offers it to us. Shall we take it?

Excuse me for not observing logical order in presenting the enclosed queries, as also for not anderlaking to prove each position advanced, as could have been do te had time and space allowed. Yours, in hope of soon being with the King of Glory. F. G. BROWM. Glory.

From the Jubilee Standard. Letter from Sister Clemons. X

X PORTLAND, Me., March 20, 1845.

It seems to me that the Lord hath spoken, not "in secret, in a dark place of the earth." We heard His voice: John x. 4. In Ezek. xii. we find heard His voice: John x. 4. In Ezek. xii. we find that the Lord speaks when the proverb is used in the land of Israel, "The days are prolonged, and every vision fulleth;" (i. e. when the vision tar-ries.) The Lord speke through his servants, in the mighty proclamation "Behold He cometh! --Behold the Bridegroom cometh, go ye out to meet Himt" For at midnight there was a cry made. "Fur I am the Lord; I will speak, and the word that I speak shall come to pass;" Ezskieł xii. 25; Isa. xvii. 3-7. "For as the rain see Zech. x.II cometh down and the snow from heaven. and 25; Isa, xvii. 3-7. "For as the rain [see Zech. x. 1] cometh down and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give ased to the sower and bread to the eater: so shall my word be that goeth out from my moulk; it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereunto I sout it. [Mark whet this was.] For ye shall go out, with joy, and be leaf forth wilk peace; the mountains and the hills shall break for th before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall, clap their hands. Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir-tree, and instead of the thorn shall come up the fir-tree, and instead of the briar shall come up the myrile-tree," &c., laaiah months after; in the first month of the heat year. In Isa. hi, 1-6, we find the deliverance of the children of Israel from Egypt, made a type of the final deliverance of God's people: "Therefore my rEOPLE shall know in that day that I am He that doth speak, behold it is I." And we read in Zech. zi. 10, 11, at the time when the Lord breaks his covenant [when the mystery of God-the Gospel dispensation to the world is finished] which he had made with all his people, "The poor of the flock that waited upon the Lord, knew that it was the word of the Lord," They heard that the Lord hed spoken: "The Lord gave the word, great was the company of them that published it;" see also Rev. z. 6.7.

55. 10-13. Evidently there the word spoken by the Lord referred to the restitution of all things,-Was it not the 6th sounding of the Jubice Trump-et on the 10th day of the 7th month? We thought that the year of release, or restoration commenced with the sounding of this trumpet, but the word gives us light now on this point; Lev.xxv. 0, 10, and we see that it began not until about five months after, in the first month of the next war.

was the company of them that published it;" see also Rev. z. 6.7. In Obadiah 17—21, the year of the Jubilee, or release, is referred to where "the house of Jacob shall posses their possessions on Mont Zion, and there shall not be aby remaining of the house of Esnu; for the Lord hath spoken st." Then "the kingdom shall be the Lord"." the husbandman having waited for the precious frait of the earth —having had long patience for them, will receive the early and the latter rain, Isa. v. 7; Hag. ii. 19. Again, the Lord shows Jeremish a rod of an Almond tree and says, "thou hast well seen; for I Almond tree and says, "thou hast well seen; for I will hasten my word to perform it;" and this in connection with the type of the consummation.

We must hold fast our confidence that the Lord hath spoken, and drink in the Jubiles spirit. "How beautiful upon the mountains [where the sheep and scattered] are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reign-sth?" "Allebuilt for the Lord God comipotent raignath. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to Him, for the marriage of the Lamb is come and his wife bath made herself ready."— "Blessed are they which are called to the marriage import of the Lamb?" For the day of the Lord is mperof the Lamb;" For the day of the Lord is at hand; for the Lord hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath bid [sanctified or prepared] his guests." "Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem; for the Lord hath comfortad his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem—her ap-pointed time is come, her warfare is accomplish-id building in contend. pointed time is come, her warfare is accomplish-ed, her iniquity is pardoned. Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees. Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompense; he will come and save you." "Fear not little flock, it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom." "Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the jame man jeap as an heart, and the shall the lame man leap as an heart, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing; for in the wilder-ness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert. The wilderness and the solitary place descrt. The wilderness and the colltary place shall be glad for them; and the descrt shall rejoice and blossom as the rose. It shall blossom abund-antiy, and rejoice, even with joy and singing; the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excel-lency of Carmel and Sharon; they shall scepthe glory of the Lord, [for the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord as the waters cover the ses] and the excellency of our God."

"The ransomed of the Lord shall return, and "The ransomed of the Lord Anall Feture, and come to Zion with songs [singing triumphantly, "the kingdoms of this world are become," &c.] and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow, and sighing shall flee away. Thy watchmen shall lift up the rules; with the voice together shall they sing; for they shall see eye to eye, when the Lord shall bring again Zion."

Yes, we feel assured that the great year of re-lease; Joel ii. 21-27, (the times of restitution of all things spoken of by all the holy prophets since the world began,) is just being ushered in. We are now in "the times of refreshing, Isa, xlv. 21-

23; Heb. viii. 10-13; when the sins of the whole house of Israel are being blottted out, Asts til 19-21, Rev. vili. 3-5; Heb, ix. 29;)or are blotted out. The passages quoted prove that this is the work done immediately before the Lord kimself shall descend from heaven to raise the dead and to change those that are alive at his coming. S also Heb. z. 16-30, Now where remission of these is there is no more offering for summon more blood can be effered in the holicest. Therefore we are to exhort one another so much the more as we see the day approaching; for if we sin wilfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remainsth no more sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation which shall devour the adversaries.-Ah how fearful to count the blood of the covenant An now rearrul to const the blood of the covenant [offered in the holiest on the great day of atone-ment] an unbuly thing, and thus do despite to the spirit of grace. Let us then hold fast that we have received; keep the word of patience, so shall we bekept in the hour of temptation that is come up-on the world to try all them that dwell on the earth.

In the hope that maketh not ashamed, Your sister, EMILY C. CLEMONS.

NO REVIVALS.

These meditations on a revival are from the "Vermont Observer."

"And is not this a favorable moment? The vagaries of Miller have sifted the churches of those members which would ever be but a curse; and it. can be hoped that what remain are starling and may be efficient. It is in such that the strength of a church consists, not in numbers." The following remarks seem to us,like a knocking from without, saying, "Lord, Lord open to us."

"RELIGION STILT, DECLINING."

"One fact connected with the prevailing de-cleasion in religion, which seems to be universally admitted and deplored, appears worthy of especial consideration; one which should lead every Christian to enquire for the cause, and seek the Christian to enquire for the cause, and seek the removal of that cause without delay; it is the suddenness with which this fearful declension has come upon the churches: and at a time, too, when every motive seemed to press the people of God to holiness, and more efficient action in Christian enterprise. It is scarcely two short years since all the evangelical denominations were formed with measure of versching. (Blad reports favored with seasons of refreshing. Glad reports of thousands added to the churches, came from every quarter; and songs of joy echoed through all the halls of Zion. Why have those songs so soon ceased? Was it a genuine revival of religion? Was that great work the work of God? Why, then, in the course of one short year even, was all so cold and formal as if no revival had been sujoyed! Why, at the present time, are those peculiar to-kens which distinguish a church in seasons of rekens which distinguish a church in seasons of re-viving, quickening grace almost obsolets! Why is it that the spirit of genuins love, and faith, and prayer, is gone! God asks the churches why, and they must answer it. * * * Alns! How suddenly has this incubus of declension fallen upon us! And how has it paralyzed all the intrinsic energies of Zion and substituted the form for the power of godliness i* If these things should proceed, as they have done for the last eighteen months, for a few years to for the last eighteen months, for a few years to come, what may we expect? If these things are done in the green tree, what will be done in the dry? But the supposition is too painful to be in-dulged. Yet it must be admitted that religion still declines."-New York Evangelist.

* Here we have their admission that we are in the perilous times of the last days, consequently we have done right, have obeyed God in turning "away" from the churches. (2d Tim. 3: 1-5).— Eds. Hope of Israel.

"For the froward is an abomination to the Lord: but his secret is with the righteous."-PRoy.

an line From the Hope of Loraet. Letter from Sister Minor.

M. Sain and

Dear Bro. Pearson:-The brethren scattered abroad, bive heard much, through statements, and confessions in the "Midnight Cry," of the "fazatioism" of a remeant in Philadelphis, during the consecration and sacrifice of the 7th month. Immediately after, as I had long been connected with that paper, I forwarded a simple expression of our position and faith, not with any desire of saving our life, but that our afflicted brethren who had been baptized with the same tribulation in different places, might not have over much ser-row, on account of our represented shipwreck. Notwithstanding this relation, my communication was for the first time rejected, and leaving the responsibility with my breathen, I have since re-mined eilent. Resciptions however continued to mained silent. Receiving however continual remonstrance and intreaties from distant friends on account of my supposed desertion, I forward the same article (now obsolete) that, there who wait for Jesus may know, that after the memor some call heresy, we stil hold fast our first confi-dence, expecting without a doubt that Jesus him-self will soon wipe away the reproach of his suf-facing propole foring people. Your sister in tribulation,

C. S. M. RETROSPECT OF THE 7TE MONTH.

"Behold 1 come quickly, hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown." These thou hasi, that no man take thy crown." These words come with unspoken power, at this time, to those who love and wait for Jesus. Since we first heard the gospel of the kingdom, and received the precious faith of his immediate coming, the path hy which his word and Spirit have been lead-ing us out from the world, has been growing nar-now. But since the true midnight cry has come to us, in the spirit and power of Elijah, saying, "prepare ye the way of the Lord and make his paths straight," we begin more fully to realize, what it is to FOLLOW the truth, as it is in Christ Jesus. In this work, God hath chosen the foolish, the weak, the base, and the despised things of the world, to confound the wisdom of wise men, that world, to confound the wisdom of wise men, that his power might be manifest. The wicked were doing wickedly, and the political world was in-toxicated with excitament. The professed church, was wrapped in its Laodicean slumbers, and the was wrapped in its Labdicean sumpers, and the multitude of formalists were seeking pleasure, wealth and fame. In the midst of this death among the churches and excitement of worldli-ness and sin, in the season of the year most unfa-vorable for a revival of true godiness, the cry, "BEHOLD HE COMETH:" was heard and FELT is the under the other search of the set of the set by thousands, to be the power of God, to the salvation of many impenitent and perishing sinners. At its first appeal, the world began to recede from our view. Its pleasures and friendships, its love and its fear, were last in the glory of a better hope. Self, has been unmasked and the naked hope. Self, has been unmasked and the inked human heart, in all its mystery unveiled, as nev-er before acknowledged in the records of man. In the sunlight of this reprover, the most devoted, as well as others, found, that they had idols, upon their persons, in their houses, or affections which must be solicitized. Sin it every form how must be relinquished. Sin, in every form, how-ever subtle, blinds our spiritual perception, and as ever subtle, blinds our spiritual perception, and as each obstruction was removed, we bogan to see more clearly, the path that Jesus trod, and to un-derstand, as before we never could, the reality and power of his teachings. His precious words, (which in our luke-warm state we had explained away, or accommodated to our own position,) now came to our hearts, in their literal simplicity, and the truth, became the power of God. One weight after another was cast aside, until the "fuller's soap, and refiner's fire," had purified and made white the humble and the sincere. We began to feel a true and living sympathy with Christ, and when his spirit impressed his soord upon our hearts, that "he that foreakch not all that he hath, cmnot be my disciple," we were willing to obey, hearts, that "he that forsaketh not all that he hath, connot be my disciple," we were willing to obey, not professedly, but literally, and go out without the camp bearing his reproach. Through the grace of God, given unto the foolish of the weak, we were enabled to walk out on the end of our faith, and testify by works before an infidel world, that there is a God in beaven who will immedi-ately appear in judgment. We came to the crisis, and He who led Abraham up the mounts in and herved his uplifted arm, upheld us also, and by tworks was faith unde perfect. Now we have need of patience, that after we have done the will of God, we may receive the promise, "for yet a little white" etc. The trial is still upon us, and it is the hour of temptation, that is to try all that dwell upon the earth, when the Lord will bring the third part through the fire, and will rafine them as silver is refined, and try them as gold is tried. This trial has shaken, and con-tinues to shake all that can be shaken, and con-tinues to shake all that can be shaken, and very evon, we thet are allye and remain, shall be caught up to beforever with the Lord. We are not esceled to define our position, nor encume our child-like trust in God, neither have we any wish to defend our remain, for now, he that any wish to defend our reputation, for now, he that nearboth to eave his life shall lose it. We believe nesketh to eave his life shall lose it. that it is the Lord, and we will not fear. It is a plan by which a wicked world has been faithfully warned, & yet by the seaming failure will be caught in a mare. By which a formal church, bas also in a state. By which a new return to its earnal security, with confirmed indifference, and say, "every vision failetb," "peace and safety," when sudden destruction cometh. The evil servant, will no say in his heart, while preaching different, My Lord delayeth his coming, and be surprised in au hour when he looketh not for him. As the Jewish church once rejected and crucified his first coming, so also, the rejection and gracificion of his second coming is now fulfilled by the Centile aburch. But mostly this trial was necessary, that the wheat might be alded, and learn to cease from man, and look to Jesus. Not all who receive the truth with joy, retain it, but when persecution ariseth, many are offended. The Lord will have a tried people, who must come up out of great tribulation. We are also to try the spirits whother they are of God, and the rule of our Saviour along is mafe. "By their fruits ye shall know them." The first of this work, has been a renouncing of the world, humiliation of saif, and a secting first the Kingdom of God. The great is walth, and the reign-The reproving power that has been in A faith. our millet, has opened our eyes, to the wants of sthers, and like him who at the first advent, gave the "pro" in the wilderness, it hath suid, "Hu the "pry" in the wilderness, it hath said, "He that hath two coats. Ist him suparr to hun that unar name we contrain the first interpret to him that hath mone;" though we have yet to learn that any sacrified as much as the poor willow, who gave all her Hring, yet a finit recombined to the same solute consecution, has been found in our midst, of which we know by his word that Jesus approves. In this confidence we feel that it is a light thing has been been a for each index set. to be inigal of man's judgment. In the last hours of geriags expectation, every heart was never or less overwheimed with the solemnity of the approaching decision of life or death. If we gained die Kingdom it was every thing, if it was unit, it was sternal. Different minds, constitu-tions, and educations, were affected differently, and according to the degree of light and faith, was her humination, and escribes before the Lurd. In this extremity, the most hely, and devoted might or in julyment, while they were perfect ind love, and single in heart. The then is the purom its commencement, is the greatest manifesusion of the power of God, since the days of the drociples. That as we user the glorious thenhledd of a new dispensation, the same pillar of fire, like Spirit of God abining upon the Word.) which at first we only new indistinctly, is fending up out in first we only new industrice ly, is binding in out farther and farther, from the world, where self-den al, reproach, and wibalations thicken. Es-penditly do we believe, that this last cry of alarm, in as power, effects, and design, case of God. The write loves its own, but this power is every where when against and hard of all men. Though wine, yven of our baloved breihren, have attributed is us a part of it, to a mesmeric influence. and as "out of the melean spirits" mentioned are Roy. 16: 13, yet for our 1 fe, un dare not, but must, su the spirit of meshies and love dissent entroly, from their position. We believe as to sens, that our mistake is only a fraction, and that all things are having to a consummation, and that meetings. If a controversial character finds his "praise." Their songs agree, but they are in the wise shall understand." That as the way into them, they consider it a trial, and bear songs of the slare, and not of the free:-they are it with patience, "answering not again." So the songs of the cage, and not of the orma fulfilled, to the last point, within the few months past, the set will be immediately accomplished. It is our surfection to watch and keep our garments, in this last dark hour of trial, expecting soon to any with joy, "Lo this is our Gop, we have waited for him; and HE with a ve us. C. S. M. Oblighted Nove 01 1944

Philadelphis, Nov. 21, 1844.

THE DAY-STAR.

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, APRIL 15, 1846.

Bro. P. G. Brown.

The letter of this brother, in another column, will be read with interest-the more so because his recent article to which he refers, made the hearts of many, "sad,"

The "parrative" of his "experience" is well remambared by all Advent believers. We have in these two letters of Bro. Brown, a striking il-Instration of the difference between what many still term "The safe position" and the ore occapied by those who believe in "definite time."

The double number is issued for the parpase of presenting more fully, the views of brethren at the east, whose communications only appear in the "Hope of Israel," "Jubilee Standard," and "Voice of Truth"-papers that have not yet (except perhaps the latter) obtained much circulation in this section of country. In so doing, the expanse is more than doubled. We do not, liowever, ask for any thing more, than that aubscribers should send in what they one us.

(In convequence of ill health, I am compelled to abaudon, for a fow days, my sedulent habits, during which time I may, the Lord willing, visit the brethren at Akron, and other places in the interior of the State.

It'T The first number of a new Second Advent per has come to hand, called, 'Tax DAT DAWN.' It is published at Canandagua, New York, by Franklin B. Hahn, and editted by O. R. L. Crotior.

It is written in a good spirit,-the sentiments differing but a little from those of Bro. Halo,-"The Jubiles Standard," and "The Hope of Israd."

We issue a double number this week, or two numbers in one. We do not design however that it should answer for the two weeks to come. but shall issue another number on the regular day of publication next week should it be needed.

The next publication day, being "the Passover," I have strong hopes, as well as strong evidence, that all God's dear children will by that time, leave fatured in our minds. So when chained to a creat this "land of the enemy."

The Cause in this Place.

times on the Sabbath, and on Wednesday and soutial for us to know, and soon the "articles Friday evenings-at all of which lectures are delivered. Meatings for prayer and conference are hold at private houses on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday evanings-thus making ploser to the plain word of God. out meetings overy evening. Those at the privote houses are crowded, and such " seasons of born in a cage, forget, may, they will not believe refreshing from the presence of God" we have there are unexplored fields, and beautiful grown perer had before.

The spicit of controversy can not live in these

when "the prince of this world cometh, and findeth nothing" but the Master's image in his children, he soon leaves.

Those that regularly attend all the meetings are unanimous in the faith that we have now come to the "year of Jubilee" in which all God's children will roturn to their possessions-and that the Lord will come to their deliverance this present Spring.

There are others who from circumstances are unable to attend with us only on the Sabbath. Among this class there is more of a diversity of opinion upon the time, yet there are few, if any, among them, that can bear to hear definite line opposed. Those that "suite" have "gone out from us" and no more attend with us. God puy them ! for they appear to me to be the unhappiest mortals in all the land.

In the meantime others have come among us from the churches, so that our regular congregations are as large, or larger than they ever have been.

On Sabbath last (April 6th) the Lord's Support was administered to between 2 and 300 at the Tabernacle. It was a melting acason-some of the old tried mints should alond, and others wept, for joy.

* THE BIBLE.

This is to he our Lamp to guide us to "the perfect day," Pen. 119 ; 105, Prov. 6: 23; Matt. 35 5, 7, 2 Pet. 1: 19; Frov. 4: 18; &c.

This is what causes the Bible to differ from al uthor systems of instruction-it contains direstions for God's people, not only relative to all the difficulties in life which they may be led to ents counter, but also directions especially concerning the various periods in their history down to the time when "none shall teach." &.c.

The past generation could not, according to the order of God, understand the truths that were arpecially designed for us.

Admit that we have arrived at all the truth the Bible contains, and we should soon lay it aside hat this can not be done till the day of God ushered in, and his people changed to immort fity 2d Pet. 1; 19.

Christ commissioned his apostles to "Go that (make disciples, or scholars of) all nations," &: and this-the Bible, was the great and only school book. When we were scholars to earthly teach ers, our spelling book was laid ands when we had learned what it contained-so of our Grammer Geography, Arithmetic, Geometry, Algebra, & We were willing to part with them and purchase no more, because the principles they laught were or looked up to articles of faith, any narrower their limits then the whole word of Gud reem ing the impression that they are the sum and min Mostings are held at the Tabernacle three stance-the essence of all that is in the Bible and take the place of the Bable. Du we thus see the cause of the downfull of the great mystical Bay ton ; and seeing this, shall we fail to cleave and

> The members of the nominal church, like but in "the midst of" which other birds "fly" wa their gladdening notes of mutual "comtort" and

Their songs glorify the church that God has doomed to a sure and sudden overthrow, for its Laod cean lukewarmness .- while the songs of all those that possess "Berean"-like noblemess, for their indefatigable researches in the Scriptures of truth, now glorify God that "the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his bride hath made herself ready." We once used to wonder that persone professing faith in Christ could make light of the teachings of the prophetic Scriptures, but we wonder no longer. These fields of truth they have never explored. They are coged and cannot fly.

