

The book cover features a wide, ornate border in gold. The border is composed of repeating decorative motifs, including various musical instruments such as harps, lyres, and stringed instruments, as well as other symbols like a crown and a cross. The background of the cover is a dark, textured brown. In the center, the title "KINGDOM HYMNS" is printed in a large, gold, Gothic-style font. The text is arranged in two lines, with "KINGDOM" on the top line and "HYMNS" on the bottom line. The letters are highly stylized, with intricate flourishes and a slightly shadowed appearance, giving them a three-dimensional look. The entire title is enclosed within a thin, gold rectangular frame.

Preface

The hymns in this book are called "Kingdom Hymns" because they relate to the kingdom of God. All who love the Lord Jesus and his appearing delight to sing hymns to his praise. He is here. The command to the Christian is that this good news shall be told to the people.

The children are a rising generation, many of whom will be among those who will never die. Surely they should be taught to sing the praises of the King of glory, who comes to bless all the families of the earth who will receive his blessing. In the children's Bible classes these hymns will be found helpful and beneficial. Song soothes the mind and makes glad the heart. The song of praise now beginning to rise in the earth will continue until finally every creature that breathes will be singing the praises of the King of kings and Lord of lords.

The selection of these hymns was made chiefly by Brother William F. Jones of Vancouver, B. C. The writers are divers. The SOCIETY publishes them to encourage the young in the study of the Divine Plan and in their praise to the great King, Christ Jesus, and to the Almighty, Jehovah God. They are sent forth with the prayer that they may be a blessing to many.

Foreword

For many centuries parents have taught their children that God has provided a great lake of fire in which He will torment sinners forever. Necessarily such thoughts frightened the children, who have often heard the name of God with dread, fear and trembling.

In the Sunday Schools God's name has been largely ignored except to tell the children what a terrible place He has for the punishment of the wicked. The name of Jesus has been magnified, however, and the little ones have been told about His goodness and that He might save them. As proof of what has been the effect of the teaching of error upon the child mind, the following instance is related. A little child after some moments of silent meditation addressed its parent thus, "Mother, I know what I am going to do as soon as I get to heaven; I am going to run and hide behind Jesus so God can't get me."

Living now in the light of present truth those parents who know God's plan owe it to their children and to their neighbor's children to teach them the truth concerning God and His beloved Son Jesus Christ. There are millions of children now on earth who will live forever and not die, but they must know the truth. Jesus said, "This is life eternal, that they might know thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent."

Up to now there never has been such an opportunity to teach the children that God is the great author of everything that is good; that in Him are equally balanced wisdom, justice, love and power and that everything He does for man is for his good; that it was God who gave His beloved Son Jesus, to die as a sacrifice that man might have an opportunity for life. Teach the children the truth concerning Jehovah and they will love Him and serve Him. They will magnify His name and magnify the name of Jesus the great Redeemer. Then the children will want to sing the praises of God and the Lord Jesus.

In view of the fact that we are now living in the time of the Lord's second presence, when He as the great king and executor of Jehovah's plan is setting up His kingdom, it is the blessed privilege of the older ones to teach the children to sing the praises of Jehovah and the praises of His beloved Son. In the language of the Psalmist,

“Sing praises to God,
Sing praises,
Sing praises unto our King,
Sing praises.” —Psalm 47:6.

Believing that there is a great need for a song book for the children which will enable them to sing the praises of the Lord in harmony with His plan, we are publishing and sending forth the following collection of hymns. Much credit is due to Brother Wm. Jones of Vancouver, B. C., for this arrangement of poems and hymns. Having confidence in his ability as a musician and knowing him to be thoroughly devoted to the Lord, we have relied much on his judgment in the selection of the ones here published. Some assistance was also rendered by a fully consecrated Sister in Christ.

We hope the little ones will find much joy in singing these hymns to the praise of our Lord and of Jehovah, and that their parents will be made glad and join with the children in these songs of praise.

With the hope that these songs may gladden the hearts of many children and bring honor and praise to the Great Creator, from whom cometh every good and perfect gift, and also be to the praise of His beloved Son, we send them forth.

2. Dear Book! in thee my eyes dis - cern The im - age of my pres - ent Lord;
3. His prom - is - es in thee sup - ply The knowledge of his love and grace.