A WORD TO THE ADVENT BRETHREN. The above is the heading of an article in the "Morning Watch" of April 3d, and signed J. V. Hruss.

No believer in the soun coming of our Lord, has labored more unweariedly-with purer motives, and enjoyed the unlimited confidence of the brethren, than Bro. Himes And it will be much regrotted by all of his friends that any thing should come from his pen, in this time of trial, calculated to convey a wrong impression. Such however I fear is the case in the following extract. fem the article above alloded to.

We here beg leave, in all kindness, to say, to our brethren, that there is danger of being too basty in our movements, relating to the cause of God. We need patience; and if we differ, let us be kind, and forbearing, and grudge not one a-gainst another, for, "the Judge standsth before the door," But, at the same time, in all faithfulness to God, we are obliged to dissent from some movements, and sentimonts, that have been advo-

movements, and sentimonts, that have been advo-ented, of late, by some among us. I let. The movement of Dr. GORGAS; in which he pretended to be inspired, to give the precess hour of the Lord's Advent; and also, to direct the Advent congregations to go out of the cities at that time, or, in case of a refusal to do so, that they would periabl? We were shocked with it at the time, and are so still. Such pretensions, we regard but little short of blasphemy. Yet, in fome places, many embraced his view, and carried it out, in all its extravagance. Among these, our respected elster C. S. M., a former writer in this paper, was one of the most active? And when respected eister C. S. al., a former writer in this paper, was one of the most active! And when the knew that it was an imposition, by the failure of all he had said, through his pretended inspiration, instead of acknowledging it, and condemning the whole matter, as a humble Christian should, she sent us a communication, in which she at-tempted, to mix up this impioue Gondas movemunt with the seventh month revival, as a Divine ment with the seventh month revival, as a Divine whate?! This, be it known to all our good friends abroad, was the principal reason, why we could not publish her communication, which she has re-cently sent to the "Voice of Truth," and other papers, entitled, the "Rotrospect" of the Seventh Month." Sinter M. owner the Advent cause, if not the Church, and world, a confession, of the sure evils of that movement, in which she took so con-spicuous a part against the remonstrances of Bro. Liron, and others, and by which the Advent cause in Philadelphis, received its heaviest blow. It gives us pain, to be obliged to bring out this fact before our friends. But, at this peculiar time of our trial, when prejudice is being raised to its height, against the "Watch," sister M. has taken occasion to do her part of the work, by representing, that we had shut out her article, on the 7th month, as though our opposition to that movement, was the cause of its rejection? But the fact was otherwise—it was in consequence of the Gonnas movement, which we considered a decop-tion. He was either deceived himself, or, he tion. He was either deceived himself, or, he meant to deceive others;--we would hope, the furmer was the case. It was hnouser, no FART of the Advent decirine."

mer article upholding the correctness of the screeth month preaching, might go far toward justifying Dr. Gorgas. The faith of "Abraham" and "Joash" were appropriately applied; and now if any body suffered in being led away by "the vision of Dr. Gorgas" it was the individuals themselves. I was in Philadelphia at the time the friends left the city; and although I could not see the force of their arguments for leaving as they did, yet I have never been able to see that they lust any thing in thus bringing their faith to such a test. Indeed when I as w how "exceedingly mad" the children of the wicked one were at the movement, I have sometimes (aside from the protended vision) almost regretted that I did not go with them. I should not like, at any rate, to be found condomning a body of people whose every breath was prayer and praise, and whose faith was fixed "without a doubt" upon the appearing of Christ on that day. Before we condemn the movement, wa sught to show the great sin of proclaiming "the hour" and the perfect innocency of preaching the day. Let us be wise brothren, and have this matter, for the "great day of God," now just upon us, to unfold.

The clause in the above extract which I think conveys a wrong impression, much to the injury of our belaved sister Minor, is the following,

"She sent us a communication, in which she attempted to mix up the impious Gorgas mere-ment with the seventh month revival, as a Diring aphole ! ! !

The article here referred to may be found in another column of this paper-with sister Minor's more recent introductory remarks. I bed not designed to publish it, because Advent believers in this western section knew little or nothing of these matters, and I did not wish to trouble them with the unpleasant differences that only concerned the friends at the East. I now publish it from a sense of duty, because the papers that coumin it are not circulated to any considerable extent in this section, while nearly, if not quite, all the readers of the "Watch" are also readers of the "Star" on this side the mountains.

It is a sore thing to aim such a blow at the Christain rectitude of one "whose fame is in all the churches." To do any thing calculated to take away the confidence of brothren in the piety and integrity of an individual merely for a difference of thought upon a specified movement, is unscriptural-ongenerous, and unkind. Our readers will examine sister Minor's article for themselves, and if I am wroog in thinking an improper impression conveyed in Bro. Himes' remarks, I hope to find forgiveness. It looked to me like wounding a dear child of God and from my full soul I must speak ; and I have tried to do it tenderly as possible.

There are other things in the address in question, savoring more of the spirit of prescription than I had ever expected to see among Advent believers. For instance, the idea that our work with the world and nominal church is done, is set down to be more "horrible" than "Infidelity."

The idea of the Bridegroom having come, and the door being shut, has been ably argued upon both sides of the question in the "Advent Horald;" tion. He was either decaived himself, or, he meant to deceive others;--we would hope, the furmer was the case. It was however, NO FART of the Advent doctrine." So far as the affair of "Dr. Gorgas" is concern-ed, I have nothing to do with it; although the rery arguments adduced by Bro. Himes in a for-and both their opposers. I must candidly say, that from every evidence I can obtain, the great mass of Advent believers in this section, are inclined to the belief that Bro. Hala has the strength of Scripture argument on his side : yet they have no quarrel with those that favor Bro. Hiss's view.

We have never issued a "bull extraordinary" against them because they would not believe with us: And had we been disposed so to do, we have no one west of the Alleghany's that are consider sufficiently authorized to do it. We have not propounced them worse than infidely, or said to them, "Does INFIDELITY teach any thing as hareible as this"? Before our dear brother went so far, he should have shown as wherein it was wrong to withdraw, entirely, our "sympathies" from "a wicked world, and a corrupt, apostate, world-loving church," as he and all the rest of un did on the 10th day of the seventh month. Surely if we were honest we then believe our work with them was done. Bro. II .- should then have given us a "thus saith the Lord" for "going back" and joining our sympathics with them. When this was done, and we still remained obstinate, he should then have reproved us "in the spirit of meekness," and thus converted us from "the error of our way."

Again, I never did expect to see the time when one of these bold champions on Zion's walls, would lay aside the "sword of the Spirit" ("word of God") long enough to appeal to the sympathics. of his brethren in language like this.

"As a brother,-as a friend,-as a fellow-ladone something in this blessed borer—who has cause-we do entreat our dear brethren to pause, before they go further."

Now let us put the best construction upon this "Word to the Advent Brethren." All Must admit that Bros Himos's almost unparalleled labors, have exposed him to a class of trials to which most of us are strangers.

Many heresies are springing up around him which we know little of at the west. We have prayed for him and hoped that he would not be goaded to use the rod.

But since it is so, I for one, am glad he has used it upon sister Minor, and Bro. Snow. This expression may be thought strange; but I am glad, because it has fallen upon these that will not wrythe under it, but casting to heaven "their steadfast eye," will still pursue "the even tenor of their way"-never halting long enough either to "define" or "occupy" a "position" but moving on in "the path of life" will soon gain an eternal reward.

Bro. Snow may have done wrong, but as there are two sides to the story of sister Minor, there may be another side to what is said of Bro. Snow.

O brethren, let us learn lessons of wisdom from the word of God and the circumstances around us! These things must needs be for the Scriptures can not be broken. Let us be exceeding carafal to do our own-duty, and not attempt to meddle with the work of the great Shepherdthe "dividing the Shoep from the Goats."

Letters and Receipts,

For the week ending the 13th inst.

Exposition of Malt. 14: 15.

"But of that day and how knowsth no more, no, not the augels of hourse, but my Father only."

BT GRORA STORIES.

By Gross Storas. This yerse is supposed to form another objec-tion and we not unfrequently hear persons say, "Christ has mid no man shall EVER know any thing about his soming." And we are told that there are who pretend to know any thing about its time, "give Christ the lie." We will see presently who it is "gives the lie" for inspiration, we or our opponents. Our Lord says: Of that day and hour incoust [in the pres-ent times not 'never shall know'] no man," dee. Of what day and hour? Clearly the day and hour when the Son of Man will be rewaited. Well I know of no man that protends to know the day or hour of Ohrist's appearing: I am sure I do not. "But do you not believe the world will come for and in 1842?" Certainly, I do: but I believe also that our Lord will appear before the end of "But do you not believe the world will come to an and in 1843!" Cartainly, I do: but I believe also that our Lord will appear before the end of the world; for thore nust be some time after the Bridegroom comes for the wicked to cry for mer-cy and find none, before the final conflagration of the sewid. Hence Christ may appear now any hour-I know not how soon.

But spain: let the objector be true to his prin-riplet; do not lot him filneh when he is tried; he says: Oar Lord's words authorize him in saying "piece; do not lot in minicip when he is tried; he mayn: Our Lord's words authorize him in saying that no man shall ever know anything about Ohrist's appearing till he actually comes as the fightning." Very well; now let him carry out his principles, and he proves that Christ kinnelf will near know anything shout it til he finds him-malf here?! For our Lord says, Mark xiil. 32: "Of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, NEITHER THE SON."---If the objector is now afraid to follow out his principles, lot him acknowledge he is mistaken in his interpretation of the words "no man know-sth," for, if it is true, that no man ever shall knows it is equally from that the "San" never shall know. Nor can he except from the difficulty by maying, "Christ did not know it as man," for it is the "Son of Man" that is to appear "in the shouds of heaven;" and I ask again. If he is more for know anything abact the time of his appearing, till he finds himmelf here? The fact is, the hims was given of the end of the would in the book of Daniel, but Daniel was commanded, chap. xil. 4, was given of the end of the would in the book of Daniel, but Daniel was commanded, chap. xil. 4, "Shut up the words, and seal the book, to the time of the end," and at the 9th verse Daniel is told, "The words are closed up and esaled till the time of the end." and then it is added, varse 10th. "Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried, but the wicked aball de wickedly; and none of the uicked shall understand: but the offer shall understand"—whon? In "the time of the end," That time has come. And, besides, our Savinar mys: "When yo see all these thitugs [viz., the signs he had given them,] KNOW that it is neer, at the deers." Now, who gives "Chris?" the lie," we, who have seen all the signs, and beaus believe our Lord's words, and "know it is at the door," or our opponents, who dealars we can know nothing about it? Let the candid judge, [Bible Examiner. Bible Examiner.

From the Foise of Truth and Glad Tulings. M. Letter from William Miller. +

Low Limpton March 15, 1945. $^{\prime\prime}$ Low Hampton March 15, 1845,×

See the definition by Walker. I think Bro, Storrs has made a had matter worse, and if his gourd in the east aide of Philadelphia does not in the and full him, he will not be as unfortunate da poor Jo-main. But I believe in the main, (1 must, on his main. Let I menows in the main, it must, on the own confession except Bro. S.) we were honestly preaching what we supposed to be the word of God; and I have no reflections to case, only tridu-in God and he will shortly reconcile there seem-ing difficulties. That God has been in this cause, I have not a shadow of a doubt; and that fime has been the main spring, is equally as clear; and that if we have out sime, no morial could prove that Christ is mar, aven at the door. Yours, as ever, hooking for, &c., Was, MILLER.

From the Hope of Israel.

Impressions.

Never substitute them for the word of God: how-ever clear and powerful they may seem, unless they are in accordance with that unerring guids, rejust them at once. Follow not a "will-o-the-wisg;" remember that it databes to deceive, and will betray you from the narrow path on the cne-my's quagmire dominions. Trust in the Lord end do good, be diligent that thou mayst be found of him without spot and blancless at his appearing, which hasteneth greatly. God's holy word is the "lamp to our feet, and the light to our path;" by that you are required to prove all things—to try the spirits whether they be of God, for many falso prophots are gons out into the world, with signs and wonders to de-ceive if it were possible, the very elect. Never was there so much danger as now in trusting to impressions aside from the authority af God's word; and his because it is the hour of trial and temptation. When the King camo in to view the guests, he found there a pan which had Never substitute them for the word of God: how-trial and temptation. When the King came in to view the guests, he found there a man which had not on a wedding garment, then his lamp must have gone out, and he trasted in his impressions how to robs himself for the occasion. Resp then all the armor girded on, "look strait before thes: pender the path of thy feet: turn not to the right or left," for the way is very narrow, and you need moment by moment to have your lamp triatmed and burning, shining upon the path you trend, which leads you directly to the Kingdom. C.

For the Day Star.

LINES. 12's, 11's & 8's,

Tin day of bright glory in splendor is beaming, When saints long entomb'd, from the dust shall Aritic,

And mount up with repture, with rober white and gleaming, With Janua descending the akles.

Then all who are living, with lamps trimmed and burning, And watching with prayer the return of their

Lord; From mortal to immortal bodies returning, Are changed by the life-giving word.

Then quickly from sarth, while all nature is blas-ing, They are eaught up to Jesus to sit on the cloud; While angelic legions in costacy praising, Around our dear Saviour they crowd.

The maints then immortal, will raise their glad vuic

In bout halfelujabs to Jesus they may, In anthems of praises while heaven rejeices, And cause the broad concave to ring.

Then parents and children, and friends and relations, Who long lave been parted to meet here no more; Will take their high stations with saints from all nations, On immortal life's bleened abore.

Then raise your glad voices, ye friends of the Saviour, Who look for the promise when he shalt appear; And pray that we all may be found in his favor, For surely he soon will be here.

Aurora, Ind., April, 1, 1845. D. B:

Verses written (excepting part of the in man) on the night of the Sist of March, A. I. 1943, bofore refiring to rest, and after have heard the controversy at the TANERTACLE, between our "Universatist" brother, and our brother the ("so called") "Presbyterian church."

BY HERRY S. GIDSON.

Unro all with bosome bushing,

With most pure somehing for, And the sys of faith upturning," Looking for the great MESSIAN ! He will come, who once was smitten, And who died that we might live;

Yet who lives as it is written, More abandant life to give.

Unto all, our Land still susking, Having still our Shaphard's voice; Sometimes somewhat and, and weeping Most when must we do rejoice; Unto such as prize God's favor, His will nome, the King of kings a Jacob's Lord and David's Seviour,

As our Royal Pealmist sings.

He is just who shewath marcy ; And His reign shall never and

And his reign shall have end Soon will case this antroversy ; Still doth God His truth dafend. Without Thee this world cau't please us, Therefore, if this be the hour, Come, O ; quickly some. Lord Jesus, With thy hosts, with all thy power ?

From this day heaceforth forever And for evermore-Amen i

Neither life nor death shall sever Neither life nor death shall sever From our souls, thyself, again. Praise Him with the larp and timbrel, Lood your volce in anthem's raise; And with organ and with cymbal; And "let silence more His praise." May our dear Lord's fraternity In harmonisus concert ring. And throughout all eternity, Our Gol and Saviour's praises sing.

From the Inditac Standard TO THOSE WHO REMAIN.

The Advent cross, oh raise it up, And bear it onward stills And without shrinking drain the cup, And all thy work fulfil.

Undaunted yet, without the camp, Christ's bleeding steps pursue, And cherish well thy priceless lamp, And gird thyself answ.

For he linth evercome this hour Of conflict, fear, and shame, Shall triumph soon, and know the power Of a Redeemer's name.

Though long our pleadings he hath borne. Th' averaging hour is pear; And He is faithful who bath sworn To come, to save, and hear.

Then h ar the cross and onward press And cry "thy kingdom come," Till Josos consen in Rightoouseuses To take the pilgrims home. Fhiladelphia, March 15th.

C.S.M

"The secret things belong unto the Lord our God but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to up children for ever, that we may do all the works of this law."-Dour, 29 28.

"Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servents the proph-ets."-Anos 3: 7.

They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready: but none gooth to the tattler for my wrat-is upon all the multitude thereof.—Ezek. 7: 14.

From the Voice of Truth. REFORMATIONS.

We have but very little confidence in the reported reformations which have recently fallen under our notice. Not because we believe sin-Hers cannot now be saved, but because with searce an exception, we believe they are spurious. We are disappointed that no greater, or more gen-eral stir of this character has been made smong the sects; we expected from the nature of the case, that a general rally smong them would be made, just before their final destruction, like the dying struggles of an expiring man. The strug-gle, it is true, has been made, but the fruit, or result has been different from what we anticipated: they have labored hard and caught nothing; or if any thing has been gathered in their net, as one of their own number has said, they have "catched monsters." But lost we should be conadered severe and uncharitable in our statements, we will name facts. In a recent number of the Morning Watch, an account is copied from the Christian Priladium, of s glorious reformation, in Redfield. N. Y., under the labors of elder H. Petteys, a Christian preach-(r. The facts in the case, as we learn from Brn. L. E. Bates, and S. W. Bhodes, who have just ef our office, are in short these: "About two weeks before the 10th day of the 7th month,' Br. Hazard, strong in the faith that the Lord would soon appear, commenced meetings in Redfield." result was, "a most melting season. Several from the churches embraced the truth, while there from the ranks of the wicked were hope-fully converted." "About the 22d of Oct., Br'n. s, and Bates went to Redfield." They found sider fetteys there, who on that day "baptized about twenty, and others soon after." Hence this reformation was before the "10th day," and not under the labors of elder Pettoys. Elder D. Millard reports in the Palladium, a reformation st Canton, N. Y. If we remember sightly, he says nothing about conversions, but some 20 or 30 rose up, or came forward for pray ern. This has become good currency in the sec-tarian papers, and also the Morning Watch, that tod has not departed from the churches. But we have no confidence in this case; for we know the writer who reported it, and if there had been any emersions he would have had so, instead of say-se certain once came forward for prayers. In the Palladium for March 5th, Elder J. Badg-treports a reformation in Parma, a few miles from this city. He easys "thirty three came for-ward as volunteers in God's service." And not-withstanding, he "continued his labors for a We also know this writer never spares the high-te colors on a work which will reflect any hopr to himself, or his party. And basides we leard how competent judges, who are acquainted with tom competent judges, who are acquainted with the work in Parma, judging from their fruits, that at more than two or three genuins conversions have been witnessed, and these were doubtful.

Eder Shafer, of this city, reports a powerful work, under his labors, in the town of Yates me forty miles weat of this city. He thought is many as thirty had been converted. Two inalligent brethren who attended his meetings, and thought much of Elder Shafer, have told us int but little interest, after a labored and long firt, was waked up in the community; and that is nore than two or three conversions could be noted on as genuine, and these were not fully sat-sectory. In the same place the Methodists had have in a protracted effort, three weeks, we mak, and affected nothing.

In this city, the Baptists, for wesks have put in the big, the haptest, for weeks have put in special and determined efforts to get up a formation; but it has been a failure; they ac-inviatige that there was never such indifference a community, among saints and sinuers, to things of alignon as now. They report, however, a reand, and some conversions during their recent The solution of the solution o

they have "begotten strange children." Hos-

5: 7. A great noise has been made about a powerful work among the Freewill Baptists: an infidel has work among the Freewill Dapitons an entropy been converted, &c. Yes, and he might have been called a scoffer at our precious faith and blessed hope. We know him well. His hypo, critical course has been short, if we are rightly. But this is good currency abroad, among those who are laboring to uphold a fallen church. Other cases of revivals might be named, which have been reported, but in learning the facts, they have proved to be a little extra confessing of the deadness and sins of the church, without any change for the better, or bringing sinners to a anving knowledge of the truth. These have been saving knowledge of the truth. These have been reported, published, and trumpeted for and near as reformations, revivals, works of grace, &c., Bul we hesitate not in pronouncing all, or nearly all, a deception, or not genpine works of saving grace. There may be exceptions, we hope there are many. These which have occurred in the preaching of the true faith, the coming of the Lord, appear to be genuine revivals. We do not doubt them. But we judge that each and all of these secta-rian revivals are not genuine works of grace, from their own acknowledgement. The most dis-cerning among them attribute their fallen condition to the spurious revivals, which have been so common among them for a few years past. Their "inquiring rooms," "anxious seats," and every kind of human machinery used by them, have served to manufacture and bring into the church anconverted materials of every description, until the wicked in the garb of godliness, bear rule, and crowd these polated sanctuaries. These are facts which cannot be denied. Very well, if we know that the churches in their glory, and before they rejected the truth begat "strange children," can we suppose the fruit of their labors would be any thing better since their fall and reportion of the most giorious truths heaven over revealed to coming of the Son of man! We can man, the expect nothing better; they now compass wea and land to wake prossives, and when made, they are like themselves; they still love the world, and disrelish the doctrine of the coming of Christ

-do not love his appearing. That the churches are fallen, deeply fallen, in unbelief and sin, no one acquainted with the facts The testimony is can understandingly deny. abundant-and:

1. In every quarter of our country, long and faithful protracted efforts have recently been made to get up revirals, but in the great majority of cases, it has been a complete failure. 2. We find the sectarian journals, in speaking of their spiritual condition, freely, but mourn-fully acknowledge their own wretchedness. It would fill our sheet to give the testimonies now before us. They commonoe their lamontation how with, "FAMINE OF THE SPIRIT!" "SPIRIT. UAL DEATH!" GREAT DECLENSION!" "THE GREAT CALAMITY!" &c. We cannot for-hear giving an extract from the article bearing the last caption. It is from the New York Evan-gelist, the leading Presbyterian paper, for March 13. The Editor says: "It is not to be denied that a terrible apathy on the subject of religion widely prevails. Pisty is stinted in its growth, and chilled, and well nigh frozen. The great heart of the church, whose pulsations of deep and expanding benevelence ought to be strong and mighty, beats languidlyits functions have lost their energy. The Spirit of God has departed. He has been grieved away. He came on a mission of infinite love, breathing life into the dead and dark hearts of men; but he has been most ungratefully treated, and his be-nign and heavenly influence undervalued and slighted. His departure was and is a great ca-lamity. His continued and prolonged absence in-dicates the deep guilt of the treatment which he received....it leaves churches heren and unfruitful."

Speaking of revivals the Editor remarks: "But these seasons, which in past years have widely diffused their salutary effects have ceased.

Fruitfulness and warmth in religion have given and worse under the frown and dippleasure of the God of nations, by the grieved absence of the Holy Spirit and the melancholy dearth of reviva):

This speaks volumes-it is like signing one's own death warrant. Yet they know not what they are doing, nor their fearful condition; and painful to relate, some of our own brethren are aiding their blindness, by endeavoring to show that God has not departed from them! that they do, and yet Day, have genuine revivals. 3. Under a sense of their leanness, some months since, near forty ministers, of different scats, in Philadelphia, covenanted together to pray for a rovival, &c. We published at the time that we did not believe God would hear them; and we have in asking any thing, God will grant their requests. Here were forty professed ministers agreed in ask-ing for a revival, and it is not granted. The only couclusion that can reasonably be drawn is, God has left them, and will no more hear their prayers.

4. Mr. Maffit, the celebrated revivalist among 4. Mr. Maffit, the celebrated revivalist among the Methodists, recently acknowledged is a dis-course in Troy, that the churches were "Dead, DEAD. TWICE DEAD AND FLUCKED UP BY THE ROOTS!!" And what is bedoing to bring them to life again! Nothing: he has turned to the lucrative calling of lecturing on the character of woman, &c., at one dollar and fifty cents from each attendant, for a course of his lectures. What are Mr. Burchard and Finney, great re-visalists amone the Presbutzings, going to bring.

vivalists among the Presbyterians, going to bring . to life again the dead churches around them? Mr. Finney has retired to Orberlin, Ohio, and re-ceived the high honor of Professor of the literary institutio; there: Mr. Borchard, the last we heard of him, stated at the close of a protracted meeting, that himself and wife had labored might and day for these under and wife had night and day for three weeks, and not a soul had been converted, and all he had received for their services was about fifty dollars! Mr. Knapp, the great revivalist among the Baptists, has settled down on his farm, at Hamilton, N. Y.; and we suppose is waiting for the decision of his brethren, on certain charges proferred against him. Similar accounts could be given of thousands of the once flaming ministers of the different sects. They, with their flocks have rejected the truth, are turned unto fables. They love this present evil world; and God has left them to perish in their own delusions.

there own delusions. With these facts before us, how can we place any confidence in the reported revivals of a fallen church! Or entertain a lingering hope that it will ever again be restored to the divine favor? We have no confidence in either. She is a broken off, withered, and rejected branch; or as Mr. Maffit in using the inspired word, justly says, she is "dead, DEAD, TWICE DEAD, AND PLUCKED UP BY THE ROOTS." Hence, her reported reformations can be viewed in no other than the light of a short lived, and eickly shoot, that springs from an up-rooted tree, or a severad branch. They do not spring from the Gospel soil, or have not their foundation in the truth, and hance can never bring forth fruit to the glory of God. Therefore be not deceived by these things; for if possible they will deceive the very elect. Go not after them, but cleave to God and his word, and soon you will not be at a loss to discern between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not. None but these who do the will of God will action the but those who do the will of God will enter the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are all who do his com-mandments : it will soon he said to them, "in-herit the kingdom prepared for you from the foun-dation of the world."

The following letter is published notwitstanding the time is now passed in which the writer expected the Lord. A large number are still looking to the Passover about the 20th or 23d of the present month.

DEAR BRO. JACOBS

I think the time has now come for us to see the definits day and I know not why the hour may not be understood, for God is a cor-rect time keeper. You know I have taken the ground for some time that our glorious King would come in the true Jewish year 1843, and that Habakkuk's prophecy would be fulfilled at the ter-mination of the Jewish year.

B. C. 457 or in Julian time the 4th month, in B. C. 456 when the commandment was able to go forth, Ezra 10: 17, when I understand the 2300 days began on the first day of the first month, as all our calculations were in Jewish time, so here all our calculations were in Jewish time, so here we should not depart from them, for the vision which was written upon tables is to speak and not lie at the time of the end. I have made some astronomical calculations (which possibly astron-omical tables might correct) and I make the new moon of April at the conjunction, astronomical time to have been 1 D. 2 h. 25 m. previous to the empirical in a the first the first model when the conjunction on the 6th. This would make the moon little over one day old to have the 2300 days commence and end on the 6th of April in exact Solar time of 365 .5 .48 .48. If 1 have made no mistake then I see not why we may not know something about the hour (see Rev. 3. 3,) if we watch. The difference in longitude would make the conjunction at Jerusalem towards midnight. See Exodus 12: 29-31, also v. 41 compared with Genesis 15: 5-18. The same method of calcula-tions make that night which was dark when the smoking furnace and barning lamp that Abraham saw, to have taken place when the moon was be-tween 1 and 2 days old. What more probable time than when the two Luminaries were in conjunction to have the 6000 years commence? I understand that all the types were arranged so as to show forth the time as well as the events, and I now see all the types fulfilled except that one of the first day of the first month when all the captives will be set at liberty. God after all has given us a correct chronological date to start from, and the world is to be con-demned for rejecting 1843. I also understand. Rev. 14: 20, as having chronology, as the dis God's word which does that work of treading the wine press and from the time it commenced in Feb'y last, as I had placed the date when the brethren had to leave the church and world, and turn their arguments against those brethren who once went with them; the time runs only on the 6th of April. You may think I am visionary, but see "Day Star" No. 1, and so on.

l expect soon with you and all the "children of the Kingdom" to see Jesus and be like him, till then may we keep our gaments which include definite time and hold out to the end.

Your fellow servant. C. B. HOTCHKISS.

AUBURN, March 28, 1845.

For the Day Star. Cincinnati, April 7, 1845.

BRO. JACOBS (---

BRO. JACOBS :--As you have shown favor to my former com-munication, and especially as those living charac-ters stand out in bold relief on the pages of Holy Writ "Occupy till I come," I would again tax your generosity by offering a few broken and im-perfect romarks. Not forgetting, however, that it is your privilege to withhold it if it contains aught that is contrary to Truth, or the views of my Christian brethren.

My mind is much exercised at this momentous time, with regard to those who have turned aside, and "walk no more with us." Those who, I fear, time, with regard to those who have turned aside, and "walk no more with us." Those who, I feer, are rejecting the light of God's truth, and thus, "the light that is in them has become darkness." And who can tell "how great that darkness" may be! That there are many hypocrites among them, we must, and do admit. Nevertheless, let the Charity which "hopeth all things." hope that, at least, there are some longet sincere hearts among the number, but whose minds are unhappily biased by their prejudices. And still more, they are led by those in whom they have placed an undue by those in whom they have placed an undue confidence! When coaversing with some of them on the subject of the 7th month-definite time, and so on, I have been answered in the fol-lowing manner, Away with it-I will have nothing to do with it! brother S. says it is "presump-tion"---"delusion," and has been got up by a "steming process!" &c. O how careful our watchmen ought to be that their trumpets gives a certain sound!" "For if the trumpet gives an uncertrain sound. who shall prepare himself to the uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?" If this should meat the eys of brothen S. I hope he will not consider it "smiting." No. rather let him consider and reconsider the ground that he now occupies. O with what delight I listened when he preached definite time in 1843! What breathless silence pervaded the multitude, as he unfolded the mystery of God's Truth and showed us the glorious light and liberty of the "Gospel of the Kingdom!" And now he pro-"Gospel of the Kingdom!" And now he pro-nounces the preaching of time "error" and "delu-sion!" And yet, the preaching of definite time always has been sanctioned and scaled by the sanctifying influences of the Holy Spirit! Are we sanctified through error? No verily, but through the Truth! "Men do not gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles," God forbid, that of thorns, or figs of thistles," God forbid, that I, a poor sinful worm of the dust, should smite I, a poor sinful worm of the dust, should smite any of my brethten or sisters. No., No. My heart yearns over them. O that I could take the great Shepherd's crook (the light of God's truth) and bring back, not only our dear brother S, but every wandering sheep to the Fold! That men and angels might rejoice over their return. Nor can I consider this an "unholy sympathy."— Christ is our great Leader, and He wept over the doomed city! and said, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, then that killest the Prophets, and stongest them thou that killest the Prophets, and stonest them which are gent unto thee, how often would I have which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together," &c. His tender compassion was over the "lost sheep of the house of Israel." O then, let us follow in the steps of our great Exemplar! Let those "that are strong-bear the infimitias of the weak." "Have we faith! Let us have it to ourselves before God." "And through (our) knowledge (let not) the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died." And you, dear brothren and sisters who have wander-ed Lizzar their us denline the loss of the the noied, I know that ye deplore the loss of that happi-ness and peace which ye once enjoyed. O come, return unto us, our hearts are open to receive you. There is—there can be no turning back from this Truth, but to perdition. O think of this!-"Behald the Judge is at the door!" Salvation is promised to those and those only who endure to. the end.

And now in conclusion permit me to say, a few words to all. Ye Simeonst never give up "looking for the consolation of Israell" Ye Peters! "feed the sheep and lambs of the Flock."---And you my sisters! Ye Anna's, and Mary's, up, work in the Lord's vineyard, even at this the eleventh hour. The Lord has committed to every one of you one talent (at least) and when He comes, "He will require His own with usury." Let us all be on the Lord's side. Let us with united heart, and voice, and effort, be co-workers with God. This is emphatically, "the hour of temptation." This is the time whon the evil one, who knows that, his time is short, will put on the appearance of an "angel of light, to decsive, if it be possible, the very elect!," O let us realize that we are indeed, in "the last great battle, of the Lord." Remember the curse is denounced against those who "came not to the help of the Lord-to the help of the Lord against the migty!" Cord-to the help of the Lord against the mighty?" Our lonely--I might say almost solitary watch-man has stood through the long, dreary night, and in the fear of God, has fearlessly proclaimed "The Morning cometh?" And now behold the "Day-star." Notwithstanding the tempest that has bent around his devoted head! And shall we look on with indifference! Shall we, Galliolike, fold our hands and "care for none of these things!" No, rather let us all be fellow helpers together. And when the Master comes. He will give a crown of rejoicing to all His faithful ser-vants, and take them to a place of safety, where no sorrow will ever reach them, and where no anonymous missile will ever pain their bearts again. Even so, come Lord Jesus. Amen. Yours, in the blessed hope. MART.

Letter from Bro. N. M. Catlin.

Kingsbury, La Port Co. Ind. April 4, 1845. DEAR BRO. JACOBS :---

There are a few names here "stead-fast in the faith," though now for a season are in heaviness and affliction; but we think it not strange "knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in our brethren that are in the world." I feal the more inclination I feel the more inclined to write, from the fact that the "Morning Watch," neglected from cause unknown, to publish a communication of Bro. J. B. Cook's, dated in this place, in which he gave a statement of his mission among us. Let me say then, briefly, that Bros. Cook Greenleaf, came to us by solicitation, in the lat-ter part of Feb'y, and were hailed as the "serv-ants of the Most High God," who exhorted the brethren to continue in the faith, that we must, through much tribulation enter the Kingdom of God. Their visit was doubly valued, because they were competent "to set in order the things that were wanting." We enjoyed both the orinacces by their hands, together with the setting apart by laying on of hands two of our breth-ren (Brethren N. M. and Joseph Catlin) to the work whereunto we trust they were called, their ministrations has been blessed to the edification of the "body of Christ." Bro. Cuck baptized 9 while he was with, us and I have baptized 8 since he left-all of whom give evidence of faith in the speedy coming of our blassed King. Permit me to say here; Bro. Jacobs, that the evidences to my mind are strong that God's administration of grace for the salvation of sinners, is yet extended! Although those who have been some time in the cause of the second Advent, have passed through peculiar trials and discouragements for months passed, yet it seems to me that the truth has never taken a firmer hold of the attention and hearts of hearers, in my acquaintance, since the preaching "Fear God and give glory to him, for the hour of his Judgment is come," & c., commenced, than within a few weeks past-by which, with much Scripture, I conclude there are still "hedges" and "high-ways" to be traversed with the "Gospel of the Kingdom." I am aware that good brethren ses differently upon this subject, and I regret that different opinions should arise among those who have la-bored with so much unity heretofore. Still, on nored with so much unity heretofore. Still, on reflection, it is no new thing for them that "see through a glass darkly," to differ. Why, Paul and Harnabas, two of the brightest sons of the Apostolic Church differed in opinion, and departed asunder one from the other. If our brethren would depart asunder to the work of the Lord, when they differ instead of staying to contend and strive for the mastery, now much less evil would result from such discrepencies of views. Bro. Miller's letter in the 'Watch,' March 20th, contains some excellent thoughts on this subject. How much there was in that expression of "The arguments on both sides of the question required a great quantity of brotherly love to make them digest easy." Brethren will do well to no-tice the advice of that letter, and remember that while our publications may, if properly managed, be great means of comfort to the scattered sheep in the "dark and cloudy day." Still they may become vehicles of contention, and thus beget strife among brethren ! Great discretion is requisite in this department of labor, and I hope brethren may strive together in prayer for those in this station, that they may receive wisdom from above.

Your little sheet, Bro. Jacobs, is highly prized among us, and we hope it will be continued while it is needed. You may depend on my exertions to increase its circulation in this quarter. Finally may the God of all grace who has called us unto his eternal glory, after that we have suffered a while, stablish, strengthen, and settle us. To Him be praise and dominion, both now and ever. Amen: N. M. CATLIN.

Prepare ye this among the Gentiles; Proclaim var, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of var draw near; let them come up:

Beat your plow-shares into swords, and your pruning-hooks into spears : let the weak say, I am atrong.-Joel iii. 9-10.

() WE BREE ALSO II A GREE SUBE WORD OF PROPERCY; WHEREOUTO YE DO WELS THAT YE TALE HURS, AS SERVE A LIGHT THAT SHING TH IN A BARE FLACE, UNTIL THE BAY DAWN, AND THE DAT-TAR ARME IN TOOR BRARTS, -S Pol. (, 19).

dayostar

Voltes 5.

E JACOBS,

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, APRIL 22, 1845.

NUMBER 11

C. CLARK,

THE DAY-STAR

All continued for the Warran Minarour Cay, and is pab-area, continuing by E. Jacom, at his veddence on Seventh area, continuing the doors can of the Takarnacia. All commenciations for publications, should be addressed for Pars to E. Jacom, Circumany, O.

TELMS OF THE PAPER.

Fifty casts per vol. of 13 numbers in advance, to these that are also to pay; and graits to these that are really unable to pay-

From the Jubike Standard. "THE WHOLE CREATION GROANETH."

A voice is heard upon the air. A wail upon the sea ; The universe is bowed in prayer, And struggles to be free.

Creation groans, and lifts her bands, And earth in travail waits, And nature's animated bands Moan at their prison gates.

And burdened hearts, as incease rise, From earth's afflicted ones, Ju supplication to the skies, To raise her algeping sons-

For Christ to come, and bring again The Eden shades of love, And banish sin, and death and pais, As it is done above.

It is man's last appeal to heaven-

Pray'r's final agony. To which an answer soon is given In earth's great Jubilse.

Thes 'tong, Land Jesus, QUICKLY COME," • Our longing spirits cry ; We wait to shout thy welcome home, And meet thes in the sky.

C. S. M.

BEHOLD HE COMETHII

We-are told by our Lord, in Luke xxi., that "These aball be signs in the cun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of naand in the stars; and upon the earth distress of na-tions, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roar-ing; men's hearts falling them for fear, and for boking after those things which are coming upon the earth; for the powers of heaven shall be sha-ken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory." All that he thus described as the precusors of his revelation from heaven hath been fulfilled, ex-cept the last. The sum and the moon were darkcept the last. The sup and the moon were darkened according to Matt. xxiv. and Rev. vi. on the 19th of May, 1750. And since that time there have been many and various signs in the sun, moon, and stars, of which we speak not now par-ticularly. One of these, however, we will men-tion, and that is the great meteoric-shower of Nov. 13, 1833, when "the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, like as a fig tree castoth her untimely figs when she is shaken of a mighty wind." These when she is shaken of a mighty wind." These signs having been thus fulfilled, we now, in obedi-ence to our Saviour's words, grow that he is nigh even at the doors,"

But the most convincing sign of all, with the exception of the glory of God revealed, "which is "the sign of the Son of man," is the fulfillment of the parable of the virgins. Every part of that parable has been fulfilled but the crying "Lord, Lord! open uuto us." And already we begin to hear that cry. And we shall need the firmness of and became a monument of God's displeasure!and became a monument of God's displeasure!-Was he moved by sympathy and compassion even to look back after his dear unje? No. Had he done so he would 'undoubtedly have shared her fate. "She became a pillar of salt." Why not a pillar of stone? Because salt has a preserving or saving quality. Moved by sympathy she cast a fond look backward on the luxurious & licentious city she was leaving to destruction; with her house, her possessions, and her relatives and friends, no doubt desiring to sare them if possible; and the retributive justice of God was visited up-on her instantly. And where a moment before on her instantly. And where a moment before she stood a breathing form, warm with the purple current of life, nothing now remained but a cold and lifeless pillar-a monument of her longing desire to save those which it was the purpose of desire to save those which it was the purpose of God to desirey. Beware, BEWARE that you do not forget Lot's wife; but like Lot, let your faces be as fint, and epeed your flight to the place of re-fuge, that you may reach it and be safe when snares, fire and brimstone, and a terrible tempest shall be rained upon the wicked. The analogy of God's dealings with his people. and the lessnes which are taught in many of the

and the lessons which are tanght in many of the types given to foreshadow the great day of the Lord, all conspire to show us clearly that the doom of the world must be scaled, and the sym-pathies of the little flock, who are to receive the kingdom, must be entirely sundered from the world, before King Jesus comes in rokes of ven-geance to execute judgment. Strange indeed that any intelligent child of God can believe that the Lard of Glory is to descend from heaven to destroy Lord of Glory is to descend from heaven to destroy the ungodly, and at the same time find some of his people on their knees praying for their salvation! This would be impossible, for "as many as are led by the Spirit of God they are the sons of God." And if we are led by the Spirit, we shall not be led to pray for the salvation of those whom God has determined to destroy. Let us look at the case of the antedeluvians, whose destruction is given as a type. God saw that their wickedness was great, and mid. "My that their wickedness was great, and said, "My Spirit shall not always strive with man, yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years." So long the Spirit was to strive, and then it was to seese its strivings and their doom would soon be sealed. But Noah, finding grace or favor in the Lords eyes, was commanded to build an ark in which he should be saved from the deluge. Peter informs us that he was "a preocher of righteous-ness." He also says that "Christ hath suffered for nees." He also says that "Christ hath suffered for sins, being put to death in the flesh but quickened in (or by) the Spirit, by which he went and preach-ed to the spirit in prison, who sometime ware disobedient, when once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Neah, while the ark was preparing." Here we are plainly saught, that while the long suffering of God waited Christ preached to the long suffering of God waited Christ preached to the antedeluvians, whose spirits were since "in prison," (see Isa. xxiv. 22.) by means of the same Spirit that quickened his body at his resurrection. We see, then, that the striving of the Spirit—the hundred and twenty years—the waiting of the long-suffering of God—and the preparing of the lark—all terminated together. This was seven days before the flood commenced. The invitation was given to Noah "Come thou and all thy house into the ark.—for yet seven days." &c. Some into the ark,-for yet seven days," &c. Some suppose that Noah and his family entered the ark immediately, but by reading Gen. vil. 11-13 care-fully, it will be seen that this is a mistake. It was "in the self-same day" that the flood began. was "in the self-same day" that the noos began. The 120 years of probation to those sinners closed