It points me to the Lamb of God, And brings my dear Re - deem - er nigh.
 From thy in - struc - tive page I learn The joys his king - dom will af - ford.
 I'll read with faith's dis - cern - ing eye The blessings of his love to trace.

1. I love to hear the sto - ry Which an - gel voic - es tell,
 2. I'm glad my bless - ed Sav - iour Was once a child like me,
 3. To sing his love and mer - cy My sweet - est song I'll raise;

How once the King of Glo - ry Came down on earth to dwell.
 To show how pure and ho - ly His lit - tle ones might be;
 And tho' I can - not see him, I know he hears my praise;

I am both weak and sin - ful; But this I sure - ly know,
 And if I try to fol - low His foot - steps here be - low,
 For he has kind - ly prom - ised That I shall sure - ly know

The Lord came down to save me Be - cause he loved me so.
 He nev - er will for - get me Be - cause he loves me so.

I Would be Like My Saviour

AVALON. 7.6.D

Copyright, 1905, by Jessie G. Herr

1. I would be like my Sav - iour, Who when he was a child
 2. I would be like my Sav - iour, Who when he was a man
 3. I would be like my Sav - iour, Who when the time was due

Was ev - er kind and pa - tient, So gen - tle and so mild.
 De - light - ed to ac - comp - lish His Fath - er's gra - cious plan.
 That he should die for sin - ners, He was so brave and true.

He loved the Ho - ly Scrip - tures, And stud - ied them with skill,
 He toiled and preached and suf - fered To do the peo - ple good,
 Like him I would be faith - ful, That I may al - ways be

For those, he knew, would teach him To do his Fath - er's will.
 Though ev - en by his breth - ren He was mis - un - der - stood.
 A fol - low - er of Je - sus, Be - cause he died for me.

It Came Upon the Midnight Clear

CAROL. C.M.D.

R. S. WILLIS

1. It came up - on the mid-night clear, That glo-ri-ous song of old,
 2. Still through the clov-en skies they come With peaceful wings un - furled;
 3. Yet with the woes of sin and strife The world has suf-fered long;
 4. For, lo! the days are hastening on, By proph-et - bards fore-told,

From an - gels bend-ing near the earth To touch their harps of gold:
 And still their heavenly mu - sic floats O'er all the wea - ry world;
 Be - neath the an - gel strain have rolled Two thou - sand years of wrong;
 When with the ev - er - cir - c - ling years Comes round the age of gold,

Peace on the earth, goodwill to men, From heaven's all-gra - cious King!
 A - bove its sad and low - ly plains They bend on hovering wing,
 And man, at war with man, hears not The love song which they bring;
 When peace shall o - ver all the earth Its an - cient splendors fling,

The world in sol - emn still - ness lay To hear the an - gels sing.
 And ev - er o'er its Ba - bel sounds The bless - ed an - gels sing.
 Oh, hush the noise, ye men of strife, And hear the an - gels sing!
 And the whole world give back the song Which now the an - gels sing.

Adapted from SULLIVAN

 3. A - shamed of Je - sus, just as soon Let mid - night be a - shamed of noon.
 4. For he shall reign from sea to sea, And ev - 'ry crea - ture bow the knee.

A - shamed of thee whom an - gels praise, Whose glo - ry shines through endless days.
 He sheds his beams of light di - vine, O'er this en - lightened soul of mine.
 'Twas mid - night in my soul till he, Bright morning star, bid darkness flee.
 His praise shall sound from shore to shore, And sor - row cease for ev - er - more.

 The child - ren in the tem - ple, He heard in days of old;
 He hears the lark that sing - eth Up in the heaven so high;
 No cause to shrink or fear him, We'll make our voic - es ring;

He says (though we are sim - ple, Though ig - no - rant we be):
 And if our hearts be lum - ble, He says of you and me:
 Yet sees the heart's low breath - ing, And says (well pleased to see):
 For in his tem - ple speak - ing, He says of you and me:

"Suf - fer the lit - tle child - ren, And let them come to me."
 "Suf - fer the lit - tle child - ren, And let them come to me."
 "Suf - fer the lit - tle child - ren, And let them come to me."