Yet their destruction came not till Lot and his daughters arrived to Zoar. It was during this time of their passing from one point to another, that Lot's wife cast the longing, lingering look behind, which brought upon her swift destruction. And we are now on our way from the "city of destruction," to the "city of refuge." In the mighty movement of the 7th month, with its sanc-tifying power, we were brought out of Sodom, and shall very soon enter the "city which hath foun-dations, whose builder and maker is God." If the work of recompiling, the work to God is shall very soon enter the "city which hath foun-dations, whose builder and maker is God." If the work of reconciling the world to God is not finished before the coming of Jesus as Kinr, what can we make of Rev. Xiii. 11, 12! Surely those words of our adored Lord cannot be un-meaning: "He that is unjust, let him be unjust still; and he that is fifthy, let him be filthy still; and he that is righteons let him be righteous still; and he that is nighteons let him be righteous still; and he that is holy let him be holy still. "And behold I come quickly," dr. When our Lord is revealed from heaven in flaming fire taking vengeance on the wicked, will the unjust remain unjust still, and the fifthy remain fifthy still? Nay, verily: "They shall suddenly be destroyed, and that with-out remedy." But forther, this is a command or injunction: "LET him he filthy still." To whom is this addressed? Certainly to God's people.---They alone can be expected to keep and obey it. And they must do it while they are waiting for Jesus, as is evident from the fact that he immedi-Jesus, as is evident from the fact that he immedi-ately adds, "And behold I come quickly." The point of time arrived, on the 10th day of the 7th point of time arrived, on the 10th day of the 7th month, when the stonement or reconciling was completed, and of course no more users to be recon-ciled. Then he that was filthy must necessarily continue so. At that time we were sanctified and received glorious garments, qualifying us for an entrance to the guest-chamber; "Blessed is he that watchick and REEPETH HIS GARMENTS." After that tremendously important point of time, Jesus cometh "QUICKLY," or after a "little while is almost past. while is almost past.

while is almost past. We have seen the parable of the virgins fulfilled before our eyes. In 1843 the virgins went forth to meet the Bridegroom. Then came the tarrying time, and the virgins slumbered and slept. Then followed at midnight, "Behold, the Bridegroom cometh, go ye out to meet him—on the 10th day of the 7th month." The message was accompa-nied by the seal of the Holy Ghost, and was there-fore truth. It follows therefore that the Bride nice by the seal of the Holy Ghost, and was there-fore truth. It follows, therefore, that the Bride-groom received the Bride, i. s. New Jerusalem, the capitol of his kingdom, the attonement was fin-ished, and the Jubilea trumpet was flown, on the foti-day of the 7th month: And in the commencement of the year of Jubilee ye shall behold your Re-deemer and King in all his beauty and glory.-Even so, come Lord Jesus.-Jubiles Standard.

From the Jubilee Standard. "THE HARVEST IS PAST."

We learn from the inspired text, that in the last days a perilous time shall come-when the form of godiness shall exist without the power of lefs-when there shall be scoffers and mockers, who shall walk after their own ungodly lustswhen christ will say of the professed church, "1 will spue the out of my mouth, because thou sayest, I am rich and increased with goods, and have need of nothing, and knowest not that thou art wretched and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked"—when the state of the world shall be art to be a state of the world shall be Lord open but o us." And already we begin to hear that ary. And we shall need the firmness of brass or adamant, that we be not moved from our steadfastness by human sympathy. May the Lord in great mercy, enable us to "REMEMBER LOT"S WIFE!" Think you, beloved, that righteons Lot tarried in the plain to confer with flesh and blood, when the companion of his bosom turned and looked back and names in the days of Noah and Lot, when God said, "my Spirit shall not always strive with man," and the earth was filled with violence, and all fisch corrupted his way upon the earth. Many come, and appeal to the law and the testimony. come, and appeal to the law and the testimony. We find in the sure prophotic chart, that there is a time when Ephraim is joined to his idols and it becomes the duty of those who obey God, to let, him alone. This text is found in Hoses, in con-troversy with the inhabitants of the land, (or earth) because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land, ""for leared slideth back." Is not this a true picture! Have we not many the slidler here of many of whore we aute. back." Is not this a true picture? Have we not mean the skiding back of many of whom we sup-posed to be the true Israel? In the next verse the Lord says." Ephraim is joined to bisidels, let him alone." In the Sth ch. of Jer. this is called a "perpetual backshiding," when "no man repeated him of his wickedness." The Lord adds, con-verning the blandness of his people. "Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appainted times, and the turtle, and the crans, and the swallow, observe the time of their coming, hot my people know not the judgment of the Lord." "The wise, men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken," "they have rejected the word of the Lord." "They have bealed the burt of the daughter of my peohave healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace, when there is no peace."-Jeremiah thea, with prophetic au-thority desires, "The barvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved." The scriptures cannot be broken-we hear the cry of peace, peace, and pare ive that the harvest is past, and this prediction is accomplished. Zechariab speaks this prediction is accomplished. Zechariah speaks of the day of the Lord and the events immedi-atoly preceding, when he "will no more pity the inhabitants of the land." In Heb. we under stand, that there is a time, when we see the day approaching, after which, if we sin wilfully, "there remained no more secrifies for rink." This is eurspy after the atonement is completed, and the mystery of God finished. We perceive then that the probation of the wicked must cease before Christ appears. Are our sympathies soft then that the probation of the wicked must cease before Christ appears. Are our sympathies with him, or are they looking back after the world After all our professions, are we at last unwil-ling to have the door allot between as and his en-emised Josus ways het, "many will seek to enter in and shall not be able, when once the blaster of the house is risen up and hath shut to the door." This proves that the door will be shut bafore pro-fessors are aware of it, when they will degin to at and without in unbelief, and knock against it. It is evident that this must be prior to his coming.

42

stand without in unbelief, and knock against it. It is evident that this must be prior to his coming, as the hightning, when those who remain shall be changed in the twinkling of an eye. It will be well for those who wish to side with Jesus to remember and obey the directions which he hath given us for this hour. He that is unjust lef him be unjust still, and he that is filthy lef him be filthy still, and he that is hely he hum be holy still, and behold I come quickly. Philadelphis, April 2, 1845. C. S. M.

"And this shall be the plague wherewills the Lord will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalom; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongne shall consume away in their mouth."-Zech. 14: 12.

From the Cincinnati Enquirer. STRANGE DISEASE.

A very singular contagion has broken out in Valatie, a small village in Columbia county, N. York. It discolors the face to a grounish casto, the eyes loss their usual expression, and have a vacant stars, the voice becomes busky, the memory ranishes, and the conversation becomes con-fund and a set of incoherent, seatences jumbled together, without order and without meaning. The arcogh laves and the form dwindles away to a skaleton. The person attacked raves like a manua, & the ductors have been unable to do any thing for them. The informant states that "every parson wears an affrighted constenance, and if it does not soon stop its ravages, the whole town will be inhabited by lunating!" None have died from it as yet, but numbers are stillated with "This same lesue, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as yo have seen him yo into heazen,"-Acts & 11.

THE DAY-STAR.

RAVS FROM THE LAMP.

"The Lord preserveth all them that love him." "He that loveth not, knoweth not God : for God is love." is love." In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent His only begotton Son into the world, that we might live through Him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved as, and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and His love is perfected in us. Hereby know we that we dwell in Him, and He in us, because He hath given us of His Spirit

And we have known and ballaved the love that God hath to us. God is love: and he that dwellath in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as He is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love but perfect love casteth out fear, because fear hath torment. He that fearch is not made perfect in love. We love II in because he first loved us. If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar. For he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God when he hath seen? God whom he hath not seen?

And this commandment have we from him, that he who love if God, love his brother size. By this we know that we fore the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments, and his commandments are not gre-vious."-Hope of Israel.

THE DAY-STAR.

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, APRIL 22, 1848:

In consequence of absence I have had but Hille to do in the arrangement of the last (double) number of the paper, and also of the present one. The selections are however, well made and will up doubt interest our readers.

If our readers in the country should receive this paper the Passaver day will have passed: Then indeed, will the faith of God's waiting people he again tried to the utmost. O my soul, Hope thou in God-trust also in him and he will bring it to pass. It seems to me our work is done, but if God has any thing more for us to perform, He will open the way.

BRO. S. S. SXOW.

This Bro. says, in the last Jubilee Standard. that the statement of Bro. Himes in the Morning Watch, relative to his (Hro. Snow's) application of Zech. 11: 8, "is not true,"-be called no names. that application being made by those that heard him. This is the other side of the story.

VISIT TU CLEVELAND AND AKBON.

I left here on Tuesday morning the Sth inst., for the purpose of visiting the brethren at Akron, as the most distant point I had designed to embrace in my journey; but calling at the Post office before the stage started, I rec'd a copy of the "Voice of Trath" containing a notice of the Conference at Cleveland, upon which I immediately determined that it was the will of the Lord to direct my course thither. After a tedious ride of 54 hours, including stops, I reached C .- in time to attend meeting at the Tabernacle on Thursday evoning, and heard a discourse from Bro. Pickands, on Her. 14: 1-6.

The views were somewhat new to me-but interesting, and instructive.

up on Sunday evening. Among the lectures present were breibren Pickands, J. B. Cook, Ratinson, Baker, and Boggs. There were also preent a goodly number of brethren from variant towns in that vicinity, some of them having traneled 50 or 80 miles,

The morning exercises were devoted to prayer and conference, and the afternoons and evenings to lectures. There was a variety of conflicting opinions advanced in the meatings of conference but the brothren seemed to have come together with the determination talove one another, though they might not all think or speak alike. It is however, worthy of remark, that among all the various views advanced, there was but one opin ion upon the time of the Advants all agreeing the the present Jewish year is THE JUMLER, and that in it God's people will be delivered i furthermore. there was a perfect unahimity of expression upon the evidences that cluster around the present menth, and give a glow of lustre to our glorio Hope. The administration of the Lord's Supper on Sabbath, P. M., was refreshing, and the brethren parted with joyful greetings, and expressions of high expectation of very soon partsking of "the fruit of the vine" with Christ in his Kingdom. During my stay in Olsveland, I had the pleasure of sharing the hospitalities of Bro. News Bond and family, old acquaintances on Long Island. They are also happy in the enjoyment of the Blassed Hops.

1 left on Monday, in company with Bro. Fickands, and another Bro. for Akron, a distance of about 38 miles-arrived in time to talk to a large congregation that had assembled at their Tabernacle, according to previous notice. They seem to be agreed in looking for the Lord this spring. I spent the night with the family of Bro. Powers, formerly from Louisville, Ky.,-the brother who first opened his doors and welcomed the pilgrim band that accompanied the Great Tent when al the latter place. He is full of the glarious Hupe On Tuesday, the friends brought mis on my journey about night miles, to a tavore, kept by a brother of our Bro. H. H. Gross, where I took the stage for Beaver, Pa., about 70 miles, and from thence by the steamboat 'Mail,' 450 miles to Cincinnati, where I arrived Friday P. M. O how cheering to my soul has been the interviews with brothren in this journey ; but I have neither time nor room to say more.

For the Day Stor. Cincimati, April, 11th 1845.

DEAN BRO. JACOBS

As you have invited the Sisters to contribute their mite, in trying to assist in strengthaning the heart and succuraging the hopes of those that are desiring to gain that better inber-itance, I have thought I would bring my affering, and present it before them, hoping that in some small degree it might aid some to hold fast the beginning of their confidence standfast unto the end as we have nothing to hope for, from any other' source than God's blessed word and our other source than troat besing word and our experience, therefore, we take it as a great favor tu peruse the pictus efficience of that heart flut a hooking and almost impatiently waiting fur deliv-ance, and if we can assist in bearing up the feelth mind of any one to wait "yot a kills while" our great object is accomplished. The experience of the pices and devoted heart have a prime as accomplished.

have always been a great source of comfort to may and surely within the last few months, our page sould has been very much strengthened in our sould meetings, where we have told our moadorned and unaffected views and feelings (as ma received these from God's blessed word) of the I continued during the Conference, which broke speety deliverance that awaited all God's faithful children. How our souls have run together in harmonions sentiment, while we contemplated that Jesus was so near-even at the door,-a few days, or a few short hours, when our great High Prices who has passed into the heavens, shall return and gather his WEARY, tried, and scattered people, to give them that inheritance that he has in reservation for all them that wait for and love his glorious Coming and Kingdom. Never (dear brethren and sisters) was there a time that we needed greater watchfulness, with strong faith in prayer, than the present moment, for our grand enemy, the devil, has come down with great wrath, knowing that his time is short, actions when he may devour. His last work is seeking whom he may devour. His last work is lo sow discord and confusion among God's people, and by this means, if possible, to deceive the very elect. Has he succeeded? I would fain hope he had not, but alas, alas ! God forbid, that I should sit net, but alas, slas ! God forbid, that I should sit is judgment on the case of any brother or sis-ter: But how can we help thinking, when we remember hy-gone days, and bring to mind the times and days of other years? Where are many of our dear brethren and sisters with whom we walked to the house of God, and with whom we und to sit together in heavenly places in Christ forms while we emission and hard respinet. Jesus, while we enjoyed such refreshing seasons from the presence of the Lord' did we not lay aside all our worldly considerations and sectarian differences, and like a mighty phalanx join heart and hand to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lordagainst the mighty? Where are some of those Lord against the fnighty! Where are some of those under whose warning voices we have sit, while we have witnessed the tear stealing down their checks, while their souls was exulting in the pros-pect of soon seeing the blessed King in his beauty, the holy Spirit of God witnessing with their spirits that they were the children of the blessed Jeans,— when we were all united, with full and glowing who watter the source of the beaused Bride when we were all united, with full and glowing souls, waiting the return of the heavenly Brids-groom? Where are they?-O where? Are they less interested in this blessed subject? Has their faith failed them? or, do they say, My Lord delay-eth his coming? Jesus says, He that endureth (not once had a hope) to the end the same shall be saved. Unto you therefore which believe, he is precious;--but unto them which be disabedient, stone of stumbling and rock of offence. Do we feel that tenderness and sympathy of soul for our erring brothers and sisters that we should ! does our bowels of mercy years over them, and our prayers ascend to God in mighty them, and our preyers ascend to God in mighty faith that they may be brought to see their state and condition before they shall ary, Lord, Lord open unto us? O may the word of God sink down into our hearts. 2 Pet. 3: 17, Ye therefore, be-lored, seeing ye know these things before, be-wars, lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness. Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned : Behold the Judge anandeth be-bre the door. If any of us do err from the truth bre the door. If any of us do err from the truth, les us do all in our power to restore such a brothst or sister, remembering that he that converteth a sinner from the error of his way, shall save a soul from death, and hide a multitude of sins. My mind has also in affliction adverted to some of God's ministers at the East, who left all and acrificed every thing held dear to fleshly nature, to publish that glorious truth—who labored night and day, for the good of our perishing souls—all ha view of the speedy coming of Christ—the re-demption of God's desr people, and the destroc-tion of them that destroy the earth. Who after preaching those great truths with so much suc-such in the rescue of many who at this time reone in the rescue of many, who at this time re-pice in the salvation of God, brought us to the Wih day of the 7th month, when so much of the Spirit and presence of God was manifested among his dear children, (who now say, Don't talk about definite time,) when God has said, He has ap-pointed a day in which he will judge the world. Have these dear brethren lost their confidence the back world. The blassed losses and ff are in God's word? The blessed Jesus said, If any man will do my will, he shall know of the doctrine whether it be of God. Hate they been examining this truth, and did they cleave to Christ with ir whole heart? Did they rest their unwavering faith on that More sure word of Prophecy, whereanto ye do well hat ye take head, as anto a light that shineth, more and more unto the perfect day?

Although the mightiest mind and the greatest array of islant may make shipwreck of faith and a good conscience, God will save and deliver his hamble people.

To whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not! Let us labor therefore to eater into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief. God will have a tried people. The Prophet says, Many shall be purified and made white, and tried. Is not this a great trial of our faith, to see those who were foremost in our ranks, now deserf us I but we feel that Israel's God is on our side, and but we see that is reals to do it sue, and what have we to fear, if we can say with the Pashnist, "Thy word, O Lord, is a Lamp to my feet and a Light to my path," we shall have light, and time. Count it all joy, when ye fall into divers temptations; knowing this, that the trial of our faith, worketh patience, it being much more pre-cious then of cold the: patienthy though it he cious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found us o praise, and honor, and glory, at the appearing of Jesus Christ.

My beloved friends, let us be strong in the Lord and in the power of his might,—putting on the whole armor of God, that we may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. Let us stand, therefore, having our loins girt about with trath, having on the breast-plate of righteousness, and our feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; above all taking the shield of faith, wherewith we shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked; and the she helmet at of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: that we shall not be found wanting, in the day of trial.

Can we look around us without observing the great indifference on the part of professing Christ-ians, for the salvation of sinners, without fear-ing the Spirit of the Lord has departed from them? Do we not feel the force of the word of the Lord, "My Spirit shall not always strive with man"! Here and there, we find one faithful soul deplo-ring the state of the church, and praying fervently for the return of the Holy Spirit which has been for the return of the Holy Spirit which has been grieved away. How can we behold these things without feeling that we are in that "little while" where every "jut and tittle" of the word of God is being fulfilled. O how it ought to all culate us who are looking for the consummation of our hope, to great watchfulness, that we keep our when unspitted from the world. Finally, broth robes unspotted from the world. Finally, breth-ren, farewell; be perfect, be of good confort, be of one mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace shall be with us. Amen.

M. M. F.

Letter from Bro. Bartholomew.

DEAR BEO. JAGOSE:--You will please excuse me, for again intruding upon your time and patience, and that of your numerous readers, when perhaps, it might be more profitably employed. But while reading the communications in the Advent papers, eminating from minds of different gifts, from all parts of the land, I have been deeply affected with semantions of both pleasure and pain.-- I have been pleased to discover, that the great body of Advent believers, are still strong in the faith of the speedy Advent of our blessed Saviour, and in agreement, in reference to fundamental princi-ples.-I have been much pained, to discover a disposition in some, to oppose, with perhaps too much zeal, such views, as was not in accordance to see in so short a time, so wide a difference of opinion, and I charitably trust honestly received, in reference to certain texts and portions of scripin reference to certain texts and portions of scrip-ture, which then appeared so plain and incontro-vertible, to the great body of Advent believers— I refer in part, to definite time, and the 10th day of the 7th month. We have thought it strange indeed, that such a state of things should so scon exist. I have thought that under existing cir-cumstances, that the admonition of the apostle Peter, [1 Pet. 4: 12, 13,] might be applicable, and perhaps profitable to us all.—"Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing bappened not strange concerning the nay that when is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you: but rejoice, inasmuch as ye are parta-kers of Christ's sufferings, that when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with ex-ceeding joy.^N

Now if among all Advent believers, having been brought together as they were, from differ-ent sects and classes in society, there should be a diversity of gifts, and somewhat conflicting theo-ries, would neither be strange or new; but if they were all of one mind and faith, in reference to all points in theory, and continue so, this would be new and strange indeed. It appears, at an early period, even at the commencement of the gospel dispensation, there was a diversity of gifts, called into exercise, in proclaiming the glad tidings of man's redemption;-from these arcse diverse views, but doubliess in fundamental prin-ciples, there was harmony and union : Hence, Paul, in his first letter to the Corinthians, [1 Cor. among you, but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind, and in the same judgment." He seems now by his most friendly salutation, and timely admonition, to have prepared the way and timely admonition, to have prepared the way for a gentle reproof, and ending in a most severe rebuke. He tails them, that he had been informed that there was cantentions among them, that all of them said, I am of Paul, and I of Apollos, and I of Cephas, and I of Christ: Then follows three important questions.—Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or ware ye baptized in the name of Paul? And passing on with expressions of bindness and encouragement, he again refers to crucified for your or ware ye applicant in the name of Paul? And passing on with expressions of kindness and encouragement, he again refers to their contentions, and applies a severe reproof, (and if any of my dear brethren, who may read this feeble effort, should think themselves re-proved by the apostle's language, and should be benefitted thereby, my desire will be realized). His commences by saying, [3d chap.] "And I bre-thren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. I have fed you with milk, and not with meat, for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able. (Wherefore.) For ye are yet carnal, for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men; for while one saith, I am of Paul, and I of Apollos, are ye not carnal? Who then is Paol, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man. I have planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase. So then, neither is he that planteth any time. I have planted, Apollos watered, but you gave the increase. So then, neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth, but God that giveth the increase. Now he that planteth, and he that watereth, are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own laposition in some, to oppose, with perhaps too much seal, such views, so was not in accordance with their own. I have been led to take a retrospect of the past, my mind rested on the supposed '43, two short years since, and we saw a few little flocks of scattered balievers in the speedy Advent, (de-nominated Millerites). They were then, as were the disciples or believers in the days of the apos-tilee, of one heart, mind and soul, ficither did any of them say, that anght of the things which he poesessed was his own, but that all belonged to the cort, and was common stock. But how soon was a different disposition manifested: Look at the case of Ananias and Saphira-they only kept consequence. Our minds, as I have said, have been afflicted, which has proved a source of trial, 44 their own construction upon what they had heard, their own construction upon what they had heard, to harmonize, as far as possible with their own peculiar views and sentiments. Hence, some would agree with Paul, while others would dis-sent, so doubtless in reference to Apollos and Ce-phas, they having gifts and graces, as ministers of the Gospel, differing from Paul, would doubtless employ different former and having the doubtless or the Goepel, differing from Fail, would as ucleas employ different figures and language to express, perhaps, the same sentiment. But the figures and language of these, might have been more famil-iar, and better suited to their views, than those presented by Paul : Hence, originated their dis-sentions, one was for Paul, one for Apollos, one for Combas for Cephan. Now all these differences might have existed, solely in reference to outward observances and ceremonies, as in the case of circumcision, when at the same time, there might have been, and doubtless was, a perfect agreement in fundamental principles. Thus it may be with too many of our dear Advent friends, they may feel disposed to criticise on words, which may be unfilly apoken, and even denounce those who may differ from them, or advance views, with which they have no sympathy of feeling, although such views may originate from an honest heart, in the fast of God, and in full faith of their impression in the light of the Spirit.—Among these may be, definite time, the movement of the 10th day of the 7th month. the movement of the 10th day of the 7th month, the coming of the Bridegroom on that day, the completion of the atonement, and closing of the door of mercy, or rising of the Master of the house, &c., all of which events, I think we are warranted 'from the living oracles to expect, at some period, prior to the visible appearing of the King in his everlasting Kingdom. If I am in an error, I am looking for light, and would thank any dear brother, who as an instru-ment in the hand of God, would just give it the in measuril of meckness.

ment in the hand of God, would just give it he in the spirit of meckness. Permit me now dear brotbren, in the fear of our heavaily failier, to propound three questions, to all who honestly appose these views, and who edmit that the Saviour may come at any moment, and then the wicked will all be destroyed, and the righteous receive the crown of life and immortal-fie.

ny. Ist. Do you oppose these views, because you are envious at the ungodly, that you could wish them all destroyed the moment that the atonement are envious at the moment that the atonement in inipited, and probation ends i 2d. Have you more sympathy of feeling for the wick d, who have been fully warned of the com-ing storm of vengrence and hery indignation, it, an you have for the henor of the bleesed Jesus, and his Kingdom i 3d. Do you feel so impatient to see and be with Tesus, that you candot want for the latter rain, for the Bridegroom, when he shall return from the waither of weiding !

weiding? I think these are somewhat important enquiries, and may God help us to make the application. Whold all who are disposed to dissent from the riews, honeatly advanced by their brothren, go to Jesus, with the same on fidence, as did some of the disciples of old, and say, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and we forbado im, because he followed not with us.—Or his riews did not altogether hamoize with ours, such might meet a similar reproof. I grand again units with the apostle and con-

I would again unite with the apostle, and con-I would again inter with the aposte, and con-clude with his exhortation.—"Now I beseech you brethren, by the more of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you, but that ye be perfect-ly joined together in the same mind, and in the same judgment." For be ye assured the Lord is at head st band.

Yours, in hope, and patient waiting for Christ. D. BARTHOLOMEW.

A strange infection has broken out in Valatie, a small village up the North River. It does not only affect man, but even the air and water, the brooks and streams, are affected .- N. Y. Sun.

"The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: Io, they have rejected the word of the Lord; and what wisdom is in them?"-Jer. vii. 9.

Letter from Bro. Smith. Auburn, N. Y., April 5, 1845.

DEAR BRO. JACOBS : The "spirits" are now manifesting

The "spirits" are now manifesting themselves, for there are "voices, and thunderings and lightnings." I feel indeed blessed in trying to keep the words of the prophesy of the the "Revelation of Jesus Christ," it enables me to "discorn this time"—the "last time," because there are many anti-christs, hereby I know it is "the last time;" I John 4: 3-8.—And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the fast is not of that and this is the spirit of that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God, and this is the spirit of anti-christ whereof ye have heard that it should come, and even now already is in the world; ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is ke that is in you than he that is in the world. I have no hope that I shall "overcome" only as I have the evidence that Christ is in me, the hope of glary. Know you not, says our Bro. Paul, that Christ is in you, except ye be reproduces. And I am to know that he is in me by his Spirit witnessing with my spirit, and in me by his Spirit witnessing with my spirit, and this is my only evidence that when he who is my life shall appear, I shall appear in glory with him.—Rom. B: 11, But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your morial body by his Spirit that dwell-eth in you. "Now if any man have not the spirit of Christ he is none of his." Now if we have his Spirit we shall be led by it to follow the Lamb whithersoever he leadeth us. If we are among that number we are account that are actions that number we are among those that are redeem-ed from among men-the first fruits unto God and the Lamb. In our mouth there is to be no guile; for "Jesus Christ who is the faithful witness, and the first begotton from the dead, him that loved In our mouth there is to be no guile; us, and washed us in his own blood, and made us kings and priests unto God and his Father, (and kings and pricets into God and his father, (and our Father,) hath showed his servants things which must shortly "come to pass"; and by his Spirit that dwelleth in us, we may know the things which have "come to pass" in this "last time." To be brief we turn to the 10th shapter of Rev. Here we find symbolized the preaching of time, 1343, and the 10th day of the 7th monthy-the 7 thunders utter their voices, (7 last plagnes,) and are sealed up till the 7th angel begins to sound-it is now sounding; for there are great voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdoms of this world It is now sounding: for there are great voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdoms of this world are become the Kingdom of our Lord and his Christ?"—eaying, that the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets, which is simply this: (let one of the four and twenty elders testify) Eph. I: 9, 10, "that in the dispensation of the fullness of times he might gather together in Osz all things in Christ," &tc. Now turn to Rev. 14: there we have our history, which is fulfilled down to the have our history, which is fulfilled down to the trending of the wine-press, which work will soon be done. Also in the 15th & 16th ch. we find the 7 last plagues, since the commencement of the sounding of the 7th angel, viz., the 10th day of the 7th month, they have been unscaled, for the last one was poured out at that time, and there has been one continual voice "out of the temple of heaven from the throne, saying, it is dene." And who does not hear the volves, and thunderings, and lightnings 1 and has there not been a great moral carthquake in the Advent ranks I (which brings us to the 19th ch.) And is not the great sty which is divided into three parts (Catholic, Greek, and Protestant,) fallen, and come in remembrance before God ! Scc. Now see 19th ch.-Here we find the rejoicing of the Bride after she learns that the marriage has come, &c., and then comes the last battle in the Advent &c., and then comes the last battle in the Advent army, during which time the Bride is shown us by the angel which had the 7 vials full of the 7 last plagues.—{See "Voice of Truth.}—21st ch. v. 9. The same angel or messenger measures the city, &c., and about the same time the cries in .21 ch. v. 3 is heard, (yes, glory to him that reigneth, lat us give all honor to Him, for it is the Lord God Omnipotent !) saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. This voice, God has given me a spirit to receive, it speaks to Is the plagues.--(See "Voice of Truth.)--21st ch. v. 9, The same angel or messenger measures the city, &c., and about the same time the cries in 21 ch. v. 3 is heard, (yes, glory to him that reigneth, let us give all honor to Him, for it is the Lord God Omnipotent !) saying, Bahold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God famself shall be with them, and be their God. This voice, God has given me a spirit to receive, it speaks to the inward man, and makes manifest the counsels of the heart.---(See "Voice of the Shepherd" Ne 1.) and I feel that all that "are of God" wi hear it---those of whom our Saviour spoke when he said, "I thank thee, Father, Lord of heaver are while, "I thank these, rainer, Lord of newse and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and pendent, and hast revealed them unb babes." Babes live on the sincers milk of the word. "The fearful" and "the wise and prudent cannot receive it. Hear Juhn: They are of the cannot receive it. Hear Juhn: They are of the world, therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them. Ye are of God, little child-ren: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. And we have known and believed the love that God test to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in low dwelleth in God and God in him. Wave in the entient writing for the glore the Yours, in the patient waiting for the glory the shall be revealed in us at the manifestation of the sons of God. H. L. SMITH.

GREAT FIRE AT PITTSBURG.

One of the most destructive configmations that ever afflicted our country was experienced Pittsburg on Thursday the 10th inst. Even ravages of the great fire in N. York, some ten twelve years since, were less in proportion to population of the city, then Pittsburg has suffer Twenty whole squares, besides aeveral parts squares, are entirely destroyed. Twelve hunder buildings, it is estimated, including seven hand dwelling houses, are laid in ruins. Four the awaiting notaes, are thind in runns. Four the sand persons are stripped of house and he The burnt district, presenting a "forest of ma-chimneys and broken walls," is about one s in length, and 160 yards average breadth, making an area of about 60 acres.—Works. of the Ver

WOLVES IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING.

In the fear of God, and as faithful sentingly the post of duty, we warn the sheep of Chris-fold against the machinations and desptions wolves in sheep's clothing, who are provifold against the machinations and deceptions wolves in sheep's clothing, who are provi-about from place to place, beguiling the simple m unsuspecting. Of this cort are they that or isola houses and lead captive silly women." The cause divisions and offences. They teach de nable heresies. At first they may assume an terior deportment, calculated to mislead as to the real character and designs. They appear to with you in sentiment, and meabous for the tra They are also full of a spirit which they call Holy Ghost. But it is a counterfail.

One class of them when they have, as they posed, gained your cosfidence and good will, gin to advance new truths and duties, which to be made tests of Christian character and tial pre-requisites to inheriting the King These last-truths are-that we have received "new covenant" in its fulness, and hence are to be no ministers to rule the house of that we must be re-ospilzed by washing our bodies with water-that the distinction of abolished—that husbands and wives must in-and that the brothren and sisters are to each other in religious meetings, and work other's feet as a religious ordinance? From the delusions may the Lord deliver us. Be beware of them. Follow the good Shepherd, listen not to the voice of strangers.-[Jul Standard.

"Write the vision, and make it plain upon bles, that he may run that readeth it. For the ion is yet for an appointed time. [Daniel n but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: is it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely on it will not tarry."—Habakkuk 11.2, 3.

Letters and Receipts,

For the week ending the 19th inst.

" WE HAVE ALLO A MINE SURE WOLD OF PROPHETY; WERESULT VE DO WELL THAT YE TAKE HERD, AS STO A LIGHT THAT SERVICE EN A DARK PLACE, NISL THE DAY DAWN, AND THE DAT-STAR ARME IN YOUR BEARTS."-S Fel. 1, 10,

1051

E JACOBS, Miller & Páblisher,

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, APRIL 29, 1845.

THE DAY-STAR

is a continuation of the Warran Minnessy Chy, and is pub-band overy Tonday, by E. Jacons, at his residence on Seventh street, south side, these doors east of the Takeraale. All communications for publication—on the business of the paper, or orders for hooks, and publications, should be addressed year Pare to E. Jacons, Oliverymann, O.

TRAMS OF THE PAPER. Fifty cents per vol. of 13 numbers in advance, to these that and able to pay; and gratis to those that are really unable to pay.

From the Vorce of Truth and Glad Tidings. TRUE PAITH.

"Know ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham."—"So then they which be of faith, are blessed with faithfal Abraham."—"Now to Abraham and taithal Abraham."-"Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, and to seeds as of many; but as of one, and to thy seed which is Christ."-"And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."-Gal. 3: 7, 9, 16, 29.

In the covenant made with Abraham, God promsed him and his seed, "the world to come whereof we speak," for an everlasting inheritance. See Rom. 4: 13; Heb. 2: 5. But why was this prom-me made to Abraham ! Because he "believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteous ness." Rom. 4: 3; Gon. 15: 6. It was by faith then that he because "heir to the new carth"— "the world to come;" and "the father of all them "hat believe." We see how faith wrought with a works, and by works was faith made perfect : James 2: 32. When he was called to go out into place which he should after receive for an inritance, he obeyed; and went out, not knowing whither he went. Heb. 11 8. But notwithstanding his faith was such as to cause him to leave his kindred, and the land of his nativity: still a trial of that faith was necessary to propare him to receive the crown of life. He is therefore required to take that son through which his seed was to be-me as numerous as the stars of heaven, and offer him for a burnt offering upon out of the mount-ains in the land of Moriah. Now mark that friend of God," as he leaves that confiding wife, and weeping mother . For we may well suppose the wupt, when she saw her Lord depart with that why sone for the place assigned for the sacrifice. No muchurs are heard to escape from that tender, inst faithful heart. Silently, and calm he pursues and the state in the state of t remred-the wood prepared, and the sacrifice placed upon that consecrated altar. What a momint was that in the history of the patriarch ! He is about to decide whether he is worthy of that high destiny that awaits him-that of becoming bir to the world. Did you, dear reader, come up to the 10th of the stem is month with the full expectation of being thatged from mortal to immortality! Then may you form some idea of the feeling of that heart at hat solemn moment. But the knife is opraised to strike the faist blow; "And the angel of the Lord railed unto him out of heaven and said, Abrainm, Aluaham and he said, Here am I. And he said. Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither de thou any thing onto him; for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withhe!d thy son, thise only son from mo."

Thus we learn how Abraham 'became heir of This we term now Abranam 'became her of the righter of all them that believe, (Gen. 17 5; Rom 4:11;) he is not the father of them that do not believe. Abrana may le the fa-ther of unbelievers: But ABRAHAM NEVER. Il cannot be the father of characters to opposite

da Ja

r. J.

as those who are the sons of God,' and those who 'are of their father the devil.' The inheritance therefore is promised to Abraham, and to those who are of faith, who alone are his children. None therefore are 'heirs according to the prom-iso,' save those who are possessed of 'like precious of the 'To are unthing of the utbelieve mod faith.' To say nothing of the unbelieving seed of Abram; Dear brethron, how is it with us who have professed the faith of Abraham. Have we exercised the same unwavering confidence in God that he did, when called to leave the land of his fathers! Have we 'forsaken houses, or bretbren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or child-ren, or lands? that we may become 'heirs of the rightcousness which is by faith? Methinks I hear a multitude of voices from the east, the west, the north, and the south ; declaring that they left all, in '43, and the 7th month, and went out fully expecting to meet the Lord at those times : that expecting to meet the Lord at those times: that when they passed especially the last point, they were greatly disappointed. And now whilst some are holding fast, expecting soon to see the glory of God, others have come to the conclusion that it is nothing but a delusion, or at least the ef-fects of Mesmerism. But, dear brathren, are we any better prepared to receive the cross of life without a trial of our faith than Abraham was: If it was necessary for thim to excifice Laws, as without a trait of our faith than Abraham was: If it was necessary for him to sacrifice Isaac, as a trial of his faith, is it not also necessary for us to make some sacrifice before we can share with him in the inheritancel Certainly it is. I would then ask if the seventh month cry. (I mean not those excesses into which some of us may have run) and the disappointment which followed, were not designed for such a test? But it is asked, will God give us evidence upon any sub-ject and then disappoint as in the manner we then were? That it was so in the case of Abraham, the following evidence clearly shows: 'Thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from me :' not withheld thy son, thine only son from me :' Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead: from whence also he received him in a figure.' Now if God gave such evidence in one case, is it unlike him to give it in another Surely not. And now I fear if we take the ground that our past positions relative to time were alto-gether wrong, we shall be found drawing back to perdition,' instead of believing to the saving of the soul.

Dear brethren, how many of us took our stand upon the "flat rock" in the midst of the wide ocean-cut our ropes-permitted our boats to float ocean—cut our ropes—permitted our boats to float away, and concluded to wait patiently the arrival of our Deliverer? And how many of us retained our craft, and have since been seeking to save our lives by pushing as far as convenient from the "rock," and endeavoring to induce as many as possible to follow us? With all humility, I wish to say, my position is still upon the "flat rock." The rope is cut, and my barque has long since floated off—I have none in which to escape —I am waiting the arrival of the Lord. A few weeks, and ha will come to receive those who weeks, and he will come to receive those who have exercised unwavering confidence in his coming. In the stirring language of another, used last antumn in giving the 'cry,' permit me to say: Some, however, tell us they can see no more light on time. Did you not tell us, brother, 'the wise on time. Did you not tell us, brother, 'the wise shall understand'i—Have you now become fool-ishl and has your lamp 'goue out'i 'Watchman, what of the night!' Will you now tell us you do not know! Alas! has it come to this! O may you get oil quickly.—Faith, FAITH : a little more faith, will enable you to see that all the jots and tittles of the law will be fulfilled. "FOR VERILY I SAY UNTO YOU, TILL HEAVEN AND EARTH FARS, ONE JOT OR ONE TITTLE SHALL IN NO WISE PASS FROM THE LAW TILL ALL BE FULFILLED." Matt. 5: 18.

promised land. Biny we not suffer our unbelief to magnify those difficulties that may oppose themselves to our further progress, into the in-vincible land of the giants of Anak'; and by our evil reports, spread dismay throughout the thou-sands of Israel. No, rather like Caleb, may we endeavor to still the rising murmurs of discontent and unbelief, by saying, "Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it." it."

C. CLARK, Printer.

NUMBER 12.

14

Yours, in the faith that the first month will bring Israel's Deliverer.

Troy, March 1, 1845. G. W. PEAVY.

From the Frice of Truth. MISS MATTHEWSON. Harford, Ct., April 3, 1845. DEAR BRO. MARSH :-

I noticed in a late 'Voice of Truth' the reported death of sister Matthewson of South Coventry, and write at this time to correct the report: I received a letter a day or two since from a dear brother who belongs in Brooklyn in this state, and who was in this city a few day since. On his way home he expected to visit her place of residence, and at my request, sent the lafter of which the following is a true copy; and which (should you feel disposed to publish it,) I have no doubt many of the dear brothren scattered abroad would be glad to see.

"Coveniry, March 28, 1345. Respected Brother :-- I thought as you was deirous, when I wes at your house, to hear from sister Matthewson, that I would write you a few lines to let you know how I found her. 1 called on her to-day, and found her alive, and in much the same state as when I saw her last Nov. (1844). the same state as when I saw her last Nov. (1844). I should think she had gained some in flesh since I saw her at that time. Her food relishes well; her limbs are drawn up shout the same; she and her mother say that they have rubbed her limbs for about three months past; they did not tell me what with, neither did I ask them; but I suppose with something for the purpose of seeing is they could straighten them; but they say that the only effect produced is to cause her pain; when they let them alone she is easy. She has much the enect produces is to cause her path ; when they let them alone she is easy. She has much the same story to tell that she had last summer, only her faith is pretty strong now, that she shall live till the Lord comes. Yours, in the blessed hope, W. W. WHEELER."

This [that she shall live till the Lord comes,] This [that she shall live till the Lord comes,] was not the case last summer or fall, she did not profess to have any particular faith in the scon coming of the Lord; but her only answer to ques-tions put to her was, "He told me to wake up Christians and warn sinners, for time is short." If pressed upon this point, she would Bay, "He told me if faithful, when my work is done! shall go home." I add this note because in the notice of her death, in the "Morning Watch," the editor eaid, "It is well known that she often declared that she should live until the Saviour came." this I think he must have been mistaken, or perhaps misinformed, as no one with whom I have cunversed, (and I have spoken with many.) re-ollects any such expression of hers, neither did I ever hear her allude to it, only in the words quo-ted above, "time is short."

SPOTS ON THE SUN.

There are at present six well defined spots; two of them are near together, and have the ap-pearance of being surrounded with a multitude of smaller ones. The area of the whole together cannot be less than 20,000 miles in Jiameter. Their course is nearly from east to west, they pass across the disc of the sun in about 12 days.

They have the appearance of being opaque mov-ing masses of matter considerably nearer to us than the body of the sun.—Newark Daily Ad.

DAY-STAR. THE

THE DAY-STAR-

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, APRIL 29, 1845.

REV. 29: 11.19.

"He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still; and he that is hay, let him be haly still. And, behald, I come quickly; and my raward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be."

The character of the "unjust" man being the opposite of that of the just, and that of the lattar being described (Heb. 10: 38;) as one that lives by faith, of course the former is one that does not "live by faith." The foundation of every principle of justice, recognized by God, consists in rendering unqualified obedience to His every command, and treasuring the blessings that only flow through the channel of living faith in His word.

Faith, producing a justice such as God will reward, It suited to the present, and not to a future world. All professed Christians agree that a time will come when the destinies of all will be fixed, so that faith can never alter or change them: But the general supposition has been that this would not be till after Christ personally appears in Judgment to the inhabitants of the world. The text, however, forb.ds this idea. The "Revelation" is directed to the "Seven Churches" occuing a period of time reaching down to, and particularly concerning, the personal manifestation of Jerus Christ.

Upon them it imposes obligations, and to them it presents promises. These obligations are binding--they must be obeyed. "He that is unjust, LET him be unjust still"-"LET him be by resisting the messages of truth brought to them, as imposed in the preceding parts of this Revelation.

"He that is righteous (or just) LET him be rightsous still." Do not hinder, but comfort the man that has fived and walked by faith, down to this last point in the Revelation. This instruction agrees with that given to the Philadelphia church, "Hold that fast which those hast;" as you can gain nothing more till the "quickly" is ended, hold on to what you have. It also agrees with Paul's instructions to be patient "after ye have done the will of God." In a very "little while" claiming to be the people of God. after this, the Coming One will come. So in our text, after we LET the "unjust" and "filthy" alone-not hindering the righteous, "Behold, I aome quickly; and my raward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be." All will admit that this is the consummation, for when the "reward" is given to every man, nothing can alter their state. So, the invitation that follows five verses after the text, in point of time, must come before the giving "reward" to "every man." The "quickly" is after the preceding events are fulfilled, and the next thing after the soparation from the "filthy" and "unjust."

That such a period is represented to come before the people of God are made immortal, may be further shown from Dan. 12: 10.

"Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried but the wicked shad do wishedly none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand."

Also in Heb. 10: 26, 27, is evidence that there have received the knowledge of the truth, (v. 37,) the case of his wife, we have the important income there remaineth no more sagrifice for sins, but a taught us, that it is criminal to consult has certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery sympathy after God has drawn the line between indignation that shall devour the adversaries." the "fifthy" and the "righteous" and issued Though this is after there is "no more sacrifice for his measurgers a decree to " LET " the line is sins," yet it is not in immortality, for there "re- where He has placed it. This sympathy of Lan maineth" "a certain fearful looking for of judg- wife on the wrong side of the line, procured in ment, not yel come.

nizes such a period. He prayed not only for the little company of disciples around him, but for all member Lat's wife." which should believe on Him through their word. (see ver. 20.) In this prayer, He says, "I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me." And he prays that they may to one as He and the Father are one. This prover capnot be answered while the saints are seattered among all the nations of the earth, by whom they are trodden down. Paul, in Eph. I . 10, says, "That in the dispensation of the fullness of times, be might gather ingether in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth: even in Ilim." The praye: of Christ, then, was offered for his people "in the dispensation of the fullness of times," at the commencement of the gathering together in one"; for he did once pray for the world-his enemies. (Luke 23: 34.)

The work of God's people in this period is shown in Luke 17: 7, 8. They are praying, "not for the wurld," but to be "avenged of their adversaries,' with which prayer God is so well pleased, that he promises to answer it, and "avonge them speedily."

ing that a period is recognized in the history of God's people, when their sympathies are to be filthy still." Withdraw your sympathies from "filthy." and when Christ alone will share those per" and who were to be excluded from it, Hare sympathies. From the Scriptures of trath, I will troduces a similar sentiment, suited to the here record a few instances to show that such a thith is in perfect keeping with the past dealings of God with his children.

> Hogea 4: 17, " Ephraim is joined to idols : LET him slope"--"Let him be fithy still." It is consequence, when they stand in the way of very likely this is a prophetical symbol of the will of God. nominal church at the same period represented in the text, innamuch as it is embraced in a time unwenried toil to convince the Egyptian Kitter when God has "a controversy with the inhabit- his duty to Israel, and Israel's God. He later ants of the land," and when he will treward with patience in the midst of worse disapped then their duings,"-The tribe of "Ephraim" also ments than we ever knew.

> from the world before his ark bors him up from with mercy, and then mercy took its final fig the earth, that he could cheerfully obey the command, "Come thou and all thy house into the ark," without a murmur, or charging his Maker to his face with "cold hearted infidulity." His sympathies were freely expended while he was to them work was done. The first born of Egypt died "a preacher of righteousness," but when God where is Israel's sympathies! One only the spake, they were turned into another channel, concerned them-that was to get out of the where he patiently waited at least 40 days, before of the enemy. They were so "cold hearted" it he was forever separated from them. When God's skey did not attend the funeral of these " word taught him that the time had come, he was barn," or they had rendered themselves to sha willing to LET them he "unjust still."

> The sympathies of Lot clung to the Sodomites very strongly, and he did not, so readily, give them up, because he was, partially at least, in a backsifdden state. After God had spoken, he still land. After God had opened their path of still persisted in preaching to the mub around his door, ance through the sea, and placed them upon the till the angula pulled him into the house. He other share, where they had a fair view of a finally became a thorough convert to this so called "unjust" host following after them, a time "cold hearted infidelity"-so much an that he stanos transpired, calculated to call into entered for sin. "For if we sin wilfully after that we of "Zoar" without even "looking back." But her a "fixed position" so lofty that our Same The prayer of Christ, John 17: 9, also recog- pointed the "little flock" to it as a beacon of man ing, apon which is inscribed in bold relief,

> In Matthew 10 : 35-37. Christ tells us, 41 come to set a man at variance with his father, p the daughter against her mother, and the dau ter-in-law against her mother-in-law, Am man's free shall be they of his own housen. He that loveth father or mother more than me worthy of me: and he that loveth sur not daughter more than me, is not worthy of ma.

> This language must have been given for time of "dividing the sheep from the goats"separating the "tares from the wheat," and "ge ering together in one all things in Okrist" being the tares are burned, or the saints made imm The general tenor of the Gospel before this in ding time, is, a "gospel of peace," and its split before he assumes his kingly robes, is th "PRINCE of peace," but introductory to the he guage quoted, He says, "I come not to sead part on earth, but a sword."

"For by fire and by His sword will the L plead with all flesh and the shall be many." Isa. 66: 16. and the slain of the Le

Lot's wife "presumptuosly" broke over this that God had drawn across her path, and long Numerous examples might be given, show- ly "looked back" for a union with her "de ters" and "suns-in-law" when He had set sta "at variance."

> period ; when our sympathies are not only in t withdrawn from the dearest friends and ro at that do not belong to Christ, but even from seloca-our very lives, are to be accounted of

Moses, was a man of sympathy. Mark

Day after day, he went upon his errand of -The sympathies of Nosh were so far withdrawn cy and returned egain, till judgment blonded and The sympathies of Israel were withdraws in the Egyptians, perhaps not all at once, but time came-the Passover Lamb was slatted door-posts were sprinkled with its bloud, and ious to the Egyptians that they were not alour 10 80 80.

They turned their backs upon the "unjust" m arch and his train, and faced toward thappone a time when there remains th no more sacrifice could inverse the plains all the way to the city their sympathy for the wicked, if that and still existed in their hearts. "The Lord troubled the host of the Egyptians, and took off their charint wheels that they drave them heavily." Confusion, dismay, and terror, came over these enemies; but what is the matter with this calm indifferent hand of Israelites 1 Why are they not sppcaling to each other's sympathics, and flying to the rescue of falling afflicted fbes? The reason Is obvious : Those foes are falling by the sword of God, and the allempt to aid them at such a ime.would be to fight against God. He has said, LET them be "unjust still," and God's children willingly aboy his command ; Nor would they become the instruments of the destruction of their foes till God said to Moses, "Stretch out thine hand over the sea," when the mighty host wre engulphed in a flood of rain, and their lifeless bodies scattered on the abore. Now another opportunity is afforded for the exercise of their sympathies. When not one was left to chant their funeral dirge, a "candid public" would "naturally" judge that none but horrid infidels rould refuse on such, an occasion, to assemble themselves and spend the accustomed season of mourning over the remains of the descendants of the illustrious benefactors of their ancestors Well, they did assemble and join their voices but not in mourning. Their exercises on the accusion consisted of a Song, running thus:

DAY-STAR. THE

"I will sing unto the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath-he thrown into the sen. The Lord is my strength and song, and He is become my salvation : He is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; my father's God, and I will exait him. The Lord is a man of war, the Lord is his name. Phara-oh's chariots and his host hath he cast into the hts chosen captains also are drowned in the Red Sea. The depths have covered them : they work into the bottom as a stone." &c.

So far from manifesting the least regret or sorrow, at the fall of the Egyptians, they further assert in this sung, that, . In the greatness of thine excellency thou hast overthrown them that rose up against Thee."

It is a question worthy of deep and prayerful thought, how it could have been criminal for the Israelites to suffer their sympathies to linger in Egypt; and not only perfectly innocent, but justifiable for us to suffer ours to cling to an "aposinte church, and a dying world," after we have received the clearest evidences ("aniversally acknowledged" among Adventists) that God has begun to fight against them.

In the case of Korah, Dethan, Abiram, and their adherents, (Num. 16:) we have another instance of similar obligations to those imposed in the text. These men were "famous in the congregation, men of renown." They were neither los or immoral in the estimation of "a candid pubhe," or the "popular church"; but chief men. They claimed to be "holy" with all their company, (vor. 3,) to which Moses only gave answer, "Even to-morrow the Lord will show who are His, and who are holy." After Moses had used every sympathetic effort to save them-falling "upon his face" expostulating and reasoning, the "unjust" company still persisted in their wickedness-offered the "strange fire" before the Lord, upon which Moses, by God'a direction, cried out, "Depart, I pray you from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye be consumed in all their sins." From the connected account, it is probable there were many appeals. to human sympathy, against this sudden change and others, whose sympathies were only with the Lord. They might have said, These are our chief men, and another effort must be made to "wake up a sleeping church and a dying world." What ! "Depart from them"-suffer them "no longer to share our sympathies or dur prayers"! "Does infidelity teach any thing as horrible as this!" Yet, strange to tell, as soon as the conclusion was formed to obey the Lord and "LET them be filthy still" God set his seal to the truth, by cleaving that we should be able to gaze upon them for "milasunder the ground beneath them, in which were entombed in a moment the disobedient host.

I might proceed to speak of Elijah's command to destroy the pricats of Baal-of Jonah's preaching to the Ninevites without presenting an offer of mercy -Abraham offering his son, &c., but it seems to me a useless task. In all the teachings of Christ, light is thrown upon the period marked in the text, as lying on this side of immortality. "In the time of the harvest" says He, (Matt. 13: 36,) "I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles TO burn them : but gather the wheat into my barn."

These "respers are the angels" or messengers of God, (ver. 39,) and these "tares are the children of the wicked one," (ver. 38,) and this work of making them up into bundles and binding them is done "FIRST"-before the wheat, or "children of the Kingdom" (ver. 38.) are gathered into the garner. To Simon Peter it was said, (Matt. 16: 19,) "Whatsoever thou shalt hind on earth shall be bound in heaven," and "Simon" is the name of every one that "hears and obeys." Nothing can be more plainly taught than that the wicked are sealed for destruction before the burning day-as they are not burned promiscuously but in bundles, and bundles bound "first." Their sympathies are all brought into one chan- from the world and friends. There are few innel on the subject treated of in this chapter-"the stances in which the dying saint does not struggie harvest" and "the ead of the world"; and the to give up the world; nor are his prospective joys proclamation of God's messengers on this subject complete till this is done. He growns and prayshas produced this gathering together and binding one affection of his soul after another that has -it has brought about this oneness of thought, feeling, and expression on the subject of Christ's heaven beaming countenance he exultingly cries. "Coming, and end of the world."

The sympathetic soul of Jesus, that wept at the grave of Lezarus, and cried to the "unjust" inhabitants of Jerusalem, "How often would I have gathered thy children," at length exclaims, "Your house is left unto you desolate." He LET thèm be unholy still.

In the days of Paul and Barnabas, when "almost the whole City came. together to hear the word of God," the Jews were "filled with envy and spoke against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming." any other.

All admit that the Love, Knowledge, Purity, and perfect in the immortal state, than it possibly Roto 8: 2, 3; Isa. 66: 8; Ezek. 24, 37; 37: 9, can be here : With this view, how often have we 10; &c. of sentiment and action on the part of Moses wondered how it could be possible for us to enjoy heaven, with the positive knowledge that our friends were lost | As often as this barrier has been introduced to intercept the pure streams of sternal joy,-so often has the unanimous voice of the church told us that our sympathles would be so far withdrawn from those friends, that we should be able to say, "Amen! to their damastion" and chant again the songs of heaven without a pang of sorrow : Nay further, we were told lions and millions of ages" as they floated upon the dark billows of eternal wo, without a thought of the past, to produce present pain.

Are our feelings of sympathy to be less acute in the immortal, than in the mortal state? Does going to beaven engender feelings of barbarism and infidelity? O when shall we learn, that when the Lord comes He will find His people perfectly prepared for his Kingdom in this mortal state !-possessed of the mind of Christ, by which Spirit dwelling in them, their mortal bodies will be quickened. Rom. 8: 11.

Human sympathy never, in all the word of God. formed an argument to prompt us in the way of duty. The union of Heaven, is a union to Christ. The path that leads to it, is one of obedience to his commands-to "love one another," and "after having done the will of God" to "wait patiently for him" and LET the "unjust" and "filthy" so remain.

This ceasing of labor for an "apostate church, and dying world" a "little while" before our mortal carper is done, is not only a duty imposed upon those that "are alive and remain," but & process or exercise through which every child of God is called. A Christian is not fit to die, or "sleep in Jesus" until his sympathies are all withdrawn been fixed on worldly objects is yielded, till with "I have given up all for Christ." His houses, lands, wife and children, are no more to him than the possesions and relatives of others. The sanctifying sympathies of heaven have opened up in his soul, and swallowed up every sordid motive-overy earthly joy. Not till this is done is he prepared for "the glory that is to be revealed"; and the accomplishment of this preparation is always before he enters upon it.

The duty of those "that are alive and remain" during this period, is plainly marked. Isa. 40: 1, 2; "Oumfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your The offers of mercy were brought to them, but God. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and when those offers were blasphemously rejected, cry anto her, that her warfare is accomplished, these apostles boldly proclaimed, "Seeing ye put that her iniquity is pardoned." Rev. 14 : 16; it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of "Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the gluseverlasting life, Lo, we turn to the Gentiles." ters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are This casting aside of sympathy, caused the Jews fully ripe." Rev. 3: 11, "Behold, 1 come quickto stir up a "persecution against Paul and Barna- ly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man bas," which they accomplished with the help of take thy crown." Heb. 12: 25, "See that ye recertain so called, "honourable women, and the chief fuse not him that speaketh" after we have "come men of the city,"-a class exactly calculated for unto Mount Sion" [ver. 22,] "and to Jesus the such a work in all ages of the world, and a class Mediator of the new covenant," [ver. 24,] and more likely to be enraged at such a doctrine than before "receiving a Kingdom that cannot be moved," [ver. 28.] Heb. 10: 23, 24, 25; and 3: 6; We are also to be found praying to be avonged and Holiness of God's people, will be more full of our adversaries, Luke 18: 7; Jer 14: 11-15;

The Important question now comes, Has the

that speaketh from heaven."

48

When the period arrives, God's children are to know and proclaim is. [Exck 7.] or all the above class of duties marked out for that time would become a blank.

We have passed the four universal monarchies, and come to the last fragments of the "divided" one. We have seen the virgins going forth, and heard the cry, "Bahold he cometh !" We have seen all the "inhabitants of the land tremble" at the evidences that the "Great day of the Lord was near." We have passed the predicted disappointments-the time of tarrying-slumbering and alceping, and in the midst of all, have seen the evidences of the nearness of "that day" increasing in clearness, brilliancy, splendor and glory, while at the same time, "an apostate church and dying world" have been "amitten with blindness" and sank down into feelings of "assured peace" directly under the blazing light of these glorious truths.

What has been done to bring back the lost during the last six months ? The only results we have seen from these efforts, has been "blasting and mildew," and an afflicting unbelief on the part of those engaged in them. Has hot God given us another proof that this awful period has arrived, by stopping the mouths of those that have contended against it? Many proforsed believers in the speedy Advent, during the midnight cry, and antitype of the Jubilee trumpet, once used to urge the most heart searching appeals to the unprepared, in all their published, and extempore Tectures : but where now are these appeals? Search the published documents since the 7th month, where you will not fail to find bitter denunciations against "new views," "fanciful theories," "heretical notions," &c.; but where are the appeals to the sinner ! alas where ! Brothren, it may abswer for the "potsherd to strive with the potshords of the earth," but "wo unto him that striveth with his Maker." [Isa. 15 9.]

If we have not the proof that the language of the text is now binding upon God's people, who is able to define a class of evidences that ever can all that God ever promised it should! An exitement can not now be produced upon any religinus subject whatever. The power of the holy people is scattered-they no longer exert a controlling influence upon the world-the church, or ne suother.

So sure then, as the trump of warning has done in work, the world is in the "snare" in which they are to be taken, and where it is a solemn duty, to "LET them be fil by still."

We hav had the warming of the seventh angel's voice, and now, in a few brief hours, or days at most, --- holding fast "the confidence, and re unding of the hope firm unto the end," we shall have the marriage feast, and song of triumph.

1 How careful we ought to be in discussions time brought to view in the text arrived! If God smilling our fellow servents, O how soon shall has note spoke "from heaven" above, and in the we have our portion among hypocrites and unbeearth beneath in answer to this question, how dare lievers ! If any impustice has been done to any a worm of earth attempt it? And if He has thus one by any remarks in this, or any former numspoken and mortals "refuse" to hear, "much more ber of this paper, I sincerely pray for forgiveness, shall not we escape if we turn away from Him and will cheerfully retract when that injustice is shown.

> 0Cr Another number will complete this volume. Only $2.50 has been received from abroad during the last week :

> If the friends forward no more means, I shall take it for granted that my work is done; but shall continue to labor wherever God opens the way.

THE PASSOVER.

The anniversary of the Pascover day, to which so many eyes have been directed with high hopes of deliverance from our earthly bondage, has now passed, and we are left still "groaming for adop-tion, to wit, the redemption of our bodies." Now that the day has passed and we have been thus called to suffer another sore disappointment, it becomes us prayerfully to re-examine the evidences and see wherein we have erred, and how much criminality there is in that error that we may "confess" to God and man, wherein God and man may have been wronged in our course. In Luke 23: 15, 16, we had learned that it was to be "fulfilled in the Kingdom of God" How to be "infilited in the Kingdom of God" How much of it? All that had not been fulfilled. How much of it was fulfilled in connexion with the first Advent? The sacrificing of the Paseover lamb and enting it the same night; which was all that was embraced in the 14th day of the first month, Ex. 12: 6-10. What was there brought to yiew in the Paseover that was not then fulfilled? The passing over God's needs by the distortion The passing over God's people by the destroying angel, when judgments were visited upon their enemies, Ex. 12: 13, 14.

Time was occupied in the deliverance of Israel; and that deliverance, though agjtated a long time before, yet it had a marked beginning at the passover.

By examining Ex. 12: Dent. 16: 2-12; Joshua 5: 11, 12; Esek. 45: 21, in connexion, it will be seen that many days were occupied before they sung the cong of triumph over their fallen ene-mies on the other side of the Red Sea. Christ has received his Throns and Eugdom, preparatory to the overthrow of his enemies, [Psa. 2: 8, 9; Dan. 7: 13, 14.] And has any thing transpired under this part of his administration (in the King-dom) that looks like a fulfillment of what remain-ed of the passover?

The people of God have as literally prepared to leave this land of oppression as ever the Isael-ites did. They have been as literally followed by the nominal churches to bring them back. God the nominal churches to bring them back. has looked down in the "morning watch" and troubled these churches, and according to their is able to define a class of evidences that ever can prove the existence of such a time? Dars we deny that we have had the predicted trump of warning, and that it has accomplished all that God ever promised it should? An exproving that that watch has passed, and the morning comel [Ezek. 7: 7, 8; Iss. 21, 12, 16;] What mean these thousand fires-laying weste our cities, forests, and fruitfal fields; and that too just as the passover dawned!

Has not the angel, bound by God's decree, not to hurt "the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have scaled the servants of our God" &co., onsidered himself fully authorized to go about his work!

The sea, the trees, the earth, has been hurt, without a parallel in the world's history.

Should we have time to issue another number, this subject will be treated more fully. If day-light can not now be seen, we eight speedily to examine whether the darkness be not occasioned by being smitten with blindness like the men of Sodom.

"This same Jesus, which is taken up from you where our views conflict, to see that nought of into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye bitterness is indulged. If any of us are found have seen him go into heaven."-Acts i. 11.

SPIRITUALISING.

Under this head the last "Jubilee Standard" some very appropriate remarks, from which is following is an extract.

"Among the many errors that are afloat a sweeping the unteachable and unstable to per tion, is one which, like "a flery flying serpent, is coiling itself around some who have been we ing with us, and stinging them to dooth. We not the monstrous sontiment that the Coming of Jer. our glorious King, is spiritual or mystical. This the legitimate fruit of that false and delug doctrine, that "the Great City, New Jernsal is but a figure of the clurch triumphant. Here where the "dampable heresy" originates : where the "damnable heres," originates: consistency requires, that after taking that ab-and anti-scriptural view, we stop not, till land in blind mysticism---yea further---in ble Atheism. For the same kind of reasoning wh would prove the New Jerosalem a figure, we likewise prove the New Earth a figure. Not o so: bat beaven, angels, Christ, and God must mere figures also. And what is this but All ism?"

We have but little of this spiritualising as m among as here. Two cases however, have re-under my observation, one of which I will note In this case, the doctrine advocated, as near as can recollect, is that Christ has come Spiritual established his Spiritual Kingdom on the cart given his saints the song of triumph as the an type of "the song of Moses" after the energy of God's people were overthrown in the Red 5 and now we must fulfil the type of Ismel's -journ in the wilderness forty years before Ga

Kingdom will become literal. What object can Satan have in view in suggest ing such a sentiment? Surely he that can que scripture suited to his own purposes, must h scripture wired to his own purposes, must have known that the forty years sojourn in the wilds ness was the result of "unbelief." (Heb. 3: He 19.) God in his promise to Abraham made nop-vision for it: (Acts 7: 6, 7; Gen. 15: 13, 14. Neither has he made provision for a tried and rified people to fulfill a type originating in un-lief, if any such thing could be called a type; by it can not. God is the author of all types will which is convected ovy appriate of fulfiller which is connected any promise of fulfillment Not "one jot or one title shall in no wise par iron the LAW, till all be fulfilled." If we we to fulfill the type of sojourning in the wildern to be honeat we must carry it out, and 'die in the wilderness' as all Israel did except two, (C and Joshun.). The deliverance of God's peop from, and not into the wilderness, is typified the "Captain of the Host of the Lord" (Josh the "Captain of the Host of the Lord" (Joshn 5: 14.) coming to go bafore than after they have crossed Jordan. Or this type there remains to fulfilled the keeping of a Jubilee, (which was instituted till they came into that land, and a minimum of which was first land, and a 5: 1; 1 privileges of which were forfeited by discharge, typified in their receiving the law of wera forfeited by disolat Ber. 2: Jubiles when they came into the land; Heb. 6 11; Em 1-11; Lev. 25: 'This, and the "driving out" In ca enemies from the land (Ezsk. 39:) is what remained of this type.

The coming out of Egppt was also a type stand a the final deliverance of God's people, as is sho of God in the Passover feast, which is fulfilled, excepts any purch as related to the statistical statistics. ao much as related to the overthrow of the that E enemies, which was in the "morning watch that E [Ex. 14: 24,] and the song of triumph after the Erri. watch had passed. type o

All the object the devil can have in view substan promutgating the theory above alluded to just - Tat

forty years of wilderness faith, or unbelief, in inherit he may kill you in the wilderness as he did 600 for thy 000 of the Leraelites that had this faith, while of of his two escaped by the aid of true faith. of his

Letters and Receipts,

For the week ending the 28th inst.

J. Norton, .50; Thomas Kimpton, $2.00; J.

Brothreu, these things are given for our ens ples ; [Heb. 4: 1.]

Romember the poor and needy.

Himes.

In the we have ha "gi It is

sal, N

that the were In

Yet to a Haltrod atreat, All paper, Paper,

R. J Equ

Pine and

C

Up

ative t

soript

to the end of the se

abanda

ground

the L and th

we we

appoin

curoful

our las

to be

15, 16.

IL WES

fore tl

Ringde

of the over o

discipi

texts i

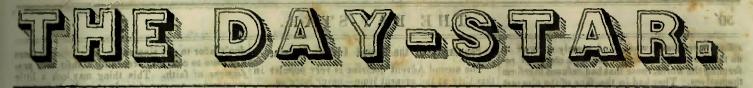

10-13;

ment "

Gen.

them

The

A. JACOBS.

WERNESS WE ALLOS o a main suffe word of prophecy; whereonto ye do well, that ye take herd, as dato a light in a dark place, diftil the day dawn, and the bat-wail alle to your brants."-2 Pel 1, 19.

VOLUME 5.

st

e

İ

.

-8

3-18

1-

e

70

B.

0

..)

0-8.

ut

th

it.

-

te

)e

eb

1e

•y

12

d

m)(B)

9t

ie

T

3

1

1.1

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, MAY 6, 1845.

NUMBER 13.

C. CLARK

THE DAY-STAR

ation of the Wavy saw Michaemer Cuy, and is pub-uesday, by H. Jaconse, at his residence on Seventh is shown doors east of the Tabernacle, institute of publication-on the business of the for books, and publications, should be addressed Jaconse, Cancemants, Q.

TRAMS OF THE PAREN.

Fifty cashs per vol. of 13 numbers in advance, to those that are shis to pay; and gratis to those that are geally unable to pay.

THE DAY-STAR.

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, MAY 6, 1845.

THE PASSOVER,

Upon a further examination of the subject relstive to our recent disappointment, I can find no scripture ground, for giving up our flith relative to the Midnight Cry in the seventh month-the end of the Morning Watch and introduction of the year of Jubilee this present spring; or for shandoning in any way whatever the "original gound of the Advent faith."-That the time of the Lord's coming is taught in the scriptures, and that "the wise shall understand;" Although we were not assared that they should not be disappointed. Let the reader now take his Bible and metally examine the remarks on this subject in our last number.

The Passover (what had not been fulfilled) was to be fulfilled in the Kingdom of God, Luke 22: 5, 16, Christ was not to gat THEREON UNTIL i was thus fulfilled. It must then be fulfilled before the eating "thereof." The cuting after the Lingdom has come, and after the remaining part of the Passover is fulfilled, is a feast of triumph met our enemies after we are separated from them. That Christ will eat and drink with his ducipies in his Kingdom, examine the following texts in their connexion.

Gen. 2: 16; 19: 1-3; Psa. 78: 25; Cant. 4: 16; 3 1; Isa. 55: 1, 2; 65: 13, 17, 21, 22; Luke 24: 40-43; 22: 29, 30; Isa. 1: 18, 19; Joel 2: 23-27; Rev. 2: 7: 17; Rev. 22: 2; Luke 14: 15; Jsa. 40: II: Ezek. 34 : 23.

In order that we may understand this fulfillment "in the Kingdom of God," we must undersum at what, point in the fulfilment the Kingdom God commences; for there can be no fulfillment any thing prefigured in this mortal state after int Kingdom is fully established in the New Eath. See Isa. 65: 17; Nothing, in either the the or shadow, is to come into mind after the abetance is fully obtained.

To Christ is promised "the heathen for thine" charitance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession," and that upon the condition of his asking for it, Pes. 2: 8, 9. This dominion d his in the earth is future, and is to be univera), Nam. 14: 21; Zech. 14: 9; &zc.

In the establishing of this Kingdom there, is a meassion of events, making it progressive. As we have seen from Psa. 2: the heathen must first be "given," before they can be ruled or broken. It is "IN, (not after) the days of these Kings" that the God of heaven sets up a Kingdom. If it kings" would be numbered and finished; whereas it is the Kingdom that is to "break them," Dan, 2: 44: Again, from Dan. 7: 13, we learn that the Kingdom is first given to Christ, before the nations submit to Him, or are averthrown by him. From Luke 17: 20; the fact is also gathered that this Kingdom comes "not with observation," or as the margin reads, "with outward show."

This proves that the Kingdom is given to Christ before he appears in his glory to the inhabitants of the earth, for then would be "outward show." Some claim that this Kingdom has always been his: But this is not true. Christ himself acknowledged the Devil as the "prince of this world," and the claims' of the Gentiles, uptil the "times of the Gentiles are fulfilled." There is a point of time where the Kingdoms of this world become our Lords ; and upon that time we need not be in darkness. Rev. 11: 15;-So these kingdoms were not his before "the seventh angel sounded," and yet they are his before the wicked are destroyed ber. and rewards given to his servants, &c.,-the nations being angry, and God's people praising him that he has taken to himself his great power and reigned. The Nobleman, while in "a far country," receives his Kingdom before he returns. See Luke 19: 12, 15; There can be no reckoning, after his people are changed to immortality in a moment, for there can be no changing them back again. Neither is such reckoning after his return, brought to view in the above texts as has been claimed.

From Matt. 25: 34, we also have the fact that the, Kingdom is given to Christ, before the inheritance is given to the saints.

Why are we told in the prophecy of Daniel, of this Kingdom subduing the other kingdoms, if reference is not made to its establishment "in the days of these kings"? In the parable of the wheat and tares, Matt. 13: 40-42, the progressive work of this Kingdom is brought to view. First, the messengers are sent forth-the tares gathered -bound in bundles-then burned, after which the righteous shine forth as the sun in the Kingdom ofthei r Father.

The Kingdom is to be sought for, as well as a preparation for it, (ver. 44). If it were not set up before Christ appears to all, it could not be said to come as a "snare,","thief" &c. The progress of its establishment after it is set up, is also referred to in Heb. 12: 28; 2 Pet. 1: 11.

Upon the union of Christ to his Throne, after he has come to the Ancient of days and received bis Kingdom, the multilude of saints cry "Alleluia: for the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth. Let us be glad and rejoice and give honor to him : for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife bath made herself ready." Rev. 21: 9, 10, 22, 23; 19: 6, 7.

In Rev. 4: we have a description of this throne, thus prepared, and of Him that "sat on it," and also the unoccupied sea of Glass before the Throne. After the sealing time is done, (Rev. 7: 9;) this Sea of Glass is occupied with the great multitode.

If "the saints of the Most High shall take the were not till God's enemies were destroyed, that Kingdom," (Dan. 7: 18,) there must be something the universal crying of the nominal church, the Kingdom is set up; then "the days of these for them to do in its establishment. What has "Lord, Lord, open unto us."-General protracted.

been the effect of the messages by them proclaims ed relativo to that Kingdom? They were to cry "Behold he cometh"! And the argument that the work of binding the taxes "in bundles to be burned," is human agency, is not without strong foundation. These scriptures will clearly prove to the upprejudiced mind, that the point where the giving takes place, and the "ruling with a rod of iron" becomes manifest, is the point where the Kingdom is set up, or begins. It is in this stage of the Kingdom, that it now appears to me the Passover is to be, if it has not been, "fulfilled in. the Kingdom of God." It must all be fulfilled, and the eating and drinking part of it, so far as the Lamb was concerned, was then fulfilled ? and from Luke 14: 14, 15, the evidence seems to be clear, that the next eating and drinking with Christ, is at "the resurrection of the just." What of the Passover remains to be fulfilled? This question was partly considered in our last num-

In the slaying of the Lamb and sprinkling its blood upon the door posts of the Israelite's dwellings, [Ex. 12: 6, 11;] as fulfilled by Christ, [Heb. 7: 27,] a wall of defence, was thrown around the people of, God while He accomplished for them a specified work-the overthrow of their ensmies. Mark, it was not only the passing over of the destroying angel when the first born were slaip; but executing Judgment against all the Princes of Egypt, that was brought to view in this ordinance. The 14th day of the first month was to be kept a "feast by an ordinance for ever," [ver. 14,] because on that day the work of preparation for the everthrow was complete, and on that night the Judgments began. As I have shown from Num. 39: 1-8, that some days were occupied before they got out of Egypt, yet the 14th day, where the work began, is spoken of as the day of deliverance. See Ex. 12: 41, 42; During the execution of vengeates they were brought, out, and not on tha. 14th day. See verse 17.

The question now arises, Have we had any sin-gular and unaccountable Judgments in the land since the Seventh month, when the great voices were heard, saying, the kingdoms of this world are become our Lord's?—Judgments preparing the way for the deliverance of God's people, as did the plagues of Egypt for the deliverance of Israel! In Rev. 7: 3, the four angels were commanded not to but the aerburse not reces till the scaling to hurt the earth-sea, nor trees till the sealing time was done.

time was done. Inimediately following the great voices in the 7th month, [Rev. 11: 15:] and when a "silence" ensued, our sea coast from New England on the North, to the Gulf of Mexico on the South, was smitten with an afflicting and unheard of plague--the waters upon almost the entire coast were 'dis-colored," and unnumbered millions of fish of all colored," and unnumbered millions of fish of all kinds were thrown dead upon the shore. From an individual at that time in Massachusetts, Thave learned that this destruction of fish begun as early as the 23d or 24th of Oct. last, [See W. M. Cry, Vol. 4, No. 9, and the scripture predictions of that judgment, as there quoted.] The wise men_magicians and astrologers) were called upon by the accular press, to solve this mys-tery; and if any class of community were more indifferent to it than another, it was the mass of professed Christians.

professed Christians.

efforts were made, when God clearly showed to us that he would no longer use, as a means of re-forming the world, those that had refused to reform themselves. They had in the face of the clearest light, rejected the great truths of the Kingdom, and He rejected them.

Now as the great year of "Jubilee," or "re-lease" has dawned, introduced by the Passover, the third in the series of Judgments has been developed; & that by bringing into requisition the el-ement by which the earth is to meet its final doom. The antediluvian world was destroyed by water, and by water the Egyptians met their fate in the Red Sea; "But the Heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of Judgment and perdition of ungodly men."

I have before me one of our City papers, (Watchman of the Valley) giving as an item of news on the Passover week only, an account of up-wards of rirty different fires, five of them embracing the destruction of the most valuable part of three cities, and two villages. Another paper of the same week adds largely to the list of calamity by fires. In 40 or 50 different places the forests were on fire and tens of thousands of acces of wood land (" trees ") have been destroyed. By these calamities, in about one week, a larger numperson have been left destitute than has ber of ever before been known in this land at one time. What class of community are the first to recog-nise the hand of God in this unparalleled state of things!

The Governor of Pennsylvania reminds the citizens of the trathfulness of the word of God, and speaks of the uncertainty of earthly things. By order, or at the request of the Council of Pius-By order, or at the request of the Council of Prits-burg, the inhabitants "Sanctify a fast and call a solean assembly." The editor of the paper from which I quote, says, "Let us learn the lessons thus taught, lest severer judgments fall upon us, and we be made to learn by bitter experience the window of laying up treasure in here a here the than on earth." Professed Christians however can triffe with such fulfillments. Had all the first born in the land died on the Passover week, it would have caused a universal mourning ; but we doubt whether it would have been published throughout the land, as a calamity more universally felt and deplored, than the de-struction by fires that has recently occurred. The reader can consult the following texts, and decide for himself whether this judgment has been predicted. They are not perhaps quoted in the order in which they should be arranged, but let their connexion with the scenes of the "great day" be remembered.

Ex. 9: 23; Num. 11: 2; Deut. 4: 36; 1 Kings 19: 11-13; 2 Kings 1: 12; 6: 17, 13; Pag. 46: 9; 19; 11-13; 2 Rings 1: 12; 6: 17, 15; Fas. 46: 9; 66: 12; 74: 8-10; 83: 13-18; 97: 3; 140: 9-11, 148: 7, 6; 1sa. 9: 5, 6; 10: 16-20; 31: 9; 43: 2, 3; 64: 1-4; 66: 15, 16; 21: 12 14; Joel 2: 30; 1 Cor. 3: 13; Rev. 16: 9; Deut. 32: 32; Jer. 17: 27, 50: 32; Luke 12: 49; Hosea 8: 14; Isa. 42: 24; 24: 13-15; 2 Esd. 15: 61, 62; 16: 4, 8, 15.

Nor does the Eastern world lack in the history of its judgments for the last 6 months. 500,000. 500.000. have been swept away by a flood-50,000 unof-fending Persians have fallen by the sword in a brief space; and the revolution now going on in the Romish Church in Europe, are all but items of fulfilment of interesting prophecies relating to the present momentous time.

The aniversary of the Jews' Passover has passed by; but the Lord's Passover has not. It is upon us. O awake ye virgins! Aronse! and trim from thy Lamp the soliment which suffers it to emit but a feeble light. There need not be--there is not-there can not be a cloud, of darkness hanging over, and obscuring the pathway of "the children of light." The Passover has begun to The Passover has begun to be "fulfilled in the Kingdom of God." These thoughts have been thrown out as the result of hasty, though prayerful meditation, and may in some respects prove erroneous. I shall, therefore most cheerfully recall any thing of that character when the error is pointed out.

TIME AGAIN.

Our next number will contain an article on the time of deliverance.

Popularity of the Second Advent Doctrine.

The second Advent doctrine is very popular in this City at the present time-never more so. There are probably 30 or 40,000 persons in Cincinnati that profess to be strong in the faith of the second Advent of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Possibly I have exagerated the numbers, but at the same time it is possible they may far exceed my statement. Who ever could have been made to believe this! Forty thousand Advent believers in CINCINNATE!!!

I doubt not, this is far beyond Bro. Himes', and Bro. Storrs' most sanguine expectations, when they pitched the Great Tent up at the head of Western Row. Can any City-Town-Countyor even State east of the Alleghany's, turn out Forty Thousand PROFESSED second Advent believers? They may, but I have not heard any one ray so. These statements may be questioned-and probably will be by many; and as 1 may be called on for the proof, I will here, present the main reasons for making the statement that I have. A few days since I heard a very rigid Roman Catholie not only admitting, but studiy contending, that he believed "without a douby" that Christ would come. He also contended that as "of that day and hour knoweth no man," He might come any day, and that it was the duty of every body to "watch" for it-that he was watching for at every, day, dcc. He lurther stated that his faith in this matter, was the universal faith of his Church. He is a man of integrity in the place, and his word can be relied upon. So we have got, all the Roman Catholics.

A Methodist class-leader told me that he as us. firmly believed the Lord would come, as he be-lieved any other doctrine of the Bible. He said, "of that day and hour knoweth no man," and therefore he was watching for it every day-and that it was Methodist doctrine; and every good Methodist in the City believed it, and practiced upon it. I have talked with other Methodist people, both preschers and leaders, who in substance affirmed the same thing. So we have all the Methodist in the City. The Presbyterians, Baptists, Lutherans, Disciples, Episcopalians, Unitarians, Universalists, and other denominations, 'too numerous to mention,' all, or by far the largest part of them, upon being closely questioned, tell us that they believe Christ will come, and add, "Of that day and hour knoweth no man," and consequently they do not know that it will not come this day, and this hour. They further, when closely, pushed upon the subject, admit the duty of watching for it all the time

Well, says one, suppose you have got all the ohurches in the City! they all will not number forty thousand. Wait awhile! There is one more church, not yet represented. The testimony of their delegate must be heard before I am ac cused of misrepresentation. I listened the other day to a poor ihild of the devil, contending with one of these so called "Mitlerites," that HE believed the Lord would come, just as firmly as any man on earth could believe it ; But, said he. "Of that day and hour knoweth no man," there-fore it may come any day. He said he believed it was every body's duty to "watch" for it and be ready.

It was remarked that this was not the faith generally of those, who like himself, professed no religion; upon which he stouly affirmed that every decent man believed it. Another astounding announcement I have to make, 19, that there is not a man in Cincinnati that PROFESSES to be an indecent man-at least so far as I have been able pose. to learn. All Cincinnati, on their own testimony, are in the second Advent ranks, yielding to a set of "universally acknowledged principles." If there are any that feel it their duty to labor for the conversion of the world, let them save them-selves the trouble of coming to Cincinnati; for its inhabitants are all in the Advent church upon the profession of their faith-the way, I believe, that all church members are taken in.

True, some of these professed Advent believers, sometimes become boisterous against a little company that are so fanatical as to keep fixing on times, and belabour them severely because they don't labor to get sinners converted, though there are none to convert, according to their own pro-fersions of faith. This thing may look a little mysterious to our friends abroad, but let them take into the account, that one item in some of our faith is, that, Great is the mystery of these our faith 18, that, Great is the mystery or these PROFESSIONS of godliness; while a few contend that "the mystery of God is finished," and that all these things are understood. This latter class, though exceedingly unpopular with the great mass of professed second Advent believers, yet I am ao far inclined to believe them right in the main, that I choose to be identified with THEM.

A prominent Mesmeriker in the place, told me the other day, that I was mistaken in stating that the Advent band were unanimous in the faith that we have come to the year of Jubilee-that there were nearly, if not quite 100 Advent believers in this City, that did not enter into such fanatical notions

I doubt not that that individual will rejoice to learn that in the room of 100, he has 40,000 t sympathise with him, --though he once stood o the old ground, that the time of the Advent we taught in the Bible, and that "the wise shall un-derstand."

O ye confiding ones ! Open your eyes and see where you stand ! And may God help you! Amen.

A HASTY CHARGE.

"I feel more inclined to write, from the fact, that the "Morning Watch" neglected, from cause unknown, to publish a communication from Bro J. B. Cook, dated at this 'place (Kingebury, Ind.) in which he gave a statement of his mission among

The above extract, under the above head, is copied from a communication of Bro. N. M. CATLIN'S, in the "Star" of April 18th, into the "Morning Watch" of April 24th, upon which the editor remarks,

"Now if the editor, or his correspondent, will look at our paper of April 3d, he will find the identical communication of Bro. J. B. Coox te which he refers, and which he charges us with neglecting to publish, from "cause anknown." There is an old proverb which says, 'The more haste, the worse speed.' "

All I have to say upon the above, is, that the communication of Bro. Catlin was published in my absence; though had I superintended its publication I should not have felt at liberty to strike out the paragraph above alluded to, but she probably remarked that Bro. C .- might have been too hasty in his conclusion, though I should not at that time have been in possession of the en dence to which the editor refers. This, I think should induce Bro. Whiting to exculpate me from blame in the matter; and as for Bro. Catlin, I ca quite sure he designed no wrong.

While on this subject I will venture a work further to Bro. Whiting.

You and I are old acquaintances-always loved one another, and do yet; yet we never loved to= one another do wrong: So I used once in a whi to talk plain to you, and you would talk plain he again, and we generally left off where we begu yet we would talk. The present time, however too important to be used up in talk to no pe

"The more haste, the worse speed."

Bro. Whiting, did you think of this "old m verb" when you published the "position of the Day Star," and afterward found out that it w not the "Day Star" but some body else's position -and yet you let it go to press, concluding that deserved the remarks, because I loved the com sion to which the published article led, viz., the Christ would come this spring.

Did the "old proverb" lay in sight of the pre-

. 10

1.4

sheet of Bro. Storrs' "letter to Bro. Jacobs" at the time of its intertion in the "Watch"! and did you not find out the true value of the "old proverb" till after you concluded it wou'd not answer to permit Bro. J .- to ."speak for himself" through that medium to Bro. Storrst

I think Bro. Storrs' letter contained a "hasty charge." I do not however, any longer claim to be heard in reply to that "charge" through the "Watch ;" But as I supposed Bro. CATLIN'S "charge" might be some what "hast"," and having given publicity to it, I have corrected it, so far as was in my power, from a sense of fairness, and duty.

THIS VOLUME.

This number completes this volume. The receipts from all sources, for the volume, amount to. $169.96, including several small sums from abroad, not named by the donors, to be applied to the paper particularly, but to aid in my labors in the Advent cause.

The expenses for the volume have been $151.12. This includes expenses to and from the Conference at Cleveland after deducting what was received from the friends at Akron.

The balance in my favor is $18.78. The expenses of the last two numbers has overbalanced the receipts nearly $10. I am not surprised at this, as it helps to prove that our correct that the ble. firmly believed what they professed—viz. that the ble. I. There is to be a going forth of the virgins to meet the Bridegroom before the Midnight Cry is this, as it helps to prove that our correspondents "Star" shall be regularly published till the Lord comes, or discontinued. If the one half of what is due, was sent in, it would be sufficient to continue it. I feel exceedingly anxious that the scattered flock in this western section, should have a medium of free and friendly interchange of views upon all parts of the sacred writings, without any one to exercise the prerogative of a veto. Such a medium the "Star" has been, and still professes to be. If you wish its continuance, please make your remittances immediately.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Another week is passed and only two letters have been received—one from abroad, and one from the City, both of which are published in this number.

If we have a few days more to wait for our If we have a few days more to wait for our Lord, while his judgments are being poured out upon the angry nations, let our friends use their pen as well as their tongues, to comfort the "little flock." While we sincerely desire that nothing of a controversial character should enter our columns, we wish brothren to feel themeelves perfectly free to examine in the light of God's word, any of the doctines advanced in this sheet: As it never ought to be considered too late to root out error, and in its place, propogate the truth.

DUES.

I find upon a hasty estimate, that there is due from Subscribers that have ordered the paper, and have never signified that they were unable to pay for it, the sum of $329.50. Upon these individuals seems to rest the responsibility of withhold-ing, or giving "meatin due season" to the house-hold through this medium. I shall feel it a daty to continue to publish the paper as long as I re ceive means from any quarter; though my family are in need of the means I have used, above what has been received for the last three numbers. I feel no disposition to drive forward what the Lord does not lead, but shall endeavor cheerfully to await His will.

Remember Lot's wife !:

THE MEETINGS.

Onr meetings are well attended, and the breth-ren are full of hope. I have seen no disposition manifested to go back, since the passing of the 14th, though certain who have heretofore spoken "evil of this way," have come in occasionally, seeming to expect that we should all give up. Though we have not yet found another definite day, on which we can fix our faith 'without a doubt' that the Lord will come on that day, yet there are some few that appear exceeding restless for fear-we shall find another time. We are "watch-ing," depending upon the promise, "I will keep thee in the hour of temptation." &c.

Letter from Dr. Field.

Jeffersonville, Ind., April, 24, 1845. BRO. JACOBS

Let me give you what I conceive to be the true exposition of the parable of the ten virgins, as presume you will now have to abandon your posi-tion is relation to it. Time, my dear brother, is a great reformer. To its stern and indisputable arguments we must yield. All our fond hopes and joyful anticipations must wait on its slow but certain developments. Our interpretations of scripture on the momentous subject of the second Advent and the world's destiny, if incorrect, will be rectified by the silent revolutions of its wheels. Let us, then, in obedience to the apostolic injunc-tion, be patient and establish our hearts, knowing that the coming of the Lord draweth nigh. I do believe that he is nigh-very nigh. In that faith I expect to abide, watching and praying daily and hourly for his approach. Eut to the para-given. 2. This going forth is to take place at the time the evil servant is denying the Lord's coming and is eating and drinking with the drunken.

3. From all the circumstances, it appears to me that this going forth is to be at a time when the subject is being discussed between the faithful subject is being discussed between the faithful and evil servants. Some are preaching that the Lord is coming, others denying it. 4. When the virgins go forth they do not meet the Bridegroom at the time they expected. They are premature in their calculations of time. 5. Being discussion of time.

Being disappointed in not meeting him at the time they expected, and not knowing precisely at what hour he will come they all (without excep-what hour he will come they all (without excep-tion) slumber and sleep. 6. The tarrying time is between this going forth and the giving of the Midnight Cry, and during this tarrying time all sleep on the time. 7. At midnight, while these virgins are all asleep the cry is made, Behold the Bridegroom cometh, go ye out to meet him. 8. The Cry is not given by one of the virgins, for they are all asleep and are all aroused by it and commence trimming their latops.

9. After this Cry is made there is no time for preparation. Those who are ready before, go in with the Bridegroom to the marriage and the door is shut.

Now how far has this parable been fulfilled? It seems to me that the tarrying time is the part now in the course of fulfillment. The proclama. tion of the great truth of the age, the return of the Nobleman about this time, commenced several years ago at a time when all Christendom was dreaming of the moral and political regeneration of the world by human agency. The announce-ment of this unwelcome truth created violent and unexpected opposition from the world and the church. The evil servants taught the people that the Lord would not come at least in the life-time of this generation, and they craelly smote those who were teaching the people that he was about to make his second Advent. In the midst of this discussion, opposition and smiting, there was an actual going forth, a giving up of the world in view of his coming at a definite point of time. This going forth reached its ultimatum the 22d of last October. There the disappointment occurred. Since that time the Bridegroom has tarried, and will tarry until the Midnight Cry is given. This Cry, it strikes me, will be given simultane-ously with the appearing of the Sign of the Son of Man in heaven, and will be made by the angels sent out to gather together his elect. See Matt. 24 : 31. From the time the Sign appears the time of trouble begins, because the door of mercy is shut. It is in this time of trouble that the Lord's people are to be delivered. They will be aroused by the angels sent to collect them to their Lord in the sir. The next thing there, in the aroused by the angels sent to collect them to their Lord in the air. The next thing then, in the order of this parable is this last and final Gry at-tended with the visible sign of the Son of Man, the time of trouble and mourning, the shutting to the door of mercy, and the deliverance of the saints. The signs of his coming were to be celestial, terrestral, political, and moral. The moral sign pertaining to the state of the chorch—Luke-The moral warmness, reoffling, worldly-mindedness, infide-ity, &c. It seems to me that we are now in them. They are the last in the series and if we are in them the end is unquestionably near. Yours, patiently waiting for the Bridegroom,

N. FIELD.

REMARKS.

"Time" may be "a great feformer," and so far as the personal appearing of Christ in his glory on the earth is concerned, it will eventually reform all erroneous views relative to that point : But, there is a succession of events, to precede the Advent, some of which have transpired, as is admitted; and whether we have, or have not, a true exposition of the scriptures that predict them, can never be settled or reformed by the passing of time in its course. A faithful examination and comparison of the word of God, while we are found doing "His will" can alone settle the truthfulness of these expositions. Such, to my mind, are the events brought to view in this parable. will endeavor, in all Christian kindness, to notice what to my mind, appears proneous in the above view,-beginning with the propositions.

1. To this there can be no objection only to the phraseology "going forth of the virgins," which should be exchanged for "the kingdom of heaven shall be LIKENED unto" it.

2. If it is to take place at any time brought to view in ch. 24: if must be a time connected with something there named that will harmonize with this part of the parable; and the "smiting" by the "evil servant" will apply to a time after, as well as before the Cry is made.

6. That "all sleep on the time," is rather more than is said in the parable. Were it true, there would be no body to "slumber"; and yet some of them slumbered.

To SLUMBER, "To sleep lightly or imperfectly. Figuratively, to be in a state of negligence. Actively, to lay to sleep. To stun, to stupify."

SLEEP, "That state wherein the body seems perfectly at rest, and external objects act on the organs of sense, without producing their usual sensations." (See Barclay pp. 562, 563.)

There are two classes of characters in the parable, whose course of conduct differ, and who were separated in their final destinies. This difference is observable "while the Bridegroom tarried" (for they never are said to be alike) in the expression "they all slumbered and slept"; and as one person cannot at the same time "slumber and sleep," a part (the wise) "slumbered" and the rest (the foolish) "slept."

7. While "they all slumbered and slept" would be nearer the true reading.

8. This proposition is the result of a departure from the plain reading of the parable, as brought to view in the 6th proposition. What was the object of the virgins, or those "likened" to them, in going out! Ans. "To meet the Bridegroom." If one or more of the Bridegroom's party made the

52

Cry, the parable would not be "like" itself; for itwould not agree with the qustom. In such case, the expression in the parable would be unnafural and should more properly read, "Behöld the Bride-groom cometil," come ye out to meet him. It was made their duty to "watch," (ver, 13) and the fact of their "trimming their lamps" when the evidence presented itself that the object of their walchfulness was coming. can form no reasonable objection to their making the Cry at the same time "Behold he cometb" ; especially when we remember that half their company were sound asleep, and the rest so stupified that the evidences of his coming affected them but slightly at first. There is work to be accomplished by such'a cry,-while the company of the Bridegroom meeded no such alarm. Again, it is a difficult matter to prove that God has promised to use any other than human agency in connexion with his Spirit and written word, in the work of fitting his people for the Kingdom, up to the very time when they are to be "changed,"-

9. Very true, but there is time to be called to the marriage supper, (Rev. 19: 9;)-time to wait for the Master to return from the wedding, (Luke, 12: 35-38;)-and the supper is not before the resurrection of the just, (Luke, 14: 14, 15;) and there is time too for the foolish to cry "Lord, Lord open unto us," which none of the wicked will do after they see the "face of him that sitteth upon the Throne," Rev. 6: 14-16, or after the Lord is "revealed from heaven" "in flaming fire," 2 Thess. 1 : 7-10.

Whether we, at present, understand all that is likened to this "marriage" or not, one thing is sure, whatever is brought to view by it, it must take place before the "supper" where there is proof that God's people will be immortal, but none that it will be so at the marriage, further than is inferred from this parable.

True, "the proclamation of the great truth of the age, the return of the Nobleman about this time" began several years since; but if that proclamation is scripturally made, it must carry with it the evidence that he has received the Kingdom before his return ; (see Luke 19; 12, 15). This part of the "truth of the age," has caused p.ore. smiting than the pevious part of it-smiting among "fellow-servants."

There was but fittle comparative "giving up of the world" until the actual fulfilment of the predicted Cry. "Behold the Bridegroom cometh" in the seventh month.

I do not know that there can be any objection to the idea of the Sign of the Son of man; and the Midnight Cry being simultaneous; but inasmuch as we have had the Cry-a literal fulfillment, and are not authorized to look for a second fulfillment; I am also satisfied that we have had the "Sign of the Son of Man." A sign is a representation, au evidence ; And this sign must be a representation of the Son of Man. We have seen the proclemation of the Lord's coming, and those engaged in it, treated nearer like Christ and his doctrines, at the time of his first Advent, than any thing that has transpired between that and the present time.

It seems to me if Bro. Field will turn this matter over again, he cannot fail to see that every thing named to precede the appearing of Christ has been strikingly fulfilled.

I cannot therefore see, that either consistency or scriptpre requires that I should "abandon" my former views upon this parable. What I have the same source. But if the seventh month ery ful full. The predictions in scripture can fiad but was the true midnight cry, your morning should one event in history to fulfill them. If two events have been here; and will not that bring immortal. ity to the saints? We had fundly hoped, and firmly believed that it would be so, but in re-examining the chart for evidence of our whereabouts, that we might "confess" and abandon whatever has been wrong in our course, we find it possible that a proclamiton may be required of us in the mortal state, after the "morning watch" is ended, and the day dawned. [See Ezek. 7: and its parallels.] At any rate I dare not retract with-out a "thus saith the Lord," but choose rather to "stand stiff" till the "pillar of cloud" moves again; for God has never told me that time is the great truth teller-though iten have. His word, is truth; and if brought into stringhts where we have nothing to answer those around us, O let shall achieve for us the victory!

THE DAY-START

The above remarks have been peaned in haste, and are no doubt very imperfect. They are made in'the kindest of feelings toward Bro, Field, whose article I-have published that all the light might be brought forth that could be gained in this important time.

Cincinnali; April 25, 1845, DEAR BRO. JACOBS :

I ask it as a favor that you will suppress this article if there is any thing in it that is calcula-ted to foster error: For we want truth and Train ted to foster error: For we want truth and Fran-only. I throw out these hints merely to efficit, from clearer heads and abler pens than mine, some brighter rays from our Lamp, (the Bible) which will enable us to define what part of the which will enable us to define what part of the Path we are now in. To me, the by dence is clear that we must he in the morning watch? Pharaoh's hosts are rallying against us, and I think we will scon see their chariot wheels drive heavily, when the Lord shall look through the pillar of fire and teloud and trouble them!—Ex. 14: 24. Christ was slain the first, and rose from the deal in the inid-de of the Passover week! The children of Israel passed over the Red Sea in the inidde of the Passover week. See Numbers 38: 'S-8. The 70 weeks of Dan. 9th werd divided into three parts, the last of which was one week, and that one has the last of which was one week, and that one has a close connexion with the Passner week: For, in it Messiah was to confirm the covenant with many, and in the midst of the week to be cut off cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease Now the point I wish to know is this, Are we to look for an antitype to this prophecy, beyond what was fulfilled at Christ's death? If we are, may not the second Advent doctrine be that antitypethe confirming of the covenant for one week! And as the "one week" meant years at the first Advent, may it not mean years also at the second? present spring. I ask these questions for information, for it is. I hope I have Mary's place to sit at Jesus' feet and learn.

O may we all "examine ourselves and see whether we be in the faith"! And pray "earnestly for daily bread, (present light) and week nor to lay up for the fature. If we do it, will in all probability, be useless as was the manna in the wilderness, when they gathered it for the morrow: Present light is all that we can expect, for this let us search and pray and therewith be content. Youts, in the blessed hope,

STTOT."

The error is in looking for a two-fold fulfillment of prophecy. We have not, I thinks, the least authority in the Bible for this. "One jot or tittle shall in no wise pass from the embraced by the authority of a "thus saith the law till all be fulfilled"; And what is it to fulfilla Lord" I can not abandon without authority from thing? The meaning of the term is the came as are similar in many respects, it can be but the one, while the other has nothing to do with the prediction. Remember, you can not fill s vessel inice, unless it be once emplied, which in this case is impossible. Threfore the perfect absardity of looking for an antitype of that which was itself an antitype.

The events connected with the termination of the 70 weeks were fulfilled at the end of those weeks, as it was for that purpose they were "cut off," or separated from the 2300 days. When they ended, the record of their fulfilment was made in the New Testament, and therefore no part of their fulfillment can lie at the end of the longer period.

Mary's counsel is excellent and kindly adminus be content to wait on Him till his mighty arm istared, which leads me to belive she will receive counsel in the same spirit. That is, to read the Bible with a little more care and then she will discover that the proof is wanting that Messiah was "cut off" in "the midst of the week". He then "caused the sacrifice and oblation to cease" which might be done in some of the events connected with the one week, other than his death,

> The days in Dan, were fulfilled in years; and, were the principle of a two-fold fulfillment established, upon the same ground we should be compelled to look for the years to be fulfilled in prophetic time, which would stretch the one week out to 2520 years.

> While on this point it may be proper to remark that some have supposed the 70 weeks terminated at the death of Christ, and setting down that event in A. D. 33, or 34, as generally acknowledged, from the evidence gathered from the expression "midst of the week" have considered themselves authorized to carry the 70 weeks 31 years forward from A, D. 33, in the room of carrying the crucifixion back 34 years from: A. D. 33, or 34.

> Examine closely Dan. 9: 25; Ezra 10: 17; Mark 1: 14, 15, with flied dates in the margin. These dates, after volumes have been written upoh the chronology of the 70 weeks, temain unalters. ble; suid they prove the termination of the 69 weeks in A. D. 27, which would carry the 70 weeks to A. D. 34, without regard to the particular time in which Christ was crucified. This leaves us where we have been, with no evidence of this prophetic period reaching beyond the

> I hope I have not been so severe upon "Mary" as to prevent a free communication of her thoughts hereafter, should time continue.

MAKY. REMARES. "MARY's" letter is published, not because it is of sinners, nor stutch in the seat of the score-thought to be free from error, but for the purpose of ful."

Letters and Receipts, For the week ending, May 3d.

John Coppage, .50; Lewis Gordon, $1.50; Eqoch Noyes, .50; Şamuel Parker 1.00; N. Field; "Mary."